*Downing Street,
May 11, 1904.*

The KING has been pleased, by Letters Patent, dated the 15th April, 1904, passed under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom, to amend clause 32 of the Letters Patent, dated the 3rd June, 1903, providing for the administration of the Government of the Island of Malta.

*Downing Street,
May 12, 1904.*

The KING has been pleased to give directions for the appointment of Philip David Warren, Esq. (Assistant Surveyor-General), to be Surveyor-General of the Island of Ceylon.

Whitehall, April 14, 1904.

The KING has been pleased to grant unto Crawshay Wellington Bailey, of Worthenbury Manor, in the county of Flint, Gentleman, second but eldest surviving son of Henry Bailey, late of Nant-y-glas, in the county of Monmouth, Esquire, deceased, in the Commission of the Peace and a Deputy Lieutenant for that county, by Mary Louisa, his wife, daughter of Sir Richard Puleston, late of Emral Park, in the said county of Flint, Baronet, also deceased, His Royal licence and authority that he the said Crawshay Wellington Bailey and his issue may assume the surname of Puleston in lieu of his and their own family surname, and that he and they may bear the arms of Puleston only; the said arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the College of Arms, otherwise the said Royal licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And to command that the said Royal concession and declaration be recorded in His Majesty's said College of Arms.

Whitehall, May 6, 1904.

The KING, taking into His Royal consideration, that upon the decease of Henry Molyneux,

Baron Wynford, without issue, on the twenty-eighth day of October last, the dignity of Baron Wynford devolved upon his cousin, George, now Baron Wynford, whereby, according to the ordinary rules of honour, the brothers and sisters of the said George, Baron Wynford, cannot enjoy that title, rank, place, and precedence which would have been due to them had their father, the late Samuel Best, Clerk in Holy Orders (commonly called the Honourable Samuel Best), survived the said Henry Molyneux, Baron Wynford, and had thereby succeeded to the title and dignity of Baron Wynford, His Majesty has been graciously pleased to ordain and declare that John Charles Best, of Plas-yn-Vivod, near Llangollen, in the county of Denbigh, Esquire, Captain on the retired list of His Majesty's Royal Navy, Thomas William Best, of Lingfield, in the parish of Barmouth and county of Merioneth, Esquire, Chief Constable of the said county, and late Major the Duke of Wellington's (West Riding Regiment), Mary Margaret, wife of Sir James Erasmus Philipps, Baronet, Clerk in Holy Orders, Prebendary of the Cathedral Church of Salisbury, and Fanny Gertrude Sophia Best, Spinster, brothers and sisters of the said George, now Baron Wynford, shall henceforth have, hold, and enjoy the title, rank, place, pre-eminence, and precedence to which they would have been entitled had their father, the said Samuel Best, survived the said Henry Molyneux, Baron Wynford, and thereby succeeded to the dignity of Baron Wynford:

And to command that the said order and declaration be recorded in His Majesty's College of Arms.

*Board of Trade, 7, Whitehall Gardens,

ORDER OF THE BOARD OF AGRICULTURE AND FISHERIES.

(DATED 12TH MAY 1904.)

BISHOP AUCKLAND AND DISTRICT (SWINE-FEVER) PROHIBITION OF MOVEMENT ORDER OF 1904.

The Board of Agriculture and Fisheries, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under the Diseases of Animals Acts, 1894 to 1903, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:

Movement of swine into out of or within Scheduled District.

1. No swine shall be moved into or out of the District described in the Schedule to this Order, hereinafter referred to as the Scheduled District, or be moved along over or across a highway or thoroughfare within the Scheduled District; provided that nothing in this Order shall be deemed to apply to the movement of swine into or out of the Scheduled District where they are moved through such District by railway from a place outside such District to another place outside such District without unnecessary delay and without the swine being untrucked or rebooked within such District.

Local Authority to enforce Order.

2. The provisions of this Order shall be executed and enforced by the Local Authority.

Offences.

3.—(1.) If a pig is moved in contravention of this Order, the owner of the pig, and the person for the time being in charge thereof, and the person causing, directing, or permitting the movement, and the person moving or conveying the pig, and the consignee or other person receiving or keeping it, knowing it to have been moved in contravention as aforesaid, and the occupier of the place from which the pig is moved, shall, each according to and in respect of his own acts and defaults, be deemed guilty of an offence against the Diseases of Animals Act, 1894.

