MOTOR CAR ACT, 1903.

Borough of Todmorden.

WHEREAS by sub-section (1) of section 9 of the Motor Car Act, 1903, it is enacted that within any limits or place referred to in regulations made by the Local Government Board with a view to the safety of the public, on the application of the local authority of the area in which the limits or place are situate, a person shall not drive a motor car at a speed exceeding ten miles per hour:

Notice is hereby given that the Council of the borough of Todmorden have made application to the Local Government Board for a regulation to be made in pursuance of the said sub-section putting the above-mentioned provisions of that sub-section in force in the whole of the borough of Todmorden

Notice is hereby further given that objections to the making of any such regulation may be sent in writing to the Local Government Board at their office at Whitehall, London, on or before the second day of April, 1904.

A copy of any such objection should be sent at the same time by the objector to the Council of the said borough, addressed to the Town Clerk, Town Hall, Todmorden.

Dated this eleventh day of March, 1904.

H. C. Monro, Assistant Secretary, Local Government Board.

MOTOR CAR ACT, 1903.

City of Winchester.

WHEREAS the Council of the City of Winchester have made application to the Local Government Board for the issue under sub-section (1) of section 9 of the Motor Car Act, 1903, of a regulation referring to the City of Winchester as a place within which a person shall not drive a motor car at a speed exceeding ten miles per hour:

And whereas notice of the said application and of the time and manner in which objections should be made to any such regulation appeared in the London Gazette of the 29th of December, 1903, and in the Hampshire Chronicle, and the Hampshire Observer, of the 2nd of January, 1904:

And whereas certain objections to the making of any regulation in pursuance of the said subsection have been received by the Local Government Board, and it is expedient that further inquiry should be made in the matter of the said application:

Notice is hereby given that Edmund Pearse Burd, Esq., one of the Inspectors of the Local Government Board, will attend at the Guildhall, Winchester, on Thursday, the twenty-fourth day of March, 1904, at two o'clock in the afternoon, to hold a Local Inquiry into the subject matter of the said application:

And notice is hereby further given that any person interested may attend at such Inquiry and be heard with reference to the said application.

As witness my hand this eleventh day of March, 1904, at the office of the Local Government Board, Whitehall, London.

H. C. Monro, Assistant Secretary.

Aussen Jade Light-Vessel—Description of Lights and Vessel.

With reference to Notices to Mariners Nos. 580 of 1903 and 135 of 1904:—

Notice is hereby given, that the under-mentioned description of the new Aussen Jade light-vessel is given in the List of Lights for 1904, published by the German Government.

The Aussen Jade light-vessel exhibits two white fixed dioptric lights of the 6th order, elevated 51 and 31 feet above the sea, and visible in clear weather from a distance of 9 miles; the lights are exhibited from the fore and main mast heads; the vessel, which has three masts, with a black ball at the fore, and also at the main mast head, is painted red, with Aussen Jade in white letters on each side.

During thick or foggy weather a siren on board will give four blasts in succession every minute, thus:—blast, three seconds; silent interval, three seconds; blast, three seconds; silent interval, three seconds; blast, three seconds; silent interval, three seconds; blast, three seconds; silent interval, thirty-nine seconds. Should the siren be disabled or fog come on suddenly, a bell will be struck for two minutes in quick succession with silent intervals between of two minutes.

The light-vessel carries an anchor light, but if out of position, no lights will be shown, except the anchor light, the topmarks will be lowered, and a black flag shown at the mizen masthead by day.

As a warning to vessels standing into danger two guns will be fired at intervals of three minutes, a bell will be rung, or signal made by flags. Signals of vessels in distress will be repeated, or made for them.

This light-vessel is a signal station, and is in telephonic communication with Wangeroog Lighthouse, but this is temporarily suspended. The height of the water is also signalled from on board, but this cannot be done until telephonic communication is restored.

Approximate position, lat. 53° 50½' N., long. 7° 59½' E.

This Notice affects the following Admiralty Chart:—Elbe, Weser, and Jade Rivers, Nos. 1875 and 3346. Also, List of Lights, Part II, 1904, No. 377; and North Sea Pilot, Part IV, 1901, pages 182, 183.

METROPOLITAN BOROUGH OF BERMONDSEY.

Housing of the Working Classes Act, 1890, Sec. 39 (9).

The London (Fulford-street and Braddon-street, Rotherhithe) Improvement Scheme, 1897.

Modification of Scheme of Reconstruction under Part II.

