A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 29th day of January, 1904.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Order in Council, dated the fifth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, after reciting that by "The Merchant Shipping Act Amendment Act, 1862," it was enacted that, whenever it was made to appear to Her late Majesty that the rules concerning the measurement of tonnage of merchant ships for the time being in force under the principal Act had been adopted by the Government of any foreign country, and were in force in that country, it should be lawful for Her Majesty, by Order in Council, to direct that the ships of such foreign country should be deemed to be of the tonnage denoted in their certificates of registry or other national papers, and thereupon it should no longer be necessary for such ships to be re-measured in any port or place in Her Majesty's dominions, but such ships should be deemed to be of the tonnage denoted in the certificates of registry or other papers, in the same manner, to the same extent, and for the same purposes, in, to, and for which the tonnage denoted in the certificates of registry of British ships was to be deemed the tonnage of such ships, and reciting that it had been made to appear to Her Majesty that the rules concerning the measurement of tonnage of merchant ships then in force under "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," had been adopted by the President of the French Republic, and were in force in the French dominions, Her Majesty was thereby pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to direct that the ships of France, the certificates of French nationality and registry of which were dated on or after the first day of June, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, should be deemed to be of the tonnage denoted in the said certificates of French nationality and registry.

And whereas the "Merchant Shipping Act Amendment Act, 1862," was repealed by the "Merchant Shipping Act, 1894," but by section seven hundred and forty-five of the latter Act it is amongst other things provided that any Order in Council made under any enactment thereby repealed shall continue in force as if it had been made under the said Act of one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four:

And whereas by section eighty-four of the "Merchant Shipping Act, 1894," it is enacted as follows:—

- 84.—(1.) Whenever it appears to Her Majesty the Queen in Council that the tonnage regulations of this Act have been adopted by any foreign country, and are in force there, Her Majesty in Council may order that the ships of that country shall, without being re-measured in Her Majesty's dominions, be deemed to be of the tonnage denoted in their certificates of registry or other national papers, in the same manner, to the same extent, and for the same purposes as the tonnage denoted in the certificate of registry of a British ship is deemed to be the tonnage of that ship.
- (2.) Her Majesty in Council may limit the time during which the Order is to remain in operation, and make the Order subject to such conditions and qualifications (if any) as Her Majesty may deem expedient, and the operation of the Order shall be limited and modified accordingly.
- (3.) If it is made to appear to Her Majesty that the tonnage of any foreign ship, as measured by the rules of the country to which she belongs, materially differs from that which would be her tonnage if measured under this Act, Her Majesty in Council may order that, notwithstanding any Order in Council for the time being in force under this section, any of the ships of that country may, for all or any of the purposes of this Act, be re-measured in accordance with this Act.

And whereas by section thirty of the Interpretation Act, 1889, it is enacted that in that Act and in every other Act whether passed before or after the commencement of that Act references to the Sovereign reigning at the time of the passing of the Act or to the Crown shall unless the contrary intention appears be construed as references to the Sovereign for the time being and that Act shall be binding on the Crown:

And whereas it has been made to appear to His present Majesty that the tonnage of French ships as measured by the rules concerning the measurement of tonnage of merchant ships of France materially differs from that which would be the tonnage of such ships if measured under the "Merchant Shipping Act, 1894":

Now, therefore, His Majesty in Council doth order that notwithstanding the hereinbefore recited Order in Council dated the fifth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, any of the ships of France may for all or any of the purposes of the "Merchant Shipping Act, 1894" be re-measured in accordance with the said Act.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 29th day of January, 1904.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Order in Council dated the seventeenth day of March one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, after reciting that by "The Merchant Shipping Act Amendment Act, 1862," it was enacted that, whenever it was made to appear to Her late Majesty that the rules concerning the measurement of tonnage of merchant ships for the time being in force under the principal Act, had been adopted by the Government of any foreign country, and were in force in that country, it should be lawful for Her Majesty, by Order in Council, to direct that the ships of such foreign country should be deemed to be of the tonnage denoted in their certificates of registry or other national papers, and thereupon it should no longer be necessary for such ships to be re-measured in any port or place in Her Majesty's dominions, but such ships should be deemed to be of the tonnage denoted in their certificates of registry or other papers, in the same manner, to the same extent, and for the same purposes, in, to, and for which the tonnage denoted in the certificates of registry of British ships was to be deemed the tonnage of such ships, and reciting that it had been made to appear to Her late Majesty that the rules concerning the measurement of tonnage of merchant ships then in force under "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," had been adopted by the Government of His Majesty the King of Spain, with the exception of a difference in the mode in certain steamers of estimating the allowance for engine room, and such rules were then in force in that country, having come into operation on the second day of December one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, Her Majesty was thereby pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to direct as follows:—