(2.) If any person with a view to unlawfully evade or defeat the operation of this Order allows a pig to stray, he shall be deemed guilty of an offence against the Diseases of Animals Act, 1894.

Short Title.

4. This Order may be cited as the BISHOP AUCKLAND AND DISTRICT (SWINE-FEVER) PROHIBITION OF MOVEMENT ORDER OF 1904.

In witness whereof the Board of Agriculture and Fisheries have hereunto set their Official Seal this twelfth day of May, nineteen hundred and four.

P. G. Craigie,
Assistant-Secretary.

By Order,

F. D. ASKEY, Town Clerk

Town Clerk's Office, 99, Southwood-lane,
Highgate, N., 13th May, 1904.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, do hereby grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the vicarage of Amberley with Houghton, in the county of Sussex, and in the diocese of Chichester, one capital sum of one hundred pounds sterling, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of rebuilding the parsonage or house of residence belonging to the said vicarage of Amberley with Houghton, according to plans and a specification approved or to be approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of two pounds and ten shillings per centum per annum.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this fifth day of May, in the year one thousand nine hundred and four.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Ashford Carbonell, in the county of Salop, and in the diocese of Hereford, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, one yearly sum or stipend of ten pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the first day of May, in the year one thousand nine hundred and four, and to be receivable in equal quarterly portions on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient in our opinion to produce the said yearly sum or stipend, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage of Ashford Carbonell, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this fifth day of May, in the year one thousand nine hundred and four.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction of three hundred pounds sterling which has been paid to us in favour of the consolidated chapelry and benefice (hereinafter called the benefice) of Saint Stephen, Battersea, in the county of Surrey, and in the diocese of Rochester, and in respect of which we have agreed to pay to the Incumbent of the same benefice, and to his successors, a yearly sum of nine pounds, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant out of our common fund to the said benefice of Saint Stephen, Battersea, to meet such benefaction, one other capital sum of three hundred pounds, in respect of which, so long as the same capital sum or any part thereof shall remain in our hands, there shall be paid by us to the Incumbent for the time being of the said benefice, one other yearly sum of nine pounds, or such part thereof as shall be proportionate to any balance of the same capital sum which shall so remain in our hands; the above-mentioned yearly payments to commence as from the twenty-seventh day of April, in the year one thousand nine hundred and four, and to be receivable in equal quarterly portions on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and on the first day of November in each and every year.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this fifth day of May, in the year one thousand nine hundred and four.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction of seven hundred pounds sterling which has been paid to us in favour of the consolidated chapelry and benefice (hereinafter called the benefice) of Saint Oswald, Chapel Green, Bradford, in the county of York, and in the diocese of Ripon, and in respect of which we have agreed to pay to the Incumbent of the same benefice, and to his successors, a yearly sum of twenty-one pounds, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant out of our common fund to the said benefice of Saint Oswald, Chapel Green, Bradford, to meet such benefaction, one other capital sum of seven hundred pounds, in respect of which, so long as the same capital sum, or any part thereof, shall remain in our hands, there shall be paid by us to the Incumbent for the time being of the said benefice one other yearly sum of twenty-one pounds, or such part thereof as shall be proportionate to any balance of the same capital sum which shall so remain in our hands; the above-mentioned yearly payments to commence as from the twenty-sixth day of April, in the year one thousand nine hundred and four, and to be receivable in equal quarterly portions on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and on the first day of November in each and every year.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this fifth day of May, in the year one thousand nine hundred and four.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction of one hundred and fifty pounds sterling which has been paid to us in favour of the vicarage of Barkisland, in the county of York, and in the diocese of Wakefield, and in respect of which we have agreed to pay to the Incumbent of the same vicarage, and to his successors, a yearly sum of four pounds and ten shillings, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant out of our common fund to the said vicarage of Barkisland, to meet such benefaction, one other capital sum of one hundred and fifty pounds, in respect of which, so long as the same capital sum, or any part thereof, shall remain in our hands, there shall be paid by us to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage, one other yearly sum of four pounds and ten shillings, or such part thereof as shall be proportionate to any balance of the same capital sum which shall so remain in our hands;

