The following Addresses were presented to His Majesty on the occasion of Their Majesties' visit to Eton on the 13th June:—

To Their Most Excellent Majesties King Edward VII and Queen Alexandra.

May it please Your Majesties,

We, the Scholars and Oppidans of Your Royal College of Eton, humbly approach Your Majesties with hearts full of gratitude for the great kindness and condescension shown to us in Your Royal presence with us this day.

Founded by Your Royal Predecessor, King Henry VI, whose memory is ever revered among us, nurtured under the shadow of the home of our Kings, and fostered by Their princely favour, the School has ever maintained the tradition of loyalty and devotion to the Throne.

We cannot forget the many acts of gracious favour shown to us in past years by the late Queen Victoria of blessed and glorious memory; and we also humbly beg to offer thanks to Your Most Gracious Majesty for continuing to us those prizes by which Your Royal Father, the late Prince Consort, sought to foster amongst us the study of modern languages, and which will henceforth be known as the King's prizes.

Your Royal presence here to-day fills our hearts with gladness, and we most earnestly pray with heartfelt trust that for many years to come the blessing of God may be upon You, and the never-failing love of all Your people attend You in a prosperous and glorious reign.