1. As regards sailing ships, that merchant sailing ships of the said Kingdom of Spain, the measurement whereof after the said second day of December one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four had been ascertained and denoted in the registers and other national papers of such sailing ships, testified by the date thereof, should be deemed to be of the tonnage denoted in such registers and other national papers in the same manner, and to the same extent, and for the same purpose, in, to and for which the tonnage denoted in the certificate of registry of British sailing ships was deemed to be the tonnage of such ships.

2. As regards steamships, that merchant ships belonging to the said Kingdom of Spain which were propelled by steam or any other power requiring engine room, the measurement whereof should, after the said second day of December one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, have been ascertained and denoted in the registers and other national papers of such steam ships, testified by the dates thereof, should be deemed to be of the tonnage denoted in such registers or other national papers in the same manner, and to the same extent, and for the same purpose, in, to, and for which the tonnage denoted in the certificate of registry of British ships was deemed to be the tonnage of such ships. Provided, nevertheless, that if the owner or master of any such Spanish steam ship desired the deduction for engine room in his ships to be estimated under the rules for engine room measurement and deduction applicable to British ships instead of under the Spanish rule, the engine room should be measured and the deduction calculated according to the British rules.

And whereas the Merchant Shipping Act Amendment Act 1862, was repealed by the Merchant Shipping Act 1894, but by section seven hundred and forty-five of the latter Act it is amongst other things provided that any Order in Council made under any enactment thereby repealed shall continue in force as if it had been made under the said Act of one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four:

And whereas by section eighty-four of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, it is enacted as follows:—

- 84.—(1.) Whenever it appears to Her Majesty the Queen in Council that the tonnage regulations of this Act have been adopted by any foreign country, and are in force there, Her Majesty in Council may order that the ships of that country shall, without being re-measured in Her Majesty's dominions, be deemed to be of the tonnage denoted in their certificates of registry or other national papers, in the same manner, to the same extent, and for the same purposes as the tonnage denoted in the certificate of registry of a British ship is deemed to be the tonnage of that ship.
- (2.) Her Majesty in Council may limit the time during which the Order is to remain in operation, and make the Order subject to such conditions and qualifications (if any) as Her Majesty may deem expedient, and the operation of the Order shall be limited and modified accordingly.
- (3.) If it is made to appear to Her Majesty that the tonnage of any foreign ship, as measured by the rules of the country to which she belongs, materially differs from that which would be her tonnage if measured under this Act, Her Majesty in Council may order that, notwithstanding any Order in Council for the time being in force under this section, any of the ships of that country may, for all or any of the purposes of this Act, be re-measured in accordance with this Act.

And whereas by section thirty of the Interpretation Act 1889, it is enacted that in that Act, and in every other Act whether passed before or after the commencement of that Act, references to the Sovereign reigning at the time of the passing of the Act or to the Crown shall, unless the contrary intention appears, be construed as references to the Sovereign for the time being, and that Act shall be binding on the Crown :

And whereas it has been made to appear to His present Majesty that the tonnage of Spanish ships as measured by the rules concerning the measurement of tonnage of merchant ships of Spain materially differs from that which would be the tonnage of such ships if measured under the Merchant Shipping Act 1894 :

