PRESENT,
The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of the Act of the seventh and eighth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter ninety-four; of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-four, and of the Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-four, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme or representation, bearing date the sixteenth day of June, in the year one thousand nine hundred and four, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting under the provisions of the Act of the seventh and eighth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter ninety-four, the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Her said late Majesty chapter ninety-four, and the Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her said late Majesty chapter ninety-four, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme or representation for altering the boundaries of the new parish of Christ Church, Lee Park, the new parish of the Holy Trinity, Lee, the new parish of Saint Stephen, Lewisham, the new parish of Saint James, Kidbrooke, the new parish of Saint Mark, Lewisham, the new parish of Saint Mildred, Burnt Ash Hill, Lee, the new parish of the Good Shepherd, Lee, the new parish of Saint Laurence, Catford, and the new parish of Saint Swithun, Hither Green, Lewisham, all in the county of Kent and in the diocese of Rochester.

"Whereas by the authority of an Order of Her said late Majesty in Council bearing date the eleventh day of August in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four and published in the London Gazette on the eighteenth day of the same month, a certain part of the parish of Saint Margaret, Lee, in the said county of Kent, and at that time in the diocese of London, but now in the said diocese of Rochester, was assigned as a district chapelry to the consecrated church called Christ Church situate in Lee Park in the said parish of Saint Margaret, Lee, and the said district chapelry was named 'The District Chapelry of Christ Church, Lee Park.'

"And whereas by the authority of an instrument bearing date the twenty-sixth day of November in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, and being under our common seal and under the hand and seal of the late Right Honourable and Most Reverend Archibald Campbell, then Bishop of London and afterwards Archbishop of Canterbury, a particular district was assigned to the consecrated church of the Holy Trinity, Lee, situate in the said parish of Saint Margaret, Lee, and the said particular district was named 'The Particular District of the Holy Trinity, Lee.'

"And whereas by the authority of an Order of Her said late Majesty in Council bearing date the twenty-ninth day of June in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five and published in the London Gazette on the thirtieth day of the same month a certain part of the parish of Lewisham in the said county of Kent and at that time in the said diocese of London, but now in the said diocese of Rochester, was assigned as a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Stephen situate in the said parish of Lewisham, and the said district chapelry was named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Stephen, Lewisham.'

"And whereas by the authority of an instrument bearing date the eleventh day of July in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven and being under our common seal and under the hand and seal of the late Right Reverend Thomas Legh at that time Bishop of Rochester (and afterwards Bishop of Saint Albans) a certain territory constituting the liberty of Kidbrooke and a certain portion of the parish of Charlton, both in the said county of Kent and in the said diocese of Rochester, were assigned as a particular district to the consecrated church of Saint James Kidbrooke, situate in the said liberty of Kidbrooke, and the said particular district was named 'The Particular District of Saint James, Kidbrooke.'

"And whereas by the authority of an Order of Her late Majesty in Council bearing date the twenty-eighth day of July in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one and published in the London Gazette on the first day of the following month a district chapelry was assigned to the consecrated church of Saint Mark, situate in the said parish of Lewisham, and the said district chapelry was named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Mark, Lewisham.'

"And whereas the said district chapelry of Christ Church, Lee Park, the said particular district of the Holy Trinity, Lee, the said district chapelry of Saint Stephen, Lewisham, the said particular district of Saint James, Kidbrooke, and the said district chapelry of Saint Mark, Lewisham, have under the provisions of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, become new parishes of the character contemplated by that Act, by the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-seven and by the above-mentioned Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her said late Majesty chapter ninety-four.

"And whereas by the authority of an Order of Her said late Majesty in Council bearing date the second day of May in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one and published in the London Gazette on the tenth day of the same month certain contiguous portions of the said parish of Saint Margaret, Lee, and of the said new parish of Christ Church, Lee Park, were assigned as a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Mildred, situate at Burnt Ash Hill within the said parish of Saint Margaret, Lee, and the said consolidated chapelry was called 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Mildred, Burnt Ash Hill, Lee.'

"And whereas by the authority of an Order of Her said late Majesty in Council bearing date the twenty-ninth day of June in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, and published in the London Gazette upon the third day of the following month, certain contiguous portions of the said parish of Saint Margaret, Lee, and of the said new parish of Christ Church, Lee Park, were assigned as a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of the Good Shepherd, situated in Handen-road, in the said parish of Saint Margaret, Lee, and the said consolidated chapelry was named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of the Good Shepherd, Lee.'

"And whereas by the authority of an Order of Her said late Majesty in Council bearing date the tenth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, and published in the London Gazette upon the fourteenth day of the same month, a district chapelry was assigned to the church of Saint Laurence, situate at Rushey Green, Catford, in the said parish of Lewisham, and the said district chapelry was named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Laurence, Catford.'

"And whereas the said consolidated chapelry of Saint Mildred, Burnt Ash Hill, Lee, the said consolidated chapelry of the Good Shepherd, Lee, and the said district chapelry of Saint Laurence, Catford, have under the provisions of the said Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, become new parishes of the character contemplated by that Act, by the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-seven and by the said Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-four.

"And whereas by the authority of an Order of Her said late Majesty in Council bearing date the seventeenth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, and published in the London Gazette upon the twenty-third day of the same month, a certain portion of the said parish of Lewisham was constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and the said district was named 'The District of Saint Swithun, Hither Green, Lewisham.'

"And whereas the said district of Saint Swithun, Hither Green, Lewisham, has become a new parish of the character contemplated by the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, by the said Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, and by the said Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-four.

"And whereas it has been represented to us and it appears to us to be expedient that the boundaries of the said new parish of Christ Church, Lee Park, the said new parish of the Holy Trinity, Lee, the said new parish of Saint Stephen, Lewisham, the said new parish of Saint James Kidbrooke, the said new parish of Saint Mark, Lewisham, the said new parish of Saint Mildred, Burnt Ash Hill, Lee, the said new parish of the Good Shepherd, Lee, the said new parish of Saint Laurence, Catford, and the said new parish of Saint Swithun, Hither Green, Lewisham, should be altered in the manner which is herein-after mentioned.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend Edward Stuart, Bishop of Rochester (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme or representation) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly represent recommend and propose that from and after the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of an Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme or representation and without any assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the boundaries of the said new parish of Christ Church, Lee Park, the said new parish of the Holy Trinity, Lee, the said new parish of Saint Stephen, Lewisham, the said new parish of Saint James, Kidbrooke, the said new parish of Saint Mark, Lewisham, the said new parish of Saint Mildred, Burnt Ash Hill, Lee, the said new parish of the Good Shepherd, Lee, the said new parish of Saint Laurence, Catford, and the said new parish of Saint Swithun, Hither Green, Lewisham, shall be altered so that (firstly) all that portion of the said parish of Saint Margaret, Lee, which is described in the First Schedule hereunder written and is delineated and set forth upon the map or plan hereunto annexed and is thereon coloured orange shall be annexed to and shall in future form part of the said new parish of Saint Stephen, Lewisham; and (secondly) all that portion of the said new parish of Saint James, Kidbrooke, which is described in the Second Schedule hereunder written and is delineated and set forth upon the said map or plan hereunto annexed and is thereon coloured green shall be dissevered from such new parish and shall be annexed to and shall in future form part of the said new parish of Christ Church, Lee Park, and (thirdly) all those portions of the said new parish of Saint Mark, Lewisham, and of the said new parish of the Holy Trinity, Lee, which are described in the Third Schedule hereunder written and are delineated and set forth upon the said map or plan hereunto annexed and are thereon coloured brown and violet shall be dissevered from such new parishes and shall be annexed to and shall in future form part of the said new parish of the Good Shepherd, Lee, and (fourthly) all that portion of the said new parish of the Holy Trinity, Lee, which is described in the Fourth Schedule hereunder written and is delineated and set forth upon the map or plan hereunto annexed and is thereon coloured red, shall be dissevered from such new parish and shall be annexed to and shall in future form part of the said new parish of Saint Mark, Lewisham; and (fifthly) all that portion of the said new parish of Saint Swithun, Hither Green, Lewisham, which is described in the Fifth Schedule hereunder written and is delineated and set forth upon the map or plan hereunto annexed and is thereon coloured yellow shall be dissevered from such new parish and shall be annexed to and shall in future form part of the said new parish of Saint Mildred, Burnt Ash Hill, Lee; and (sixthly) all that portion of the said new parish of Saint Mildred, Burnt Ash Hill, Lee, which is described in the Sixth Schedule hereunder written and is delineated and set forth upon the map or plan hereunto annexed and is thereon coloured blue shall be dissevered from such new parish and shall be annexed to and shall in future form part of the said new parish of Saint Swithun, Hither Green, Lewisham; and (seventhly) all that portion of the said new parish of Saint Mildred, Burnt Ash Hill, Lee, which is described in the Seventh Schedule hereunder written, and is delineated and set forth upon the map or plan hereunto annexed and is thereon coloured pink shall be dissevered from such new parish and shall be annexed to and shall in future form part of the said new parish of Saint Laurence, Catford.

"And we further represent recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from representing recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Acts or any of them or any other Act of Parliament.

"THE FIRST SCHEDULE.

"The territory to be annexed to the new parish of Saint Stephen Lewisham in the county of Kent and in the diocese of Rochester being :—

"All that portion of the parish of Saint Margaret Lee in the said county and diocese which is bounded upon the north-west by the said new parish of Saint Stephen Lewisham upon the south-west partly by the last-named new parish, partly by the new parish of Saint Mark Lewisham, and partly by the new parish of the Holy Trinity Lee, both in the said county and diocese and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the south-east and upon the north-east by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of the Holy Trinity Lee from the said parish of Saint Margaret Lee at the junction of the Lee High-road with the road known as Belmont Hill and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the last-mentioned road for a distance of four chains and three-quarters or thereabouts to its junction with Belmont-road and extending thence north-westward along the middle of Belmont-road for a distance of eight chains or thereabouts to its junction with Saint Stephen's-road upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Saint Margaret Lee from the said new parish of Saint Stephen Lewisham.

"THE SECOND SCHEDULE.

"The territory to be dissevered from the new parish of Saint James, Kidbrooke, and to be annexed to the new parish of Christ Church Lee Park both in the said county and diocese being:—

"All that portion of the said new parish of Saint James Kidbrooke which is bounded upon the south by the new parish of Saint Peter Eltham in the said county and diocese upon the west by the said new parish of Christ Church Lee Park upon the north-west by the district chapelry of Saint Michael and All Angels Blackheath Park in the said county and diocese and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the north-east and upon the south-east by an imaginary line commencing at the point where the boundary which divides the said district chapelry of Saint Michael and All Angels Blackheath Park from the said new parish of Saint James Kidbrooke crosses the middle of the road known as Manor Way and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of Manor Way for a distance of nine chains and three-quarters or thereabouts to the point where such road turns westward and extending thence south-eastward in a straight line for a distance of forty feet or thereabouts to the point where the apex of the angle formed by the north-eastern and southern sides of the last-mentioned road is joined by the wall or fence forming the boundary which divides the playing field of the Blackheath Proprietary School from the house and gardens known as Knighton House and extending thence first north-eastward and then south-eastward along the said wall or fence for a distance of seven chains and a half or thereabouts to its south-eastern end and continuing thence in precisely the same direction and in a straight line for a distance of three chains or thereabouts to a point in the middle of Weigall-road and extending thence south-westward along the middle of Weigall-road for a distance of thirteen chains or thereabouts to the point where it crosses the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint James Kidbrooke from the said new parish of Saint Peter Eltham.

"THE THIRD SCHEDULE.

"The territory to be annexed to the new parish of the Good Shepherd Lee in the said county and diocese being:—

"I. All that portion of the said new parish of Saint Mark Lewisham which is bounded upon the south-west by the new parish of Saint Swithun Hither Green Lewisham in the said county and diocese upon the east by the said new parish of the Good Shepherd Lee upon the north-east by the said new parish of the Holy Trinity Lee and upon the remaining side, that is to say, upon the north-west by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of the Holy Trinity Lee from the said new parish of Saint Mark Lewisham at the point where the old course of the River Quaggy is crossed by the middle of Staplehurst-road and extending thence south-westward along the middle of Staplehurst-road for a distance of five chains or thereabouts to its south-western end at the wall or fence forming the north-eastern boundary of the Dartford loop line of the South Eastern and Chatham Railway and continuing thence in precisely the same direction and in a straight line for a distance of two chains and a half or thereabouts to a point in the middle of the said loop line of railway upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Mark Lewisham from the said new parish of Saint Swithun Hither Green Lewisham.

"II. And also all that portion of the said new parish of the Holy Trinity Lee which is bounded upon the south-east by the above described portion of the new parish of Saint Mark Lewisham upon the east by the said new parish of the Good Shepherd Lee and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the north-east and upon the north-west by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of the Good Shepherd Lee from the said new parish of the Holy Trinity Lee at the junction of Manor-lane with the road known as Manor Park and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the last-mentioned road for a distance of fifteen chains or thereabouts to its junction with Staplehurst-road and extending thence south-westward along the middle of Staplehurst-road for a distance of five chains or thereabouts to the point where it intersects the old course of the River Quaggy upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of the Holy Trinity Lee from the said new parish of Saint Mark Lewisham.

"THE FOURTH SCHEDULE.

"The territory to be dissevered from the said new parish of the Holy Trinity Lee and to be annexed to the said new parish of Saint Mark Lewisham being:—

"All that portion of the said new parish of the Holy Trinity Lee which is bounded upon the south-west by the said new parish of Saint Mark Lewisham and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the south-east upon the north-east and upon the north by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Mark Lewisham from the said new parish of the Holy Trinity Lee at the point where the old course of the River Quaggy is crossed by the middle of Staplehurst-road and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of Staplehurst-road for a distance of two chains and a half or thereabouts to the centre of the bridge which carries such road over the new course of the River Quaggy and extending thence first north-westward and then westward along the middle of the new course of the River Quaggy for a distance of ten chains or thereabouts to the point where the new course of the River Quaggy joins the old course of such river upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of the Holy Trinity Lee from the said new parish of Saint Mark Lewisham.

"THE FIFTH SCHEDULE.

"The territory to be dissevered from the said new parish of Saint Swithun Hither Green Lewisham and to be annexed to the new parish of Saint Mildred Burnt Ash Hill Lee in the said county and diocese being:—

"All that portion of the said new parish of Saint Swithun Hither Green Lewisham which is bounded upon the east by the said new parish of Saint Mildred Burnt Ash Hill Lee and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the north-west and upon the south-west by an imaginary line commencing at the point where the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Mildred Burnt Ash Hill Lee from the said new parish of Saint Swithun Hither Green Lewisham crosses the middle of the new loop line of the South Eastern and Chatham Railway which connects the Dartford loop line of such railway with the Tonbridge main line of the same railway and extending thence first south-westward and then south-eastward along the middle of the said new loop line for a distance of twenty-three chains and a half or thereabouts to a point at or near its junction with the said Tonbridge main line of the said railway upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Swithun Hither Green Lewisham from the said new parish of Saint Mildred Burnt Ash Hill Lee.

"THE SIXTH SCHEDULE.

"The territory to be dissevered from the said new parish of Saint Mildred Burnt Ash Hill Lee and to be annexed to the said new parish of Saint Swithun Hither Green Lewisham being:—

"All that portion of the said new parish of Saint Mildred Burnt Ash Hill Lee which is bounded upon the west by the said new parish of Saint Swithun Hither Green Lewisham upon the north by the said new parish of the Good Shepherd Lee and upon the remaining side, that is to say, upon the south-east by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of the Good Shepherd Lee from the said new parish of Saint Mildred Burnt Ash Hill Lee at the junction of the Dartford loop line of the South Eastern and Chatham Railway with the new loop line which connects the said Dartford loop line with the main line of the said railway and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the said new loop line for a distance of seven chains or thereabouts to the point where such loop line crosses the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Mildred Burnt Ash Hill Lee from the said new parish of Saint Swithun Hither Green Lewisham.

"THE SEVENTH SCHEDULE.

"The territory to be dissevered from the said new parish of Saint Mildred Burnt Ash Hill Lee and to be annexed to the new parish of Saint Laurence Catford in the said county and diocese being:—

"All that portion of the said new parish of Saint Mildred Burnt Ash Hill Lee which is bounded upon the west partly by the said new parish of Saint Swithun Hither Green Lewisham upon the south-west by the south end portion of the parish of Lewisham in which the Incumbent of such parish still possesses the exclusive cure of souls upon the south-east by the district chapelry of Saint Augustine Grove Park Lee both in the said county and diocese and upon the remaining side, that is to say, upon the north-east by an imaginary line commencing at the point where the Toubridge main line of the South Eastern and Chatham Railway crosses the boundary which divides the said district chapelry of Saint Augustine Grove Park Lee from the said new parish of Saint Mildred Burnt Ash Hill Lee and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the said main line of railway for a distance of seventy-two chains and a half or thereabouts to the point where the said main line of railway crosses the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Mildred Burnt Ash Hill Lee from the said new parish of Saint Swithun Hither Green Lewisham."

And whereas drafts of the said scheme or representation have been transmitted to the patrons and to the Incumbents of the cures affected by the arrangements which are contemplated by such scheme or representation and such patrons and Incumbents have respectively signified their assent thereto.

And whereas the said scheme or representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council: now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme or representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Rochester.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 15th day of July, 1904.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty chapter one hundred and fourteen duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the fifth day of May, in the year one thousand nine hundred and four, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria chapter thirty-nine and of the Acts therein mentioned that is to say the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called 'the said benefice') of Saint John, Angell Town, otherwise called the benefice of Saint John, Angell Town, Brixton, in the county of Surrey, and in the diocese of Rochester.

"Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Saint John, Angell Town, is vested for an estate in fee simple without incumbrances in Henry Hall Summers, of Kelsall House, Stalybridge, in the county of Chester, Esquire, and Francis Edward Hildyard, of District Bank House, Higher Openshaw, Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, Esquire.

