*Board of Trade (Harbour Department),
London, March 30, 1904.
H. 4699.*

The Board of Trade have received a copy of the following Notice, dated March 23, issued by the Governor of Malta :—

Government Notice. No. 64.

His Excellency the Governor, acting on the advice of the Council of Health, has been pleased to repeal Government Notice No. 240 of the 21st October, 1903, and to direct that the following regulations be observed as regards vessels and passengers, viz :—

Infected Places.

1. The following countries and ports are declared to be infected :—

- (a.) Arabia (excepting Perim and Aden);
- (b.) China;
- (c.) India;
- (d.) Alexandria (Egypt);
- (e.) All ports in the Persian Gulf.

Infected Vessels.

2. Infected vessels are vessels which have, or have had, on board, during the voyage or the preceding 20 days, cases of cholera, yellow fever, plague, or any disease with symptoms which, in the opinion of the Chief Government Medical Officer, resemble the symptoms of the said diseases.

Vessels which are not allowed to enter the Harbour, but are allowed to communicate with Quarantine Establishments.

3. Infected vessels.

4. Vessels with pilgrims from the East, which do not carry a recognized Medical Officer.

Vessels allowed to load in Quarantine.

5. Infected vessels carrying a recognized Medical Officer, and not having on board an actual case of any of the diseases mentioned in clause 2.

6. Vessels with pilgrims from the East which carry a recognized Medical Officer.

7. Vessels from infected places not having on board an actual case of any of the diseases mentioned in clause 2, when arriving within 10 days from date of departure.

8. Vessels arriving at Malta without a clean bill of health.

Vessels from Infected Places admitted to Pratique.

9. Vessels without a clean bill of health, or from infected places, will be admitted to pratique after 10 days from date of departure.

Pilots allowed to board Vessels.

10. Pilots will be allowed to board the vessels referred to in clauses 5, 6, 7, and 8 for the purpose of taking them into the Quarantine Harbour, subject to the following conditions:—

(a.) The pilot shall go direct from his boat to the bridge, without holding communication with any person except the Officers and crew of the vessel, and after the vessel is moored, shall be taken in one of her boats to the Lazaretto, where his clothes and person shall be disinfected.

(b.) To prevent communication or contact with passengers, the Master of the vessel shall cause the portion of the deck over which the pilot has to pass to be roped off, and shall exclude from such space and from the bridge all persons except the Officers and crew of the vessel so long as the pilot is on board.

Medical Inspection.

11. All vessels and passengers are subject to medical inspection on arrival.

Passengers.

12. Passengers, before landing, must declare on oath before a Marine Police Officer that they have not been in, or have not communicated with, an infected place within the last 10 days. Otherwise they shall remain in quarantine till the expiration of 10 days from the date of departure.

13. Passengers arriving on board vessels without a clean bill of health, and the Officers of such vessels, will be permitted to land after medical inspection, but will not be permitted to land any of their luggage or effects until the same shall have been thoroughly disinfected. This clause does not apply to deck passengers.

14. Passengers not otherwise provided for are subjected to the restrictions applicable to the vessels on which they arrive.

15. When 20 days have elapsed from the last case of plague, cholera, or other disease against which restrictions have been in force with regard to a country or place declared to be an infected place, a notice will be issued by the Collector of Customs to the effect that the place or port is no longer to be dealt with as infected.

The word "passengers," as used in this notice, except in clause 14, includes the officers and crew of vessels.

By command,

E. M. MEREWETHER,

Lieutenant-Governor and Chief Secretary to Government.

By command of their Lordships,

W. J. L. Wharton, Hydrographer.

Hydrographic Office, Admiralty, London,
28th to 29th March, 1904

COUNTY BOROUGH OF NORTHAMPTON.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the County Borough of Northampton, as promoters and owners of the Northampton Corporation Tramways, acting by the Council and as the Local Authority, under and in pursuance of the powers conferred upon them by the Tramways Act, 1870, and the Northampton Corporation Tramways Order, 1901, on the 10th day of March, 1904, made the following Bye-laws and Regulations, with respect to the Northampton Corporation Tramways, viz:—

Interpretation of Terms.

1. Throughout these Bye-laws the following words shall have the meanings respectively assigned to them.

“Corporation” means the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the County Borough of Northampton, acting by the Council, and shall include any lessees or other persons for the time being working the tramway system hereinafter referred to.

“Tramways Committee” means the Committee for the time being appointed by the Corporation to undertake the control and management of the tramways.

“Tramways” means the tramway system of the Corporation, situate within the County Borough of Northampton.

“Car” means any carriage or car run upon the tramways for the conveyance of passengers.

“Conductor” means any officer or servant of the Tramways Committee having the charge of or helping in the charge of a car.

“Driver” means any officer or servant of the Tramways Committee driving or helping to drive a car.

