TUESDAY, MARCH 8, 1904.

Whitehall, March 3, 1904.

The following Addresses were presented to His Majesty on the occasion of Their Majesties' visit to Cambridge, on Tuesday, the 1st instant:—

To Their Most Excellent Majesties the King and Queen.

The Loyal and Dutiful Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Cambridge.

May it please Your Majesties.

We, Your faithful lieges, humbly desire to offer a most hearty welcome on Your Majesties' visit to this ancient Borough, the first paid during the present Reign.

It adds to our pleasure to-day that Your Majesties are accompanied by Her Royal Highness the Princess Victoria.

The inhabitants of Cambridge have been honoured by many Royal Visits in the past, and we are proud to point to favours which the town has received from the hands of the Sovereign in a roll of Charters dating back for seven centuries.

The last two occasions when the Corporation of the Borough was graciously permitted to approach the Sovereign in Person occurred, Sire, during the historic visits to our town of Your Majesty's august Mother, our beloved Queen Victoria, and Your illustrious Father, His Royal Highness the Prince Consort, who was for so many years Chancellor of the University.

We do not forget that our King was for a time a Student at our Ancient University, and that more recently Your Majesties' lamented Son, the late Duke of Clarence and Avondale, still affectionately remembered among us as Prince Edward, resided in our midst within the walls of Your Majesty's own College.

We gratefully recognize in this visit of Your Majesties to Cambridge to-day one more proof that there is no abatement in the deep interest which The King has so long felt in the prosperity and the progress of that renowned University with the fortunes of which the material interests of the town are inseparably connected.

We respectfully thank Your Majesties for this opportunity of testifying to our unabated loyalty to the Crown and our faithful allegiance to Your Royal House.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

"On behalf of Queen Alexandra and Myself I thank you for your Loyal and Dutiful Address, and for your kindly reference to the Princess Victoria.

"It is a great pleasure to Us to visit your ancient town, which will ever be of special interest to Me as a Member of your University. I am much touched by your allusion to the very happy visits paid to Cambridge by Queen Victoria, My beloved Mother. These visits were on the occasions of the conferring of a Degree on My dear Father, and subsequently of his installation as Chancellor—a position which gave him much gratification and enabled him to confer lasting benefits on the University.

"I am pleased with your affectionate remembrance of the residence amongst you of My dear Son, the Duke of Clarence.

"I cordially appreciate the feelings and attachment which you have expressed for Me and My House."

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please Your Majesty.

We, the County Council of Cambridgeshire, upon the occasion of this the first visit which Your Majesty has paid to our county town since the assumption by Your Majesty of Your Royal Dignity of King of these Realms venture to tender our humble and cordial welcome to Your Majesty and Queen Alexandra on behalf of the inhabitants of the county which we represent.

We remember with pleasure Your Majesty's residence in one of the historic seats of Cambridgeshire during the period of Your studies in the Ancient and Illustrious University whose presence has for centuries been the chief distinction of our county, and whose powers and usefulness we rejoice to see enlarged by the erection of the Museums and Schools which Your Majesty has to-day come to open. The courtesy of the University has given us an opportunity of which we have gladly availed ourselves to combine with other counties to establish a system of training in the theory and practice of the Agricultural Arts that constitute the chief occupation of the inhabitants of our county. This task we prosecute with a greater zeal because we remember the active interest which Your Majesty has always shown in the pursuits of agriculture, and in the prosperity of all the various classes engaged in that oldest and greatest of our national industries.

That Your Majesty has deigned to receive this Address of Welcome from us will be not only a source of warm satisfaction to our county and all its inhabitants but also an incentive to fresh energy in the discharge of the great educational duties and responsibilities recently imposed upon ourselves by Parliament.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

"The cordial welcome given to Us by you on behalf of the County of Cambridge is very gratifying both to Myself and to Queen Alexandra. I shall never forget My residence in your County while I was a Student in the University which adds so greatly to its distinction.

"I am very glad to know of the educational work in connection with the great industry of Agriculture, which you have undertaken. In common with most branches of industry, Agriculture has, in modern times, come to depend for its success and extension upon the unremitting application to it of the results of scientific investigation. No greater service can be rendered to this ancient Industry than to furnish it with the means of research and instruction which are essential in order that labour may be directed in profitable channels.

