ORDER OF THE BOARD OF AGRICULTURE AND FISHERIES.

(DATED 1ST MARCH 1904.)

ANIMALS (TRANSIT AND GENERAL)
AMENDMENT ORDER OF 1904.

The Board of Agriculture and Fisheries, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under the Diseases of Animals Acts, 1894 to 1903, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:

Carriage by Water of Cows in Calf.

1. No cow shall be permitted by the owner thereof, or his agent, or any person in charge thereof, to be carried in a vessel from any port in Great Britain, if the calving of the cow during the intended passage or on landing is reasonably probable.

Carriage by Water of Unfit Animals.

2. No animal shall be permitted by the owner thereof, or his agent, or any person in charge thereof, to be carried in a vessel from any port in Great Britain if, owing to infirmity, illness, injury, fatigue, or any other cause, it cannot be carried without unnecessary suffering during the intended passage and on landing.

Provisions as to Vessels Carrying Animals.

3.—(1.) All bulls and fat cattle whether polled or not, shall, while being carried on a vessel, be securely tied by the head or neck.

(2.) If any animal has a limb broken, or is otherwise seriously injured during the voyage, the person in charge of the animal shall forthwith report the injury to the master of the vessel.

(3.) The owner or charterer of any vessel on which animals are carried, shall keep a record of all animals which have died or have been killed or seriously injured, and of all cows which have calved, while on such vessel, and shall at the end of every month make a return to the Board showing whether any, and, if so, how many, animals have so died or been killed or injured, or have calved, on the vessel.

(4.) This Article shall extend to any vessel in or on which animals are carried to a port or place in Great Britain from a port or place in Great Britain, Ireland, the Channel Islands or the Isle of Man, but shall not extend to any ferry boat or to any vessel used for carrying animals across an arm of the sea or on a river, canal, or other inland water.

Construction of Trucks, Horse-Boxes &c.

4.—(1.) From and after the thirty-first day of October, nineteen hundred and four, this Article shall be substituted for Article 7 of the Animals (Transit and General) Order of 1895.

(2.) No animal, horse, ass, or mule shall be carried by railway in a truck, horse-box, or other vehicle unless such truck, horse-box, or vehicle is in accordance with the provisions of this Article.

(3.) Every truck, horse-box, or other vehicle shall be provided at each end with spring buffers, and the floor thereof, in order to prevent slipping, shall, in the case of a truck used for the carriage of cattle, horses, asses, or mules, be fitted with battens or other proper footholds, and in any other case either be so fitted or be strewn with a proper quantity of litter or sand or other proper substance.

(4.) The battens in a truck shall be placed across the truck except between the doorways where they shall be placed lengthways.

(5.) Every truck shall be so constructed as to admit of ventilation and inspection at the floor level.

(6.) Every truck shall be so constructed that the interior thereof shall be free from any bolt-heads, angles, or other projections likely to cause suffering to animals carried therein.

(7.) Every falling loading door and every gangway, passage-way, loading or unloading board, shall be fitted with longitudinal battens or other proper footholds.

(8.) Every truck built after the date of this Order shall be fitted with a roof, and with falling loading doors of a pattern approved by the Board, and all internal projections shall be rounded.

(9.) Every horse-box shall be so constructed as to permit of its being effectually cleansed in manner provided by the Animals (Transit and General) Order of 1895.

Securing of Bulls in Railway Trucks.

5. All bulls whether polled or not, shall, while being carried in a railway truck, be securely tied by the head or neck.

Carriage by Railway of Cows in Calf.

6. No cow shall be permitted by the owner thereof, or his agent, or any person in charge thereof, to be carried by railway if the calving of the cow during the transit by railway is reasonably probable.

Carriage by Railway of Unfit Animals.

7. No animal shall be permitted by the owner thereof, or his agent, or any person in charge thereof, to be carried by railway if, owing to infirmity, illness, injury, fatigue, or any other cause, it cannot be carried without unnecessary suffering during the intended transit by railway.

Cleansing of Trucks used for Horses, &c.

8. Article 17 of the Animals (Transit and General) Order of 1895, relating to the cleansing of railway trucks used for animals, shall be construed as if the expression "animal" in such Article included "horse, ass, and mule."

Digging up of Carcases.

9. It shall not be lawful for any person, except with the Licence of the Board or permission in writing of an Inspector of the Board, to dig up, or cause to be dug up, the carcase of any animal that has been buried.

Expenses of Burial of Carcases of Horses, &c., washed ashore.

10. Section 46 of the Diseases of Animals Act, 1894, which relates to expenses of burial of certain carcases washed ashore shall apply to any carcase of a horse, ass, or mule, washed ashore.

Power of Board to issue Licences.

11. Where by an Order any matter or thing is or shall be prohibited either absolutely or conditionally, it shall be lawful, unless otherwise expressly stated in the Order, for the Board to authorise such matter or thing by Licence sealed by the Board or signed by an Inspector of the Board, and such Licence shall be a lawful authority for any matter or thing which it purports to authorise notwithstanding anything contained in the Order, but a Licence under this Article will be granted only where the Board after enquiry are satisfied that exceptional circumstances render the matter or thing necessary or expedient.

Effect of Revocation of Orders and Regulations.

12.—(1.) Where an Order made after the commencement of this Order revokes and re-enacts, with or without modification, any provisions of a former Order, references in any other Order to the provisions so revoked, shall, unless the contrary intention appears, be construed as references to the provisions so re-enacted.

(2.) Where an Order made after the commencement of this Order revokes any other Order or any Regulation made by a Local Authority, then, unless the contrary intention appears, the revocation shall not—

- (i.) revive anything not in force or existing at the time at which the revocation takes effect; or
- (ii.) affect the previous operation of any Order or Regulation so revoked or anything duly done or suffered under any Order or Regulation so revoked; or
- (iii.) affect any right, privilege, obligation, or liability acquired, accrued, or incurred under any Order or Regulation so revoked; or
- (iv.) affect any penalty, forfeiture, or punishment incurred in respect of any offence committed against any Order or Regulation so revoked; or
- (v.) affect any investigation, legal proceeding, or remedy in respect of any such right, privilege, obligation, liability, penalty, forfeiture, or punishment as aforesaid; and any such investigation, legal proceeding, or remedy may be instituted, continued, or enforced, and any such penalty, forfeiture, or punishment may be imposed, as if the revoking Order had not been made.

Ascertainment of Value for Compensation in England and Wales.

13.—(1.) Where under the Diseases of Animals Act, 1894, or any Order it is necessary that the value of an animal should be ascertained in England or Wales for the purpose of compensation payable by the Board, the value shall, subject to the provisions of any such Order, be ascertained as follows:

- (i.) If within fourteen days after the receipt of notice in writing from an Inspector or officer of the Board of the valuation of the animal the owner of the animal or his agent does not give a counter-notice in writing stating in effect that he disputes the valuation made on behalf of the Board, the compensation shall be paid on that valuation.
- (ii.) If the owner or his agent gives such a counter-notice, then the question of the value of the animal shall by virtue of this Order stand referred to the arbitration of a single arbitrator, and the provisions of the Arbitration Act, 1889, shall apply to the reference and arbitration, as if the same were pursuant to a submission, except in so far as that Act is inconsistent with the provisions of this Article.
- (iii.) An arbitrator may be appointed by an agreement in writing signed by an Inspector or officer of the Board and by the owner of the animal or his agent.
- (iv.)
