RUSSO-JAPANESE WAR.

Masters of British Merchant Vessels must immediately stop when summoned, on the heave to high seas, to do so by a warship of either belligerent, and must not resist being visited or searched for contraband of war by such warship, as any attempt on their part to evade or resist visit or search may be attended with serious consequences to themselves and to their vessels and cargoes.

The notifications printed below show what articles are considered by the Russian and Japanese Governments to be contraband of war.

Walter J. Howell,
Assistant Secretary.

Marine Department, Board of Trade,
March, 1904.

Notifications defining Contraband of War.

I. By Russia.

Extract from an Imperial Order published on the 29th February, 1904.

The following articles are deemed to be contraband of war :—

1. Small arms of every kind, and guns, mounted or in sections, as well as armour-plates ;
2. Ammunition for fire-arms, such as projectiles, shell-fuses, bullets, priming, cartridges, cartridge cases, powder, saltpetre, sulphur ;
3. Explosives and materials for causing explosions, such as torpedoes, dynamite, pyroxylene, various explosive substances, wire conductors, and everything used to explode mines and torpedoes ;
4. Artillery, engineering and camp equipment, such as gun carriages, ammunition waggons, boxes or packages of cartridges, field kitchens and forges, instrument waggons, pontoons, bridge trestles, barbed wire, harness, &c. ;
5. Articles of military equipment and clothing, such as bandoliers, cartridge boxes, knapsacks, straps, cuirasses, entrenching tools, drums, pots and pans, saddles, harness, completed parts of military uniforms, tents, &c. ;
6. Vessels bound for an enemy's port, even if under a neutral commercial flag, if it is apparent from their construction, interior fittings and other indications, that they have been built for warlike purposes and are proceeding to an enemy's port in order to be sold or handed over to the enemy ;
7. Boilers and every kind of naval machinery mounted or unmounted ;
8. Every kind of fuel, such as coal, naphtha, alcohol and other similar materials ;
9. Articles and materials for the installation of telegraphs, telephones, or for the construction of railroads ;
10. Generally, everything intended for warfare by sea or land, as well as rice, provisions and horses, beasts of burden and others which may be used for a warlike purpose, if they are transported on the account of or are destined for the enemy.

The following acts, forbidden to neutrals, are assimilated to contraband of war : The transport of the enemy's troops, of his despatches and correspondence, the supply of transports and warships to the enemy. Neutral vessels captured in the act of carrying contraband of this nature may, according to circumstances, be seized and even confiscated.

II. By Japan.

Notification published 10th February. Contraband of war divided into two classes :—

First Class.—Military weapons, ammunition, explosives and materials, including lead, saltpetre, sulphur, &c., and machinery for making them, uniforms naval and military, military accoutrements, armour-plated machinery, and materials for construction or equipment of ships of war, and all other goods which, though not coming under this list, are intended solely for use in war. Above-mentioned articles will be regarded as contraband of war when passing through or destined for enemy's army, navy or territory.

Second Class.—Provisions, drinks, horses, harness, fodder, vehicles, coal, timber, coins, gold and silver bullion, and materials for construction of telegraphs, telephones, railways. Above-mentioned articles will be regarded as contraband of war when destined for enemy's army or navy, or in such cases where being goods arriving at enemy's territory there is reason to believe they are intended for use of enemy's army or navy. Exception has been made as regards articles manifestly intended for use of vessel carrying them.

Order of Appointment No. 68.
(Correction.)

BOARD OF EDUCATION.

Appointed Day.

Correction of Notice of Order made under Section 27 (2) of the Education Act, 1902.

The following notice should be substituted for that which appeared in error in the Gazette of March 18th, 1904, with respect to the County of Cardigan, namely :—

Whereas by Sub-section (2) of Section 27 of the Education Act, 1902 (hereinafter referred to as "the Act"), it is enacted that the Act shall, except as expressly provided, come into operation on the appointed day, and the appointed day shall be the twenty-sixth day of March, nineteen hundred and three, or such other day, not being more than eighteen months later, as the Board of Education may appoint, and different days may be appointed for different purposes and for different provisions of the Act and for different Councils.