"And whereas the said Henry Hall Summers and the said Francis Edward Hildyard are desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Saint John, Angell Town, now vested in them as aforesaid, should be transferred to and be vested in the Bishop for the time being of the said diocese of Rochester.

"And whereas the Right Reverend Edward Stuart, now Bishop of the said diocese of Rochester, is willing to accept such transfer and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary he the said Edward Stuart, Bishop of the said diocese of Rochester has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Saint John, Angell Town, which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will render the same benefice more eligible for augmentation out of funds under our control, and this circumstance will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the new parish of Saint John, Angell Town.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said Henry Hall Summers and Francis Edward Hildyard (in testimony whereof they have signed and sealed this scheme) and with the consent of the said Edward Stuart, Bishop of the said diocese of Rochester (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Saint John, Angell Town, now vested in them the said Henry Hall Summers and Francis Edward Hildyard as aforesaid, shall be transferred from them to the said Edward Stuart, Bishop of the said diocese of Rochester and his successors Bishops of the same diocese and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Edward Stuart, Bishop of the said diocese of Rochester and by his successors Bishops of the same diocese for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council: now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Rochester.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 15th day of July, 1904.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five; duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the sixteenth day of June, in the year one thousand nine hundred and four, in the words and figures following; that is to say:—

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria chapter seventy of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her said late Majesty chapter ninety-seven and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty chapter fifty-five have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of All Saints situate at Wilden in the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Lower Mitton in the county of Worcester and in the diocese of Worcester.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said new parish of Lower Mitton and of the parish of Hartlebury in the said county and diocese which said extremities lie contiguous one to another and are described in the Schedule hereunder written there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such new parish and parish.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that certain contiguous portions (being the portions containing the population aforesaid) of the said new parish of Lower Mitton and of the said parish of Hartlebury should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes and that the same should be assigned to the said church of All Saints situate at Wilden as aforesaid.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend Charles Bishop of Worcester as such Bishop and also as the patron (in right of his See) of the rectory of the said parish of Hartlebury and with the consent of the Reverend Sidney Phillips vicar or Incumbent of the vicarage of the parish of Kidderminster in the said county of Worcester as the patron (in right of his vicarage) of the vicarage of the said new parish of Lower Mitton (in testimony whereof they the said consenting parties have respectively signed and sealed this representation) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly represent that it would in our opinion be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said new parish of Lower Mitton and of the said parish of Hartlebury which are described in the Schedule hereunder written all which portions together with the boundaries thereof are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of All Saints situate at Wilden as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of All Saints Wilden.'

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of All Saints Wilden comprising:—

"All those contiguous portions of the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Lower Mitton and of the parish of Hartlebury both in the county of Worcester and in the diocese of Worcester which are comprised within and are bounded by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Hartlebury from the said new parish of Lower Mitton at the point where the road leading from Hartlebury to Stourport is joined by the road leading from Summerway Farm past Wilden Corner and across Hartlebury Common and extending thence first north-westward and then south-westward along the middle of the said road leading from Hartlebury to Stourport for a distance of twenty-four chains and a half or thereabouts to its junction with the road leading past Jenny Hole to Upper Mitton and extending thence generally north-westward along the middle of the last-mentioned road for a distance of forty-three chains or thereabouts to the centre of the bridge which carries such road across the Staffordshire and Worcestershire Canal and extending thence first north-westward then northward and then north-eastward along the middle of the said canal for a distance of one mile and twelve chains or thereabouts to the boundary which divides the new parish of Saint John the Baptist Kidderminster in the said county and diocese from the said new parish of Lower Mitton and extending thence first north-eastward then south-eastward then north-westward and then again north-eastward along the last-mentioned boundary for a distance of seventeen chains and a half or thereabouts (thereby following in part the south-eastern side of the said canal and in another part the middle of the river Stour) to a point in the middle of the said river where the boundary last mentioned meets the boundary which divides the parish of Stone in the said county and diocese from the said new parish of Lower Mitton and extending thence south-eastward along the last-mentioned boundary for a distance of twenty-one chains or thereabouts to the point where such boundary meets the boundary which divides the said parish of Stone from the said parish of Hartlebury and extending thence first north-eastward and then south-eastward along the said boundary for a distance of twenty chains or thereabouts to the point where such boundary passes the fence which divides the close numbered 549 upon the tithe apportionment map of the parish of Hartlebury and also upon the map or plan annexed to this representation from the close numbered 559 upon the said maps and extending thence first south-westward then north-westward and then again south-westward along the fences which divide the said close numbered 549 and the closes numbered 550 and 551 upon the said maps from the said close numbered 559 and the closes numbered 558 and 552 upon the said maps for a distance of thirty-nine chains or thereabouts to a point on the northern side of the above-mentioned road leading from Summerway Farm past Wilden Corner and across Hartlebury Common and extending thence south-westward to and along the middle of the last-mentioned road (thereby following for the most part the boundary which divides the said parish of Hartlebury from the said new parish of Lower Mitton) for a distance of one mile and two chains or thereabouts to the point upon the last-mentioned boundary where the last-mentioned road joins the road leading from Hartlebury to Stourport at which point the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council: now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Worcester.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 15th day of July, 1904.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter forty-nine; of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter sixty; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the sixteenth day of June, in the year one thousand nine hundred and four, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Third chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter forty-nine; of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter sixty; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Saviour Alexandra Park, situate in the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Saint Michael, Wood Green, in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Saviour, Alexandra Park, situate as aforesaid.

"Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Arthur Foley, Bishop of the said diocese of London (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, that it would in our opinion be expedient that all that part of the said new parish of Saint Michael, Wood Green, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Saviour, Alexandra Park, situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Saviour, Alexandra Park.' And with the like consent of the said Arthur Foley, Bishop of the said diocese of London (testified as aforesaid), we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published and that marriages, baptisms, churchings and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church of Saint Saviour, Alexandra Park, situate as aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being. Provided always that so long as the Reverend John Thomas, Clerk in Holy Orders, the present Vicar or Incumbent of the vicarage of the said new parish of Saint Michael, Wood Green, shall continue to be such Vicar or Incumbent all the fees which may be received in respect of such publication, solemnization, or performance in the said church of Saint Saviour, Alexandra Park, situate as aforesaid, shall be paid over by the minister thereof to the said John Thomas, and provided also that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us the said Commissioners to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Saviour, Alexandra Park, being :—

"All that part of the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Saint Michael, Wood Green, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London, which is bounded upon the west by the new parish of Saint Andrew, Alexandra Park, upon the south partly by the last-named new parish partly by the new parish of Saint James, Muswell Hill, but chiefly by the parish of Hornsey, all in the said county and diocese, and upon the remaining side that is to say upon the north-east by an imaginary line commencing at the point in the middle of the main line of the Great Northern Railway where the boundaries of the said parish of Hornsey, the consolidated chapelry of Saint Peter, Hornsey, in the said county and diocese, and the said new parish of Saint Michael, Wood Green, all meet, and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the said line of railway (thereby passing through Wood Green Station) for a distance of one mile and forty-three chains or thereabouts to the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Michael, Wood Green, from the said new parish of Saint Andrew, Alexandra Park."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council: now therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 15th day of July, 1904.

PRESENT,
The KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Lord President.
Lord Privy Seal.
Earl of Kintore.
Mr. Charles Booth.
Colonel W. S. Kenyon-Slaney.
Mr. J. Parker Smith.

WHEREAS by Orders in Council dated respectively the nineteenth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, and the twenty-sixth day of September, one thousand nine hundred and one, provision has been made for the surrender by the Governor of the Straits Settlements to Foreign States, in the case of which the Extradition Act, 1870, does not apply, of persons accused or convicted of the commission of certain crimes and offences within the jurisdiction of such States.

And whereas the Extradition Act, 1870, does not apply in the case of the Malay States of Perak, Selangor, Pahang, and Negri Sembilan (hereinafter called the Federated Malay States) and the surrender of persons accused or convicted of the commission of crimes in the said States, is regulated by the said Orders in Council.

And whereas it is expedient to revoke the said Orders in Council so far as they apply to the Federated Malay States, and to make other provisions for the return from the Straits Settlements of persons accused or convicted of offences in the said States.

Now therefore it is hereby ordered by His Majesty by and with the advice of His Privy Council as follows :—

1. Where in any place in the Federated Malay States a warrant has been issued for the apprehension of a person accused of an offence punishable by law in the Federated Malay States and such person is or is suspected of being in or on the way to the Colony of the Straits Settlements, a Police Magistrate in the Colony, if satisfied that the warrant was issued by a person having lawful authority to issue the same, may endorse such warrant in manner provided by this Order, and the warrant so endorsed shall be a sufficient authority to apprehend within the Colony the person named in the warrant, and bring him before a Police Court in the Colony.

2. The Court before whom a person so apprehended is brought, if satisfied that the warrant was issued by a person having lawful authority to issue the same, and satisfied on oath that the prisoner is the person named or otherwise described in the warrant, may order such prisoner to be returned to the State in which the warrant was issued, and for that purpose to be delivered into the custody of the person to whom the warrant is addressed or any one or more of them, and to be held in custody and to be conveyed by sea or otherwise into the State in which the warrant was issued, there to be dealt with according to law. Such order for return may be made by warrant under the hand of the Court making it, and may be executed according to the tenor thereof. A Police Magistrate shall, so far as is requisite for the exercise of the powers of this section, have the same powers including the power to remand and admit to bail a prisoner as he has in the case of a person apprehended under a warrant issued by him.

3. Where a person required to give evidence on behalf of the prosecutor or defendant on a charge of an offence punishable by law in the Federated Malay States is or is suspected of being in or on his way to the Colony of the Straits Settlements, and a judge, magistrate or other officer in the Federated Malay States who would have lawful authority to issue a summons requiring the attendance of such witness if such witness were within his jurisdiction, had issued a summons for the attendance of such witness, a magistrate in the Colony if satisfied that the summons was issued by a judge, magistrate or officer having lawful authority as aforesaid, may endorse the summons with his name, and the witness on service of the summons and on payment or tender of a reasonable amount for his expenses shall obey the summons and in default shall be liable to be tried and punished in the Colony, and shall be liable to the punishment imposed by law for the failure of a witness to obey such a summons.

The expression summons in this clause includes any subpoena or other process for requiring the attendance of a witness.

4. A Police Magistrate in the Colony of the Straits Settlements, before the endorsement of a warrant for the apprehension of any person in pursuance of this Order, may issue a provisional warrant for the apprehension of that person on such information and under such circumstances as would in his opinion justify the issue of a warrant if the offence of which such person is accused were an offence punishable by the law of the Colony and had been committed within his jurisdiction, and such warrant may be executed within the Colony. Provided that a person arrested under such provisional warrant shall be discharged unless the original warrant is produced and endorsed within such reasonable time as may under the circumstances seem requisite.

5. If a prisoner in the Colony whose return is authorized in pursuance of this Order, is not conveyed out of the Colony within one month after the date of the warrant ordering his return, a Police Court or the Supreme Court upon application by or on behalf of the prisoner and upon proof that reasonable notice of the intention to make such application has been given to the person holding the warrant and to the Chief Police Officer of the Settlement in which the prisoner is in custody, may unless sufficient cause is shown to the Court to the contrary, order such prisoner to be discharged out of custody.

An order, or refusal to make an order of discharge under this clause by a Police Court shall be subject to appeal to the Supreme Court.

6. When a prisoner accused of an offence is returned in pursuance of the law in force in any of the Federated Malay States, to the Colony and is not prosecuted for such offence in the Colony or is acquitted of such offence, the Governor of the Straits Settlements if he thinks fit may on the requisition of such person cause him to be sent back free of cost and with as little delay as possible to the State in or on the way to to which he was apprehended.

7. When the return of a prisoner is sought or ordered under this Order and it is made to appear to a Police Court or to the Supreme Court that by reason of the trivial nature of the case it would having regard to the distance, to the facilities of communication, and to all the circumstances of the case, be unjust or oppressive or too severe a punishment to return the prisoner either at all or until the expiration of a certain period, the Court may discharge the prisoner either absolutely or on bail, or order that he shall not be returned until after the expiration of the period named in the order, or may make such order in the premises as to the Court seems just.

Any order or refusal to make an order of discharge under this clause by a Police Court shall be subject to an appeal to the Supreme Court.

8. Whenever it appears to the Governor of the Straits Settlements in Council, that provision is made by the law of the States of Perak or Negri Sembilan, respectively, for conceding like powers to the Police Courts and Police Officers of the Colony with respect to the arrest in either of the said States of persons accused of offences committed, and to recovery of goods alleged to have been stolen in the Colony, it shall be lawful for him to make all or any of the following orders:—

(I) That it shall be lawful for any Police Officer of the State of Perak to execute without endorsement, within Province Wellesley or within the Territory of the Dindings, the lawful warrant of any Magistrate of the State of Perak, for the apprehension of any person accused or convicted of a criminal offence committed, or for the recovery of any goods alleged to have been stolen within the State of Perak, in like manner as such warrant might be executed within the State of Perak.

Provided always that such warrant be executed within one week from the issue thereof. (And that it shall be lawful for any such Police Officer upon fresh pursuit to arrest without warrant any person so accused or convicted as aforesaid, at any place within Province Wellesley or the Territory of the Dindings, within seven miles from the boundary of the State of Perak, in like manner as he might have arrested such person in the State of Perak, and to bring him before a Magistrate having jurisdiction in the State of Perak, to be dealt with according to law.)

(II) That it shall be lawful for any Police Officer of the State of Negri Sembilan to execute without endorsement within the Settlement of Malacca the lawful warrant of any Magistrate of the State of Negri Sembilan for the apprehension of any person accused or convicted of a criminal offence committed, or for the recovery of any goods alleged to have been stolen within the State of Negri Sembilan, in like manner as such warrant might be executed within the State of Negri Sembilan.

Provided always that such warrant be executed within one week from the issue thereof. (And that it shall be lawful for any such Police Officer upon fresh pursuit to arrest without warrant any person so accused or convicted as aforesaid, at any place within the Settlement of Malacca, within seven miles from the boundary of the State of Negri Sembilan, in like manner as he might have arrested such person in the State of Negri Sembilan, and to bring him before a Magistrate having jurisdiction in the State of Negri Sembilan, to be dealt with according to law.)

(III) That when a person is accused of an offence committed on or within the distance of five hundred yards from the boundary between the Colony and the State of Perak, or the State of Negri Sembilan, such person may be apprehended, tried, and punished in the Colony.

(IV) That when a person is accused of a crime alleged to have been committed in the State of Perak or the State of Negri Sembilan on any person or in respect of any property in or upon any carriage, cart, vehicle or vessel employed on a journey between the Colony and the State of Perak or the State of Negri Sembilan, such person may be apprehended, tried and punished in the Colony.

9. Where this Order provides for the place of trial of a person accused of an offence, that offence shall for all purposes of and incidental to the apprehension, trial and punishment of such person and of and incidental to any proceedings and matters preliminary incidental to or consequential thereon and of and incidental to the jurisdiction of any Court or Police or other officer with reference to such offence and to any person accused of such offence, be deemed to have been committed in any place in which the person accused of the offence can be tried for it.

10. When a warrant for the apprehension of a person accused of an offence has been endorsed in pursuance of this Order in the Colony or where this Order provides for the place of trial of a person accused of an offence, every Court of the Colony shall have the power of issuing a warrant to search for any property alleged to be stolen or to be otherwise unlawfully taken or obtained by such person or otherwise to be the subject of such offence as the Court would have if the property had been stolen or otherwise unlawfully taken or obtained or the offence had been committed wholly within the jurisdiction of such Court.

SUPPLEMENTAL.

11. An endorsement of a warrant in pursuance of this Order shall be signed by the authority endorsing the same and shall authorize all or any of the persons named in the endorsement and of the persons to whom the warrant was originally directed, and also every Police Officer to execute the warrant within the Colony, by apprehending the person named in it and bringing him before some Police Court in the Colony, whether the Court named in the endorsement or some other.

For the purpose of this Order every warrant, summons, subpoena, and process and every endorsement made thereon in pursuance of this Order, shall remain in force notwithstanding that the person signing the warrant or such endorsement dies or ceases to hold office.

Any endorsement under this Order may be in the form given in the Schedule to this Order.

12. A Police Court may take depositions for the purposes of this Order in the absence of a person accused of an offence in like manner as the same might be taken if such person were present and accused of the offence before the Court.

Depositions (whether taken in the absence of the fugitive or otherwise) and copies thereof and official certificates of or judicial documents stating facts may if duly authenticated be received as evidence in proceedings under this Order.

Provided that nothing in this Order shall authorize the reception of any such depositions; copies, certificates, or documents in evidence against a person on his trial for an offence.

Warrants and depositions and copies thereof and official certificates of or judicial documents stating facts shall be deemed duly authenticated for the purposes of this Order if they are authenticated by the signature and official seal of a judge or magistrate of the State in which the same are issued, taken, or made. For the purpose of this Order, all Courts in the Colony shall take judicial notice of the signatures and official seals of the judges and magistrates of the Federated Malay States.

13. This Order shall apply where an offence is committed before the commencement of this Order in like manner as if such offence had been committed after such commencement.

14. In this Order unless the context otherwise requires—

The expression "Governor" includes any Officer administering the Government of the Colony.

The expression "Police Officer" includes all grades of persons employed for duties in the Police Force of the Colony.

The expression "the Colony" means the Colony of the Straits Settlements.

The expression "Oath" includes affirmation or declaration in the case of persons allowed by law to affirm or declare instead of swearing.

The expression "deposition" includes any affidavit, affirmation, or statement made upon oath as above defined.

15. This Order may be cited as the Straits Settlements Fugitive Offenders Order, 1904, and shall come into force on the date on which it shall be proclaimed by the Governor in the Straits Settlements, which date is in this Order referred to as the commencement of this Order.

16. The Orders in Council dated respectively the nineteenth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, and the twenty-sixth day of September, one thousand nine hundred and one, are hereby revoked so far as they apply to the States of Perak, Selangor, Sungei Ujong, Pahang, and Negri Sembilan, but not further or otherwise.