the above-mentioned yearly payments to commence as from the twenty-eighth day of April, in the year one thousand nine hundred and four, and to be receivable in equal quarterly portions on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and on the first day of November in each and every year.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this fifth day of May, in the year one thousand nine hundred and four.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction of two hundred and fifty pounds sterling which has been paid to us in favour of the vicarage of Saint Philip the Apostle, Birchencliffe, in the county of York, and in the diocese of Wakefield, and in respect of which we have agreed to pay to the Incumbent of the same vicarage, and to his successors, a yearly sum of seven pounds and ten shillings, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant out of our common fund to the said vicarage of Saint Philip the Apostle, Birchencliffe, to meet such benefaction, one other capital sum of two hundred and fifty pounds, in respect of which, so long as the same capital sum, or any part thereof, shall remain in our hands, there shall be paid by us to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage, one other yearly sum of seven pounds and ten shillings, or such part thereof as shall be proportionate to any balance of the same capital sum which shall so remain in our hands; the above-mentioned yearly payments to commence as from the thirtieth day of April, in the year one thousand nine hundred and four, and to be receivable in equal quarterly portions on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and on the first day of November in each and every year.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this fifth day of May, in the year one thousand nine hundred and four.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction of three hundred pounds sterling which has been paid to us in favour of the vicarage of Saint Anne, Bowden Hill, in the county of Wilts, and in the diocese of Bristol, and in respect of which we have agreed to pay to the Incumbent of the same vicarage, and to his successors, a yearly sum of nine pounds, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant out of our common fund to the said vicarage of Saint Anne, Bowden Hill, to meet such benefaction, one other capital sum of three hundred pounds, in respect of which, so long as the same capital sum, or any part thereof, shall remain in our hands, there shall be paid by us to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage, one other yearly sum of nine pounds, or such part thereof as shall be proportionate to any balance of the same capital sum which shall so remain in our hands; the above-mentioned yearly payments to commence as from the twenty-ninth day of April, in the year one thousand nine hundred and four, and to be receivable in equal quarterly portions on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and on the first day of November in each and every year.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this fifth day of May, in the year one thousand nine hundred and four.

(L.S.)

Cape St. Vincent Light—Temporary Alteration in.

With reference to Notice to Mariners No. 41 of 1904:—

The Portuguese Government has given further notice, that on 22nd May, 1904, the present light (white revolving) on Cape St. Vincent will be replaced by a temporary white group flashing light, showing groups of three flashes every ten seconds at an elevation of 197 feet above high water, and visible in clear weather from a distance of 21 miles. The flashes are as follows:—flash, one and two-thirds of a second; eclipse, one-third of a second; flash, one and two-thirds of a second; eclipse, one-third of a second; flash, one and two-thirds of a second; eclipse, five and one-third of a second; and it will be shown from a pyramidal structure, painted grey, about 23 feet high, erected at a distance of 30 yards north-westward of the existing lighthouse. The light will be obscured over the land from the bearing of S. 31° W., through west, to N. 36° W., but it may be seen by vessels coming from the southward over Sagres Point.

The present light (white revolving) will be held in readiness to replace the temporary light until the latter is considered to be working satisfactorily.

Approximate position, lat. $37^\circ 1\frac{1}{2}'$ N., long. $8^\circ 58'$ W.

Further notice will be given as necessary.

Saleh Bay—Existence and Non-Existence of Shoals.

The Netherlands Government has given notice, dated 27th April, 1904, of the existence of the undermentioned shoals, and non-existence of others, in Saleh Bay:—

Shoals:—

1. A shoal, with a depth of 5 fathoms over it, situated about one mile south-westward of Nanga Miru Point, Batahai Strait; it is about 220 yards long and 160 yards broad.

Approximate position, lat. 8° 9' S., long. 117° 43' E.

2. A shoal, with a depth of 2 fathoms over it, situated about 1½ miles to the westward of the southern extremity of Dorojangan Point; this shoal is about 100 square yards in extent, surrounded by depths of from 20 to 30 fathoms, and is about half a mile from the coast.

