COUNTY BOROUGH OF BLACKBURN.

Blackburn Corporation Tramways.

BYE-LAWS

Made by the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Blackburn, being the Promoters of the Blackburn Corporation Tramways Undertaking, under and in pursuance of the powers conferred upon them by the Tramways Act, 1870, at a Meeting of the Town Council, held in the Council Chamber at the Town Hall in the said Borough, on the sixth day of August, 1903.

Interpretation.

1. Throughout these Bye-laws the word "Corporation" means the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Blackburn, and such other local authority as may for the time being use the tramways of the Corporation; the word "tramways" means the tramway system for the time being worked by the Corporation, whether situate in the Borough of Blackburn, or in the districts of Oswaldtwistle and Church; the word "car" means any carriage or car run upon the tramways for the conveyance of passengers; the word "conductor" means any officer or servant of the Corporation having the charge of or helping in the charge of a car; and the word "driver" means any officer or servant of the Corporation driving or helping to drive a car.

Extent of Bye-laws.

2. The Bye-laws hereinafter set forth shall extend and apply to every car using the tramways.

Entering or leaving Cars.

3. Every person shall enter or depart from a car by the step of the hindermost or conductor's platform, and not otherwise, unless so directed by the conductor.

Terminus.

4. No person shall enter or mount or attempt to enter or mount any car arriving or standing at a terminus, stopping place, or other place, until such passengers as may be upon the car and as desire to alight shall have alighted.

Entering or leaving Car in motion.

5. No person shall enter, board, mount, or leave, or attempt to enter, board, mount, or leave, any car whilst in motion.

Smoking.

6. No person shall smoke or carry a lighted pipe, cigar, or cigarette inside any car.

Musical Instruments.

7. No passenger or other person shall, while travelling in or upon any car, play or perform upon any musical instrument, or distribute advertisements or tracts of any kind, or beg or collect money, alms or subscriptions, or sell any article, or play any game or gamble, or deposit remnants of food or fruit in or upon any car.

Obscene or Offensive Language, &c.

8. No person shall swear or use obscene or offensive language, or conduct himself offensively whilst in or upon any car, or spit, or commit any nuisance in or upon or against any car or tramway station, or premises used in connection with the tramway system, or in any way wilfully interfere with the comfort of any passenger.

Intoxicated Persons.

9. No person who is in a state of intoxication, or affected with any dangerous, contagious, or infectious disorder, shall enter or mount upon any car, and if any such person is found in or upon any car it shall be lawful for the conductor, or any other officer or servant of the Corporation, to immediately remove such person from the car, and if such person shall have paid his fare, he shall not be entitled to demand back the amount of his fare so paid.

Damage to Car.

10. No person shall wilfully cut, tear, soil, or damage the seats, cushions, curtains, or linings, or remove or deface any number plate, printed or other notice, in or on any car, or break or scratch any window of or otherwise wilfully damage any car. Any person acting in contravention of this Bye-law shall, in addition to the penalty prescribed by these Bye-laws, be liable for the amount of any damage so done.

Objectionable Persons.

11. No person whose dress or clothing might, in the opinion of the conductor of a car, soil or injure the seats, linings, or cushions of a car, or the dress or clothing of any passenger, and no person who, in the opinion of the conductor, might for any other reason be offensive to any passenger, shall be entitled to enter or remain in or upon any car, and may be prevented from entering any car, and shall not enter or mount any car after having been requested not to do so by the conductor, and if any such person be found in or upon any car, he shall, on request of the conductor, leave such car, upon the fare, if previously paid, being returned.

Payment of Fares.

12. Each passenger shall, upon demand, pay to the conductor or other duly authorized officer of the Corporation, the fare legally demandable for the journey, and obtain a ticket therefor. No child under three years of age who is sitting on the lap of a passenger shall be liable to pay a fare, provided that this provision shall apply only to one such child accompanying any one passenger, and any additional child, irrespective of age, accompanying such passenger shall pay the full ordinary fare.

Tickets.

13. Each passenger shall, immediately upon demand, show his ticket to the conductor or any duly authorized officer of the Corporation, and shall also, when required so to do by the conductor or any duly authorized officer of the Corporation, either deliver up his ticket or pay the fare legally demandable for the distance travelled over by such passenger. Tickets shall not be transferable, and any person leaving a car shall be deemed to have completed his journey.

Artisans.

14. No person not being an artisan, mechanic, or daily labourer within the true intent and meaning of the Acts of Parliament relating to the tramways, shall use or attempt to use any ticket intended only for an artisan, mechanic, or daily labourer, or travel or attempt to travel on the tramways as an artisan, mechanic, or daily labourer.

Luggage.

15. Personal or other luggage (including the tools of artisans, mechanics, and daily labourers) shall, unless otherwise permitted by the conductor, be placed on the front or driver's platform, and not inside or on the roof of any car.

Travelling on Steps, &c.

16. No person, not being an officer or servant of the Corporation acting in the performance of his duty, shall travel or ride on the steps, platforms, outside rails, buffers, or guards of any car, or shall stand in any case on the outside or, except by the express permission of the conductor first obtained, in the interior of any car.