Provided always that this revocation shall not affect

(a) Any warrant duly issued nor anything duly done or suffered before the commencement of this Order; nor

(b) Any obligation incurred under the Orders hereby revoked or any of them.

(c) Any legal proceeding or remedy in respect of any such warrant or obligation, and any such warrant may be executed, and any such legal proceeding and remedy may be carried on as if this Order had not been made.

Police Magistrate.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 15th day of July, 1904.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IN pursuance of the Winter Assizes Acts, 1876 and 1877, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Most Honourable Privy Council, to order as follows:—

1. The County of Cumberland and the County of Westmoreland shall, for the purpose of the next Winter Assizes, be united together and form one County, under the name of the Winter Assize County, No. 1.

2. The said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County shall be held at Carlisle.

3. The Court at the said Winter Assizes at Carlisle shall have jurisdiction to try any prisoner committed in the said Winter Assize County who may be brought before it, and shall have the same powers with respect to the trial of and passing sentence upon such prisoner as a Court of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery would have had at the Assizes in the county where, but for the said Winter Assizes Acts, such prisoner would have been tried.

The provisions of Section thirteen of the Sheriffs Act, 1887, shall apply to the execution of any capital sentence passed at such Assizes as herein mentioned; provided that the expression in the said Section "the Sheriff of such County" shall mean the Sheriff of the County in which the prisoner so sentenced would have been tried if the Winter Assizes Acts, 1876 and 1877, had not been passed.

4. The Sheriff of the County of Cumberland shall alone act for the purpose of the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County, and subject to the provisions of this Order shall have jurisdiction for that purpose over the whole district constituting the said Winter Assize County, and precepts and other documents relating to the said Winter Assizes shall be addressed to him alone.

5. The Gaol Delivery precept of the Judges to the said Sheriff shall direct him to summon the Grand Jurors and Petty Jurors from the County of Cumberland, and the Jurors so summoned shall be deemed to be good and lawful men of the body of the several counties constituting the said Winter Assize County, and the Grand and Petty Jury formed out of those Jurors shall be deemed to be a Grand and Petty Jury respectively of the body of the said counties respectively, and shall have jurisdiction accordingly.

6. The precepts of the Judges to the said Sheriff shall direct him to cause the prisoners from all the prisons in the said Winter Assize County who under the provisions of this Order will have to be tried at Carlisle, to be brought there, and the Sheriff shall cause such prisoners to be brought accordingly without any writ of Habeas Corpus.

7. In all matters not before specifically mentioned, the precepts to the said Sheriff shall direct him to issue, and he shall issue the like notices, precepts, warrants, and documents, and perform the same acts (mutatis mutandis) as if he were Sheriff for the whole of the said Winter Assize County, and all Under Sheriffs, Bailiffs, Constables, and Officers in the said Winter Assize County shall obey accordingly.

8. The said Sheriff shall, as to all matters in relation to such Winter Assizes for which no specific provision is made by this Order, have the same power, jurisdiction, and responsibility as if he were Sheriff for the whole of the said Winter Assize County, except that this provision shall not authorize the said Sheriff to carry sentences into execution outside the County of Cumberland, or to levy outside the said county fines imposed or recognizances estreated at the said Winter Assizes.

9. All Justices of the Peace, Mayors, Coroners, Escheators, Stewards, Bailiffs, Gaolers, Constables, Officers, and persons having authority and being under an obligation to attend the Assizes for either of the counties comprised in the said Winter Assize County, or to certify, transmit, or deliver to the Court of Assize, or the proper officer thereof, any indictment, inquisition, recognizance, examination, deposition, or document, shall have the same authority, and be under the same obligation to attend at the said Winter Assizes held for the said Winter Assize County, and to certify, transmit, or deliver to the Court of Assize, or the proper officer thereof, such indictment, inquisition, recognizance, examination, deposition, or document. This provision shall not apply to the Sheriff of the County of Westmoreland.

10. In all indictments and presentments at the said Winter Assizes, the venue laid in the margin thereof shall, in addition to the name of the county where the offence is charged to have been committed, contain the words "Winter Assize County, No. 1."

11. Any person who, after the date of this Order and before the said Winter Assizes, enters into a recognizance to appear and prosecute, or give evidence, or to appear and answer before a Court of Oyer and Terminer or General Gaol Delivery to be holden for either of the counties constituting the said Winter Assize County, shall be bound to attend at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County.

12. In all cases in which the like recognizances have been entered into in respect of any offence committed in either of the counties constituting the said Winter Assize County prior to the making of this Order, such recognizances shall be deemed to have been entered into for attendance at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County, and every person bound by such recognizance shall be bound to appear at such last-mentioned Winter Assizes, or forfeit his recognizance.

13. Ten days before the day fixed for the opening of the Commission at Carlisle, a list of the prisoners to be removed for trial at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County, so far as the same list can then be made out, shall, together with a short statement of the offences with which they are charged, be transmitted by the Gaoler of each prison in which such prisoners may be, to the Sheriff of the County of Cumberland, and the said Sheriff shall cause to be inserted in one or more newspapers in the Winter Assize County the said list and statement, and a notice that the persons bound by recognizances to appear and prosecute or give evidence for or against the prisoners so removed shall appear and prosecute and give evidence at Carlisle.

14. It shall be lawful for the Gaoler of the Gaol in which prisoners who are to take their trial at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County shall be in custody, three days before the day upon which the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County are appointed to be held, to send, without any writ of Habeas Corpus, such prisoners to His Majesty's Gaol at Carlisle for the purposes of their trial, and to take all proper steps for their transmission to the said Gaol, and their maintenance by the way, and the Gaoler of the said Gaol shall receive such prisoners into his charge and custody on their arrival, and shall keep and maintain them in the said Gaol until they are either ordered to be discharged or remanded by proper authority, or until they shall have been tried and sentenced, and proper arrangements have been made for their being sent back to the prison from which they were sent for trial, or sent to any other prison which has been duly appointed as an alternative for such prison. If, however, the said Gaol has itself been duly appointed as an alternative prison for the prison from which such prisoners were sent to trial, the Governor of the said Gaol shall, subject to the orders of the Secretary of State, keep and maintain in the said Gaol such prisoners after sentence, until they are discharged in due course of law.

15. The Clerk of Assize at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County shall have all powers of taxation of Bills of Costs, expenses of prosecution and witnesses, and all other powers necessary for checking and paying such costs relating to the trial of prisoners that the Clerk of Assize in the county where such prisoners were committed would have had if such prisoner had been tried at the Assizes held in such last-mentioned county.

Where any person is committed for trial, or is bound by any recognizance to appear and answer, in the said Winter Assize County, any Judge of the High Court of Justice, or the committing Justice or Justices, or any two of the Justices of the county or place from which he is committed, or admitted to bail, may, upon the application of such person, direct the Treasurer of the county or place where such person was committed, or entered into any recognizance to appear and answer as aforesaid, to advance to such person a sum not exceeding 20*l.* to enable him to defray the travelling expenses of such of his witnesses as may have been bound by recognizances to appear on his behalf, and the Treasurer shall advance such sum, and shall deduct it out of the amount ultimately allowed in respect of such witnesses.

16. In any case where money is ordered by the Court at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County to be paid in respect of costs and expenses of prosecutors and witnesses, the same shall be paid by the Treasurer of the county or place by whom the same would have been payable had a like order been made by a Court of Oyer and Terminer or Gaol Delivery in the county where the trial would have taken place but for the Winter Assizes Acts, and this Order; and every such Treasurer, or some known agent on his behalf, shall attend the said Winter Assizes during the sitting of the Court to pay all such orders.

17. Where the Court at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County remand a prisoner or adjourn any trial, or otherwise make an order respecting a prisoner committed for trial but not acquitted or convicted, the Court may make such order with respect to the removal of such prisoner to a prison in the county or place in which he was committed for trial as to the Court seems just, and the prisoner may be removed accordingly, without any Writ of Habeas Corpus.

18. Except where the context otherwise requires, terms used in this Order shall have the same meaning as that which the same terms have in the Winter Assizes Acts, 1876 and 1877.

19. This Order, unless earlier revoked, shall be in force during the continuance of the Winter Assizes, 1904.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 15th day of July, 1904.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IN pursuance of the Winter Assizes Acts, 1876 and 1877, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Most Honourable Privy Council, to order as follows:—

1. The County of Leicester and the County of Rutland shall, for the purposes of the next Winter Assizes, be united together and form one county, under the name of the Winter Assize County, No. 2.

2. The said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County shall be held at Leicester.

3. The Court at the Winter Assizes at Leicester shall have jurisdiction to try any prisoner committed in the said Winter Assize County who may be brought before it, and shall have the same powers with respect to the trial of and passing sentence upon such prisoner as a Court of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery would have had at the Assizes in the county where, but for the said Winter Assizes Acts, such prisoner would have been tried.

The provisions of Section thirteen of the Sheriffs Act, 1847, shall apply to the execution of any capital sentence passed at such Assizes as herein mentioned; provided that the expression in the said Section "the Sheriff of such County" shall mean the Sheriff of the County in which the prisoner so sentenced would have been tried if the Winter Assizes Acts, 1876 and 1877, had not been passed.

4. The Sheriff of the County of Leicester shall alone act for the purpose of the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County, and subject to the provisions of this Order shall have jurisdiction for that purpose over the whole district constituting the said Winter Assize County, and precepts and other documents relating to the said Winter Assizes shall be addressed to him alone.

5. The Gaol Delivery precept of the Judges to the said Sheriff shall direct him to summon the Grand Jurors and Petty Jurors from the County of Leicester, and the Jurors so summoned shall be deemed to be good and lawful men of the body of the several counties constituting the said Winter Assize County, and the Grand and Petty Jury formed out of those Jurors shall be deemed to be a Grand and Petty Jury respectively of the body of the said counties respectively, and shall have jurisdiction accordingly.

6. The precepts of the Judges to the said Sheriff shall direct him to cause the prisoners from all the prisons in the said Winter Assize County who under the provisions of this Order will have to be tried at Leicester, to be brought there, and the Sheriff shall cause such prisoners to be brought accordingly without any Writ of Habeas Corpus.

7. In all matters not before specifically mentioned the precepts to the said Sheriff shall direct him to issue, and he shall issue the like notices, precepts, warrants, and documents, and perform the same acts (mutatis mutandis) as if he were Sheriff for the whole of the said Winter Assize County, and all Under Sheriffs, Bailiffs, Constables, and Officers in the said Winter Assize County shall obey accordingly.

8. The said Sheriff shall, as to all matters in relation to such Winter Assizes for which no specific provision is made by this Order, have the same power, jurisdiction, and responsibility as if he were Sheriff for the whole of the said Winter Assize County, except that this provision shall not authorize the said Sheriff to carry sentences into execution outside the County of Leicester, or to levy outside the said county fines, imposed or recognizances estreated at the said Winter Assizes.

9. All Justices of the Peace, Mayors, Coroners, Escheators, Stewards, Bailiffs, Gaolers, Constables, Officers, and persons having authority and being under an obligation to attend the Assizes for either county comprised in the said Winter Assize County, or to certify, transmit, or deliver to the Court of Assize, or the proper officer thereof, any indictment, inquisition, recognizance, examination, deposition, or document, shall have the same authority, and be under the same obligation to attend at the said Winter Assizes held for the said Winter Assize County, and to certify, transmit, or deliver to the Court of Assize, or the proper officer thereof, such indictment, inquisition, recognizance, examination, deposition, or document. This provision shall not apply to the Sheriff of the County of Rutland.

10. In all indictments and presentments at the said Winter Assizes, the venue laid in the margin thereof shall, in addition to the name of the county where the offence is charged to have been committed, contain the words "Winter Assize County, No. 2."

11. Any person who, after the date of this Order and before the said Winter Assizes, enters into a recognizance to appear and prosecute, or give evidence, or to appear and answer before a Court of Oyer and Terminer or General Gaol Delivery to be holden for either of the counties constituting the said Winter Assize County, shall be bound to attend at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County.

12. In all cases in which the like recognizances have been entered into in respect of any offence committed in either of the counties constituting the said Winter Assize County prior to the making of this Order, such recognizances shall be deemed to have been entered into for attendance at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County, and every person bound by such recognizance shall be bound to appear at such last-mentioned Winter Assizes, or forfeit his recognizance.

13. Ten days before the day fixed for the opening of the Commission at Leicester, a list of the prisoners to be removed for trial at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County, so far as the same list can then be made out, shall, together with a short statement of the offences with which they are charged, be transmitted by the Gaoler of each prison in which such prisoners may be to the Sheriff of the County of Leicester, and the said Sheriff shall cause to be inserted in one or more newspapers in the Winter Assize County the said list and statement, and a notice that the persons bound by recognizances to appear and prosecute or give evidence for or against the prisoners so removed shall appear and prosecute and give evidence at Leicester.

14. It shall be lawful for the Gaoler of the Gaol in which prisoners who are to take their trial at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County shall be in custody, three days before the day upon which the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County are appointed to be held, to send, without any Writ of Habeas Corpus, such prisoners to His Majesty's Gaol, formerly the Gaol for the county of Leicester, at Leicester, for the purposes of their trial, and to take all proper steps for their transmission to the said Gaol, and their maintenance by the way, and the Gaoler of the said Gaol shall receive such prisoners into his charge and custody on their arrival, and shall keep and maintain them in the said Gaol until they are either ordered to be discharged or remanded by proper authority, or until they shall have been tried and sentenced, and proper arrangements have been made for their being sent back to the prison from which they were sent for trial, or sent to any other prison which has been duly appointed as an alternative for such prison. If, however, the said Gaol has itself been duly appointed as an alternative prison for the prison from which such prisoners were sent to trial, the Governor of the said Gaol shall, subject to the orders of the Secretary of State, keep and maintain in the said Gaol such prisoners after sentence, until they are discharged in due course of law.

15. The Clerk of Assize at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County shall have all powers of taxation of Bills of Costs, expenses of prosecution and witnesses, and all other powers necessary for checking and paying such costs relating to the trial of prisoners that the Clerk of Assize in the county where such prisoners were committed would have had if such prisoner had been tried at the Assizes held in such last-mentioned county.

Where any person is committed for trial, or is bound by any recognizance to appear and answer, in the said Winter Assize County, any Judge of the High Court of Justice, or the committing Justice or Justices, or any two of the Justices of the county or place from which he is committed or admitted to bail, may, upon the application of such person, direct the Treasurer of the county or place where such person was committed, or entered into any recognizance to appear and answer as aforesaid, to advance to such person a sum not exceeding 20*l.* to enable him to defray the travelling expenses of such of his witnesses as may have been bound by recognizances to appear on his behalf, and the Treasurer shall advance such sum, and shall deduct it out of the amount ultimately allowed in respect of such witnesses.

16. In any case where money is ordered by the Court at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County to be paid in respect of costs and expenses of prosecutors and witnesses, the same shall be paid by the Treasurer of the county or place by whom the same would have been payable had a like order been made by a Court of Oyer and Terminer or Gaol Delivery in the County where the trial would have taken place but for the Winter Assizes Acts, and this Order; and every such Treasurer or some known agent on his behalf shall attend the said Winter Assizes during the sitting of the Court to pay all such orders.

17. Where the Court at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County remand a prisoner or adjourn any trial, or otherwise make an order respecting a prisoner committed for trial but not acquitted or convicted, the Court may make such order with respect to the removal of such prisoner to a prison in the county or place in which he was committed for trial as to the Court seems just, and the prisoner may be removed accordingly without any Writ of Habeas Corpus.

18. Except where the context otherwise requires, terms used in this Order shall have the same meaning as that which the same terms have in the Winter Assizes Acts, 1876 and 1877.

19. This Order, unless earlier revoked, shall be in force during the continuance of the Winter Assizes, 1904. A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 15th day of July, 1904.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IN pursuance of the Winter Assizes Acts, 1876 and 1877, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Most Honourable Privy Council, to order as follows:—

1. The County of Huntingdon and the County of Cambridge shall, for the purpose of the next Winter Assizes, be united together and form one County, under the name of the Winter Assize County, No. 3.

2. The said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County shall be held at the Shire Hall at Chesterton, in the County of Cambridge.

3. The Court at the said Winter Assizes at Chesterton shall have jurisdiction to try any prisoner committed in the said Winter Assize County who may be brought before it, and shall have the same powers with respect to the trial of and passing sentence upon such prisoner as a Court of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery would have had at the Assizes in the county where, but for the said Winter Assizes Acts, such prisoner would have been tried.

The provisions of Section thirteen of the Sheriffs Act, 1887, shall apply to the execution of any capital sentence passed at such Assizes as herein mentioned; provided that the expression in the said Section "the Sheriff of such County" shall mean the Sheriff of the County in which the prisoner so sentenced would have been tried if the Winter Assizes Acts, 1876 and 1877, had not been passed.

4. The Sheriff of the County of Cambridge shall alone act for the purpose of the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County, and subject to the provisions of this Order shall have jurisdiction for that purpose over the whole district constituting the said Winter Assize County, and precepts and other documents relating to the said Winter Assizes shall be addressed to him alone.

5. The Gaol Delivery precept of the Judges to the said Sheriff shall direct him to summon the Grand Jurors and Petty Jurors from the County of Cambridge, and the Jurors so summoned shall be deemed to be good and lawful men of the body of the several counties constituting the said Winter Assize County, and the Grand and Petty Jury formed out of those Jurors shall be deemed to be a Grand and Petty Jury respectively of the body of the said counties respectively, and shall have jurisdiction accordingly.

6. The precepts of the Judges to the said Sheriff shall direct him to cause the prisoners from all the prisons in the said Winter Assize County who under the provisions of this Order will have to be tried at Chesterton, to be brought there, and the Sheriff shall cause such prisoners to be brought accordingly without any writ of Habeas Corpus.

7. In all matters not before specifically mentioned, the precepts to the said Sheriff shall direct him to issue, and he shall issue the like notices, precepts, warrants, and documents, and perform the same acts (mutatis mutandis) as if he were Sheriff for the whole of the said Winter Assize County, and all Under Sheriffs, Bailiffs, Constables, and Officers in the said Winter Assize County shall obey accordingly.

