"II. And also all that portion of the said new parish of Saint Matthew, Fulham which is bounded upon the north-east upon the north-west and upon the west by the said new parish of Saint James, Moore Park, Fulham and upon the remaining sides that is to say upon the south-west and upon the south-east by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint James, Moore Park, Fulham from the said new parish of Saint Matthew Fulham at a point in the middle of Wandsworth Bridge-road near its junction with Hazlebury-road and opposite to the middle of Post Office-passage and extending thence north-eastward to and along the middle of Post Office-passage for a distance of two chains and a half or thereabouts to the point where it meets Broughton-road and extending thence first north-eastward to and then south-eastward along the middle of Broughton-road for a distance of eighteen chains and a quarter or thereabouts to its junction with Stephendale-road and extending thence first north-eastward and then north-westward along the middle of Stephendale-road for a distance of twelve chains and three-quarters or thereabouts to its junction with Elswick-street and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of Elswick-street for a distance of five chains and a half or thereabouts to its junction with Bagley's-lane and extending thence north-eastward in the same direction and in a straight line for a distance of five chains or thereabouts to a point in the middle of Imperial-road upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Matthew Fulham from the said new parish of Saint James Moore Park, Fulham."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council: now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 10th day of August, 1903.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Burial Act, 1855, it was, amongst other things, enacted that it should be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, should or should not have arrived), as to His Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, might seem fit:

And whereas Orders in Council have been made directing the discontinuance of burials in the churchyards hereinafter mentioned from the time specified in such Orders; and whereas it seems fit to His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that the time for discontinuing burials in the said churchyards be further postponed:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the time for the discontinuance of burials in the Parish Churchyards of Saint Michael and Christchurch, Stone, in the county of Stafford, be further postponed until the thirtieth day of September, one thousand nine hundred and three.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 10th day of August, 1903.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Local Government Board, after giving to the Incumbent and the Churchwardens of the parish of Saint Luke, Brislington, in the county of Somerset, of the parish of Hatley Saint George, in the county of Cambridge, and the parish of Saint Margaret, Ockley, in the county of Surrey, ten days' previous notice of their intention to make such representations, have, under the provisions of the Burial Act, 1853, made representations stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial grounds should be opened in the civil parishes of Brislington (Rural), Hatley Saint George, and Ockley, without the previous approval of the Local Government Board, and that burials should be discontinued therein, as follows, viz. :—

BRISLINGTON.—Forthwith and entirely in the Parish Church of Saint Luke, Brislington, in the county of Somerset; and in the churchyard, except as follows:—

(a.) In any vault or walled grave now existing in the said churchyard burial may be allowed subject to the condition that every coffin buried in such vault or grave be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented:

(b.) In any earthen grave now existing in the said churchyard the burial may be allowed, at or below the depth of five feet from the surface of the ground, of the body of any member of the family of the person or persons heretofore buried in such grave:

(c.) In the said churchyard, in any grave space in which no interment has heretofore taken place, the burial may be allowed, at or below the depth of five feet from the surface of the ground, of the body of any person for whom or of any member of a family for which such grave space has been reserved and appropriated as a burial place, with the exclusive right of burial therein.

HATLEY SAINT GEORGE.—Forthwith and entirely in the southern part of the Parish Churchyard of Saint George, Hatley, in the county of Cambridge, such part containing an area of thirty-three square poles or thereabouts.

OCKLEY.—Forthwith and entirely in the Parish Church of Saint Margaret, Ockley, in the county of Surrey, and in so much of the churchyard as is not reserved for the