The Council of the Metropolitan Borough of Bermondsey, in the Administrative County of London, hereby give notice that the Local Government Board, in pursuance of the powers vested in them, have made an Order, dated the 29th February, 1904, modifying the above Scheme of Reconstruction under Part II of the Housing of the Working Classes Act, 1890, of which the following is a copy:—

Whereas by an Order dated the 5th day of December, 1899, We, the Local Government Board, in pursuance of the powers given to Us by the Housing of the Working Classes Act, 1890 (hereinafter referred to as "the Act"), sanctioned, subject to the conditions and modifications therein mentioned, a Scheme (hereinafter referred to as "the Scheme"), made on the 2nd day of February, 1897, by the Vestry of the Parish of Rotherhithe (hereinafter referred to as "the Local Authority"), under sub-section (1) (b) of section 39 of the Act, for the improvement of an area in the said parish known as the Fulford-street and Braddon-street area, and situate in Fulford-street, Roney-street, Braddon-street, and Seven Step-alley, which area included the lands and houses delineated and coloured pink on the plan annexed to the Scheme, and the houses specified in the Schedule thereto;

And whereas the conditions or modifications subject to which We sanctioned the Scheme comprised the following conditions or modifications; that is to say,—

"(3.)—(a.) Suitable dwellings according to plans to be prepared by the local authority

' and agreed upon between them and the
 " London County Council shall be erected
 " on the area comprised in the Scheme for
 " the accommodation of five hundred and
 " fifty persons of the working class."

" (4.) One-half of the said area shall be cleared
 " of buildings as soon as the local authority
 " shall have acquired the same but until
 " such provision as is hereinbefore mentioned
 " shall have been made on such half of the
 " said area for the accommodation of two " hundred and seventy-five persons of the " working class no buildings occupied as
 " dwelling-houses at the date of the Scheme
 " in the remaining half of such area shall be
 " demolished."

And whereas by a further Order dated the 1st day of June, 1900, We duly confirmed the above-cited Order;

And whereas the Mayor, Aldermen, and Councillors of the Metropolitan Borough of Bermondsey (hereinafter referred to as "the Borough Council") are, as the successors of the said Vestry, in relation to the said Metropolitan Borough, the Local Authority for the purposes of Part II of the Act;

And whereas by an Order dated the 27th day of May, 1903, We permitted the Borough Council to modify the Scheme so as to require the Borough Council to demolish the buildings on the second half of the area comprised in the Scheme before provision was made for the accommodation of persons of the working class as required by the Scheme, and as soon as such demolition was completed to make provision for the accommodation of persons of the working class to the extent required by the Scheme as sanctioned and modified;

And whereas the Borough Council have in pursuance of the Scheme as modified by the last-mentioned Order demolished the whole of the buildings on the area comprised in the Scheme, and have made application to Us to permit the Scheme as sanctioned and modified as aforesaid to be further modified so as to allow the Borough Council to erect buildings on the area comprised in the Scheme for the accommodation of 980 persons of the working class instead of the 550 persons of the working class for whom accommodation was required to be provided in pursuance of the Scheme as sanctioned and modified as aforesaid:

And whereas We are satisfied that an improvement can be made in the details of the Scheme by the modification which forms the subject of the application of the Borough Council:

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the powers vested in Us in that behalf, We do hereby Declare and Direct as follows:—

We permit the Borough Council to further modify the Scheme so that the following provisions shall have effect:—

(a.) The Borough Council shall cause suitable buildings to be erected on the area comprised in the Scheme sufficient to provide dwellings for the accommodation of nine hundred and eighty persons of the working class instead of five hundred and fifty persons of that class required to be accommodated as aforesaid:

(b.) All the provisions of the Scheme as sanctioned and modified as aforesaid shall apply to the dwellings to be erected on the area comprised in the Scheme for the accommodation of the number of persons of the working class for whom in pursuance of this Order suitable dwellings are to be erected on that area.

(c.) The erection of the dwellings in pursuance of the provisions hereinbefore contained and applied may be undertaken by the Borough Council.

(d.) The borrowing powers conferred on the Local Authority by subdivision (5) of Article I of the Order dated the fifth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-nine and transferred to and exercisable by the Borough Council shall apply to the dwellings authorized by this Order to be erected.

Given under the Seal of Office of the Local Government Board, this twenty-ninth day of February, in the year one thousand nine hundred and four.

LONDON COUNTY COUNCIL (General Powers).

(Petition for Additional Provision.)

(Powers to Councils of Metropolitan Boroughs to Contribute to Purchase by London County Council of Springfield Estate, and to Borrow Money for that purpose and charge same on Rates; Power to London County Council to Dispose of Lands situate on site of tunnel constructed under the Thames Tunnel (Rotherhithe and Ratcliff) Act, 1900.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application will be made to Parliament by Petition for Additional Provision for leave to introduce into the Bill now pending in Parliament under the title of the "London County Council (General Powers)" Bill, promoted by the London County Council (hereinafter called "the Council") provision for the following purposes:—

To enable the Councils of Metropolitan Boroughs or any of such Councils to contribute towards the cost of the acquisition by the Council of the estate known as the Springfield Estate in the Metropolitan Borough of Hackney, such sum or sums as they may respectively think fit, and to borrow such moneys as may be required for the purpose of such contributions upon the security of and for that purpose to mortgage and assign the moneys and rates authorized to be raised and levied by the Councils of such Boroughs respectively and to provide for the repayment of moneys so borrowed.

To remove doubts as to the power of the Council, and if and so far as may be necessary to empower the Council to demise, lease, let, sell, and dispose of lands acquired by them under the powers of the Thames Tunnel (Rotherhithe and Ratcliff) Act, 1900, situate over the site of the tunnel or subway by that Act authorized or any part of that site and not required for the purposes of the said Act.

Printed copies of the proposed Additional Provision can be obtained at the offices of the undersigned.