"In the buildings which are to be opened to-day improved provision will be made for instruction in some of the branches of knowledge upon which the scientific cultivation of the land is based, and you will, I hope, derive therefrom useful aid in the carrying out of your undertaking.

"I pray that every success may attend you in the execution of the great work of general education which is now entrusted to you."

To Their Most Excellent Majesties the King and the Queen.

The humble Address of the Chancellor, Masters, and Scholars of the University of Cambridge.

May it please Your Majesties.

We, the Chancellor, Masters, and Scholars of the University of Cambridge, humbly offer to Your Majesties our dutiful welcome to the precincts of this Ancient University.

We avail ourselves, Sir, of Your Majesty's gracious permission to address You that we may renew that assurance of our earnest and heartfelt loyalty towards Your Person and Your Throne which we were permitted to tender on the occasion of Your Majesty's Accession.

Fifty-six years have passed since Your Royal Mother, Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, whose memory we hold in abiding honour, was pleased, together with Her Illustrious Consort, then our Chancellor, to visit this University. Since that time, as we rejoice to remember, Your Majesty has resided among us as a Member of our Body, and has thought well to connect us with Yourself by many gracious personal ties, permitting us to share with respectful sympathy in the joys and sorrows of Your Royal House.

We recognise, Sir, in the presence among us of Your Majesty and of Her Majesty the Queen a mark of Your favour towards this University and a proof of Your solicitude for the progress of Education, on which, under the blessing of Divine Providence, the stability and prosperity of Your Majesty's Empire, both at home and beyond the seas, so largely depends, and in the promotion and guidance of which the national Universities are entrusted with so high and so signal a responsibility.

We venture to remind You, Sir, that, in bestowing upon us this sign of Your gracious recognition of our endeavours to fulfil our part as one of Your Majesty's ancient Universities, You are following in the footsteps of Kings and Princes of this Realm. The University Library and this Senate House, in which we have the honour to address Your Majesty, are enduring monuments of the concern for our well-being which Your Royal Ancestors were pleased to manifest. And in particular we recall with gratitude and pride the zealous patience and the far-seeing wisdom with which Your august Father, while he was our Chancellor, ever took thought for the maintenance and advancement among us of learning and more especially of the study of Natural Sciences. To him we owe a debt which no lapse of time will diminish or obscure.

We ask Your Majesties to-day to visit those New Buildings, which, through the munificence of many Benefactors, we have lately been enabled to erect.

The Law School and the Law Library symbolize the development among us of those older studies, not only of Law, but also of Divinity, of Letters, of History, and of Philosophy, of which through many generations we have been guardians.

The Faculty of Medicine from our earliest days has had an honoured place in this our University. The beneficent Science of Medicine, with the sister Sciences of Surgery and of Pathology, will henceforth have a home not wholly unworthy, as we trust, of that splendid progress which in these later days has conferred on mankind inestimable blessings and is the pledge of a yet greater advance in the time to come.

The Museum of Geology, the memorial of the late Professor Sedgwick, whose honoured name it bears, and the Botanical Laboratory are fitting emblems of the growth of the physical Sciences which is a chief glory of our times, and which stimulates, and, we trust, will stimulate, the best energies of many of our ablest students.

The inauguration of these new Schools of Learning and Science marks an epoch in our academic history. We are profoundly conscious how auspicious and how memorable the commencement of this new era is rendered by Your Majesties' Presence in our midst and by Your gracious participation in our aspirations and in our hopes.

We assure You, Sir, that our earnest and humble prayer to Almighty God is that, as He has shielded Your Majesty from danger in the past, so He will vouchsafe to You, with Your Royal Consort, our beloved Queen, long to reign in undisturbed peace and happiness over a loyal, united and prosperous Empire.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

"I receive with much gratification your renewed expressions of loyalty to My Throne and Person, and your sympathetic references to My beloved Mother Queen Victoria and to My revered Father, who was so deeply interested in everything connected with the University of Cambridge, of which he was the Chancellor.

"I am proud to be a member of the University, and I shall always look back with great pleasure upon the time which I spent as an undergraduate at Trinity. It was a great gratification to Me to send My dear Son, the Duke of Clarence, to be matriculated at the same ancient and splendid Foundation. And Queen Alexandra well remembers with what pride and interest I showed Her shortly after Our marriage the University where I had studied.