Now, therefore, His Majesty in Council doth order that notwithstanding the hereinbefore recited Order in Council dated the seventeenth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, any of the ships of Spain may for all or any of the purposes of the Merchant Shipping Act 1894, be re-measured in accordance with the said Act.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 29th day of January, 1904.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Coroners Act, 1844, it is (amongst other things) enacted that when and as often as it shall seem expedient to the Justices of any County that such County should be divided into two or more districts for the purposes of that Act, or that any alteration should be made of any division theretofore made under that Act, it shall be lawful for the said Justices in General or Quarter Sessions assembled to resolve that a petition shall be presented to His Majesty, praying that such division or alteration be made, and thereupon to adjourn the further consideration of such petition until notice thereof shall be given to the Coroner or Coroners of such County as thereafter provided. And that the Clerk of the Peace shall give notice of any such resolution to every Coroner for such County, and of the time when the petition will be taken by the said Justices into consideration, and the Justices shall confer with every such Coroner who shall attend the meeting of the Justices for that purpose touching such petition, having due regard to the size and nature of each proposed district, the number of the inhabitants, the nature of their employment, and such other circumstances as shall appear to the Justices fit to be considered in carrying into execution the provisions of the said Act ; and such petition, with a description of the several proposed districts and of the boundaries thereof, with the reasons upon which the petition is founded, shall be certified to His Majesty under the hands and seals of two or more of the Justices present when such petition shall be agreed to, and the Clerk of the Peace for such County shall forthwith give or send a true copy of such petition certified under his hand to every Coroner for such County. And that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, if He shall think fit, with the advice of His Privy Council, after taking into consideration any such petition, and also any petition which may be presented to Him by any Coroner of the same County concerning such proposed division or alteration, or whenever it shall seem fit to His Majesty to direct the issue of a Writ de Coronatore Eligendo for the purpose of authorizing the election of an additional Coroner above the number of those who have been theretofore customarily elected in such County, to order that such County shall be divided into such and so many districts for the purposes of the said Act as to His Majesty, with the advice aforesaid, shall seem expedient, and to give a name to each of such districts, and every such Order shall be published in the London Gazette.

And whereas by the Local Government Act, 1888, the powers and business of the said Justices in respect of the matters aforesaid in each County were transferred to the Council of such County.

And whereas by the Yorkshire Coroners Act 1897 it is enacted that, for all the purposes of the Coroners Acts 1844, 1860, 1887 and 1892, the Ridings of Yorkshire shall respectively be separate counties and the County Council of each Riding shall, to the exclusion of any other authority, be the County Authority for all the purposes of those Acts.

And whereas by an Order in Council made the twenty-sixth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, under the provisions of the hereinbefore first recited Act such parts of the county of York as were not excepted by the operation of the twenty-seventh section of the hereinbefore first recited Act were divided into ten districts for Coroners' purposes and for the purposes of the said Act, which said districts were named respectively the York District, the Selby District, the Doncaster District, the Rotherham District, the Wakefield District, the Halifax District, the Craven District, the Northern District, the Pickering District, and the East Riding District, and comprised respectively the several places named and set forth in the Schedule to the said Order in Council.

And whereas by a further Order in Council dated the third day of February, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-eight, and made under the same provisions as amended by the Local Government Act 1888, and subject to the same exceptions as the said last-mentioned Order of the twenty-sixth day of April one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, the County of York was divided into fifteen districts for Coroners' purposes and for the purposes of the said first recited Act, which said districts were named respectively the York Coroner's District, and (in the West Riding of the said County) the Selby Coroner's District, the Bishopthorpe Coroner's District, the Doncaster Coroner's District, the Rotherham Coroner's District, the Wakefield Coroner's District, the Halifax Coroner's District, the Craven Coroner's District, the Kirkby Malzeard Coroner's District, and (in the North Riding of the said county) the Northern Coroner's District, the Flaxton Coroner's District, the Pickering Coroner's District, and (in the East Riding of the said county) the East Riding Coroner's District, the Escrick Coroner's District and the Bubwith Coroner's District, which said districts respectively comprised the places set forth in the Schedule to the said Order in Council.

And whereas by a further Order in Council dated the ninth day of February one thousand nine hundred and one and made under the same provisions, as amended by the Local Government Act 1888 and subject to the same exceptions as the said Order of the twenty-sixth day of April one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, it was ordered and directed that the West Riding of York should for Coroners' purposes and for the purposes of the said first recited Act be divided into nine districts which said districts were named respectively :—The Craven Coroner's District, the Halifax Coroner's District, the Wakefield Coroner's District, the Rotherham Coroner's District, the Doncaster Coroner's District, the Pontefract Coroner's District, the Bishopthorpe Coroner's District, the Kirkby Malzeard Coroner's District and the Ripon Coroner's District, and respectively comprised the parishes and places set forth in the schedule to the said Order in Council :

that upon the next avoidance of the office of Coroner of the Rotherham Coroner's District, the following places should be detached from such district viz. :—

Adwick - upon - Dearne, Bolton - upon - Dearne, Denaby, Mexborough, Darfield, Wombwell and Hoyland Nether;

and that thereupon such places should be added to and comprised in the Wakefield Coroner's District and the Doncaster Coroner's District as follows :—

To the Wakefield Coroner's District :—Darfield, Wombwell, Hoyland Nether.