Approximate position, lat. 8° 27' S., long. 117° 57' E.

A recent survey shows that the following shoals do not exist:—

a. The shoal reported off Ngali Point in approximately lat. 8° 26½' S., long. 117° 43' E.

b. The shoal, marked P.D., reported to the southward of Doro Beti Point in approximately lat. 8° 23' S., long. 117° 49' E.

c. The shoal, marked P.D., reported to the north-westward of Doro Beti Point in approximately lat. 8° 19½' S., long. 117° 46½' E.

NOTE.—The above positions are taken from the Admiralty Chart No. 1696.

Port Phillip Entrance—Blasting and Sweeping Operations.

With reference to Notice to Mariners No. 78 of 1902:—

The Government of the State of Victoria has given further notice that, on or about 27th February, 1904, blasting and sweeping operations for removing the shoal patches obstructing the entrance into Port Phillip would be commenced. It is intended to, if possible, remove all shoal heads with less than 37 feet over them.

The steam vessel employed for this purpose will, when engaged in blasting, hoist letter B at the masthead, giving before the charge is exploded prolonged blasts with the steam whistle; when sweeping she will display the Code Signal X. H. C.

CAUTION.—Mariners are warned not to approach the boats engaged in this work nearer than a quarter of a mile, and they are specially requested to keep clear of these vessels when sweeping operations are in progress, as the apparatus renders the vessels' movements slow and uncertain.

Approximate position, lat. 38° 18' S., long. 14° 38' E.

This Notice affects the following Admiralty Chart:—Port Phillip Entrance, No. 2747a. Also, Australia Directory, Vol. I, 1897, page 432.

Mr. Justice Buckley.
0048, 0087 of 1904.

In the Matter of the Companies Acts, 1862 to 1900, and in the Matter of the ANGLO WYOMING OIL FIELDS Limited.

BY an Order made by Mr. Justice Buckley in the above matters, dated the 3rd day of May, 1904, on the petitions of (first) Samuel De Lissa, of 4, Bishopsgate-street Within, in the city of London, Export Merchant, a contributory of the above named Company, and (second) Hemingway Whitfield, of Fern Villa, Horsforth, in the county of Yorks, carrying on business at East Parade, in the city of Leeds, as a Chartered Accountant, a creditor of the above named Company, praying that an Order might be made that the said Company might be wound up by the Court, under the provisions of the Companies Acts, 1862 to 1900; it was ordered that the voluntary winding up of the said Anglo Wyoming Oil Fields Limited be continued, but subject to the supervision of the Court, and any of the proceedings under the said voluntary winding up might be adopted as the Court should think fit; and Robert Tyndale Haws, the Liquidator of the said Company, assenting, it was ordered that it be referred to the Registrar, Companies (Winding-up), to appoint two fit and proper persons (upon their giving security) as additional Liquidators of the said Company, to act with the said Robert Tyndale Haws; and it was ordered that the said Liquidators do every three months file with the Registrar, Companies (Winding-up) a report, in writing, as to the position of and the progress made with the winding up of the said Company and with the realisation of the assets thereof, and as to any other matters connected with the winding up as the Court might from time to time direct, the first of such reports to be filed on the second day of August, 1904. And it was ordered that no bills of costs, charges, or expenses, or special remuneration of any Solicitor employed by the Liquidators of the said Company, or any remuneration, charges, or expenses of such Liquidators, or of any manager, accountant, auctioneer, broker, or other person be paid out of the assets of the said Company, unless such costs, charges, and expenses, or remuneration should have been taxed or allowed by the Registrar, Companies (Winding-up). And it was ordered that all such costs, charges, expenses, and remuneration be taxed and ascertained accordingly. And it was ordered that the costs of (1) the petitioners of their respective petitions (2) the said Company of both petitions, and (3) of Barrister Flight Fletcher, and Herbert Phillips Fletcher of the second petition be taxed and paid out of the assets of the said Company. And the creditors, contributories, and liquidators of the said Company, and all other persons interested, were to be at liberty to apply as there might be occasion.—Dated the 12th day of May, 1904.