"There are around Us many memorials of the interest taken in the University by My Ancestors; and like them I earnestly desire its well-being, and the extension and development of all branches of study and research which are essential to the maintenance of the greatness and welfare of the Empire. I have no doubt that Cambridge will continue to occupy a foremost place in this great work; but the older Universities must receive new endowment if education within My Realm is to be kept at its proper standard of efficiency. I am glad to know that many munificent donations have been received to that end; and the Museums that are now being opened for the study of subjects of especial importance at the present time, will serve as an example of that generosity. The members of the Cambridge University Association, the subscribers to the Sedgwick Memorial, and all other friends of the University, will rejoice already to see the fruit of their efforts in the Sedgwick Museum, the Law School, the Botanical Laboratory, and other new buildings.

"But this great University should aim at nothing less than a complete apparatus of learning and research; and I trust to see the Endowment Fund reach the level of that aspiration.

"I heartily thank you for your welcome to Queen Alexandra and Myself, and for your good wishes; and I earnestly join with you in the prayer that the Empire may throughout My Reign continue in peace and prosperity."

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-seven of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the twenty-eighth day of January, in the year one thousand nine hundred and four, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-seven of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the parish of Methley, in the county of York, and in the diocese of Ripon, out of the parish of Featherstone, in the said county of York, and in the diocese of York, and out of the parish of Swillington, in the said county of York, and in the said diocese of Ripon.

"Whereas we are satisfied that the said parishes of Methley, Featherstone, and Swillington are parishes wherein or in parts whereof the provision for public worship and for pastoral superintendence is insufficient for the spiritual wants of the inhabitants thereof, and it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular portions of the said parishes of Methley, Featherstone, and Swillington which are hereinafter mentioned and described should be constituted a separate district in the manner which is hereinafter set forth.

"And whereas there is not at present within the limits of the said proposed separate district any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purpose of Divine worship.

"And whereas by a certain indenture bearing date on or about the first day of July in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy and made or expressed to be made under the authority of the 'New Parishes Acts, 1843, 1844, and 1856,' or some or one of them between the late Honourable and Reverend Philip Yorke Savile, then rector or Incumbent of the rectory of the said parish of Methley of the first part, the late Most Honourable Frederick Temple, then Lord Dufferin and Clandeboyne, and afterwards Marquess of Dufferin and Ava, at that time Chancellor of Your Majesty's Duchy of Lancaster, acting on behalf of Her said late Majesty as the patron in right of Her said Duchy of Lancaster of the rectory of the said parish of Methley of the second part, the late Right Reverend Robert Bishop of the said diocese of Ripon of the third part and us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners of the fourth part (which indenture was enrolled in the High Court of Chancery), the said Philip Yorke Savile did with the consent of Her said late Majesty as such patron as aforesaid testified by the said Frederick Temple Lord Dufferin being a party to and executing the said indenture grant and confirm unto and to the use of the minister or Incumbent of the district hereinafter recommended to be constituted so soon as one shall have been appointed and his successors ministers or Incumbents thereof for the time being one clear yearly rent charge or sum of one hundred and twenty-five pounds to be payable half-yearly on the fifteenth day of April and the fifteenth day of October in every year, a proportionate part of the first of such half-yearly payments to be made on such of those days as shall first happen next after a minister or Incumbent shall have been duly appointed to the said intended district free and clear of all deductions taxes rates charges assessments and impositions whatsoever (except on account of the tax on income or property, if any) to be for ever issuing and payable out of and charged upon all that the rectory of the parish of Methley aforesaid and the glebe lands and hereditaments to the said rectory belonging or in anywise appertaining which said glebe lands and hereditaments are in a summary form particularized in the schedule annexed to the same indenture.

"And whereas the said yearly rent charge or sum of one hundred and twenty-five pounds has been so granted and confirmed as aforesaid upon the understanding that (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient) the whole right of patronage of the said intended district and of the nomination of the Incumbent thereto should be assigned in the manner which is hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners now hold in trust for and for the benefit of the rector or Incumbent of the said rectory of Methley a sum exceeding twenty thousand pounds of India Three Pounds per centum Stock.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the forty-eighth and forty-ninth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the fourteenth day of January, in the year one thousand nine hundred and four, in the words following, that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the forty-eighth and forty-ninth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for augmenting the income of the Archdeaconry of Bedford, in the diocese of Ely.