To the Doncaster Coroner's District :—Adwick-upon-Deerne, Bolton-upon-Deerne, Denaby and Mexborough;

and that upon the next avoidance of the office of Coroner in the Coroners' Districts of Kirkby Malzeard or Ripon, whichever should first happen, the area of the district so first avoided should be added to and become merged in the other of such districts so that as from the date of such avoidance the county of the West Riding of York should be divided into eight districts only for Coroners' purposes and for the purposes of the said first recited Act, whereupon such united district should be called the Ripon and Kirkby Malzeard Coroner's District.

And whereas a petition dated the ninth day of November one thousand nine hundred and three was presented to His Majesty by the County Council of the West Riding of Yorkshire praying that, upon the next avoidance of the office of Coroner of the existing Rotherham Coroner's District, such district should be divided into two districts for Coroners' purposes to be called respectively the Borough of Rotherham Coroner's District and the Rotherham County Coroner's District;

And whereas the said petition, with a description of the said proposed districts and of the boundaries thereof with the reasons upon which the said petition is founded, has been duly certified to His Majesty.

And whereas all the provisions in that behalf of the hereinbefore first-recited Act have been duly complied with:

And whereas the Coroners for the said county have not presented any petition to His Majesty concerning the said proposed alteration.

And whereas His Majesty has, with the advice of His Privy Council, taken into consideration the said petition and is minded to make such alteration as aforesaid:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, direct and declare, as it is hereby ordered, directed and declared :—

1. That upon the next avoidance of the office of Coroner in the aforesaid Rotherham Coroner's District such district shall be divided into two districts for Coroners' purposes and for the purposes of the Coroners Act 1844.

2. That the said districts shall be named respectively :—

(a) The Borough of Rotherham Coroner's District.

(b) The Rotherham County Coroner's District; and shall respectively comprise the several parishes and places mentioned and set forth in the schedule hereto.

3. That the number of districts into which, by the aforesaid Order in Council of the ninth day of February one thousand nine hundred and one, the said county of the West Riding of Yorkshire is divided, or is to be divided, shall be increased by one in accordance with the provisions of this Order.

4. That this Order shall be published in the London Gazette. A. W. FitzRoy.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Burial Act, 1853, as amended by the Burial Act, 1900, it was enacted that, in case it appeared to His Majesty in Council, upon the representation of the Local Government Board, that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial-ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of the Local Government Board, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial-grounds or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it should be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order that no new burial-ground should be opened in any city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case might require) that, after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial-grounds or places of burial, should be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time as circumstances might require; provided always, that notice of such representation, and of the time when it should please His Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, should be published in the London Gazette, and should be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation was so considered; provided also that no such representation should be made in relation to the burial-ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation should have been given to the Incumbent and vestry clerk or churchwardens of such parish:

And whereas the Local Government Board, after giving to the Incumbent and the churchwardens of the parish of Malvern Link, in the county of Worcester, ten days' previous notice of their intention to make such representation, made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground should be opened in the civil parish of Malvern Link without the previous approval of the Local Government Board:

And whereas, His Majesty was pleased by His Order in Council of the sixteenth day of November last, to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same should be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the twenty-eighth day of December, one thousand nine hundred and three, and such Order has been published in the London Gazette, and copies thereof have been affixed, as required by the said Act:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that no new burial-ground shall be opened in the said civil parish of Malvern Link without the previous approval of the Local Government Board.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 29th day of January, 1904.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Burial Act, 1855, it was, amongst other things, enacted that it should be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, should or should not have arrived), as to His Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, might seem fit:

And whereas an Order in Council has been made directing the discontinuance of burials in the parish churchyard of Saint Peter, Osmotherley, in the North Riding of the county of York, from the time specified in such Order; and whereas the time for the discontinuance of burials therein has, from time to time, been postponed; and whereas it seems fit to His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that the time for discontinuing burials in the said churchyard be further postponed:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the time appointed for the discontinuance of burials in the parish churchyard of Saint Peter, Osmotherley, in the North Riding of the county of York, be further postponed to the thirtieth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and four.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 29th day of January, 1904.