“Officer” means any tramway Inspector or any Inspector of public carriages in the employ of the Corporation or any member of the Borough Police Force.

Application of Bye-laws and Regulations.

2. The Bye-laws hereinafter set forth shall extend and apply to all cars of the Corporation, and to all vehicles authorized by the Council used upon the tramways, and to all places with respect to which the Corporation have power to make Bye-laws.

Entering and Leaving Cars.

3. Every passenger shall enter or depart from a car by the step of the hindermost or conductor's platform, and not otherwise, unless so directed by the conductor or other authorized officer.

When a car stops no person shall board the car before any passenger desiring to alight therefrom shall have done so.

Entering a Car when in Motion.

4. No person shall enter, mount, or leave, or attempt to enter, mount, or leave any car which is in motion.

Stopping Places.

5. The conductor shall be bound to cause the car to be stopped for the purpose of enabling passengers to enter or leave the same only at such places as may be indicated along the route from time to time by the Tramways Committee.

Full Number of Passengers.

6. When any car contains in the interior thereof the full number of passengers for which seating accommodation, according to the notice thereof attached to the car, is provided in such interior, no person beyond such number shall enter, mount, or remain therein except by the express permission of the conductor first obtained.

When any car contains on the outside thereof the full number of passengers for which seating accommodation, according to the notice thereof attached to the car, is provided on such outside, no person beyond such number shall enter, mount, or remain thereon. When a car contains the full number of passengers, a notice to that effect shall be placed in conspicuous letters and in a conspicuous position on the car.

Smoking.

7. No person shall smoke or carry lighted pipes, cigars, or cigarettes inside any car except in a compartment (if any) specially set apart for the purpose, nor shall any passenger smoke or carry lighted pipes, cigars, or cigarettes on the outside of any car while occupying such front seats of the car as may from time to time be set apart for the use of non-smokers.

Spitting.

8. No person shall spit in or on any car.

Offensive Language or Conduct.

9. No person shall swear or use obscene, indecent, or offensive language, or conduct himself offensively whilst in or upon any car, or commit any nuisance in or upon any car, or in any way wilfully interfere with the comfort of any passenger.

10. No person shall play or perform upon any musical instrument, or distribute advertisements or tracts of any kind, or beg or collect money, alms, or subscriptions, or sell, or offer for sale, any article, or play any game, or gamble, or deposit remnants of food or fruit in or upon any car, and any person acting in contravention of this Bye-law shall, in addition to incurring the penalty hereinafter provided, forfeit his fare, and be liable to be summarily removed from the car by or under the direction of the conductor or other officer.

11. No person shall commit any nuisance in or against any car, tramway station, waiting-room, or premises used in connection with the tramway system.

Intoxicated Persons, &c.

12. Any person who is, in the opinion of the conductor, in a state of intoxication, or who from that or any other cause is, in the opinion of the conductor, unfit to be a passenger on a car, shall not be allowed to board or enter upon any car, and if any such person be found in or upon any car he or she shall be requested by the conductor to leave the car, failing which it shall be lawful for the conductor, or any other officer or servant of the Corporation, to remove such person from the car.

Objectionable Persons.

13. No person whose dress or clothing might, in the opinion of the conductor, soil or injure the seats, linings, or cushion of the car, or the dress or clothing of any passenger, and no person who, in the opinion of the conductor, might for any other reason be offensive to passengers, shall be entitled to enter or remain in or upon any car, and any such person may be prevented from entering or remaining in or upon any car, and shall not enter, or be, or remain in or upon any part thereof after having been requested not to do so by the conductor, and, if found in or upon any car, shall, on request of the conductor, leave the car, upon the fare, if previously paid, being returned.

Persons suffering from Disease.

14. No person afflicted with any infectious or contagious disease shall board, enter, or travel on any car, and no driver or conductor shall wilfully or knowingly suffer or permit any such person so to do.

Payment of Fares.

15. Every passenger shall, upon demand, pay to the conductor, or other duly authorized officer of the Corporation, the fare legally payable for his journey, and in any case, whether demanded or not, shall pay such fare before leaving the car, and shall obtain a ticket therefor. Such ticket shall not be transferable, and shall be available only for the journey and on the car for and on which the same is issued, except in the case of special return or transfer tickets. Any person travelling on or upon a car shall do so subject to the conditions shown upon the ticket, and any person leaving a car shall be deemed to have completed his journey.

16. No person under five years of age who is sitting on the lap of a passenger, shall be liable to pay a fare, provided that this provision shall not apply to more than one such child accompanying any one passenger. Any additional child, irrespective of age, accompanying such person shall pay the full ordinary fare.

Tickets.

17. Each passenger shall immediately upon demand show his ticket to any officer of the Corporation duly authorized, and shall also, when required to do so, either deliver up his ticket, or pay the fare for the distance travelled over by such passenger.

