

their judgment incompatible with the full discharge of his duties to the College, he shall thereupon vacate his Fellowship.

15. An Official Fellow shall vacate his Fellowship on marriage, unless an application by him for leave to retain his Fellowship after marriage shall previously to such marriage have been sanctioned by the Principal and Fellows in accordance with the following conditions:

(a) Such sanction shall be given only by a majority of at least two-thirds of the votes of the Principal and Fellows (exclusive of the applicant) present and voting, the Principal's vote being counted as two votes, such votes being taken by secret ballot either at a stated General Meeting or at a meeting held in full Term, of which at least thirty days' notice shall have been given.

(b) No such sanction shall be given unless at the time there shall be at least four Official Fellows, of whom three shall be unmarried, resident in College, or in some house provided by the Principal and Fellows contiguous to the College buildings, without reckoning the applicant, or unless the applicant shall be ready and willing to reside in the College, or in some house so contiguous to the College as aforesaid.

16. The stipend of an Official Fellow shall be £200 a year. In addition to such stipend, every Official Fellow while holding any of the College offices shall receive out of the general revenues of the College in respect of his services in any of the said offices £100 per annum, together with such share of the tuition fund as may be assigned to him under the provisions hereinafter contained. All payments under this clause shall be made clear of income tax.

17. Every Official Fellow shall be entitled to rooms rent free.

Part III. Non-Official Fellowships.

1. There shall always be three Non-Official Fellowships among the total number of twelve Fellowships, and if at any time there shall be only eight Official Fellows, the Principal and Fellows may at their option elect to the vacancy pro hac vice either an Official or a Non-Official Fellow.

2. Non-Official Fellowships shall be either Professorial or Research Fellowships, and may be of either class or all of one class. Provided that the Principal and Fellows may on any vacancy in a Research Fellowship elect thereto a Professorial Fellow, and on any vacancy in a Professorial Fellowship may elect thereto a Research Fellow.

3. The Principal and Fellows may elect to a Professorial Fellowship any Professor or Reader within the University, or the Head of any University Department, or the Librarian of any University Institution, or an assistant Librarian of the Bodleian Library, or any other person whose work or office subserves any University purpose.

4. Persons may be elected to Professorial Fellowships without public notice of the vacancy, and without having passed the examinations required by the University for the degree of Bachelor in any Faculty.

5. No election shall be made to a Professorial Fellowship except by a majority of two-thirds of the votes of the Principal and Fellows present at a meeting specially called with notice of the business to be transacted thereat.

6. Every Professorial Fellow shall be entitled to hold his Fellowship for the term of seven years, with power nevertheless for the Principal and Fellows from time to time (if in their discretion they by the same majority and at such meeting as aforesaid think fit) to re-elect him.

Any such re-election shall be made not less than twelve calendar months and not more than fifteen calendar months before the end of the current term of the Fellowship.

7. Every Professorial Fellow shall be entitled to receive as the emolument of his Fellowship the sum of £200 per annum, clear of income tax, but without any other allowance save as in this Statute provided.

8. Every Professorial Fellow shall hold his Fellowship so long only as he shall hold the office and perform the functions by reason whereof he was elected.

9. The Research Fellowships shall be awarded for the encouragement of study or research in some definite department of learning already recognized, or in the judgment of the Principal and Fellows worthy of being recognized, by the University, and no election shall be made to such Fellowships save by such majority and at such meeting as mentioned in clause 5 hereof.

10. The Principal and Fellows may elect to Research Fellowships any person who, having passed all the examinations required by the University for the degree of Bachelor in any Faculty, shall undertake to perform some literary or scientific work in the University or (under the direction of the College or the University) elsewhere.

11. Persons may be elected to Research Fellowships with or without public notice of the vacancy and with or without examination, but in no case without having previously submitted to the Principal and Fellows definite and satisfactory evidence of study or research in the branch of learning for which the Fellowship is offered.

12. Every Research Fellow shall be entitled to hold his Fellowship for the term of seven years, with power for the Principal and Fellows to determine his Fellowship at any time if in their judgment the Fellow shall cease to pursue satisfactorily the work for which the Fellowship was awarded, and in any case the Fellow shall submit to them one calendar month before the end of the third year of his Fellowship definite and satisfactory evidence of his continuous application to such work and of the results obtained.

13. Every Research Fellow shall be entitled to receive as the emolument of his Fellowship the sum of £200 per annum, clear of income tax, but without any other allowance save as in this Statute provided, and shall remain a Probationer Fellow for one year from the day of his election. A Probationer Fellow shall not be entitled to take any part in the government of the College or the administration of its property, but shall receive the same emoluments as if he were an Actual Fellow. Upon the expiration of his year of probation he shall be admitted an Actual Fellow if found fit in the judgment of the Principal and Fellows to be a Fellow of the College.

14. If any Research Fellow shall accept any office or undertake any employment which in the judgment of the Principal and Fellows is incompatible with the fulfilment of the purpose of his Fellowship he shall vacate the same.

15. The Principal and Fellows may, if in their discretion they think fit, allow any Non-Official Fellow to occupy rooms in College rent free, but shall in no case make such allowance unless they consider that special reasons exist which make such course expedient in the interests of the College.

Part IV. Additional Fellowships.

1. If at any time the Principal and Fellows consider that the corporate revenues are sufficient for the purpose, they may, by such majority and at such meeting as mentioned in clause 5,