8. The said Sheriff shall, as to all matters in relation to such Winter Assizes for which no specific provision is made by this Order, have the same power, jurisdiction, and responsibility as if he were Sheriff for the whole of the said Winter Assize County, except that this provision shall not authorize the said Sheriff to carry sentences into execution outside the County of Cambridge, or to levy outside the said county fines imposed or recognizances estreated at the said Winter Assizes.

9. All Justices of the Peace, Mayors, Coroners, Escheators, Stewards, Bailiffs, Gaolers, Constables, Officers, and persons having authority and being under an obligation to attend the Assizes for either of the counties comprised in the said Winter Assize County, or to certify, transmit, or deliver to the Court of Assize or the proper officer thereof any indictment, inquisition, recognizance, examination, deposition, or document, shall have the same authority and be under the same obligation to attend at the said Winter Assizes held for the said Winter Assize County, and to certify, transmit, or deliver to the Court of Assize or the proper officer thereof such indictment, inquisition, recognizance, examination, deposition, or document.

10. In all indictments and presentments at the said Winter Assizes, the venue laid in the margin thereof, shall in addition to the name of the county where the offence is charged to have been committed, contain the words "Winter Assize County, No. 3."

11. Any person who after the date of this Order, and before the said Winter Assizes, enters into a recognizance to appear and prosecute, or give evidence, or to appear and answer before a Court of Oyer and Terminer or General Gaol Delivery, to be holden for either of the counties constituting the said Winter Assize County, shall be bound to attend at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County.

12. In all cases in which the like recognizances have been entered into in respect of any offence committed in either of the Counties constituting the said Winter Assize County prior to the making of this Order, such recognizances shall be deemed to have been entered into for attendance at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County, and every person bound by such recognizance shall be bound to appear at such last-mentioned Winter Assizes, or forfeit his recognizance.

13. Ten days before the day fixed for the opening of the Commission at Chesterton, a list of the prisoners to be removed for trial at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County, so far as the same list can then be made out, shall, together with a short statement of the offences with which they are charged, be transmitted by the Gaoler of each prison in which such prisoners may be, to the Sheriff of the County of Cambridge, and the said Sheriff shall cause to be inserted in one or more newspapers in the Winter Assize County the said list and statement, and a notice that the persons bound by recognizances to appear and prosecute or give evidence for or against the prisoners so removed shall appear and prosecute and give evidence at Chesterton.

14. It shall be lawful for the Gaoler of the Gaol in which prisoners who are to take their trial at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County shall be in custody, three days before the day upon which the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County are appointed to be held, to send, without any writ of Habeas Corpus, such prisoners to His Majesty's Gaol, recently the Gaol for the County of Cambridge at Chesterton, for the purposes of their trial, and to take all proper steps for their transmission to the said Gaol, and their maintenance by the way, and the Gaoler of the said Gaol shall receive such prisoners into his charge and custody on their arrival, and shall keep and maintain them in the said Gaol until they are either ordered to be discharged or remanded by proper authority, or until they shall have been tried and sentenced, and proper arrangements have been made for their being sent back to the prison from which they were sent for trial, or sent to any other prison which has been duly appointed as an alternative for such prison. If, however, the said Gaol has itself been duly appointed as an alternative prison for the prison from which such prisoners were sent to trial, the Governor of the said Gaol shall, subject to the orders of the Secretary of State, keep and maintain in the said Gaol such prisoners after sentence, until they are discharged in due course of law.

15. The Clerk of Assize at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County shall have all powers of taxation of Bills of Costs, expenses of prosecution, and witnesses, and all other powers necessary for checking and paying such costs relating to the trial of prisoners that the Clerk of Assize in the county where such prisoners were committed would have had if such prisoner had been tried at the Assizes held in such last-mentioned county.

Where any person is committed for trial, or is bound by any recognizance to appear and answer, in the said Winter Assize County, any Judge of the High Court of Justice, or the committing Justice or Justices, or any two of the Justices of the county or place from which he is committed or admitted to bail, may, upon the application of such person, direct the Treasurer of the county or place where such person was committed, or entered into any recognizance to appear and answer as aforesaid, to advance to such person a sum not exceeding 20*l.* to enable him to defray the travelling expenses of such of his witnesses as may have been bound by recognizances to appear on his behalf, and the Treasurer shall advance such sum, and shall deduct it out of the amount ultimately allowed in respect of such witnesses.

16. In any case where money is ordered by the Court at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County to be paid in respect of costs and expenses of prosecutors and witnesses, the same shall be paid by the Treasurer of the county or place by whom the same would have been payable had a like order been made by a Court of Oyer and Terminer or Gaol Delivery in the County where the trial would have taken place but for the Winter Assizes Acts, and this Order; and every such Treasurer or some known Agent on his behalf shall attend the said Winter Assizes during the sitting of the Court to pay all such orders.

17. Where the Court at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County remand a prisoner or adjourn any trial, or otherwise make an order respecting a prisoner committed for trial but not acquitted or convicted, the Court may make such order with respect to the removal of such prisoner to a prison in the county or place, in which he was committed for trial as to the Court seems just, and the prisoner may be removed accordingly, without any writ of Habeas Corpus.

18. Except where the context otherwise requires, terms used in this Order shall have the same meaning as that which the same terms have in the Winter Assizes Acts, 1876 and 1877.

19. This Order, unless earlier revoked, shall be in force during the continuance of the Winter Assizes, 1904.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 15th day of July, 1904.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IN pursuance of the Winter Assizes Acts, 1876 and 1877, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Most Honourable Privy Council, to order as follows:—

1. The County of Montgomery, the County of Merioneth, the County of Denbigh, and the County of Flint shall, for the purpose of the next Winter Assizes, be united together and form one County, under the name of the Winter Assize County, No. 4.

2. The said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County shall be held at Ruthin.

3. The Court at the said Winter Assizes at Ruthin shall have jurisdiction to try any prisoner committed in the said Winter Assize County who may be brought before it, and shall have the same powers with respect to the trial of and passing sentence upon such prisoner as a Court of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery would have had at the Assizes in the county where, but for the said Winter Assizes Acts, such prisoner would have been tried.

The provisions of Section thirteen of the Sheriffs Act, 1887, shall apply to the execution of any capital sentence passed at such Assizes as herein mentioned; provided that the expression in the said Section "the Sheriff of such County" shall mean the Sheriff of the County in which the prisoner so sentenced would have been tried if the Winter Assizes Acts, 1876 and 1877, had not been passed.

4. The Sheriff of the County of Denbigh shall alone act for the purpose of the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County, and subject to the provisions of this Order shall have jurisdiction for that purpose over the whole district constituting the said Winter Assize County, and precepts and other documents relating to the said Winter Assizes shall be addressed to him alone.

5. The Gaol Delivery precept of the Judges to the said Sheriff shall direct him to summon the Grand Jurors and Petty Jurors from the County of Denbigh, and the Jurors so summoned shall be deemed to be good and lawful men of the body of the several counties constituting the said Winter Assize County, and the Grand and Petty Jury formed out of those Jurors shall be deemed to be a Grand and Petty Jury respectively of the body of the said counties respectively, and shall have jurisdiction accordingly.

6. The precepts of the Judges to the said Sheriff shall direct him to cause the prisoners from all the prisons in the said Winter Assize County who under the provisions of this Order will have to be tried at Ruthin, to be brought there, and the Sheriff shall cause such prisoners to be brought accordingly without any writ of Habeas Corpus.

7. In all matters not before specifically mentioned, the precepts to the said Sheriff shall direct him to issue, and he shall issue the like notices, precepts, warrants, and documents, and perform the same acts (mutatis mutandis) as if he were Sheriff for the whole of the said Winter Assize County, and all Under Sheriffs, Bailiffs, Constables, and Officers in the said Winter Assize County shall obey accordingly.

8. The said Sheriff shall, as to all matters in relation to such Winter Assizes for which no specific provision is made by this Order, have the same power, jurisdiction, and responsibility as if he were Sheriff for the whole of the said Winter Assize County, except that this provision shall not authorize the said Sheriff to carry sentences into execution outside the County of Denbigh, or to levy outside the said county fines imposed or recognizances estreated at the said Winter Assizes.

9. All Justices of the Peace, Mayors, Coroners, Escheators, Stewards, Bailiffs, Gaolers, Constables, Officers, and persons having authority and being under an obligation to attend the Assizes for any county comprised in the said Winter Assize County, or to certify, transmit, or deliver to the Court of Assize or the proper officer thereof any indictment, inquisition, recognizance, examination, deposition, or document, shall have the same authority, and be under the same obligation to attend at the said Winter Assizes held for the said Winter Assize County, and to certify, transmit, or deliver to the Court of Assize or the proper officer thereof such indictment, inquisition, recognizance, examination, deposition, or document. This provision shall not apply to the Sheriffs of any of the counties constituting the said Winter Assize County, other than the Sheriff of the County of Denbigh.

10. In all indictments and presentments at the said Winter Assizes, the venue laid in the margin thereof shall, in addition to the name of the county where the offence is charged to have been committed, contain the words "Winter Assize County, No. 4."

11. Any person who after the date of this Order, and before the said Winter Assizes, enters into a recognizance to appear and prosecute, or give evidence, or to appear and answer before a Court of Oyer and Terminer or General Gaol Delivery, to be holden for any of the counties constituting the said Winter Assize County, shall be bound to attend at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County.

12. In all cases in which the like recognizances have been entered into in respect of any offence committed in any of the counties constituting the said Winter Assize County prior to the making of this Order, such recognizances shall be deemed to have been entered into for attendance at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County, and every person bound by such recognizance shall be bound to appear at such last-mentioned Winter Assizes, or forfeit his recognizance.

13. Ten days before the day fixed for the opening of the Commission at Ruthin, a list of the prisoners to be removed for trial at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County, so far as the same list can then be made out, shall, together with a short statement of the offences with which they are charged, be transmitted by the Gaoler of each prison in which such prisoners may be, to the Sheriff of the County of Denbigh, and the said Sheriff shall cause to be inserted in one or more newspapers in the Winter Assize County the said list and statement, and a notice that the persons bound by recognizances to appear and prosecute or give evidence for or against the prisoners so removed shall appear and prosecute and give evidence at Ruthin.

14. It shall be lawful for the Gaoler of the Gaol in which prisoners who are to take their trial at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County shall be in custody, three days before the day upon which the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County are appointed to be held, to send, without any writ of Habeas Corpus, such prisoners to His Majesty's Gaol at Ruthin for the purposes of their trial, and to take all proper steps for their transmission to the said Gaol, and their maintenance by the way, and the Gaoler of the said Gaol shall receive such prisoners into his charge and custody on their arrival, and shall keep and maintain them in the said Gaol until they are either ordered to be discharged or remanded by proper authority, or until they shall have been tried and sentenced, and proper arrangements have been made for their being sent back to the prison from which they were sent for trial, or sent to any other prison which has been duly appointed as an alternative for such prison. If, however, the said Gaol has itself been duly appointed as an alternative prison for the prison from which such prisoners were sent to trial, the Governor of the said Gaol shall, subject to the orders of the Secretary of State, keep and maintain in the said Gaol such prisoners after sentence, until they are discharged in due course of law.

15. The Clerk of Assize at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County shall have all powers of taxation of Bills of Costs, expenses of prosecution and witnesses, and all other powers necessary for checking and paying such costs relating to the trial of prisoners that the Clerk of Assize in the county where such prisoners were committed would have had if such prisoner had been tried at the Assizes held in such last-mentioned county.

Where any person is committed for trial, or is bound by any recognizance to appear and answer, in the said Winter Assize County, any Judge of the High Court of Justice, or the committing Justice or Justices, or any two of the Justices of the county or place from which he is committed, or admitted to bail, may, upon the application of such person, direct the Treasurer of the county or place where such person was committed, or entered into any recognizance to appear and answer as aforesaid, to advance to such person a sum not exceeding 20*l.* to enable him to defray the travelling expenses of such of his witnesses as may have been bound by recognizances to appear on his behalf, and the Treasurer shall advance such sum, and shall deduct it out of the amount ultimately allowed in respect of such witnesses.

16. In any case where money is ordered by the Court at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County to be paid in respect of costs and expenses of prosecutors and witnesses, the same shall be paid by the Treasurer of the county or place by whom the same would have been payable had a like order been made by a Court of Oyer and Terminer or Gaol Delivery in the county where the trial would have taken place but for the Winter Assizes Acts, and this Order; and every such Treasurer, or some known agent on his behalf, shall attend the said Winter Assizes during the sitting of the Court to pay all such orders.

17. Where the Court at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County remand a prisoner or adjourn any trial, or otherwise make an order respecting a prisoner committed for trial but not acquitted or convicted, the Court may make such order with respect to the removal of such prisoner to a prison in the county or place in which he was committed for trial as to the Court seems just, and the prisoner may be removed accordingly, without any writ of Habeas Corpus.

18. Except where the context otherwise requires, terms used in this Order shall have the same meaning as that which the same terms have in the Winter Assizes Acts, 1876 and 1877.

19. This Order, unless earlier revoked, shall be in force during the continuance of the Winter Assizes, 1904.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 15th day of July, 1904.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IN pursuance of the Winter Assizes Acts, 1876 and 1877, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Most Honourable Privy Council, to order as follows:—

1. The County of Carnarvon, and the County of Anglesea shall, for the purpose of the next Winter Assizes, be united together and form one County, under the name of the Winter Assize County, No. 5.

2. The said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County shall be held at Carnarvon.

3. The Court at the said Winter Assizes at Carnarvon shall have jurisdiction to try any prisoner committed in the said Winter Assize County who may be brought before it, and shall have the same powers with respect to the trial of and passing sentence upon such prisoner as a Court of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery would have had at the Assizes in the county where, but for the said Winter Assizes Acts, such prisoner would have been tried.

The provisions of Section thirteen of the Sheriffs Act, 1887, shall apply to the execution of any capital sentence passed at such Assizes as herein mentioned; provided that the expression in the said Section "the Sheriff of such County" shall mean the Sheriff of the County in which the prisoner so sentenced would have been tried if the Winter Assizes Acts, 1876 and 1877, had not been passed.

4. The Sheriff of the County of Carnarvon shall alone act for the purpose of the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County, and subject to the provisions of this Order shall have jurisdiction for that purpose over the whole district constituting the said Winter Assize County, and precepts and other documents relating to the said Winter Assizes shall be addressed to him alone.

5. The Gaol Delivery precept of the Judges to the said Sheriff shall direct him to summon the Grand Jurors and Petty Jurors from the County of Carnarvon, and the Jurors so summoned shall be deemed to be good and lawful men of the body of the several counties constituting the said Winter Assize County, and the Grand and Petty Jury formed out of those Jurors shall be deemed to be a Grand and Petty Jury respectively of the body of the said counties respectively, and shall have jurisdiction accordingly.

6. The precepts of the Judges to the said Sheriff shall direct him to cause the prisoners from all the prisons in the said Winter Assize County who under the provisions of this Order will have to be tried at Carnarvon, to be brought there, and the Sheriff shall cause such prisoners to be brought accordingly without any writ of Habeas Corpus.

7. In all matters not before specifically mentioned, the precepts to the said Sheriff shall direct him to issue, and he shall issue the like notices, precepts, warrants, and documents, and perform the same acts (mutatis mutandis) as if he were Sheriff for the whole of the said Winter Assize County, and all Under Sheriffs, Bailiffs, Constables, and Officers in the said Winter Assize County shall obey accordingly.

8. The said Sheriff shall, as to all matters in relation to such Winter Assizes for which no specific provision is made by this Order, have the same power, jurisdiction, and responsibility as if he were Sheriff for the whole of the said Winter Assize County, except that this provision shall not authorize the said Sheriff to carry sentences into execution outside the county of Carnarvon, or to levy outside the said county fines imposed or recognizances estreated at the said Winter Assizes.

9. All Justices of the Peace, Mayors, Coroners, Escheators, Stewards, Bailiffs, Gaolers, Constables, Officers, and persons having authority, and being under an obligation to attend the Assizes for either county comprised in the said Winter Assize County, or to certify, transmit, or deliver to the Court of Assize, or the proper officer thereof, any indictment, inquisition, recognizance, examination, deposition, or document, shall have the same authority and be under the same obligation to attend at the said Winter Assizes held for the said Winter Assize County, and to certify, transmit, or deliver to the Court of Assize, or the proper officer thereof, such indictment, inquisition, recognizance, examination, deposition, or document. This provision shall not apply to the Sheriff of the County of Anglesea.

10. In all indictments and presentments at the said Winter Assizes the venue laid in the margin thereof shall, in addition to the name of the county where the offence is charged to have been committed, contain the words "Winter Assize County, No. 5."

11. Any person who, after the date of this Order, and before the said Winter Assizes, enters into a recognizance to appear and prosecute, or give evidence, or to appear and answer before a Court of Oyer and Terminer or General Gaol Delivery, to be holden for either of the counties constituting the said Winter Assize County, shall be bound to attend at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County.

12. In all cases in which the like recognizances have been entered into in respect of any offence committed in either of the counties constituting the said Winter Assize County prior to the making of this Order, such recognizances shall be deemed to have been entered into for attendance at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County, and every person bound by such recognizance shall be bound to appear at such last-mentioned Winter Assizes or forfeit his recognizance.

13. Ten days before the day fixed for the opening of the Commission at Carnarvon, a list of the prisoners to be removed for trial at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County, so far as the same list can then be made out, shall, together with a short statement of the offences with which they are charged, be transmitted by the Gaoler of each prison in which such prisoners may be, to the Sheriff of the County of Carnarvon, and the said Sheriff shall cause to be inserted in one or more newspapers in the Winter Assize County the said list and statement, and a notice that the persons bound by recognizances to appear and prosecute or give evidence for or against the prisoners so removed shall appear and prosecute and give evidence at Carnarvon.