Artizans' Tickets.

18. A passenger not being an artisan, mechanic, or daily labourer, within the true intent and meaning of the Acts of Parliament relating to the Corporation Tramways, shall not use, or attempt to use, any ticket intended only for such artisans, mechanics, or daily labourers.

Dogs.

19. No dog or other animal will be suffered to accompany passengers inside the cars. Any dog or other animal taken into or found on any car, shall be removed by the person in charge thereof from the car immediately upon request by the conductor, and in default of compliance with such request, such dog or other animal may be removed by or under the direction of the conductor. Provided that where, by a notice affixed in a conspicuous position on any car, the Tramways Committee shall prescribe conditions upon and subject to which dogs and other animals may be taken upon any car, this Bye-law shall not prohibit the taking of dogs or other animals on the outside of any such car under and subject to such conditions.

Damaging Cars.

20. No person shall wilfully cut, tear, soil, or damage the seats, cushions, curtains, or linings, or remove or deface any number plate, printed or other notice, in or on any car, or break or scratch any window of or otherwise wilfully damage any car. Any person acting in contravention of this Regulation shall be liable, in addition to the penalty prescribed by these Bye-laws, to pay the amount of any damage so done.

Luggage.

21. Personal or other luggage not exceeding 28 lbs. in weight (including the tools of artisans, mechanics, and daily labourers) shall, unless otherwise permitted by the conductor, be placed on the front or driver's platform, and not inside or on the roof of any car. The conductor may decline to take into or upon the car any luggage of a form or nature calculated to annoy or inconvenience any passenger.

Firearms, &c.

22. No person shall travel in or on any car with firearms or dangerous articles or things, and no person shall carry or deposit upon any car any luggage, article, instrument, or implement which shall cause hindrance or annoyance to passengers, or which may in the opinion of the conductor be dangerous or offensive to any passengers. Provided that nothing contained in this Bye-law shall apply to persons in the Naval, Military, Reserve, or Auxiliary Forces carrying unloaded firearms.

Disabled Cars.

23. If at any time a car becomes disabled or in any way injured, or from any cause unable to proceed, the passengers shall, upon the request of the conductor, leave the same, and if such passengers have paid their fares, shall not be entitled to demand back the amount of their fare so paid; but on production of their tickets shall be allowed to travel by the next available car the remainder of the distance in respect of which they have paid their fares. No person shall, except with the leave of the conductor, enter a disabled or injured car.

Travelling on Step, &c.

24. No passenger or other person not being an authorized officer of the Corporation shall travel or ride on the steps, driver's platform, outside rails, buffers, or guards of any car, or stand upon the upper deck of any car, while the same is in motion, or, except in accordance with the regulations of the Corporation exhibited upon such car, stand in the interior of any car.

25. No person, except a passenger or intending passenger, shall enter or board a car, and no person shall hold or hang on by or to any part of a car.

General Road Traffic.

26. All persons in charge of carts, carriages, or other vehicles, or of animals travelling or being driven on or over, or standing on any part of any road or street in which the tramways are laid, shall, on any car approaching, take or drive them out of the way of the car with all despatch so as to keep the tramway clear for the use of the car. The person in charge of any vehicle or animal who shall not, as soon as possible after the driver of any car has given proper warning, drive or take such vehicle or animal off the tramway rails, so as to allow the car to proceed, shall be liable to the penalty hereinafter provided.

Interference with duties of Conductor or Driver.

27. No person shall wilfully obstruct or impede any officer or servant of the Corporation in the execution of his duty upon or in connection with any car or tramway, and no person other than the conductor or driver shall change or remove the route indicators or destination boards, or interfere with the contrrollers, brakes, lights, ventilators, trolley cord, or any part of a car or its equipment.

28. No person shall ring or cause to be rung any of the signal bells upon any car, so as to effect the unnecessary stopping of any car, nor in any event signal a car to start.

Power to remove Passengers committing Offences.

29. Any person who shall commit, whilst on any car, any offence or any breach of these Bye-laws shall, if he persists in the offence after being requested by a conductor to desist, be liable to be immediately removed by the conductor or other officer from the car, and if such person shall have paid his fare, shall not be entitled to demand back the amount of his fare so paid.

Conductors and Drivers to enforce Bye-laws.

30. Every conductor and driver shall, to the best of his ability, enforce these Bye-laws and Regulations and prevent the breach thereof.

Penalty.

31. Any person offending against or committing a breach of any of these Bye-laws and Regulations shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding forty shillings.

32. There shall be placed, and kept placed, in a conspicuous position inside of each car in use a printed copy of these Bye-laws.

33. These Bye-laws and Regulations shall come into force on the 26th day of May, 1904.

Dated this 29th day of March, 1904.