“Whereas part of the income of the said Archdeaconry of Bedford has hitherto been derived from procurations, synodals, visitation fees, and induction fees or some or one of these sources, and it appears to us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners that it is undesirable that fees derived from any of these sources should continue to be received by the Archdeacon of the said Archdeaconry, and such Archdeacon has discontinued to collect such fees.

“And whereas by reason of such discontinuance the income of the Archdeacon has been diminished and reduced below the yearly sum of two hundred pounds.

“And whereas it has been made to appear to us that the augmentation hereinafter recommended and proposed is required in order to raise the average annual income of the said Archdeacon to two hundred pounds.

“Now therefore we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners with the consent of the Honourable and Right Reverend Alwyne Bishop of Ely (testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme) and with the consent of the Venerable Frederick Bathurst now Archdeacon of the said Archdeaconry of Bedford (in testimony whereof he the said Archdeacon has signed and sealed this scheme) humbly recommend and propose that subject as is hereinafter mentioned we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners be authorized to pay by half-yearly payments on the first day of January and the first day of July in every year out of the common fund created by the said Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty Queen Victoria chapter one hundred and thirteen to the Archdeacon of the said Archdeaconry of Bedford and to his successors in the same Archdeaconry the yearly sum of twenty-four pounds in addition to the yearly sum of one hundred and seventy-six pounds now payable by us to the Archdeacon for the time being of the same Archdeaconry.

“And we further recommend and propose that the first year in respect of which the said yearly sum of twenty-four pounds hereinbefore recommended to be paid to the said Archdeacon of Bedford shall be payable shall be the year ended the first day of January in the year one thousand nine hundred and three and that every payment in respect of the said yearly sum of twenty-four pounds shall be made by us only after we shall have been satisfied that the Archdeacon who applies for the same has during the previous twelve calendar months complied with the conditions as to residence which for the time being are required by law and that he has not collected procurations synodals visitation fees or induction fees during the same period.

“And we further recommend and propose that whenever any Archdeacon who may be entitled to receive the said yearly sum of twenty-four pounds hereinbefore recommended to be paid to the said Archdeacon of Bedford shall resign or otherwise avoid his Archdeaconry such yearly sum shall be apportionable between such Archdeacon or his representative (as the case may be) and the Archdeacon who shall next be collated to the same Archdeaconry.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending or proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Acts or either of them or any other Act of Parliament.”

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council: now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Ely.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 7th day of March, 1904.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty chapter one hundred and fourteen duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the twenty-eighth day of January, in the year one thousand nine hundred and four, in the words following, that is to say:—

“We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria chapter thirty-nine and of the Acts therein mentioned that is to say the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called ‘the said benefice’) of Leavesden in the county of Hertford and in the diocese of Saint Albans.

“Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Leavesden is vested in the vicar or incumbent for the time being of the vicarage of the parish of Watford in the said county of Hertford and in the said diocese of Saint Albans.

“And whereas the Reverend Richard Lee James, Clerk in Holy Orders, now vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Watford, is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Leavesden, now vested in him as aforesaid as such vicar or incumbent, should be transferred to and be vested in the Bishop for the time being of the said diocese of Saint Albans.

"And whereas the Right Reverend Edgar now Bishop of the said diocese of Saint Albans is willing to accept such transfer and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary, he the said Edgar Bishop of the said diocese of Saint Albans has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas it appears to us that the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Leavesden which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the new parish of Leavesden.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said Richard Lee James, as vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Watford acting as such vicar or incumbent (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme) and with the consent of the said Edgar Bishop of the said diocese of Saint Albans (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Leavesden now vested in him the said Richard Lee James as such vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Watford as aforesaid shall be transferred from him the said Richard Lee James and from his successors vicars or incumbents of the vicarage of the said parish of Watford to the said Edgar Bishop of the said diocese of Saint Albans and his successors Bishops of the same diocese and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Edgar Bishop of the said diocese of Saint Albans and by his successors Bishops of the same diocese for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council: now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Saint Albans.