No person, except a passenger or intending passenger, shall board a car, and no person shall hold or hang on to any part of a car.

Full number of Passengers.

17. When any car contains in the interior thereof the full number of passengers for which seating accommodation according to the notice thereof attached to the car is provided in such interior, no person beyond such number shall enter, mount, or remain therein, except by the express permission of the conductor first obtained.

When any car contains on the outside thereof the full number of passengers for which seating accommodation, according to the notice thereof attached to the car, is provided on such outside, no person beyond such number shall enter, mount, or remain thereon.

Dogs.

18. No person shall bring any dog or other animal in or on any car.

Firearms, &c.

19. No person shall enter, mount, or travel in or on any car with loaded firearms, or with any article, instrument, or implement which may in the opinion of the conductor be dangerous or offensive to any passenger.

Obstruction.

20. No person shall wilfully obstruct or impede any conductor, driver, or other officer or servant of the Corporation acting in the performance of his duty upon or in connection with any car or tramway.

Interference with Driver or Conductor.

21. No person other than the conductor or driver, or other servant of the Corporation acting in the performance of his duty, shall change or remove the route indicators or destination boards, or interfere with the controllers, brakes, lights, ventilators, trolley cord, or any part of the car, or its equipment, or signal a car to start.

Disabled Cars.

22. If at any time a car becomes disabled, or in any way injured, or from any cause unable to proceed, the passengers shall, upon the request of the conductor, leave the same, and if such passengers have paid their fares, shall not be entitled to demand back the amount of their fares so paid. No person shall, except with the leave of the conductor, enter a disabled or injured car.

Cars proceeding to Sheds.

23. No person shall travel upon a car which is proceeding to a shed and is not on its usual route, unless permitted so to do by the conductor, and where such person is so permitted, he shall pay the usual fare payable on such route.

Bye-laws to be placed in Cars.

24. There shall be placed and kept placed in a conspicuous position inside of each carriage in use a printed copy of the Bye-laws.

Penalty.

25. Any person offending against or committing a breach of any of these Bye-laws shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding forty shillings.

Repeal of existing Bye-laws.

26. From and after the date of these Bye-laws coming into force the Bye-laws and Regulations made by the Blackburn and Over Darwen Tramways Company Limited, and the Blackburn Corporation respectively, which came into force on the 1st day of February, 1882, and the 2nd day of September, 1889, respectively, shall be repealed.

27. These Bye-laws shall come into force on the sixth day of November, 1903.

Given under the Common Seal of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Blackburn, this sixth day of August, 1903, in the presence of:

W. TATTERSALL, Mayor.

ROBERT E. FOX, Town Clerk.

In the Matter of the estate of Joseph Shaw, deceased. Between EMMELINE MARY OUSEY MARSDEN (Spinster) and the LANCASHIRE and YORKSHIRE REVERSIONARY INTEREST COMPANY Limited, Plaintiffs, and RICHARD BRADLEY and CHARLES EDWARD REDFERN, Defendants.

To Charles Edward Redfern, formerly of Ashton-under-Lyne, in the county of Lancaster, and now believed to be residing at Durban or East London, in South Africa.

TAKE notice, that on the 9th day of September, 1902, a Writ of Summons was issued in the action of Marsden v. Bradley, 1902, Letter M. No. 228, which claimed (1) An order that the defendants do make good the sum of £891 10s. 11d. set apart and retained by them to answer the 1/6th share of the residue of the real and personal estate of the above named Joseph Shaw, or of the proceeds of the sale and conversion thereof by the will dated the 29th January, 1881, and proved the 19th May, 1881, of the above named Joseph Shaw, given upon trust in favour of the plaintiff, Emmeline Mary Ousey Marsden, for life with limitations over; (2) Payment into Court by the defendants of the said sum; (3) Execution of the trusts of the said will so far as they relate to the said 1/6th share; (4) If and so far as may be necessary an account of all moneys received by the defendants or either of them or any person or persons by their or either of their order or for their or either of their use, and of the application of and disposition of the moneys so received; (5) An order that the defendants do make good any loss which may be found upon taking the said account; (6) A Receiver, and (7) An order that the defendants do pay the costs of this action. And take notice that, by an Order dated the 24th day of August, 1903, it was ordered that the concurrent Writ of Summons issued in this action on the 14th day of August, 1903, be, on or before the 8th day of September, 1903, renewed against the defendant, Charles Edward Redfern, for six months from the date of such renewal. And it was ordered that the publication by advertisement in this form of the said concurrent Writ of Summons and of the said Order once each in the London Gazette and in the East London Despatch and the Natal Mercury newspapers should be deemed good service of the said concurrent Writ of Summons upon you. And take notice that, in default of your causing an appearance to be entered for you at the Chancery Office, No. 4, Clarence-street, in the city of Manchester, England, within eighty days after the last of such advertisements the plaintiffs may proceed in the said action and judgment may be given in your absence.
