By the KING.

A PROCLAMATION.

EDWARD, R. & I.

Whereas Our Parliament stands prorogued to Friday, the eleventh day of December, one thousand nine hundred and three; We, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, hereby issue Our Royal Proclamation, and publish and declare that the said Parliament be further prorogued to Tuesday, the second day of February, one thousand nine hundred and four; and We do hereby further, with the advice aforesaid, declare Our Royal Will and Pleasure that the said Parliament shall, on the said Tuesday, the second day of February, one thousand nine hundred and four, assemble and be holden for the despatch of divers urgent and important affairs; and the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burgesses, and the Commissioners for shires and burghs, of the House of Commons, are hereby required and commanded to give their attendance accordingly at Westminster, on the said Tuesday, the second day of February, one thousand nine hundred and four.

Given at Our Court at Buckingham Palace, this eighth day of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and three, and in the third year of Our reign.

GOD save the KING.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 8th day of December, 1903.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the fifth day of November, in the year one thousand nine hundred and three, in the words following, that is to say:—

“We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint John the Baptist situate at Tilbury Docks, in the parish of Saint Mary, Chadwell, in the county of Essex, and in the diocese of Saint Albans.

“Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint John the Baptist, situate at Tilbury Docks as aforesaid.

“Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Edgar Bishop of the said diocese of Saint Albans (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Saint Mary Chadwell which is described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint John the Baptist, situate at Tilbury Docks as aforesaid, and that the same should be named ‘The District Chapelry of Saint John the Baptist, Tilbury Docks.’ And with the like consent of the said Edgar Bishop of the said