14. It shall be lawful for the Gaoler of the Gaol in which prisoners who are to take their trial at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County shall be in custody, three days before the day upon which the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County are appointed to be held, to send, without any writ of Habeas Corpus, such prisoners to His Majesty's Gaol at Carnarvon for the purposes of their trial, and to take all proper steps for their transmission to the said Gaol, and their maintenance by the way, and the Gaoler of the said Gaol shall receive such prisoners into his charge and custody on their arrival, and shall keep and maintain them in the said Gaol until they are either ordered to be discharged or remanded by proper authority, or until they shall have been tried and sentenced, and proper arrangements have been made for their being sent back to the prison from which they were sent for trial, or sent to any other prison which has been duly appointed as an alternative for such prison. If, however, the said Gaol has itself been duly appointed as an alternative prison for the prison from which such prisoners were sent to trial, the Governor of the said Gaol shall, subject to the orders of the Secretary of State, keep and maintain in the said Gaol such prisoners after sentence, until they are discharged in due course of law.

15. The Clerk of Assize at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County shall have all powers of taxation of Bills of Costs, expenses of prosecution and witnesses, and all other powers necessary for checking and paying such costs relating to the trial of prisoners that the Clerk of Assize in the county where such prisoners were committed would have had if such prisoner had been tried at the Assizes held in such last-mentioned county.

Where any person is committed for trial, or is bound by any recognizance to appear and answer, in the said Winter Assize County, any Judge of the High Court of Justice, or the committing Justice or Justices, or any two of the Justices of the county or place from which he is committed or admitted to bail, may, upon the application of such person, direct the Treasurer of the county or place where such person was committed or entered into any recognizance to appear and answer as aforesaid, to advance to such person a sum not exceeding 20*l.* to enable him to defray the travelling expenses of such of his witnesses as may have been bound by recognizances to appear on his behalf, and the Treasurer shall advance such sum, and shall deduct it out of the amount ultimately allowed in respect of such witnesses.

16. In any case where money is ordered by the Court at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County to be paid in respect of costs and expenses of prosecutors and witnesses, the same shall be paid by the Treasurer of the county or place by whom the same would have been payable had a like order been made by a Court of Oyer and Terminer or Gaol Delivery in the county where the trial would have taken place but for the Winter Assizes Acts, and this Order; and every such Treasurer, or some known agent on his behalf, shall attend the said Winter Assizes during the sitting of the Court to pay all such orders.

17. Where the Court at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County remand a prisoner or adjourn any trial, or otherwise make an order respecting a prisoner committed for trial but not acquitted or convicted, the Court may make such order with respect to the removal of such prisoner to a prison in the county or place in which he was committed for trial as to the Court seems just, and the prisoner may be removed accordingly without any writ of Habeas Corpus.

18. Except where the context otherwise requires, terms used in this Order shall have the same meaning as that which the same terms have in the Winter Assizes Acts, 1876 and 1877.

19. This Order, unless earlier revoked, shall be in force during the continuance of the Winter Assizes, 1904.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 15th day of July, 1904.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IN pursuance of the Winter Assizes Acts, 1876 and 1877, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Most Honourable Privy Council, to order as follows:—

1. The County of Carmarthen, the County of the Borough of Carmarthen, the County of Pembroke, the Town and County of Haverfordwest and the County of Cardigan, shall, for the purpose of the next Winter Assizes, be united together and form one County, under the name of the Winter Assize County, No. 6.

2. The said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County shall be held at Carmarthen.

3. The Court at the said Winter Assizes at Carmarthen shall have jurisdiction to try any prisoner committed in the said Winter Assize County who may be brought before it, and shall have the same powers with respect to the trial of and passing sentence upon such prisoner as a Court of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery would have had at the Assizes in the county where, but for the said Winter Assizes Acts, such prisoner would have been tried.

The provisions of Section thirteen of the Sheriffs Act, 1887, shall apply to the execution of any capital sentence passed at such Assizes as herein mentioned; provided that the expression in the said Section "the Sheriff of such county" shall mean the Sheriff of the county in which the prisoner so sentenced would have been tried if the Winter Assizes Acts, 1876 and 1877, had not been passed.

4. The Sheriff of the County of Carmarthen shall alone act for the purpose of the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County, and subject to the provisions of this Order shall have jurisdiction for that purpose over the whole district constituting the said Winter Assize County, and precepts and other documents relating to the said Winter Assizes shall be addressed to him alone.

5. The Gaol Delivery precept of the Judges to the said Sheriff shall direct him to summon the Grand Jurors and Petty Jurors from the County of Carmarthen, and the Jurors so summoned shall be deemed to be good and lawful men of the body of the several counties constituting the said Winter Assize County, and the Grand and Petty Jury formed out of those Jurors shall be deemed to be a Grand and Petty Jury respectively of the body of the said counties respectively, and shall have jurisdiction accordingly.

6. The precepts of the Judges to the said Sheriff shall direct him to cause the prisoners from all the prisons in the said Winter Assize County who under the provisions of this Order will have to be tried at Carmarthen, to be brought there, and the Sheriff shall cause such prisoners to be brought accordingly without any Writ of Habeas Corpus.

7. In all matters not before specifically mentioned, the precepts to the said Sheriff shall direct him to issue, and he shall issue the like notices, precepts, warrants, and documents and perform the same acts (mutatis mutandis) as if he were Sheriff for the whole of the said Winter Assize County, and all Under Sheriffs, Bailiffs, Constables, and Officers in the said Winter Assize County shall obey accordingly.

8. The said Sheriff shall, as to all matters in relation to such Winter Assizes for which no specific provision is made by this Order, have the same power, jurisdiction, and responsibility as if he were Sheriff for the whole of the said Winter Assize County, except that this provision shall not authorize the said Sheriff to carry sentences into execution outside the County of Carmarthen, or to levy outside the said county fines imposed or recognizances estreated at the said Winter Assizes.

9. All Justices of the Peace, Mayors, Coroners, Escheators, Stewards, Bailiffs, Gaolers, Constables, Officers, and persons having authority, and being under an obligation to attend the Assizes for any county comprised in the said Winter Assize County, or to certify, transmit, or deliver to the Court of Assize, or the proper officer thereof, any indictment, inquisition, recognizance, examination, deposition, or document, shall have the same authority and be under the same obligation to attend at the said Winter Assizes held for the said Winter Assize County, and to certify, transmit, or deliver to the Court of Assize, or the proper officer thereof, such indictment, inquisition, recognizance, examination, deposition, or document. This provision shall not apply to the Sheriffs of any of the counties constituting the said Winter Assize County, other than the Sheriff of the County of Carmarthen.

10. In all indictments and presentments at the said Winter Assizes, the venue laid in the margin thereof shall, in addition to the name of the county where the offence is charged to have been committed, contain the words "Winter Assize County, No. 6."

11. Any person who, after the date of this Order and before the said Winter Assizes, enters into a recognizance to appear and prosecute, or give evidence, or to appear and answer before a Court of Oyer and Terminer or General Gaol Delivery, to be holden for any of the counties constituting the said Winter Assize County, shall be bound to attend at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County.

12. In all cases in which the like recognizances have been entered into in respect of any offence committed in any of the counties constituting the said Winter Assize County prior to the making of this Order, such recognizances shall be deemed to have been entered into for attendance at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize

County, and every person bound by such recognizance shall be bound to appear at such last-mentioned Winter Assizes, or forfeit his recognizance.

13. Ten days before the day fixed for the opening of the Commission at Carmarthen, a list of the prisoners to be removed for trial at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County, so far as the same list can then be made out, shall, together with a short statement of the offences with which they are charged, be transmitted by the Gaoler of each prison in which such prisoners may be, to the Sheriff of the County of Carmarthen, and the said Sheriff shall cause to be inserted in one or more newspapers in the Winter Assize County the said list and statement, and a notice that the persons bound by recognizances to appear and prosecute or give evidence for or against the prisoners so removed shall appear and prosecute and give evidence at Carmarthen.

14. It shall be lawful for the Gaoler of the Gaol in which prisoners who are to take their trial at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County shall be in custody, three days before the day upon which the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County are appointed to be held, to send, without any Writ of Habeas Corpus, such prisoners to His Majesty's Gaol at Carmarthen for the purposes of their trial, and to take all proper steps for their transmission to the said Gaol, and their maintenance by the way, and the Gaoler of the said Gaol shall receive such prisoners into his charge and custody on their arrival, and shall keep and maintain them in the said Gaol until they are either ordered to be discharged or remanded by proper authority, or until they shall have been tried and sentenced, and proper arrangements have been made for their being sent back to the prison from which they were sent for trial, or sent to any other prison which has been duly appointed as an alternative for such prison. If, however, the said Gaol has itself been duly appointed as an alternative prison for the prison from which such prisoners were sent to trial, the Governor of the said Gaol shall, subject to the orders of the Secretary of State, keep and maintain in the said Gaol such prisoners after sentence, until they are discharged in due course of law.

15. The Clerk of Assize at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County shall have all powers of taxation of Bills of Costs, expenses of prosecution and witnesses, and all other powers necessary for checking and paying such costs relating to the trial of prisoners that the Clerk of Assize in the county where such prisoners were committed would have had if such prisoner had been tried at the Assizes held in such last-mentioned county.

Where any person is committed for trial, or is bound by any recognizance to appear and answer, in the said Winter Assize County, any Judge of the High Court of Justice, or the committing Justice or Justices, or any two of the Justices of the county or place from which he is committed, or admitted to bail, may, upon the application of such person, direct the Treasurer of the county or place where such person was committed, or entered into any recognizance to appear and answer as aforesaid, to advance to such person a sum not exceeding 20*l.* to enable him to defray the travelling expenses of such of his witnesses as may have been bound by recognizances to appear on his behalf, and the Treasurer shall advance such sum, and shall deduct it out of the amount ultimately allowed in respect of such witnesses.

16. In any case where money is ordered by the Court at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County to be paid in respect of costs and expenses of prosecutors and witnesses, the same shall be paid by the Treasurer of the county or place by whom the same would have been payable had a like order been made by a Court of Oyer and Terminer or Gaol Delivery in the county where the trial would have taken place but for the Winter Assizes Acts, and this Order; and every such Treasurer, or some known agent on his behalf, shall attend the said Winter Assizes during the sitting of the Court to pay all such orders.

17. Where the Court at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County remand a prisoner or adjourn any trial, or otherwise make an order respecting a prisoner committed for trial but not acquitted or convicted, the Court may make such order with respect to the removal of such prisoner to a prison in the county or place in which he was committed for trial as to the Court seems just, and the prisoner may be removed accordingly without any writ of Habeas Corpus.

18. Except where the context otherwise requires, terms used in this Order shall have the same meaning as that which the same terms have in the Winter Assizes Acts, 1876 and 1877.

19. This Order, unless earlier revoked, shall be in force during the continuance of the Winter Assizes, 1904.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 15th day of July, 1904.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IN pursuance of the Winter Assizes Acts, 1876 and 1877, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Most Honourable Privy Council, to order as follows:—

1. The County of Brecknock, and the County of Radnor shall, for the purpose of the next Winter Assizes, be united together and form one County, under the name of the Winter Assize County, No. 7.

2. The said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County shall be held at Brecon.

3. The Court at the said Winter Assizes at Brecon shall have jurisdiction to try any prisoner committed in the said Winter Assize County who may be brought before it, and shall have the same powers with respect to the trial of and passing sentence upon such prisoner as a Court of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery would have had at the Assizes in the county where, but for the said Winter Assizes Acts, such prisoner would have been tried.

The provisions of Section thirteen of the Sheriffs Act, 1887, shall apply to the execution of any capital sentence passed at such Assizes as herein mentioned; provided that the expression in the said Section "the Sheriff of such County" shall mean the Sheriff of the county in which the prisoner so sentenced would have been tried if the Winter Assizes Acts, 1876 and 1877, had not been passed.

4. The Sheriff of the County of Brecknock shall alone act for the purpose of the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County, and subject to the provisions of this Order shall have jurisdiction for that purpose over the whole district constituting the said Winter Assize County, and precepts and other documents relating to the said Winter Assizes shall be addressed to him alone.

5. The precepts of the Judges to the said Sheriff shall direct him to summon the Grand Jurors and Petty Jurors from the County of Brecknock, and the Jurors so summoned shall be deemed to be good and lawful men of the body of the several counties constituting the said Winter Assize County, and the Grand and Petty Jury formed out of those Jurors shall be deemed to be a Grand and Petty Jury respectively of the body of the said counties respectively, and shall have jurisdiction accordingly.

6. The Gaol Delivery precept of the Judges to the said Sheriff shall direct him to cause the prisoners from all the prisons in the said Winter Assize County who under the provisions of this Order will have to be tried at Brecon, to be brought there, and the Sheriff shall cause such prisoners to be brought accordingly without any Writ of Habeas Corpus.

7. In all matters not before specifically mentioned the precepts to the said Sheriff shall direct him to issue, and he shall issue the like notices, precepts, warrants, and documents, and perform the same acts (mutatis mutandis) as if he were Sheriff for the whole of the said Winter Assize County, and all Under Sheriffs, Bailiffs, Constables, and Officers in the said Winter Assize County shall obey accordingly.

8. The said Sheriff shall, as to all matters in relation to such Winter Assizes for which no specific provision is made by this Order, have the same power, jurisdiction, and responsibility as if he were Sheriff for the whole of the said Winter Assize County, except that this provision shall not authorize the said Sheriff to carry sentences into execution outside the County of Brecknock, or to levy outside the said county fines imposed or recognizances estreated at the said Winter Assizes.

9. All Justices of the Peace, Mayors, Coroners, Escheators, Stewards, Bailiffs, Gaolers, Constables, Officers, and persons having authority, and being under an obligation to attend the Assizes for either county comprised in the said Winter Assize County, or to certify, transmit, or deliver to the Court of Assize, or the proper officer thereof, any indictment, inquisition, recognizance, examination, deposition, or document, shall have the same authority and be under the same obligation to attend at the said Winter Assizes held for the said Winter Assize County, and to certify, transmit, or deliver to the Court of Assize, or the proper officer thereof, such indictment, inquisition, recognizance, examination, deposition, or document. This provision shall not apply to the Sheriff of the County of Radnor.

10. In all indictments and presentments at the said Winter Assizes the venue laid in the margin thereof shall, in addition to the name of the county where the offence is charged to have been committed, contain the words "Winter Assize County, No. 7."

11. Any person who, after the date of this Order and before the said Winter Assizes, enters into a recognizance to appear and prosecute, or give evidence, or to appear and answer before a Court of Oyer and Terminer or General Gaol Delivery to be holden for either of the counties constituting the said Winter Assize County, shall be bound to attend at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County.

12. In all cases in which the like recognizances have been entered into in respect of any offence committed in either of the counties constituting the said Winter Assize County prior to the making of this Order, such recognizances shall be deemed to have been entered into for attendance at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County, and every person bound by such recognizance shall be bound to appear at such last-mentioned Winter Assizes or forfeit his recognizance.

13. Ten days before the day fixed for the opening of the Commission at Brecon, a list of the prisoners to be removed for trial at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County, so far as the same list can then be made out, shall, together with a short statement of the offences with which they are charged, be transmitted by the Gaoler of each prison in which such prisoners may be, to the Sheriff of the County of Brecknock, and the said Sheriff shall cause to be inserted in one or more newspapers in the Winter Assize County the said list and statement, and a notice that the persons bound by recognizances to appear and prosecute or give evidence for or against the prisoners so removed shall appear and prosecute and give evidence at Brecon.

14. It shall be lawful for the Gaoler of the Gaol in which prisoners who are to take their trial at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County shall be in custody, three days before the day upon which the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County are appointed to be held, to send, without any Writ of Habeas Corpus, such prisoners to His Majesty's Gaol at Brecon for the purposes of their trial, and to take all proper steps for their transmission to the said Gaol, and their maintenance by the way, and the Gaoler of the said Gaol shall receive such prisoners into his charge and custody on their arrival, and shall keep and maintain them in the said Gaol until they are either ordered to be discharged or remanded by proper authority, or until they shall have been tried and sentenced, and proper arrangements have been made for their being sent back to the prison from which they were sent for trial, or sent to any other prison which has been duly appointed as an alternative for such prison. If, however, the said Gaol has itself been duly appointed as an alternative prison for the prison from which such prisoners were sent to trial, the Governor of the said Gaol shall, subject to the orders of the Secretary of State, keep and maintain in the said Gaol such prisoners after sentence, until they are discharged in due course of law.

15. The Clerk of Assize at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County shall have all powers of taxation of Bills of Costs, expenses of prosecution and witnesses, and all other powers necessary for checking and paying such costs relating to the trial of prisoners that the Clerk of Assize in the county where such prisoners were committed would have had if such prisoner had been tried at the Assizes held in such last-mentioned county.

Where any person is committed for trial, or is bound by any recognizance to appear and answer, in the said Winter Assize County, any Judge of the High Court of Justice, or the committing Justice or Justices, or any two of the Justices of the county or place from which he is committed, or admitted to bail, may, upon the application of such person, direct the Treasurer of the county or place where such person was committed, or entered into any recognizance to appear and answer as aforesaid, to advance to such person a sum not exceeding 20*l.* to enable him to defray the travelling expenses of such of his witnesses as may have been bound by recognizances to appear on his behalf, and the Treasurer shall advance such sum, and shall deduct it out of the amount ultimately allowed in respect of such witnesses.

16. In any case where money is ordered by the Court at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County to be paid in respect of costs and expenses of prosecutors and witnesses, the same shall be paid by the Treasurer of the county or place by whom the same would have been payable had a like order been made by a Court of Oyer and Terminer or Gaol Delivery in the county where the trial would have taken place but for the Winter Assizes Acts, and this Order; and every such Treasurer or some known agent on his behalf shall attend the said Winter Assizes during the sitting of the Court to pay all such orders.

17. Where the Court at the said Winter Assizes for the said Winter Assize County remand a prisoner or adjourn any trial, or otherwise make an order respecting a prisoner committed for trial but not acquitted or convicted, the Court may make such order with respect to the removal of such prisoner to a prison in the county or place in which he was committed for trial as to the Court seems just, and the prisoner may be removed accordingly, without any Writ of Habeas Corpus.