And whereas by an Order dated the sixteenth day of March, nineteen hundred and three, the Board of Education have fixed the first day of April, nineteen hundred and three, as the appointed day for the purposes of Sub-section (5) of Section 23 of the Act.

And whereas by an Order dated the twenty-second day of December, nineteen hundred and three, the Board of Education have fixed as the appointed day for the Council of the County of Cardigan, for all other purposes and provisions of the Act, the first day of April, nineteen hundred and four, or such later day or days as the Board might for any such other purpose or provision for the said Council thereafter appoint.

And whereas it is expedient that Part II of the Act and so much of the Act as is consequential upon and necessary for the operation of Part II of the Act shall come into operation for that Council upon the first day of April, nineteen hundred and four, aforesaid, but that the day appointed as that on which Part III of the Act shall come into operation for that Council shall be further postponed.

Now, therefore, the Board of Education, pursuant to the Act and to every other power enabling them in that behalf, hereby appoint as the appointed day for the said Council for all the other purposes and provisions aforesaid other than the purposes and provisions of Part II of the Act and of so much of the Act as is consequential upon and necessary for the operation of Part II of the Act, the first day of July, nineteen hundred and four, or such later day or days as the Board may for any such other purpose or provision for the said Council hereafter appoint.

Given under the Seal of Office of the Board of Education this eighteenth day of March, nineteen hundred and four.

JOHN R. DASENT,
An Assistant Secretary of the Board of Education.

This Order may be referred to as
Order of Appointment No. 69.

BOARD OF EDUCATION.

Appointed Day.

Order made under Section 27 (2) of the Education Act, 1902.

Whereas by Sub-section (2) of Section 27 of the Education Act, 1902 (hereinafter referred to as "the Act"), it is enacted that the Act shall, except as expressly provided, come into operation on the appointed day, and the appointed day shall be the twenty-sixth day of March, nineteen hundred and three, or such other day, not being more than eighteen months later, as the Board of Education may appoint, and different days may be appointed for different purposes and for different provisions of the Act and for different Councils.

And whereas by an Order dated the sixteenth day of March, nineteen hundred and three, the Board of Education have fixed the first day of April, nineteen hundred and three, as the appointed day for the purposes of Sub-section (5) of Section 23 of the Act.

And whereas by an Order dated the twenty-second day of December, nineteen hundred and three, the Board of Education have fixed as the appointed day for the Council of the County Borough of Swansea for all other purposes and provisions of the Act the first day of April, nineteen hundred and four, or such later day or days as the Board might for any such purpose or provision for the said Council thereafter appoint.

Now, therefore, the Board of Education, pursuant to the Act and to every other power enabling them in that behalf, hereby appoint as the appointed day for the said Council for all such other purposes and provisions the first day of July, nineteen hundred and four, or such later day or days as the Board may for any such other purpose or provision for the said Council hereafter appoint.

Given under the Seal of Office of the Board of Education this eighteenth day of March, nineteen hundred and four.

MOTOR CAR ACT, 1903.

Borough of Bury.

WHEREAS by sub-section (1) of section 9 of the Motor Car Act, 1903, it is enacted that within any limits or place referred to in regulations made by the Local Government Board with a view to the safety of the public, on the application of the local authority of the area in which the limits or place are situate, a person shall not drive a motor car at a speed exceeding ten miles per hour:

Notice is hereby given that the Council of the borough of Bury have made application to the Local Government Board for a regulation to be made in pursuance of the said sub-section putting the above-mentioned provisions of that sub-section in force in so much of the borough as is comprised within a circle drawn with a radius of three-quarters of a mile from the parish church in the said borough.

A map of the borough showing the area which would be affected by the said Regulation may be inspected between the hours of 10 A.M. and 4 P.M. at the office of the Local Government Board, Whitehall, London, and a duplicate of the said map may be inspected at the office of the Town Clerk of the borough, at the Town Clerk's office, Bury.

Notice is hereby further given that objections to the making of any such regulation may be sent in writing to the Local Government Board at their office at Whitehall, London, on or before the eleventh day of April, 1904.

A copy of any such objection should be sent at the same time by the objector to the Council of the said borough, addressed to the Town Clerk, at the Town Clerk's office aforesaid.