Now, therefore, His Majesty, in pursuance of the Extradition Act, 1870, and in exercise of the power in that behalf in the said Act contained, doth by this present Order, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, declare that chapter two of the Indian Extradition Act, 1903, shall have effect in British India as if it were part of the Extradition Act, 1870.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 7th day of March, 1904.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Lord President.

Earl of Kintore.

Mr. Charles Hardinge.

Sir William Walrond.

Sir Dighton Probyn.

WHEREAS by section eighteen of the Extradition Act, 1870, it is, among other things, enacted that, if by any law or ordinance made after the passing of the said Act by the Legislature of any British Possession provision is made for carrying into effect within such Possession the surrender of Fugitive Criminals who are in, or suspected of being in, such British Possession, His Majesty may, by the Order in Council applying the said Act in the case of any Foreign State, or by any subsequent Order, either suspend the operation within any such British Possession of the said Act or any part thereof, so far as it relates to such Foreign

State, and so long as such law or ordinance continues in force there and no longer; or direct that such law or ordinance or any part thereof shall have effect in such British Possession, with or without modifications and alterations, as if it were part of the Act:

And whereas by certain Orders of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria in Council Her Majesty was pleased to direct that certain Acts respectively enacted by the Legislatures of the Colonies of South Australia, Western Australia, Queensland, Tasmania and Victoria should have effect in the said Colonies respectively without modification or alteration, as if they were part of the Extradition Act, 1870:

And whereas on the first day of January, one thousand nine hundred and one, the Commonwealth of Australia was established under the provisions of an Act of Parliament passed in the sixty-third and sixty-fourth years of Her late Majesty's reign, shortly entitled "The Commonwealth of Australia Constitution Act," and each of the said Colonies is now a State forming part of the Commonwealth established as aforesaid:

And whereas the Parliament of the Commonwealth is empowered under the provisions of the said Act to make laws for the peace, order and good government of the Commonwealth with respect to (inter alia) the influx of criminals and external affairs:

And whereas the Commonwealth is a "British Possession" within the meaning of section twenty-six of the Extradition Act, 1870:

And whereas by an Act enacted by the Parliament of the Commonwealth, the short title of which is the Extradition Act, 1903, and the provisions of which are fully set forth in the first schedule appended to this Order, provision has been made for carrying into effect within the Commonwealth the surrender of fugitive criminals who are therein or suspected of being therein:

And whereas it is provided by the said Act that the said Act shall commence on the day on which the Governor-General makes known by Proclamation that His Majesty has by Order in Council directed that the said Act, or any part thereof, shall have effect in the Commonwealth as if it were part of the Extradition Act, 1870:

Now therefore His Majesty, in pursuance of the Extradition Act, 1870, and in exercise of the powers in that behalf in the said Act contained, doth by this present Order, by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, direct as follows:—

1. The Commonwealth Extradition Act, 1903, shall have effect in the Commonwealth of Australia without modification or alteration as if it were part of the Extradition Act, 1870.
2. The Orders of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria in Council enumerated in the second schedule appended hereto are revoked as and from the commencement of the said Act.

And whereas by that Imperial Act it is also enacted that if, by any law made by the Legislature of any British possession, provision is made for carrying into effect within that possession the surrender of fugitive criminals who are in or suspected of being in that possession, the King may by Order in Council direct that such law, or any part thereof, shall have effect in that possession, with or without modifications and alterations, as if it were part of that Imperial Act.

And whereas by other Imperial Acts known as the Extradition Act 1873 and the Extradition Act 1895, it is enacted that those Acts shall be construed as one with the Extradition Act 1870, and that the three Acts may be cited together as the Extradition Acts 1870 to 1895:

3. In this Act, unless the contrary intention appears, terms defined in the Extradition Acts 1870 to 1895 have the same meaning as in those Acts.

Extradition from the Commonwealth.

4. All powers vested in and acts authorized or required to be done by a Secretary of State, under the Extradition Acts 1870 to 1895, in relation to the surrender of a fugitive criminal, are hereby vested in, and may in the Commonwealth be exercised and done by, the Governor-General, and may in any part of the Commonwealth be exercised and done by any deputy of the Governor-General thereto authorized.

5. All powers vested in and acts authorized or required to be done by a Police Magistrate or any Justice of the Peace under the Extradition Acts 1870 to 1895, in relation to the surrender of a fugitive criminal, are hereby vested in, and may in the Commonwealth be exercised and done by, any Stipendiary or Police or Special Magistrate of the Commonwealth or of a State, or any Magistrate of a State thereto specially authorized by the Governor-General.