18. Except where the context otherwise requires, terms used in this Order shall have the same meaning as that which the same terms have in the Winter Assizes Acts, 1876 and 1877.

19. This Order, unless earlier revoked, shall be in force during the continuance of the Winter Assizes, 1904.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 15th day of July, 1904.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty has been pleased by and with the advice of His Privy Council and in pursuance and exercise of the power vested in His Majesty by "The Municipal Corporations Act, 1882," to fix the number of wards into which the borough of Yeovil shall be divided; and to order and direct that the said borough shall be divided into four wards, which Order was made on the twenty-eighth day of March, one thousand nine hundred and four.

And whereas on the fifth day of April, in the year last aforesaid, the Right Honourable Aretas Akers-Douglas, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, did duly appoint me, Henry Best Hans Hamilton, Esquire, Barrister-at-Law, a Commissioner to prepare a scheme for determining the boundaries of such wards, and for apportioning the Councillors of the said borough among such wards.

Now, I, the said Henry Best Hans Hamilton, in pursuance of the powers given me by virtue of the said appointment under the said Act, do hereby determine, as hereinafter mentioned, the boundaries of the four wards into which the said borough is divided, which wards are hereinafter named and numbered as follows, that is to say:—

1. The North Ward.
2. The South Ward.
3. The East Ward.
4. The West Ward.

No. 1. The North Ward.

And I do hereby determine that Ward No. 1, otherwise the North Ward, shall comprise so much of the area of the borough of Yeovil, as is contained within an imaginary line commencing at a point in the centre of the southern end of Wyndham-street, thence in a northerly direction along the centre of Wyndham-street, to a point where it joins a road called Reckleford, thence, in a north-westerly direction, along the centre of Reckleford, to a point where it joins a road called Goldcroft, thence, in a northerly and north-westerly direction, along the centre of Goldcroft aforesaid to Milford Cross, thence, following the boundary of the said borough in a north-westerly, westerly and southerly direction to Pickett Witch, thence, continuing in a south-easterly direction along the centre of Ilchester-road, the centre of a road named Kingston, and in a southerly direction along the centre of Princes-street, to the termination of the latter road, thence, in an easterly and north-easterly direction along the centre of High-street, and the centre of Middle-street, to the point of commencement, at the southern end of Wyndham-street aforesaid.

No. 2. The South Ward.

And I do hereby determine that Ward No. 2, otherwise the South Ward, shall comprise so much of the area of the said borough of Yeovil, as is contained within an imaginary line, commencing at a point in the centre of Newton-road, where the borough boundary crosses the said road, thence, in a north-westerly direction along the centre of Newton-road, to a point where Newton-road joins Middle-street, thence, in a south-westerly and westerly direction, along the centre of Middle-street and the centre of High-street to the western end of High-street aforesaid, thence, in a south-westerly direction, along the centre of the roads, named Hendford and Hendford-hill, to the boundary of the borough near Bragg Church, and thence, in an easterly direction, following the southern boundary of the borough to the point of commencement, in the centre of Newton-road aforesaid.

No. 3. The East Ward.

And I do hereby determine that Ward No. 3, otherwise the East Ward, shall comprise so much of the area of the said borough of Yeovil, as is contained within an imaginary line, commencing at a point in the centre of Newton-road, where the southern boundary of the borough crosses the said road, thence, in a north-westerly direction along the centre of Newton-road, to the termination of Newton-road aforesaid, thence, in a northerly direction along the centre of Wyndham-street to the junction of Wyndham-street and the road called Reckleford aforesaid, thence, in a north-westerly direction along the centre of Reckleford to a point opposite to the southern end of the road called Goldcroft aforesaid, thence, in a northerly and north-westerly direction along the centre of Goldcroft to Milford Cross, and thence, in an easterly direction, following the north-eastern, the eastern, and the south-eastern boundary of the borough, to the point of commencement, in the centre of Newton-road aforesaid.

No. 4. The West Ward.

And I do hereby determine that Ward No. 4, otherwise the West Ward, shall comprise so much of the area of the said borough of Yeovil, as is contained within an imaginary line commencing at a point in Ilchester-road, where the northern boundary of the borough intersects the said Ilchester-road, thence, in a south-easterly direction, along the centre of Ilchester-road aforesaid, the centre of the road called Kingston, continuing in a southerly direction, along the centre of Princes-street, and in a south-westerly direction along the centre of Hendford and Hendford-hill, to the point near Bragg Church where the boundary of the borough joins Hendford-hill aforesaid, thence, following the said borough boundary along the south-eastern side of Hendford-hill and West Coker-road, to a point on the south-eastern side of the said West Coker-road, where the said borough boundary turns to the north-west, thence, following the said borough boundary in a north-westerly, northerly, and north-easterly direction to the point of commencement, in the said Ilchester-road aforesaid.

And I do hereby further declare that the four Wards, hereinbefore determined, are shown upon an Ordnance Plan, deposited with the Clerk of the Peace of the said borough of Yeovil, and signed by me.

And I do hereby assign and apportion three Councillors to each and every of the said Wards as follows, that is to say :—

To the North Ward.

Councillors: Eli Wilson, William McMillan, and Edward Samuel Ewens.

To the South Ward.

Councillors: John Vincent, Levi Beer, and George Henry Gquid.

To the East Ward.

Councillors: Alfred Ernest Bradford, Arthur Silas Hayward, and George Hann.

To the West Ward.

Councillors: John Henry Boll, Henry Stiby, and William Cole.

Dated this eleventh day of June one thousand nine hundred and four.

H. B. Hans Hamilton, Commissioner.

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth hereby approve of the said scheme of the said Commissioner, and doth order the same to be published in the London Gazette accordingly.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 15th day of July, 1904.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Burial Act, 1855, it was, amongst other things, enacted that it should be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, should or should not have arrived), as to His Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, might seem fit :

And whereas an Order in Council has been made directing the discontinuance of burials in the parish churchyard of Saint Peter, Osmotherley, in the North Riding of the county of York, from the time specified in such Order ; and whereas the time for the discontinuance of burials therein has, from time to time, been postponed ; and whereas it seems fit to His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that the time for discontinuing burials in the said church, and be further postponed :

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the time appointed for the discontinuance of burials in the parish churchyard of Saint Peter, Osmotherley, in the North Riding of the county of York, be further postponed to the thirteenth day of September, one thousand nine hundred and four.

Privy Council Office, July 15, 1904.

WHEREAS the Governing Body of Winchester College, in virtue of the powers conferred upon them by "The Public Schools Act, 1868," did, on the ninth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and four, make Statutes amending and consolidating the Statutes of the College.

And whereas the said Statutes have this day been laid before His Majesty in Council, the same are published in the London Gazette in pursuance of the said Act.

And notice is hereby given, that it is lawful for the bodies or persons authorized so to do in that Act, within two months from the date of the publication of this notification, to petition His Majesty in Council to withhold His approval from the whole or any part of such Statutes.

Statutes of Winchester College.

Whereas the Saint Marie College of Winchester, near Winchester, otherwise called Winchester College, is a School to which the Public Schools Act, 1868, and the Acts amending the same, apply :

And whereas the Public Schools Commissioners, by a Statute made by them and approved by Her late Majesty the Queen in Council on the twenty-eighth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, determined and established the constitution of the New Governing Body of the said College or School :

And whereas the said Governing Body, by a Statute made by them and approved by Her late Majesty in Council on the twentieth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, amended and consolidated the then existing Statutes and Regulations of the College, and repealed all such parts of the said Statutes and Regulations as were not intended to be retained in force :

And whereas the said Governing Body, by another Statute made by them and approved by Her late Majesty in Council on the same twentieth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, provided for the administration of the Goddard Fund and of certain other Trust Funds :

And whereas the said Governing Body amended the said Statutes by other Statutes made by them and approved by Her late Majesty in Council on the twenty-third day of October, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six, on the fourteenth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight, on the twenty-fifth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two, on the twenty-eighth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven, and on the twenty-third day of November, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three, respectively :

And whereas by the said Statutes it was, amongst other things, provided that the members of the said Governing Body, other than the Warden of Winchester College, should be Fellows of the College :

And whereas all the Fellowships existing at the passing of the Public Schools Act, 1868, long ago became vacant by death or otherwise :

And whereas the said Governing Body afterwards amended and consolidated all the said Statutes by other Statutes made by them and approved by Her late Majesty in Council on the twenty-first day of November, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five, and further amended the said Statutes by other Statutes made by them and approved by Her late Majesty in Council on the twentieth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-eight, and on the twenty-sixth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-nine, respectively, and by other Statutes made by them and approved by His present Majesty the King in Council on the thirteenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and one, and on the sixteenth day of February, one thousand nine hundred and three, respectively :

And whereas by the said Statutes approved on the twenty-first day of November, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five, it was provided that the said Governing Body should be called "The Warden and Fellows of Winchester College" :

And whereas by the last-mentioned Statutes, as amended by the said Statute approved on the twenty-sixth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-nine, provision was made for the suspension, during three years from the then next vacancy in the office of Warden of the said College, of any election or appointment to the said office :

And whereas by the death on the twenty-ninth day of January, one thousand nine hundred and three, of the Reverend Godfrey Bolles Lee, Master of Arts, the office of Warden of the said College became vacant ; and thereupon the said provision for the suspension of any election or appointment to the said office became operative :

And whereas it is expedient to amend in divers particulars the said Statutes, and to repeal certain parts thereof, and to consolidate the same, with the amendments thereof, in one body of Statutes in manner hereinafter appearing :

And whereas the Warden and Fellows of New College, Oxford, being the persons in whom the right of election to the said office of Warden of Winchester College has hitherto, subject to such suspension as aforesaid, been vested, have assented to the provisions of Statute IV, hereinafter contained, but upon the terms that, in the event of the Warden and Fellows of Winchester College hereafter amending or repealing the said Statute IV, the Warden and Fellows of New College, Oxford, shall have the right of petitioning His Majesty the King in Council in respect of such amendment or repeal, as fully as if they had not assented as aforesaid and had not parted with the said right of election : And the Warden and Fellows of Winchester College hereby, so far as in them lies, consent to the said terms :

Now We, the Warden and Fellows of Winchester College, being the Governing Body of Winchester College, do hereby, in exercise of the powers of the Public Schools Act, 1868, and of the Acts amending the same, and of all other powers enabling us in that behalf, enact as follows:—

I.—Visitor.

The Visitor of the College shall be the Bishop of Winchester.

II.—Foundation of the College.

The Foundation of the College shall consist of—

- (1.) The Warden and Fellows;
- (2.) The Head Master;
- (3.) The Scholars.

III.—Government of the College.

The Governing Body of the College shall consist of the Warden of the College, who shall be also a Fellow of the College, and of ten other persons who shall be Fellows of the College; and such Governing Body shall be called "The Warden and Fellows of Winchester College," and is in these Statutes referred to as "The Warden and Fellows."

IV.—Warden.

1. One of the Fellows of the College shall from time to time be elected by the Fellows of the College to be the Warden of the College for such period of years not being less than three, and subject to such conditions and in such manner as the Warden and Fellows shall from time to time determine: Provided that no person shall be elected Warden except by a majority of the votes of the Fellows present at the election: Provided also that the person elected shall in any event cease to be Warden immediately upon his ceasing to be a Fellow of the College. A Fellow who has been Warden shall be eligible for re-election as Warden.

2. The Warden shall have precedence of the other Fellows, and shall be the Chairman of the meetings of the Warden and Fellows, and a member of all their Committees, and shall discharge such duties in respect of the property and affairs of the College, and receive therefor such remuneration not exceeding the sum of five hundred pounds per annum and such other allowances as the Warden and Fellows shall from time to time determine.

3. The Warden shall have such rooms at Winchester, rent free, as the Warden and Fellows shall from time to time determine. The rooms shall be kept in substantial repair; and all rates and taxes thereon shall be paid out of the income of the College.

4. Whenever the office of Warden is vacant, or the Warden is incapable of performing the duties of his office, the Sub-Warden or any Fellow nominated for the purpose by the Sub-Warden, or, failing the Sub-Warden and his nominee, the Senior Fellow (not being Warden or Sub-Warden), or any Fellow nominated for the purpose by such Senior Fellow, shall have power during such vacancy or incapacity to discharge the duties and exercise the powers of the Warden. Every such nomination as aforesaid shall be made in writing. The Warden and Fellows shall have power to assign to the person discharging such duties as aforesaid any remuneration which they may think fit.

5. The Sub-Warden, or other the person having for the time being power to discharge the duties of the Warden, shall, upon the approval of these Statutes by His Majesty the King in Council, and thereafter upon every occurrence of a vacancy in the office of Warden, take all necessary steps for the purpose of obtaining the election of a Warden at a meeting of the Warden and Fellows.

6. The Warden shall, as soon as may be after his election, and before entering on the duties of his office, at a meeting of the Warden and Fellows, make a declaration that he will faithfully perform the duties of his office and observe the Statutes and Regulations of the College for the time being in force; and he shall thereupon be admitted Warden by the Senior Fellow present at the meeting and not being the Warden. Such Senior Fellow shall forthwith notify such admission in writing to the Visitor.

7. A record of every admission of a Warden shall be entered in the Register of the College.

V.—Fellows.

1. The Fellows of the College shall be:—

- (1.) The Warden of New College, Oxford, for the time being.
- (2.) and (3.) Two Fellows, elected by the Warden and Fellows of New College, Oxford.
- (4.) One Fellow, elected by the Hebdomadal Council of the University of Oxford.
- (5.) One Fellow, elected by the Council of the Senate of the University of Cambridge.
- (6.) One Fellow, elected by the President and Council of the Royal Society.
- (7.) One Fellow, appointed by the Lord Chief Justice of England for the time being.
- (8.) One Fellow, elected by the Head Master, the Second Master and the Assistant Masters of the School, for the time being.
- (9.) to (11.) Three Fellows elected by the Warden and Fellows.

2. Every person elected or appointed to a Fellowship shall be a member of the Church of England, and duly qualified in the judgment of the persons or person by whom he is elected or appointed to take part in the government of the College as a place of religion, learning and education.

3. No Fellowship shall be tenable with the office of Head Master or other Master of the School.

4. Every Fellow elected or appointed after the first day of October, one thousand nine hundred and three, shall, as soon as may be after his election or appointment, and before entering on the duties of his office, at a meeting of the Warden and Fellows, make a declaration that he will faithfully perform the duties of his office and observe the Statutes and Regulations of the College for the time being in force; and he shall thereupon be admitted to his Fellowship by the Warden or other the person presiding at the meeting: Provided that every such Fellow shall, before his admission, be counted as one of the quorum necessary to constitute the meeting at which he shall be admitted.

A record of every admission of a Fellow shall be made in the Register of the College.

5. The Fellows of the College shall have the same status therein as the Fellows elected before the passing of the Public Schools Act, 1868, but shall not have as Fellows any pecuniary interest or share in the income of the College.

6. The Fellows, other than the Warden, shall, as among themselves, rank in seniority and honorary precedence according to the order of their admission: Provided that the Sub-Warden shall have honorary precedence of all the other Fellows except the Warden. For the purposes of this section "admission" shall, as regards any Fellow elected or appointed before the twenty-first day of November, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five, mean election or appointment to his Fellowship; and the Warden of New College, Oxford, shall be deemed to have been admitted to his Fellowship immediately after he shall have been elected or appointed Warden of New College.

7. Any Fellow, other than the Warden of New College, Oxford, who shall, during the space of two years, have been absent from every meeting of the Warden and Fellows, shall ipso facto cease to be a Fellow; and the Fellowship of the Fellow so absent shall be deemed to have become vacant at the expiration of two years from the date of the last meeting at which he attended, or if he have never attended any meeting, from the date of his election or appointment.

8.—(1.) Whenever a Fellowship, the election to which is by these Statutes vested in the Warden and Fellows, shall become vacant, the Warden shall take all necessary steps for the purpose of having such vacancy filled up at a meeting of the Warden and Fellows. The procedure in relation to any such election shall be from time to time determined by the Warden and Fellows: Provided that no person shall be elected to any such Fellowship except by a majority of the votes of the Fellows present at the election.

(2.) In the case of a vacancy in any other Fellowship, not being the Fellowship held by the Warden of New College, Oxford, the Warden shall notify such vacancy in writing to the person or persons entitled to fill up the same.

9. If any Fellowship, not being the Fellowship held by the Warden of New College, Oxford, shall not be filled up within four calendar months of the date of the occurrence of a vacancy therein by the persons or person entitled to fill up the same, His Majesty the King may by Order in Council fill up such Fellowship for that time or turn only by the nomination of any qualified person whom He may think fit.

VI.—Officers.

1. A Sub-Warden shall be from time to time elected by the Warden and Fellows from among the Fellows.

2. A Bursar may, if the Warden and Fellows think fit, be from time to time appointed by the Warden and Fellows, whether from among the Fellows or not.

3. The Warden and Fellows may from time to time appoint a Secretary or Clerk, and create such other offices as they shall think necessary for the more efficient management of the affairs of the College. Every such office may be suppressed and the holder thereof removed therefrom at the pleasure of the Warden and Fellows and such holder shall not be entitled to claim any compensation for such suppression or removal.

4. The election or appointment and the dismissal of every officer and servant, shall, unless herein otherwise provided for, be subject to the directions from time to time of the Warden and Fellows.

5. The Warden and Fellows shall from time to time assign such duties and emoluments as they may think fit to the Sub-Warden, Bursar, and every other officer, and every servant, and may from time to time vary the same.

VII.—College Chapel.

1. For the celebration of Divine Service in the College as heretofore, there shall be maintained by the College such a number of Chaplains, Lay Clerks and Quiristers as shall from time to time be determined by the Warden and Fellows.

2. The appointment, removal, remuneration and duties of the Chaplains, Lay Clerks, and Quiristers shall be determined from time to time by the Warden and Fellows.