Dated this twenty-first day of March, 1904.

H. C. Monro, Assistant Secretary, Local Government Board.

NOTICES TO MARINERS.

(Nos. 213 to 214 of the year 1904.)

[The bearings are magnetic, and those concerning the visibility of lights are given from seaward.]

No. 213.—FRANCE, WEST COAST— FINISTERE.

Guilvinec (Guilfinec)—Intended Red Sector in Front Leading Light.

The French Government has given notice, dated 1st March, 1904, that the front leading light at Port Guilvinec (Guilfinec) will shortly be altered to show red from the bearing of N. 5° W., through north, to N. 23° E., and white (as before) from N. 23° E., through east, to S. 78° E., but obscured in other directions; the red light will be visible in clear weather from a distance of 5 miles, its light power being 28 candles. In other respects the light will remain as before.

Approximate position, lat. 47° 47½' N., long. 4° 16¾' W.

The red sector may be exhibited experimentally, but further notice will be given when it has been established.

[Variation 17° Westerly in 1904.]

This Notice affects the following Admiralty Charts:—Ile de Groix to Ras de Sein, No. 2645; Anse de Benodet to Chaussée de Sein, No. 2351. Also, List of Lights, Part IV, 1904, No. 277; Sailing Directions for the West Coast of France, &c., 1900, page 84; and Supplement, 1903, page 10.

No. 214.—IRELAND, WEST COAST.

Sligo Harbour—Pilot Signals at Night.

Information, dated 8th March, 1904, has been received through the Board of Trade that vessels arriving in Sligo Bay during the night and making signals for a pilot will be answered by a "flare" from the Pilot Lookout on Raghly Point, after which a pilot will go off as soon as possible. In stormy weather the pilot may not be able to embark, but the "flare" will be shown to facilitate vessels keeping clear of the point.

Approximate position, lat. 54° 19½' N., long. 8° 39' W.

CAUTION.—Mariners are warned not to approach the flare closely, as if it was shown from a pilot boat, and on no account to neglect using the lead.

This Notice affects Irish Coast Pilot, 1902, pages 33, 460.

By command of their Lordships,

W. J. L. Wharton, Hydrographer.

Hydrographic Office, Admiralty, London.

BOROUGH OF WALSALL.

The Tramways Act, 1870.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Mayor Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Walsall, acting by the Council of the said borough as the Local Authority, in pursuance of the powers contained in section 46 of the Tramways Act, 1870, on the 14th day of March, 1904, made the following Bye-law with respect to the Walsall Corporation Tramways, namely:—

"From and after the date of the confirmation of this Bye-law, the Bye-law numbered 3 in the code of Bye-laws relating to tramways, which were made by the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the borough of Walsall, as the Local Authority under section 46 of the Tramways Act, 1870, on the tenth day of August, in the year one thousand nine hundred and three, and were confirmed by the Board of Trade on the ninth day of October in the same year, shall be repealed."

The repealed Bye-law above referred to provided that "the driver or conductor of a car shall stop the same for the purpose of setting down or taking up passengers when required."

Dated this 17th day of March, 1904.

By order,
JOHN R. COOPER,
Town Clerk.

ASHTON-UPON-MERSEY URBAN DISTRICT COUNCIL.

In the Matter of the Manchester Southern Tramways Act, 1903.

To the Manchester Southern Tramways Company.

THE Ashton-upon-Mersey Urban District Council, in pursuance of a Resolution passed by such Council at a Special Meeting, convened and held upon the eighth day of March, 1904, as directed by sub-section (2) of section 90 of the Manchester Southern Tramways Act, 1903, do hereby intimate to you the desire of the Council to exercise the powers and assume the obligations conferred or imposed on you by the said Act in relation to the construction, maintenance, and user of so much of the tramways as are situate in the district of the said Council.

Dated this eighth day of March, one thousand nine hundred and four.

The Common Seal of the Urban District Council of Ashton-upon-Mersey was hereunto affixed in the presence of JOHN CLARKE, Chairman.

JAMES ODDIE BARROW, Clerk.

