

for the instruction of the undergraduate members of the College which is not provided for in the current annual scheme for the appropriation of the Tuition Fund it shall be lawful for the Master and Fellows to lay a resolution specifying the nature and extent of the assistance required before the Financial Committee, and the Financial Committee shall thereupon make provision for such temporary assistance out of the Tuition Fund."

(L. S.)

Privy Council Office, January 29, 1904.

The following Statutes made by the Governing Body of Brasenose College, Oxford, on the 9th day of December, 1903, amending certain of the Statutes of the College, have been submitted for the approval of His Majesty in Council, and notice of their having been so submitted is published in accordance with the provisions contained in "The Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877":—

Alterations in the Statutes of Brasenose College, Oxford, made on December 9, 1903, at a General Meeting specially summoned for the purpose, by a majority of not less than two-thirds of the number of persons present and voting on the question, pursuant to the provisions of the Oxford and Cambridge Act 1877, Section 54.

Stat. II. 1. Dele 'Actual' in line 9, and after Fellows add 'as hereinafter defined.'

Dele in line 10 'being at least . . . Arts.'

Stat. III. Dele the whole and substitute:—

'STATUTE III.

The Fellows.

Part I. General Provisions.

1. The number of Fellows shall be twelve, exclusive of Supernumerary and Honorary Fellows and of the Fellowship held ex officio by the Camden Professor of Ancient History, but subject to such power of increasing the number as hereinafter contained.

2. Save as hereinafter otherwise provided no person shall be eligible to a Fellowship who shall not have passed all the examinations required for the degree of Bachelor in some Faculty in the University.

3. The precedence of Fellows (including Probationary Fellows) in the College shall be determined according to the priority of their original election to the Fellowship which they for the time being hold.

4. Every Fellow (including a Probationary Fellow) who shall be elected to or accept a Headship or Fellowship in any other College within the University, other than a Fellowship without emolument, shall thereupon vacate his Fellowship. Provided that it shall nevertheless be lawful for the Camden Professor of Ancient History to hold such Headship.

5. All Fellows shall be entitled to vote in elections and admissions to Fellowships.

6. The Principal and Fellows may, if they think fit, set apart and allow a sum of money not exceeding 3s. a day for the Principal and each Fellow (including a Probationary Fellow) and also, if they think fit, for each Tutor or Lecturer, not being a Fellow, for the expenses of his dinner on each day when he shall dine at the Common College Dinner, whether in Hall or in some other public room in the College.

7. Whenever there shall be no duly qualified candidate for a vacant Fellowship whom the electors shall judge to be of sufficient merit for election, the election shall be postponed to some other day, to be fixed by the Principal and

Fellows for the purpose, and every such postponed election shall be held and conducted in the same manner and after the same previous notice as if there had been no postponement.

8. The Principal and Fellows shall not be bound to fill up more than one vacant Fellowship in any year, unless they shall think fit to do so: and they shall have power to postpone the election to any vacant Fellowships, exceeding one, in any year, for any period not exceeding a year, and so from time to time.

9. If any Fellow shall be guilty of grave immorality or misconduct, or shall contumaciously persist in disobeying any of the Statutes or By-laws of the College in force for the time being, he may be deprived of his Fellowship by the Visitor after due inquiry held upon the petition of a majority of the Principal and Fellows assembled at a meeting specially called with notice of the business to be transacted thereat. The Principal shall, on the receipt of a requisition signed by not less than three Fellows, call such meeting, giving not less than a fortnight's notice thereof.

Part II. Official Fellows.

1. Notice of every intended election to Official Fellowships, and of the number of vacancies to be filled up, shall be given by the Principal in such manner as he shall deem best adapted to secure publicity, thirty days at least before the day of election.

2. The number of Official Fellows shall not exceed nine or be less than eight. They shall be elected by the Principal and Fellows, with or without examination as the Principal and Fellows may think fit; but no one shall be elected without examination, unless at a stated General Meeting, or at a special meeting summoned with notice of the business to be transacted thereat.

3. The election to Official Fellowships shall be in the first instance for a term not exceeding ten years, provided that the person elected be during that period ready and willing to serve the College in such one of the following offices, namely, those of Vice-Principal, Bursar, Tutor, or Lecturer (in this Statute called 'the College offices'), as the Principal and Fellows may from time to time allot to him, and to conform to the Bylaws for the time being in force in respect of such office.

4. An Official Fellow, who shall be actually serving the College in any one of the College offices, shall be capable of re-election at the close of the last year but one of the term for which he was originally elected, by a majority of the Principal and Fellows, exclusive of the person to be re-elected. Such re-election may be for any period not exceeding ten years, and so from time to time, except that an Official Fellow who has held his Fellowship for thirty years shall in no case be capable of re-election for more than five years, and so from time to time. Any Fellow re-elected under this clause shall hold his Fellowship conditionally upon his being ready and willing to serve the College in one of the offices aforesaid.

5. The Principal and Fellows may, in case of serious but temporary illness, or for such other special cause as may in their judgment form a reasonable ground for such indulgence, grant to an Official Fellow such a dispensation from the obligations of the last two clauses as may seem to them consistent with the interests of the College.

6. Any Official Fellow who shall have served the College continuously in that capacity for a period of not less than seven years shall be entitled to claim leave of absence for one or more Terms, but for a period not exceeding in