5. The precepts of the Judges to the said Sheriff shall direct him to summon the Grand Jurors and Petty Jurors from the County of Lancaster.

9. Any person who after the date of this Order, and before the said Spring Assizes, enters into a recognizance to appear and prosecute, or give evidence, or to appear and answer before a Court of Oyer and Terminer or General Gaol Delivery, to be holden for either of the Divisions constituting the said Spring Assize County, shall be bound to attend at the said Spring Assizes for the said Spring Assize County.

10. In all cases in which the like recognizances have been entered into in respect of any offence committed in either of the Divisions constituting the said Spring Assize County prior to the making of this Order, such recognizances shall be deemed to have been entered into for attendance at the said Spring Assizes for the said Spring Assize

Ten days before the day fixed for the opening of the Commission at Manchester, a list of the prisoners to be removed for trial at the said Spring Assizes for the said Spring Assize County so far as the same list can then be made out, shall, together with a short statement of the offences with which they are charged, be transmitted by the Gaoler of each prison in which such prisoners may be, to the Sheriff of the county of Lancaster, and the said Sheriff shall cause to be inserted in one or more newspapers in the Spring Assize County the said list and statement, and a notice that the persons bound by recognizances to appear and prosecute or give evidence for or against the prisoners so removed shall appear and prosecute and give evidence at Manchester.

12. It shall be lawful for the Gaoler of the Gaol in which prisoners who are to take their trial at the said Spring Assizes for the said Spring Assize County shall be in custody, three days before the day upon which the said Spring Assizes for the said Spring Assize County are appointed to be held, to send, without any writ of Habeas Corpus, such prisoners to His Majesty's Gaol at Sirangeways, Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, for the purposes of their trial, and to take all proper steps for their transmission to the said Gaol, and their maintenance by the way and the Gaoler of the said Gaol shall receive such prisoners into his charge and custody on their arrival, and shall keep and maintain them in the said Gaol until they are either ordered to be discharged or remanded by proper authority, or until they shall have been tried and sentenced, and proper arrangements have been made for their being sent back to the prison from which they were sent for trial, or sent to any other prison which has been duly appointed as an alternative for such prison. If, however, the said Gaol has itself been duly appointed as an alternative prison for the prison from which such prisoners were sent to trial, the Governor of the said Gaol shall, subject to the orders of the Secretary of State, keep and maintain in the said Gaol such prisoners after sentence, until they are discharged in due course of law.

Where any person is committed for trial, or is bound by any recognizance to appear and answer, in the said Spring Assize County, any Judge of the High Court of Justice, or the committing Justice or Justices, or any two of the Justices of the county or place from which he is committed or admitted to bail, may, upon the application of such person, direct the Treasurer of the county or place where such person was committed, or entered into any recognizance to appear and answer as aforesaid, to advance to such person a sum not exceeding 20*l.* to enable him to defray the travelling expenses of such of his witnesses as may have been bound by recognizances to appear on his behalf, and the Treasurer shall advance such sum, and shall deduct it out of the amount ultimately allowed in respect of such witnesses.

14. In any case where money is ordered by the Court at the said Spring Assizes for the said Spring Assize County to be paid in respect of costs and expenses of prosecutors and witnesses, the same shall be paid by the Treasurer of the county or place by whom the same would have been payable had a like order been made by a Court of Oyer and Terminer or Gaol Delivery in the county where the trial would have taken place but for the Spring Assizes Act, 1879, and this Order; and every such Treasurer, or some known agent on his behalf, shall attend the said Spring Assizes during the sitting of the Court to pay all such orders.

15. The Clerk of Assize at the said Spring Assizes for the said Spring Assize County shall have all powers of taxation of Bills of Costs, expenses of prosecution and witnesses, and all other powers necessary for checking and paying such costs relating to the trial of prisoners that the Clerk of Assize in the county where such prisoners were committed would have had if such prisoner had been tried at the Assizes held in such last-mentioned county.