BYE-LAWS AND REGULATIONS made by the Hartlepool Electric Tramways Company Limited and the General Electric Tramways Company (hereinafter referred to as "the Companies") under the powers conferred on the said respective Companies by the Railway Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, the Tramway Act, 1870, the West Hartlepool Light Railways Order, 1898, and the West Hartlepool Light Railways (Deviation, &c.) Order, 1901.

1. The Bye-laws and Regulations hereinafter set forth shall extend and apply to all carriages of the Companies and to all places with respect to which the Companies have power to make bye-laws or regulations.

2. Every passenger shall enter or depart from a carriage by the hindmost or conductor's platform, except in the case of carriages which are in charge of one official only, when every passenger shall enter or depart from a carriage by the driver's platform and not otherwise.

3. No passenger shall smoke inside any carriage or any compartment of a carriage unless a written notice permitting smoking be attached to the carriage at the time such person is travelling thereby. Any person offending against this Bye-law is liable, in addition to incurring the penalty below mentioned, to be summarily removed at the first opportunity from the carriage.

4. No passenger or other person shall, while travelling in or upon any carriage, play or perform upon any musical instrument.

5. A person in a state of intoxication shall not be allowed to enter or mount upon any carriage, and if found in or upon any carriage shall be immediately removed by or under the direction of the conductor.

6. No person shall swear or use obscene or offensive language whilst in or upon any carriage, or commit any nuisance in or upon or against any carriage, or wilfully interfere with the comfort of any passenger.

7. No person shall wilfully cut, tear, soil, or damage the cushions or the linings, or remove or deface any number plate, printed or other notice, in or on the carriage, or break or scratch any window of or otherwise wilfully damage any carriage. Any person acting in contravention of this Regulation shall be liable to the penalty prescribed by these Bye-laws and Regulations, in addition to the liability to pay the amount of any damage done.

8. A person whose dress or clothing might, in the opinion of the conductor of a carriage, soil or injure the linings or cushions of the carriage, or the dress or clothing of any passenger, or a person who, in the opinion of the conductor, might for any other reason be offensive to passengers, shall not be entitled to enter or remain in the interior of any carriage, and may be prevented from entering the interior of any carriage, and shall not enter the interior of any carriage after having been requested not to do so by the conductor, and if found in the interior of any carriage, shall, on the request of the conductor, leave the interior of the carriage, upon the fare, if previously paid, being returned.

9. Each passenger shall, upon demand, pay to the conductor or other duly authorized servant of the Companies, the fare legally demandable for the journey.

10. Each passenger shall show his ticket (if any) when required so to do, to the conductor or any duly authorized servant of the Companies, and shall also, when required so to do, either deliver up his ticket or pay the fare legally demandable for the distance travelled over by such passenger.

11. Any ticket for the time being issued by the Companies in respect of fares shall be only available for the carriage on or for which it is issued, and no passenger shall be entitled to leave any carriage for any purpose whatever at any stage and resume his journey by a different carriage to that on or for which such ticket was issued without payment of a fresh fare from the point at which the passenger entered the second or other carriage.

12. A passenger not being an artizan, mechanic, or daily labourer, within the true intent and meaning of the Statutory Provisions relating to the Companies shall not use or attempt to use any ticket intended only for such artizans, mechanics, or daily labourers.

13. Personal or other luggage (including the tools of artizans, mechanics, and daily labourers) shall, unless otherwise permitted by the conductor, be placed on the front or driver's platform, and not in the interior or on the roof of any carriage.

14. No passenger or other person not being a servant of the Companies shall be permitted to travel on the steps or platforms of any carriage, or stand on the roof or sit on the outside rail on the roof of any carriage, and any passenger or other person so travelling, standing, or sitting, shall cease to do so immediately on request by the conductor.

15. No person except a passenger or intending passenger shall enter or mount any carriage, and no person shall hold or hang on by or to any part of any carriage.

16. When any carriage contains in the interior thereof the full number of passengers for which seating accommodation according to the notice thereof attached to the carriage is provided in such interior no person beyond such number shall enter, mount, or remain therein except by the express permission of the conductor or other official of the Companies being first obtained. When any carriage contains on the outside thereof the full number of passengers for which seating accommodation is provided on such outside, no person beyond such number shall enter, mount, or remain thereon.