VIII.—Administration.

Buildings.

1. Except as herein otherwise provided, all the Houses and Buildings of the College shall be used and occupied as the Warden and Fellows shall from time to time direct.

College Meetings.

2. At least two general meetings of the Warden and Fellows shall be held in every year, at such places (being in Winchester or London) as the Warden and Fellows shall from time to time appoint. Subject as aforesaid, general meetings of the Warden and Fellows shall be held at such times and places as the Warden and Fellows shall from time to time appoint: Provided that, except so far as it shall be from time to time otherwise determined by the Warden and Fellows, the Warden may exercise the powers by this section conferred upon the Warden and Fellows of appointing the times and places of meetings.

3. A special meeting of the Warden and Fellows shall also be held as often as the Warden shall deem it necessary, or shall receive a written request for the same, signed by any three of the other Fellows. The Warden shall appoint the time and place of any special meeting.

4. Except in any case of emergency which in the opinion of the Warden does not admit of delay, there shall be given at least seven clear days' notice of a general meeting, and at least three clear days' notice of a special meeting; and every such notice shall contain a printed or written statement of the nature of the business to be transacted at the meeting.

5. Five Fellows shall constitute a quorum at a meeting.

6. In the absence of the Warden, the Sub-Warden, and in the absence of both the Warden and the Sub-Warden, the Senior Fellow present shall preside at a meeting.

7. All matters brought forward at a meeting shall be decided by a majority of the votes of the Fellows present. In case of an equality of votes the Warden or other the person presiding shall have a second or casting vote.

8. A minute book shall be provided, and minutes of the proceedings at a meeting shall be entered in such book, and signed by the Warden or other the person presiding at the next meeting.

Expenses.

9. Every Fellow attending a meeting of the Warden and Fellows, or of a Committee appointed by the Warden and Fellows, shall be entitled to an honorarium of three guineas, provided that no Fellow attending more than one of such meetings on the same day shall be entitled to more than one honorarium of three guineas in respect of such meetings. In all cases the honorarium shall be in lieu of all expenses incurred for travelling and otherwise in attending a meeting.

College Seal.

10. The College seal shall be the seal of the Warden and Fellows. It shall be in the custody of the Warden, and shall not be affixed to any writing or document, except in the presence of the Warden or one of the other Fellows and in pursuance of a resolution passed at a meeting of the Warden and Fellows; and a copy of every such writing or document shall be entered in a register to be kept for that purpose.

Auditor.

11. The Warden and Fellows shall appoint an Auditor. He shall receive such fee as they think fit, and shall hold his office during their pleasure.

12. The accounts of the College shall be kept in proper books of account, and the Auditor shall annually examine and verify the same and the vouchers thereof, and shall ascertain the balances which may be due. He shall sign such accounts if found correct, and shall report whatever may appear to require amendment or observation.

13. A general statement of the receipts and payments arranged in such manner as the Warden and Fellows may deem requisite and sufficient shall be made and submitted annually to the Warden and Fellows.

IX.—Head Master.

1. The Head Master shall be appointed by and hold his office at the pleasure of the Warden and Fellows. As soon as may be after his appointment he shall be admitted to his office by the Warden; and a record of the admission shall be made in the Register of the College.

2. The Head Master shall be continually resident during the School Terms, except when absent with the previous approval of the Warden and Fellows, or for some urgent cause to be signified by him in writing to the Warden and Fellows.

3. He shall be responsible for and superintend the general discipline and the instruction of all boys admitted to the School.

4. He shall have a house rent free. The house shall be kept in substantial repair, and all rates and taxes thereon shall be paid out of the income of the College.

5. He shall receive a stipend derived from the fees paid by or on behalf of the boys admitted to the School. The amount of such stipend shall be determined from time to time by the Warden and Fellows.

X.—Assistant Masters.

1. The number, position, rank, salaries, and emoluments of the Assistant Masters shall be subject to the directions from time to time of the Warden and Fellows.

2. Every Assistant Master shall be appointed by and hold office at the pleasure of the Head Master. If at any time the Head Master shall dismiss an Assistant Master, he shall forthwith report such dismissal, with the reasons therefor, to the Warden and Fellows.

3. The Warden and Fellows shall have power to assign out of the income of the College such emoluments as they may from time to time think fit to such Master or Masters (if any) as shall be required to assist in the domestic care and discipline of the Scholars, and to assign rooms to such Master or Masters.

XI.—Scholars.

Number.

1. There shall be not less than seventy Scholars of the College to be elected by the Warden and Fellows in manner hereinafter provided.

Qualifications.

2. The Scholarships shall be open to all boys duly qualified in respect of character and attainments, who, on the first day of June in the year in which the election shall be held, shall have attained the age of twelve years, and shall not have exceeded the age of fourteen years. Every candidate shall produce evidence satisfactory to the electors of the date of his birth, and a certificate of good character from the person or persons who shall, during the period of twelve calendar months next before the election, have had charge of his education.

Election.

3. The election to Scholarships shall take place annually at a general meeting of the Warden and Fellows.

4. Thirty days at least before the day of election notice of such intended election shall be given by the Head Master in such manner as the Warden and Fellows shall deem best adapted to ensure publicity.

5. The election shall be made by the Warden and Fellows, after an examination conducted by examiners appointed by them, and after receiving from the examiners a report of the result of the examination. The examination shall be conducted in such subjects and in such manner as shall be from time to time determined by Regulation.

6. On the day of election in every year, the Warden and Fellows shall arrange on a roll in order of merit the names of at least as many candidates as shall in their judgment be sufficient to supply vacancies. Every vacancy among the Scholars existing on the day of election or occurring before the first day of the Summer term next after the election shall be filled up from and according to the order of the names on the roll. Every roll shall be cancelled on the first day of the next Summer term; and no candidate shall, by reason of his name having appeared upon a cancelled roll, have any claim to preference for election.

7. The right of every candidate upon the roll to be admitted to a Scholarship shall be conditional on his good behaviour during the interval between the day of election and the time at which he may be entitled to succeed to a vacancy.

Admission.

8. Every Scholar shall be admitted by the Warden or by the Head Master acting on behalf and at the request of the Warden; and a record of the admission shall be made in the Register of the College.

Tenure and Privileges.

9. Subject to good behaviour, and subject to such Regulations as the Warden and Fellows may from time to time make with respect to the attainment by every boy of a position in the School commensurate with his age, a Scholarship shall be tenable until the end of the School half-year in which the Scholar attains the age of eighteen years; but the Warden and Fellows may make such Regulations as they may from time to time think fit for permitting a Scholar to retain his Scholarship until the end of the School half-year in which he shall attain the age of nineteen years. For the purpose of this section the School half-years shall be considered to end on the tenth day of January and the tenth day of August.

10. Every Scholar hereafter elected shall pay the annual sum of twenty guineas. Subject to such payment, the Scholars shall be maintained during their residence at School out of the income of the College.

11. There shall be paid out of the income of the College an entrance fee and a fee for instruction on behalf of every Scholar at such rate as the Warden and Fellows may from time to time determine.

12. In cases of grave misconduct, the Head Master shall have power to expel any Scholar, or to suspend his Scholarship. In every such case the Head Master shall at once report to the Warden and Fellows such expulsion or suspension, and the reason thereof; and every such case shall be subject to an appeal to the Warden and Fellows.

XII.—Exhibitions.

1. There shall be established Exhibitions, each of a value not exceeding fifty pounds per annum, to be held by boys in the School other than Scholars during their residence at the School, of such number as the Warden and Fellows, having regard to the income of the property of the College at their disposal, may from time to time determine. The qualifications and conditions of eligibility for such Exhibitions in respect of age, character, attainments and otherwise shall be the same as those herein prescribed in the case of Scholarships. Two Exhibitions at least shall be awarded in each year on the day of election of Scholars. In the case of any Exhibitioner being elected to a Scholarship, he shall, upon his admission thereto, forthwith vacate his Exhibition.

All the above Exhibitions shall be awarded after a competitive examination, to be conducted by Examiners appointed by the Warden and Fellows, in such subjects and in such manner as shall be determined by Regulation.

2. The Warden and Fellows may also award Exhibitions, each of a value not exceeding twenty guineas per annum, to Scholars whom they may deem to be in indigent circumstances. Any such Exhibition shall be held at the pleasure of the Warden and Fellows, but shall only be tenable during the continuance of the Exhibitioner's Scholarship. Such Exhibitions may be awarded at such times, in such manner and for such period as the Warden and Fellows shall from time to time determine by Regulation.

3. The Superannuates' Fund (instituted in the year one thousand seven hundred and twenty-nine), and the Bedminster Fund (established by deed of the eighth of April, one thousand seven hundred and forty-two), shall be consolidated into one Exhibition Fund. The proceeds of this Fund shall be applied to the creation from time to time of Exhibitions to be awarded to boys quitting the School, under such conditions as the Warden and Fellows shall from time to time determine. Such Exhibitions shall be awarded with the object of enabling the holders thereof to prepare themselves for a future profession, but it shall not be a necessary condition for the holding of any such Exhibition that the Exhibitioner shall enter at any University.

4. The proceeds of the Cobden Fund (established by the will of Edward Cobden) shall be applied towards an Exhibition to be given to a boy quitting the School, under such conditions as the Warden and Fellows shall from time to time determine; but such Exhibition shall be tenable only by a member of the University of Oxford or of the University of Cambridge.

XIII.—School Examination.

The Warden and Fellows shall make such provision as they may from time to time deem expedient for the examination of the whole School, and for a report to them of the results of such examination.

XIV.—Retiring pensions for Masters.

The Warden and Fellows may, if they think fit, award out of the income of the College to any person who shall have filled the office of Head Master, or who shall have served for at least twenty years as an Assistant Master, a retiring pension, the amount thereof to be fixed with due regard to the circumstances of the case: Provided that in any special case such length of service as aforesaid may be dispensed with, if at a meeting of the Warden and Fellows not less than eight Fellows vote for such dispensation. The Warden and Fellows may also make out of the income of the College such yearly payments as they shall think fit to a General Fund to be administered under such Regulations as they may from time to time make, for the purpose of providing allowances or pensions to Masters upon retirement.

XV.—Quiristers' and other Schools.

1. The School known as the Quiristers' School shall be maintained in such manner as the Warden and Fellows shall think fit until the Warden and Fellows shall determine otherwise. So soon as the income of the College shall permit, the Warden and Fellows may, if they think fit, establish, maintain or aid a subordinate School or subordinate Schools in connection with the College; and with that view they may, if they think fit, extend, remodel or abolish the Quiristers' School.

2. The Warden and Fellows may, if they think fit, found Exhibitions, to be competed for in such such subordinate School or Schools.

XVI.—Disposal of Income.

The Warden and Fellows may lay out and invest the residue, if any, of the income of the College, after making provision thereout for all proper expenses, in any securities for the time being authorized by law for the investment of trust funds by Trustees; and any income resulting from such investments may be similarly invested; and the Warden and Fellows may from time to time sell any such investments and apply the proceeds thereof as income of the College.

XVII.—Protected Trust Funds.

1. The Goddard Fund, founded in or about the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four; the Duncan Prize Fund, founded in or about the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-one; the Goddard Scholarship Fund, founded in or about the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-six; the Taylor Trust Fund; and all other funds and property now or hereafter belonging to or held in trust for the School, and not otherwise provided for by any Statute made in pursuance of the Public Schools Act, 1868, and the Acts amending the same, shall be administered as by the several instruments creating or regulating the trusts of such funds or property respectively provided.

2. The Benefaction (established in one thousand five hundred and eighty) of Edmund

Hodson, formerly Fellow of the College, shall be administered in accordance with the directions of the Donor: and an account of the receipts and payments shall in each year be examined by the College Auditor and laid before the Warden and Fellows.

XVIII.—Construction of Statutes.

As often as any question shall arise in regard to the construction of any Statute of the College, it shall be lawful for the Warden and Fellows to refer the same to the Visitor; and it shall be lawful for the Visitor to declare what is the true construction of such Statute.

XIX.—Repealing Statute.

All such Statutes or parts of any Statute of the College or School in force before the approval of these Statutes by His Majesty the King in Council as are not incorporated in these Statutes are hereby repealed as from the date of such approval: Provided that this repeal shall not revive anything not in force or not existing immediately before such approval, nor shall it affect anything done or suffered before such approval under any Statute or part of a Statute hereby repealed.

In witness whereof the Warden and Fellows of Winchester College have caused the College Seal to be hereunto affixed this ninth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and four.

Sealed with the College Seal in pursuance of a resolution passed at a meeting of the Warden and Fellows of Winchester College, duly convened and held this ninth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and four, and in the presence of

Kenneth Muir Mackenzie,
Sub-Warden and Fellow.

L. S.

Privy Council Office, July 15, 1904.

WHEREAS the New Governing Body of Eton School, in virtue of the powers conferred upon them by "The Public Schools Act, 1868," did on the eleventh day of July, one thousand nine hundred and four, sign and seal certain Statutes amending and consolidating the Statutes of the School.

And whereas the said amendments have this day been laid before His Majesty in Council, the same are published in the London Gazette in pursuance of the said Act.

And notice is hereby given, that it is lawful for the bodies or persons authorized so to do in that Act, within two months from the date of the publication of this notification, to petition His Majesty in Council to withhold His approval from the whole or any part of such amendments.

REVISED STATUTES.

Whereas the College, called "The Kynge's College of our Ladye of Eton besyde Windesore," otherwise called Eton College, is a School to which the Public Schools Act, 1868, and the Acts amending the same, apply:

And whereas the then existing Governing Body of that School did, by a Statute made by them and approved by the Public School Commissioners on the eleventh day of May, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, and by Her late Majesty Queen Victoria in Council, on the seventh day of October, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, determine and establish the constitution of the new Governing Body of the said College or School:

And whereas the said New Governing Body did, by a Statute made by them and approved by Her late Majesty in Council on the third day of November, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, consolidate and amend the then existing Statutes of the College, and repeal all such parts of the said Statutes as were not intended to be retained in force:

And whereas the said New Governing Body have further amended the said consolidated Statutes by other Statutes made by them and approved by Her late Majesty in Council on the seventh day of February, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven; on the twenty-third day of August, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three; on the twenty-fourth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six; on the fifteenth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three; on the twenty-eighth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four; on the thirteenth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six; on the third day of February, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-eight; and on the seventeenth day of September, one thousand nine hundred:

And whereas, by the said consolidated Statutes, it was amongst other things provided that the members of the said New Governing Body should be Fellows of the College:

And whereas all the Fellowships existing at the passing of the Public Schools Act, 1868, have since become vacant by death or otherwise:

And whereas it is expedient to amend in divers particulars the said Statutes of the seventh day of October, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, and the third day of November, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, and the Statutes amending the same, and to repeal certain parts of the said Statutes, and consolidate the same, with the amendments thereof, in one body of Statutes:

Now we, the Provost and Fellows, being the Governing Body of Eton College and School, do hereby, in exercise of the powers of the Public Schools Act, 1868, and of the Acts amending the same, and of all other powers enabling us in that behalf, enact as follow:

Statute I.—The Constitution of the College.

The Foundation of the College shall consist of a Provost, eleven Fellows, of whom a Vice-Provost shall be one, a Bursar, a Head Master of the School, and a Lower Master; not less than seventy Scholars, and not more than two Chaplains or Conducts.

Statute II.—Government of the College.

The Governing Body of the College and School shall consist of the Provost and of the eleven Fellows; and such Governing Body shall be called the "Provost and Fellows of Eton College," and is in these Statutes referred to as "the Provost and Fellows," or as "the Fellows," where the context requires that the eleven Fellows shall act without the Provost.

Statute III.—The Provost: Qualifications and Duties.

(1.) The Provost of the College shall be a member of the Church of England (not necessarily in Holy Orders), at least thirty years of age; and a Master of Arts, or of some equal or superior degree, in the University of Oxford or of Cambridge.

(2.) He shall exercise a general superintendence over the property and affairs of the College; shall take care that all persons concerned in the administration or service of the College conform to the Statutes and Regulations of the College and School, and perform the several duties assigned to them; and shall have power, in all cases not provided for by the Statutes and Regulations of the College and School, or by any resolution of the Governing Body, to act as he shall think fit for the welfare of the College and shall forthwith report such action to the Fellows.

Statute IV.—Appointment.

(1.) The appointment to the Provostship shall be vested in the Crown.

(2.) Upon the occurrence of a vacancy in the Provostship, the Fellows shall forthwith notify the same to the Crown.

(3.) So soon as the appointment made by the Crown shall have been communicated to the Fellows, they shall thereupon admit the person so appointed to the office of Provost, having previously required him to make the following declaration:—

“I, A.B., appointed Provost to the College of Eton, do solemnly profess and declare that I will observe all the Statutes and Regulations of the College and School, and act in accordance with the same: and I will, to the utmost of my power, cause all other persons concerned in the Government and administration of the College to conform to the said Statutes and Regulations: and in case I should resign, or be removed by legitimate authority from the office of Provost, I will render up all the goods, property, and possessions of the College, which shall be in my charge, to the officers of the College.”

Statute V.—Residence.

The Provost shall reside in the College during the whole of every School-time, unless absent on College business, or prevented by sickness or other grave cause, to be signified by him in writing to the Fellows.

Statute VI.—Provision in case of incapacity.

If at any time the Provost becomes permanently incapable of performing the duties of his office, the Visitor may, on the petition of the Provost presented with the consent of a majority of the Fellows present at a meeting specially summoned, order that the Provost shall be permitted to retire from his office with such a pension not exceeding eight hundred pounds a year as the Visitor may deem suitable to the circumstances of the case. If no such petition shall have been presented by the Provost, the Visitor may, if he think fit, on the petition of a majority of two-thirds of the Fellows present at a meeting specially summoned, and after inquiry held by him, declare that the Provost has become permanently incapable of performing the duties of his office and order that the Provostship shall be deemed vacant at a time to be fixed by the order. The Visitor shall by the same order assign to the Provost, on his ceasing to hold office, such pension not exceeding eight hundred pounds a year as the Visitor may deem suitable to the circumstances of the case. In either case the pension shall be derived as follows: one-half from the succeeding Provost's stipend and one-half from the general revenue of the College. The same provisions as regards pension shall apply in the event of the Provost resigning his office with the consent of the Crown.