1904. L. 042.

In the Matter of the LANCASHIRE AND YORKSHIRE BANK Limited, and in the Matter of the Companies (Memorandum of Association) Act, 1890.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a petition was, on the 7th day of March, 1904, presented to His Majesty's High Court of Justice, by the above named Company, to confirm a Special Resolution of the Company passed at an Extraordinary General Meeting of the said Company, held on the 26th day of January, 1904, and subsequently confirmed at an Extraordinary General Meeting of the said Company, held on the 12th day of February, 1904, and which resolution runs as follows:—"That it is desirable under the provisions of the Companies (Memorandum of Association) Act, 1890, to alter the objects of the Company set forth in clause 3 of its Memorandum of Association, and accordingly that such clause be altered so as to run as follows, that is to say—3. The objects for which the Company is established are:—(1.) To adopt and carry into effect, or, if expedient, to agree to any modifications of an agreement, dated the 8th day of April, 1872, made between the Alliance Bank Limited and William Arncliffe for the transfer to the Company of the assets and liabilities of the Manchester Office of the Alliance Bank Limited. (2.) The carrying on the trade or business of banking in all its branches, discounting, dealing in exchanges, specie, securities and other representatives of value, receiving deposits of money and valuables, receiving and making loans, investing moneys, taking and realizing securities, whether real or personal, acting as agents in money matters for any Government and other authorities and for public and private bodies and persons establishing and carrying on of banks, branch banks, and agencies where-ever the Company think fit, and the carrying on of all other monetary and financial business and operations whatsoever, and the doing all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of any of the above objects and in particular:—(3.) To purchase, acquire, and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, goodwill, and liabilities of any person, partnership, or Company carrying on any banking or discount business. (4.) To purchase, take on lease, or in exchange, or otherwise acquire any real or personal property, and any rights or privileges which the company may think necessary or convenient with reference to any of these objects or the acquisition of which may seem calculated to facilitate the realization of any securities held by the Company, or to prevent or diminish any apprehended loss or liability. (5.) To enter into any arrangements for sharing profit, union of interest, amalgamation, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concession, or otherwise, with any person, partnership, or company, where such arrangements seem conducive to any of the Company's objects. (6.) To establish or promote any Company for the purpose of its acquiring any property belonging to this Company or in which this Company is interested or for any other purpose which may seem conducive to this Company's interests. (7.) To issue circular notes, bills, drafts and other instruments and securities, whether payable to bearer or otherwise, and to make the same or any of them assignable free from equities. (8.) To undertake and execute any trusts the undertaking whereof may seem desirable, and also to undertake the office of receiver, treasurer, or auditor, and to keep for any Company, Government authority, or body any register relating to any stocks, funds, shares, or securities, or to undertake any duties in relation to the registration of transfers, the issue of certificates or otherwise. (9.) To obtain any Act of Parliament which may seem conducive to any of the Company's objects, and to oppose any proceedings or applications which may seem calculated directly or indirectly to prejudice the Company's interests. (10.) To effect and obtain or to give all such guarantees and indemnities or counter-guarantees and counter-indemnities as may seem expedient. (11.) To take or concur in taking all such steps and proceedings as may seem best calculated to uphold and support the credit of the Company, and to obtain and justify public confidence, and to avert or minimize financial disturbances which might affect the Company. (12.) To establish and support, or aid in the establishment and support, of associations, institutions, funds, trusts, and arrangements calculated to benefit employees or ex-employees of the Company, or the dependents or connections of such persons, and to grant pensions, allowances, or donations to any persons who have been in the employ of the Company, or of any persons whose business may have been acquired by the Company, or to dependents or connections of any such persons, and to subscribe or guarantee money for charitable or benevolent objects or for any public or general object. (13.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account or otherwise deal with, all or any part of the property and rights for the time being of the Company, for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares or securities or any other Company having objects alike her or in part similar to those of this Company. (14.) To undertake, enter upon, and carry out all other business and transactions usual in establishments and concerns for carrying on banking, and consistent with the laws now or hereafter in force concerning banking companies, including the underwriting of any stocks, funds, shares, or securities." And notice is further given, that the said petition is directed to be heard before the Honourable Mr. Justice Farwell, on Tuesday, the 19th day of April, 1904, and any person interested in the said Company, whether as creditor, or otherwise, desirous to oppose the making of an Order for the confirmation of the said resolution under the above Act, should appear at the time of hearing by himself, or his Counsel, for the purpose; and a copy of the said petition will be furnished to any such person requiring the same by the Company's solicitors, Messrs. Parkinson, Slack, and Needham, 10, York-street, Manchester, or their London Agents, Messrs. Rowcliffes, Rawle, and Co., of 1, Bedford-row, London, W.C., on payment of the regulated charge for the same.—Dated the 30th day of March, 1904.