17. No person shall enter, mount or leave, or attempt to enter, mount or leave, any carriage whilst in motion.

18. No dog or other animal shall be allowed in or on any carriage, except by the permission of the conductor, nor in any case in which the conveyance of such dog or other animal might be offensive or an annoyance to passengers. No person shall take a dog or other animal into any carriage after having been requested not to do so by the conductor. Any dog or other animal taken into or on any carriage in breach of this Regulation shall be removed by the person in charge of such dog or other animal from the carriage immediately upon request by the conductor, and in default of compliance with such request may be removed by or under the direction of the conductor.

19. No person shall travel in or on any carriage of the Companies with loaded firearms.

20. No passenger shall wilfully obstruct or impede any officer or servant of the Companies in the execution of his duty upon or in connection with any carriage or tramway or light railway of the Companies.

21. The conductor of each carriage shall enforce or prevent the breach of these Bye-laws and Regulations to the best of his ability.

22. Any person offending against or committing a breach of any of these Bye-laws or Regulations shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding forty shillings.

23. The expression "conductor" shall include any officer or servant in the employment of either of the respective Companies and having charge of a carriage.

24. There shall be placed and kept placed in a conspicuous position inside of each carriage in use a printed copy of these Bye-laws and Regulations.

25. On these Bye-laws coming into force, the Bye-laws made by the General Electric Tramways Company on the 1st day of May, 1896, shall be considered as repealed.

26. These Bye-laws shall come into force on the first day of May, one thousand nine hundred and four.

has by absence from the United Kingdom for more than 12 months, or by reason of his neglect or refusal to act or by his unfitness to act as a trustee of and under an indenture of settlement dated the 4th October, 1901, and made between the defendants Joseph Edward and Dora Lyndall, of the 1st and 2nd parts respectively, and the said Alfred Stapleton Lyndall and the plaintiff of the 3rd part, being a settlement made pursuant to articles entered into on the 15th June, 1900, in anticipation of the marriage of the defendant Joseph Edward Lyndall, and the defendant Dora Lyndall (then Dora Farr), vacated his office or position as a trustee of the funds comprised in the said settlement. 2. That Henry Byrne-Jones, of 46, Queen Victoria-street, in the city of London, Accountant, or some other fit and proper person may be appointed a trustee of the said settlement jointly with the plaintiff and in the place of the said Alfred Stapleton Lyndall. 3. That the real and personal property and the right to sue for and recover any chose in action subject to and comprised in the said settlement may be vested in the plaintiff and the said Henry Byrne-Jones, or such other fit and proper person as aforesaid, as trustees of the said settlement. 4. Against the defendant Thomas James Brooks and the defendants Joseph Edward and Dora Lyndall a declaration that the pledge or hypothecation of the furniture and effects comprised in the said settlement of 4th October, 1901, and alleged to have been made on or about the 1st April, 1903, is bad in law and void against the plaintiff and the other trustee or trustees of the said settlement. 5. And against the said defendants Thomas James Brooks, Joseph Edward Lyndall, and Dora Lyndall delivery to the plaintiff of the said furniture and effects. 6. And against the said defendants damages for the conversion of the said furniture and effects. 7. Against the defendants Joseph Edward and Dora Lyndall a declaration that the plaintiff should redeem the said furniture and effects by discharging the claim of the defendant Thomas James Brooks out of the capital funds in his possession, as trustee of the said settlement, and that he should retain out of the funds to come to him, as income of the trust funds subject to the said settlement, sufficient to reimburse and restore to the said trust funds the amount so disbursed by him in discharging the said claim as aforesaid. 8. A receiver. 9. That the costs hereof may be provided for. And take notice, that by an Order dated the 10th day of March, 1904, it was ordered that the publication by advertisement in this form of the said Writ of Summons and of the said Order twice in the Times, and twice in the Daily Mail, and once in the London Gazette should be deemed good and sufficient service of the said Writ of Summons upon you. And take notice, that in default of your causing an appearance to be entered for you at the Central Office, Royal Courts of Justice, London, within eight days after the last of such advertisements, the plaintiff may proceed in the said action, and Judgment may be given in your absence.
