

except on such seats outside the car, or in any compartment of the car specially set apart for persons smoking or desirous of so doing.

Payment of Fares.

8. Each passenger shall before leaving the car, or immediately upon demand by the conductor, if such demand shall be first made, pay to the conductor the fare legally payable for his or her journey and obtain a ticket therefor. Any person leaving a car shall be deemed to have completed his or her journey.

No child under five years of age who is sitting on the lap of a passenger shall be liable to pay a fare, provided that this provision shall apply only to one such child accompanying any one passenger; the full ordinary fare shall be paid for any additional child, irrespective of age, accompanying such passenger.

Tickets.

9. Each passenger shall, immediately upon demand, produce and hand his or her ticket to any officer or servant of the Corporation, and shall also, when required so to do, either deliver up his or her ticket or pay the fare for the distance travelled over by such passenger.

Tickets shall not be transferable and shall be available only by the car on which they are issued.

Interference with or Obstruction to Conductor, Driver, or other Servant.

10. No person other than the conductor or driver shall change or remove the route indicators or destination boards, or interfere with the controllers, breaks, lights, ventilators, trolley cord, or any part of a car, or its equipment or any switch or point connected with the tramway track, or any frog-rope or other appliance or attachment to the equipment of the tramways, or signal a car to start.

No passenger or other person shall wilfully obstruct or impede any officer or servant of the Corporation in the execution of his duty upon or in any car or tramway of the Corporation.

Luggage.

11. The conductor may decline to take in or upon a car, any luggage which, from its size or otherwise, is not, in his opinion, suitable for conveyance in or upon such car. Any personal luggage carried by passengers shall be at the entire risk of the owner, and shall be placed in such part of the car as the conductor may direct. No package or luggage of any description, unaccompanied by a passenger, shall be conveyed upon any car, except under any regulations or restrictions which the Corporation may adopt.

Entering full Cars.

12. When any car, or the inside or outside of a car, or any compartment of a car contains the full number of passengers which it is licensed to carry, no additional person shall enter, board, or remain in or upon any such car or portion of such car. The conductor shall not permit any person beyond the licensed number of passengers to enter, board, or remain in or upon any part of a car. All such persons shall leave the car immediately upon the request of the conductor.

Disabled Cars.

13. If at any time a car becomes disabled, or in any way injured, or from any cause unable to proceed, the passengers shall, upon the request of the conductor, leave the same, and if such passengers have paid their fares, shall not be entitled to demand back the amount of their fares so paid. No person shall, except with the leave of the conductor, enter a disabled or injured car.

The Corporation shall not be bound to complete any journey in any specific time.

Cars proceeding to Sheds.

14. No person shall travel upon a car which is proceeding to a shed or is not on its usual route unless permitted so to do by the conductor, and where such person is so permitted, he shall pay the usual fare payable on such route.

Travelling on Steps, &c.

15. No person, not being an officer or servant of the Corporation, shall travel or ride on the steps, platforms, outside rails, buffers, or guards of any car, and no person, not being an officer or servant of the Corporation, shall stand either on the platforms or on the outside or in the interior of any car, except in accordance with the regulations of the Corporation exhibited upon such car, and subject to the direction of the conductor.

No person, except a passenger or intending passenger, shall enter or board a car, and no person shall hold on or hang on by or to any part of a car.

Firearms, &c.

16. No person shall travel in or on any car with firearms, glass, or dangerous or offensive articles, instruments, tools, or implements, provided that nothing contained in this Bye-law shall apply to persons in the Naval, Military, Reserve, or Auxiliary Forces, travelling in uniform, carrying unloaded firearms.

Entering and leaving Cars.

17. Every person shall enter or depart from a car by the step of the hindmost or conductor's platform, and not otherwise, unless so directed by the conductor.

All persons desiring to alight from any car shall do so before any person boards the car for the purpose of travelling thereon, and all persons desiring to board the car shall permit such persons to alight as aforesaid.

Entering a Car when in motion.

18. No person shall enter, board, or leave, or attempt to enter, board, or leave any car whilst in motion.

Persons suffering from Disease not to travel on Cars.

19. No person afflicted with any infectious or contagious disease shall board, enter, or travel on any car, or attempt so to do. And no driver or conductor shall suffer or permit any such person so to do.

Power to remove Passengers committing offence.

20. Any person who shall commit, whilst on any car, any legal offence, or any breach of these Bye-laws, shall, in addition to being liable to a penalty, be liable to be immediately removed from the car, and, if such person shall have paid his fare, shall not be entitled to demand back the amount of his fare so paid.

Obstruction.

21. All persons in charge of carts, carriages, or other vehicles, or of animals travelling or being driven on or over, or standing on any part of any road or street in which the tramways are laid, shall, on any car approaching, take or drive them out of the way of the car with all despatch, so as to keep the tramway clear for the use of the car. The person in charge of any vehicle or animal who shall not as soon as possible after the driver of any car has sounded his gong or blown his whistle, drive or take such vehicle or animal off the tramway rails, so as to allow the car to proceed, shall be liable to the penalty hereinbefore provided.

No person or persons shall, by joining in any meeting, crowd, or procession, obstruct any car.
