"And we further recommend and propose that the whole right of patronage of the said district so recommended to be constituted and when such district shall have become a new parish as aforesaid then of the said new parish and the nomination of the minister or Incumbent thereof shall without any assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid be assigned to and be absolutely vested in and shall and may be exercised by the said Francis Augustus Bevan, John Francis William Deacon, Henry Martyn Mowll, William Hugh Falloon, and William Hagger Barlow their heirs and assigns for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or any of them or any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"The District of Saint Martin Dover being:—

"All that part of the new parish (sometime particular district) of Christ Church Hougham-in-Dover in the county of Kent and in the diocese of Canterbury which is bounded upon the north partly by the new parish of Saint Bartholomew Charlton-by-Dover and partly by the parish of Poulton upon the west by the parish of Hougham all in the said county and diocese and upon the remaining sides that is to say upon the south-east and upon the north-east by an imaginary line commencing at the point where the boundaries of the said parish of Hougham the new parish of Trinity Dover in the said county and diocese and the said new parish of Christ Church Hougham-in-Dover all meet which point is upon the boundary of that portion of the property of the War Department which is known as 'The Citadel' and extending thence north-eastward along the boundary of the said property for a distance of fifty chains or thereabouts to a point opposite to the middle of Belgrave-road and extending thence north-westward to and along the middle of Belgrave-road for a distance of five chains or thereabouts to a point opposite to the north-eastern end of the wall or fence forming the south-eastern boundary of the premises of the Belgrave Infants' School and extending thence south-westward to and along the said wall or fence for a distance of two hundred and thirteen feet or thereabouts to the south-eastern end of the wall or fence forming the south-western boundary of the last-mentioned premises and extending thence north-westward along the last-mentioned wall or fence for a distance of forty-six feet or thereabouts to the south-western end of the wall or fence forming the north-western boundary of the same premises and extending thence north-eastward along the last-mentioned wall or fence for a distance of one hundred and ninety-seven feet or thereabouts to its north-eastern end upon the south-western side of Belgrave-road and extending thence first north-eastward to and then north-westward along the middle of Belgrave-road for a distance of eight chains or thereabouts to its junction with Folkestone-road and extending thence south-westward along the middle of Folkestone-road for a distance of two chains or thereabouts to a point opposite to the south-eastern end of the north-eastern side of the road called or known as Glen Grove and extending thence north-westward along the said north-eastern side of the last-named road for a distance of three chains or thereabouts to its present north-western end and continuing thence north-westward in precisely the same direction and in a straight line for a distance of eleven chains or thereabouts to the boundary which divides the said new parish of Christ Church Hougham-in-Dover from the said new parish of Saint Bartholomew Charlton-by-Dover."

And whereas drafts of the said scheme have, in accordance with the provisions of the secondly hereinbefore mentioned Act, been transmitted to the patrons and to the Incumbent of the new parish out of which it is intended that the district recommended in such scheme to be constituted shall be taken. And whereas a period of one calendar month has elapsed since the said drafts were transmitted to the said patrons and Incumbent and such patrons and Incumbent have made no objections to such scheme.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council: now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Canterbury.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 11th day of August, 1903.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.
