The KING has been pleased to give directions for the appointment of Hugh Clarence Bourne, Esq., M.A., Barrister-at-Law, to be Colonial Secretary of the Island of Jamaica.

Whitehall, April 28, 1904.

The following Addresses were presented to His Majesty on the occasion of Their Majesties calling at Holyhead, on the 25th April, on Their way to Ireland:—

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

We, the County Council of Anglesey, desire to tender to Your Majesty and our Most gracious Queen Alexandra expressions of our loyalty and duty on the occasion of Your Majesties passing through our County.

We humbly acknowledge with thankfulness the great interest and care which Your Majesties manifest towards all classes of Your subjects in all portions of Your extended Empire, and it is our devout trust and prayer that the Almighty may be pleased to extend to Your Majesty and our Most gracious Queen many years of health and happiness and a long reign over a devoted people attended with peace and prosperity.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

"I thank you on behalf of the Queen and Myself for the loyal Address which you have presented to Us on the occasion of Our passing through your County on Our way to Ireland.

"Your good wishes for Our health and happiness afford Us the greatest gratification, and I shall always maintain the warmest interest in the welfare of My faithful subjects in this portion of My dominions."

To Their Most Excellent Majesties King Edward VII and Queen Alexandra.

The humble Address of the Chairman and Members of the Holyhead Urban District Council and the Inhabitants of the District of Holyhead.

May it please Your Majesties,

We, the Chairman and Members of the Holyhead Urban District Council, on behalf of ourselves and of the inhabitants of the said District, desire to accord to Your Majesties a most hearty welcome to our town and neighbourhood on the occasion of Your passing through on Your way to Ireland.

We rejoice that Your Majesties have been graciously pleased to give us this opportunity of renewing our assurances of loyalty and devotion to Your Throne. There are many inhabitants in the town of Holyhead who look back with much pleasure to a previous occasion, when, with our late beloved Sovereign Queen Victoria, His Majesty the King availed Himself of the opportunity of seeing some of the places of interest in and near the town of Holyhead; and we, Your Majesties' faithful subjects, would be much pleased and honoured if His Majesty, with our gracious Queen, would renew His acquaintance with our town on the next occasion when in Wales.

We humbly pray that Your Majesties may long be spared to rule over Your loyal subjects and that the Almighty in His infinite wisdom may grant Your Majesties many years of health and happiness.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

“I thank you on behalf of the Queen and Myself for the loyal Address of welcome which you have presented to Us, and for the good wishes which you express. I still retain a pleasurable recollection of My earlier visit to Holyhead, to which you refer, and if on some future occasion the time at Our disposal were to allow Us to pay a more extended visit than is possible under the arrangements for Our present visit to Ireland, We should be greatly pleased.”

ALIEN.