Where any person is committed for trial, or is bound by any recognizance to appear and answer, in the said Spring Assize County, any Judge of the High Court of Justice, or the committing Justice or Justices, or any two of the Justices of the county or place from which he is committed or admitted to bail, may, upon the application of such person, direct the Treasurer of the county or place where such person was committed, or entered into any recognizance to appear and answer as aforesaid, to advance to such person a sum not exceeding 20%, to enable him to defray

With reference to Notice to Mariners No. 937 of 1903:—

Further information has been received from His Britannic Majesty's Consul at the port of Beira that, on 2nd January, 1904, a white flashing light every nine seconds, elevated about 100 feet above high water, and visible in clear weather from a distance of 16 miles, was established in a lighthouse, painted in black and white horizontal bands, erected eastward of Mascuti Point, in the approach to Beira, in a position from which Point Jea light bears N. 80° W., distant $3\frac{1}{2}$ miles, and the Two Conspicuous Trees N. 13° E.

The United States Government has given notice, that on 15th March, 1904, leading lights will be established to the westward of Punta Rasa to facilitate entering San Carlos Bay.

The front and rear lights are white fixed dioptric lights, elevated respectively 30 and 45 feet above high water, and shown from pyramidal pile structures, the former being painted white and the latter black.

The front light stands in a depth of 6 feet at a distance of $1\frac{1}{2}$ miles N. $8^{\circ} W.$ from Sanibel Island light.

Chapu Road—Shoal in Approach.

Information, dated 15th January, 1904, has been received from Commander T. Jackson, His Majesty's ship "Rosario," that a sounding of 2 fathoms, reduced to low-water springs, was obtained from his vessel by one of the leadsmen when approaching Chapu Roads in a position from which the northern extremity of Holley Island bore N. 85° E., distant 8½ cables, and the 518-foot Hill N. 19° E.

Approximate position, lat. 30° 34½' N., long. 121° 7' E.

NOTE.—This shoal must be considered doubtful, as it depends on one cast of the lead only, but there is no improbability in shoal water existing hereabouts.

This Notice affects the following Admiralty Charts:—Kue Shan Islands to the Yang Tse Kiang, No. 1199; Chapu Road, No. 1453. And China Sea Directory, Vol. III, 1894, page 401.

Channel between St. Christopher and Nevis Islands—Shoal Water Reported.

Information, dated 6th February, 1904, has been received from Commander H. T. Hibbert, His Majesty's ship "Fantome," of the existence of a shoal, with a depth of 2½ fathoms over it, in the channel between St. Christopher and Nevis, situated with Booby Island bearing S. 22° W., distant 9 cables, and the extremity of the point under St. Anthony Peaks N. 59° W.

Approximate position, lat. 17° 14½' N., long. 62° 35½' W.

Soundings of 4½ fathoms were obtained at distances of 3 cables N. 51° E. and S. 22° W. respectively from the position of the shoalest cast, with depths of 3 fathoms between.

This Notice affects the following Admiralty Chart:—St. Christopher and Nevis, No. 487. Also, West India Pilot, Vol. II, 1899, page 141.

No. 178.—CHINA—FORMOSA, NORTH COAST.

Foki Kaku—Breakers Reported Off.

Information, dated 21st January, 1904, has been received from Commander S. St. J. Farquhar, His Majesty's ship "Vestal," that when his vessel was steering to the north-eastward off the north coast of Formosa, about 10 miles N. 65° W., from Foki Kaku, a sounding of 11 fathoms, rocky bottom, was obtained in approximately lat. 25° 22½' N., long. 121° 21½' E., at the same time breakers were observed at a distance of about 1½ or 2 miles to the south-eastward.

Thick weather prevailed at the time, so that no bearings were obtained, and the position, depending on the reckoning, must be considered doubtful.

It must also be considered doubtful whether what was seen was a breaker over a danger, or merely an overfall caused by a tide rip over part of the foul ground.

[Variation 1° Westerly in 1904.]

This Notice affects the following Admiralty Chart:—Ocksen to Tung Yung, No. 1761. Also, China Sea Directory, Vol. III, 1894, page 267; and Supplement, 1898, page 22.

No bearings were taken as heavy rain squalls obscured the land. This shoal has been enclosed with a danger line and marked "shoal" on the Charts.

This Notice affects the following Admiralty Charts:—West India Islands, Nos. 762 and 763; Cape la Vela to Chagres, No. 396. Also, West India Pilot, Vol. I, 1903, page 267.