Statute VII.—Power of Removal.

If the Provost shall secede from the Church of England, or shall be guilty of negligence or misconduct in his office, or of grave immorality, or shall become bankrupt, the Visitor, on a petition signed by a majority of the Fellows at a meeting specially summoned for that purpose, shall proceed to inquire into the facts; and if, after due inquiry, of which the Provost shall have had notice, the charge stated in the petition shall be established, he shall deprive the Provost of his office; and the office of Provost shall thereupon become vacant.

Statute VIII.—Stipend.

(1.) The Provost shall be entitled to a stipend of two thousand two hundred pounds per annum; and this fixed payment shall cover all allowances. He shall reside at the Lodge, which shall be kept in tenantable repair, and all rates and taxes on which shall be paid, at the expense of the College

(2.) The Provost shall not hold any other office, place or preferment to which an emolument is attached, or exercise any trade or profession.

Statute IX.—Fellows.

The Fellows of the College shall be:

The Provost of Eton.

The Provost of King's College, Cambridge.

One member to be elected by the Hebdomadal Council of Oxford University.

One Member to be elected by the Council of the Senate of Cambridge University.

One member to be elected by the Council of the Royal Society.

One member to be nominated by the Lord Chief Justice of England for the time being.

One member to be elected by the Head Master, Lower Master and Assistant Masters: but not to be chosen out of their own body; such member to be elected for five years, and to be re-eligible.

The Vice-Provost to be elected annually by the Provost and Fellows, as directed by Statute XIII.

Four members to be elected by the Provost and Fellows themselves.

No Fellowship shall be tenable with the office of Head Master, Lower Master, or other Master of the School.

The Provost of King's shall rank as Senior Fellow, and the remaining Fellows shall have precedence in the order of their admission.

Statute X.—Election.

(1.) Upon the occurrence of any vacancy among the Fellows, the Provost shall forthwith notify the same to the person or Body in whom the appointment is vested.

(2.) The Provost shall forthwith notify an appointment when made to the Fellows, and before entering on the duties of his office, the newly appointed Fellow shall, at a meeting of the Provost and Fellows, make the following declaration:—

“I, A.B., do solemnly profess and declare that I will be faithful to the College of Eton, and do nothing detrimental to it, but will, to the utmost of my power, maintain and support the interests of the same.”

Statute XI.—Power of Removal.

(1.) If any Fellow shall be guilty of grave misconduct or immorality, or of contumacious disobedience to any statute, regulation or bye-law of the College in force for the time being, it shall be lawful for the Provost and Fellows after due inquiry, of which the Fellow shall have had notice, and at a meeting of the Provost and Fellows, to deprive him of his Fellowship.

(2.) Provided that at any meeting held in pursuance of this Statute, at least two-thirds of the whole body shall concur in the vote of deprivation.

(3.) A Fellow other than the Provost of King's shall vacate his Fellowship if he shall be absent from all meetings of the Provost and Fellows during the space of one year.

Statute XII.—Residence Houses.

All the houses and buildings of the College shall be used and occupied as the Provost and Fellows shall direct, except as herein otherwise provided.

Statute XIII.—Officers of the College.*The Vice-Provost.

There shall be elected annually by the Provost and Fellows some person who has served as Master in the School, or other fit person, to fill the office of Vice-Provost. He shall be a Fellow of the College in virtue of that office, as provided by Statutes I and IX, and shall reside at Eton. His duties shall be to attend, under the Provost, to the good government of the College; to act as the Provost's Deputy in his absence; to observe and to enforce on others the observance of the Statutes and Regulations of the College and School. He shall not be absent from the College during the School-time at the same time as the Provost, except for some cause to be approved by the Provost or by a majority of the Fellows.

If the person elected Vice-Provost be already a Fellow of the College, he shall, by accepting the Vice-Provostship, vacate his former Fellowship, which shall thereupon be filled as provided by Statute X.

Statute XIV.—The Bursars.

There shall be appointed annually by the Provost and Fellows one or more Bursars, who shall have the care of the property and the expenditure of the College. No loan or temporary or other investment of the moneys of the College shall be made by him or them, unless in conformity with the orders of the Provost and Fellows.

Statute XV.—Offices.

The Provost and Fellows may from time to time regulate as they think fit the duties and reasonable emoluments of the Officers of the College and the mode of their appointment or election, and may abolish existing offices, and institute such new offices as they deem necessary for the better management of the affairs of the College and the instruction or discipline of its members, and may assign to such new offices such duties and reasonable emoluments as the Provost and Fellows may think proper. A Master in College shall be appointed by the Provost on the nomination of the Head Master.

Statute XVI.—Administration of the College.
College Meetings.

(1.) The Provost and Fellows shall meet at least once in each School-time at Eton or in London, on such days as the Provost shall appoint.

(2.) Meetings of the Provost and Fellows shall also be held as often as the Provost shall deem it necessary, or as often as a written request for the same shall have been preferred to the Provost, signed by not less than three of the Fellows.

(3.) No business shall be transacted at any meeting of the Provost and Fellows unless four members, at the least, be present.

(4.) The Provost of Eton being present shall be the Chairman of all meetings of the Provost and Fellows, and in his absence the meeting shall elect a Chairman. Committees may appoint their own Chairmen, who shall present their reports to the Provost and Fellows.

(5.) Every question at a meeting shall be determined by a majority of votes of the members present and voting on the question, and in the case of an equality of votes the Chairman shall have a second or casting vote.

(6.) In case of the death, illness, or incapacity of the Provost of Eton, the Vice-Provost (or in case of his death, illness or incapacity, the Senior Fellow) shall appoint the day and place of meetings, and shall call special meetings when he deems it necessary, or when requested to do so by three or more Fellows.

(7.) The Provost and Fellows may from time to time at any general meeting make or vary such bye-laws, not inconsistent with these Statutes, as they may deem fit for regulating the management of the College and the mode of conducting its business.

(8.) A minute book and proper books of account shall be provided out of the funds of the College and kept in some convenient and secure place of deposit to be provided and appointed by the Provost and Fellows for that purpose, and minutes of the proceedings of the Provost and Fellows shall be entered in such minute book and signed by the Chairman at the next meeting.

Statute XVII.—Auditor.

(1.) The Provost and Fellows shall appoint a Chartered Accountant or a firm of Chartered Accountants as Auditor. He shall receive such a salary as they think fit, and shall hold his office during their pleasure. The Auditor shall annually examine and verify the accounts of the Bursar or Bursars of the College and the vouchers thereof, and ascertain the balances which may be due. He shall sign such accounts if found correct, and shall report whatever may appear to require amendment or observation.

(2.) After the accounts have been thus audited, and signed by the Auditor, they shall be submitted to the Provost and Fellows.

(3.) The Bursar or Bursars shall make or cause to be made, as soon after the conclusion of the general audit in each year as he or they conveniently can, and send to each Fellow a general statement of the receipts and payments of the past year, together with the balance-sheet as signed by the Auditor, and the full account of the receipts and expenses of the College shall be open at all times for the inspection of the Provost or any Fellow.

Statute XVIII.—The Head and Lower Masters.*The Head Master.

(1.) The Head Master shall be appointed by, and hold his office at the pleasure of, the Provost and Fellows.

(2.) He shall be a member of the Church of England, a Master of Arts, or of some equal or superior degree, in the University of Oxford or of Cambridge.

(3.) He shall be continually resident during the whole of each School-time, unless for some grave cause to be signified by him in writing to the Provost and Fellows.

(4.) He shall appoint all Masters and other persons engaged in the teaching of the School, who shall hold their offices at his pleasure: but the number, position, rank in the School, salaries and emoluments of such Masters shall be subject to the sanction of the Provost and Fellows.

(5.) He shall be charged with the general discipline, and shall superintend the instruction of all boys admitted to the School, whether Scholars on the Foundation or not; and shall, in these and all other respects, be bound to carry into execution the Statutes and Regulations of the College and School.

(6.) Before he enters on his office he shall make the following declaration before the Provost and Fellows:—

“I, A.B., appointed Head Master of the College of Eton, do solemnly profess and declare that I will observe the Statutes and Regulations of the College and School, and will faithfully discharge the duties of my office.”

(7.) He shall have a house within the precincts of the College, kept for him in tenantable repair and free from rates and taxes, at the expense of the College.

(8.) He shall not hold any ecclesiastical or other office to which any emolument is attached, nor shall he, without the consent of the Provost and Fellows, undertake any other duties than those of the Head Mastership.

(9.) He shall receive a stipend derived from the fees paid by the College for the Scholars on the Foundation and by the Oppidans. The amount of such stipend shall be determined from time to time by the Provost and Fellows, and he shall not receive from the boys any fee, payment or gratuity over and above such stipend.

(10.) The Head Master shall not resign his office without giving to the Provost and Fellows at least three months' notice of his intended resignation, and such resignation shall take effect only at the end of a School-time.

Statute XIX.—The Lower Master.

The Lower Master shall be appointed by the Head Master, and shall hold office at his pleasure. He shall rank in the School immediately after the Head Master, and shall in his absence act as his deputy.

Statute XX.—Foundation Scholars. Number and Election.

(1.) There shall be seventy Scholars on the Foundation of the College.

(2.) The election of Scholars to the Foundation shall be held every year at such time in July as the Provost and Fellows shall from time to time determine.

(3.) On the day of Election in every year the Electors shall arrange on a roll in order of merit the names of as many candidates as shall, in their judgment, be sufficient to supply vacancies. So soon as there shall be any vacancy or vacancies in the Foundation Scholarships, the Head Master shall forthwith notify the same in writing to the Provost, and the Provost shall proceed at once to fill up the said vacancy or vacancies, from and according to the order of the names on the said roll. No such Scholarship shall remain vacant more than twenty-one days during any School-time. Every such roll shall be cancelled as the first business of the meeting at which the following Election is made, and no candidate shall, by reason of his name having appeared upon such cancelled roll, have any claim to preference at such following Election.

Statute XXI.—Electors.

The Election of the Foundation Scholars shall be vested in the Provost and Fellows, who shall elect after an examination conducted by Examiners appointed by them, and after receiving a report from the Examiners of the result of such examination.

Statute XXII.—Qualifications.

(1.) The Foundation Scholarships shall be open to all British subjects. Every candidate shall produce evidence satisfactory to the Electors of the date of his birth, and a certificate of good character from the person or persons who have had charge of his education for the previous twelve months.

(2.) No boy shall be a candidate for such Scholarship who, on the first day of June, has not reached his twelfth or has passed his fourteenth birthday.

Statute XXIII.—Tenure and Privileges.

(1.) A Scholarship on the Foundation shall be tenable only until the end of the School-time in which the Scholar shall have completed his nineteenth year, except for special reasons to be sanctioned by the Head Master, and by him forthwith reported to the Provost and Fellows.

(2.) The Foundation Scholars shall be educated and maintained during each School-time out of the funds of the College: Provided that the Provost and Fellows may from time to time fix an annual sum not to exceed thirty pounds to be paid on account of each Scholar for education and maintenance; and beyond the sum so fixed no payment whatever for these purposes shall be demanded from any Scholar or from his Parents or Guardians: Provided also that the Provost and Fellows shall have power to remit the whole or part of the aforesaid annual charge, if, in their opinion, the circumstances of any Scholar make such remission desirable.

(3.) The power of expelling for misconduct any Scholar on the Foundation shall rest with the Head Master, subject to any regulations as to the exercise of such power which may from time to time be made by the Provost and Fellows; but any Scholar so expelled shall have the right of appeal to the Provost and Fellows.

(4.) The Head Master shall have the power, for any grave misconduct which may not in his judgment require expulsion, to deprive a Scholar for any time not exceeding one School-time of the whole or part of the advantages of his Scholarship. The Head Master shall have the same power in the case of a Scholar whose payments are in arrear. Any Scholar so deprived shall have the right of appeal to the Provost and Fellows.

Statute XXIV.—Scholarships other than on the Foundation and Exhibitions tenable at the School.

The Provost and Fellows shall have the power to establish, out of the funds of the College, Exhibitions and Prizes to be tenable by Oppidans and to vary the same from time to time. Any such Exhibition shall be vacated on the Exhibitioner either being elected to the Foundation or on quitting the School.

Statute XXV.—Tenable after quitting the School.

(1.) The Scholarships and Exhibitions known as the "Reynolds," "Bryant," "Berriman and Hetherington," "Davies," and "Chamberlayne," shall be open by competition to all boys in the School. But not more than one of these Scholarships or Exhibitions shall be tenable by any Scholar or Exhibitioner.

(2.) These Scholarships and Exhibitions shall be tenable for four years, and not more than three of them shall be offered for competition in any one year.

(3.) The Reynolds Scholarship shall be tenable at any College or Hall in the University of Oxford or of Cambridge, or otherwise by any member of either of those Universities.

(4.) The Exhibition founded by Dr. Berriman in one thousand seven hundred and fifty, and increased by Mr. Hetherington in one thousand seven hundred and seventy, and further increased by Dr. Davies in one thousand eight hundred and nine, shall be consolidated under the name of the "Berriman Exhibition."

(5.) The subjects, time and mode of examination for all Scholarships and Exhibitions, of which the emoluments are payable out of funds either belonging to or held in trust for the College, shall be subject to such Regulations as shall from time to time be made by the Provost and Fellows.

Statute XXVI.—The Conducts.

(1.) The Provost and Fellows shall have power to appoint Chaplains or Conducts, not more than two in number, who shall perform the daily Service in the College Chapel according to such regulations as shall be made by the Provost and Fellows; and shall hold their office so long as in the opinion of the Provost and Fellows they faithfully discharge their duties.

(2.) Any Conduct coming into the possession of any Benefice or ecclesiastical preferment shall thereby vacate his office.

Statute XXVII.—Ecclesiastical Patronage.

Benefices in the patronage of the College shall be in the gift of the Provost and Fellows.

No Benefice shall be tenable with a Master-ship or Conductship.

These provisions shall not affect the interests of those who were Masters or Conducts on the seventeenth day of September, one thousand nine hundred.

Statute XXVIII.—Retiring Pensions for Masters.

It shall be lawful for the Provost and Fellows to award retiring pensions to deserving Masters, who shall have served as Head Master, or for at least fifteen years as Masters in the School; but in special cases such length of service may be dispensed with by a vote in which at least two-thirds of the Provost and Fellows shall concur. It shall be lawful for the Provost and Fellows in each year, or in any year, to grant any sum in augmentation of any retirement or pension fund for Assistant Masters, established with the sanction of the Provost and Fellows.

Statute XXIX.—Poor Men and Almswomen.

The Provost shall choose not more than fourteen poor men or women, who shall receive such emoluments or stipends as may be assigned to them by the Provost and Fellows.

Statute XXX.—Seal of the College.

(1.) The Seal of the College shall be kept in some secure place, in a chest fastened with two locks, the keys of which shall be severally kept by the Provost and by the Bursar or other fit person to be appointed from time to time by the Provost and Fellows.

(2.) The Common Seal shall not be affixed to any writing or document, except in the presence of the Provost or Bursar and two Fellows.

(3.) No document or writing shall be sealed with the Common Seal until a true certified copy of the same has been entered in a register to be kept for that purpose.

Statute XXXI.—Miscellaneous. Appropriation of Revenues.

The Provost and Fellows may, subject to the provisions of these Statutes, make such payments out of the funds of the College for the erection of new School buildings, for the purposes of the Instruction Fund, and for such other College or School purposes and in such amounts as they shall deem from time to time desirable.

Statute XXXII.—Establishment of New Schools.

In the event of a sufficient surplus of the funds of the School remaining after adequately providing for all the objects contemplated by the preceding Statutes, the Provost and Fellows may, if they shall think fit, establish a subordinate or other school or schools in connection with Eton College, and may make such Statutes and Regulations for the government thereof as they may think fit, and may vary the same at their discretion.

Statute XXXIII.—The Visitor.

The Visitor of the College is the Bishop of Lincoln for the time being.

Statute XXXIV.—Construction of the Statutes.

If any question shall arise in regard to the construction of any Statute of the College and School, it shall be decided by the Provost and Fellows. But it shall be competent for any person, other than a Scholar of the College, affected by their decision to refer the same to the Visitor, whose judgment thereon shall be final.

Statute XXXV.—Interpretation Clause.

(1.) In the interpretation of these Statutes the word "Masters" shall mean all those who take part in the teaching of any of those subjects of instruction which are required for the ordinary examinations of the School.

(2.) The word "month" shall mean a calendar month.

Statute XXXVI.—Repealing Statute.

All such parts of the Statutes of the College in force immediately before the approval of these Statutes by His Majesty the King in Council as are not incorporated in these Statutes are hereby repealed, but without prejudice to anything previously done or suffered under the same.

Scheme for the Improvement of the Property of Eton College made pursuant to "The Public Schools Act, 1868," and the Acts amending or affecting the same, and in particular "The Public Schools (Eton College Property) Act, 1873."

1. Immediately after the approval of this Scheme by His Majesty in Council, all the provisions in so far as not already revoked of the Scheme approved by Her late Majesty Queen Victoria in Council on the twenty-third day of June, one thousand eight hundred and seventy, entitled "Scheme for Improving the Property of Eton College by running out Beneficial Leases," and all the provisions of the Scheme approved by Her late Majesty in Council on the twelfth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, entitled "Scheme for the Improvement of the Property of Eton College," shall be, and the same are hereby revoked, but without prejudice to anything done or suffered under such Schemes.

2. The Provost and Fellows, and their successors, shall from time to time, for the purposes of this Scheme, have power to sell any part of the College Estates or any Estate or interest therein for the time being belonging to the College: Provided that every such sale be made with the consent of the Board of Agriculture and Fisheries, such consent to be obtained and evidenced in the manner provided by "The Universities and College Estates Acts, 1858 to 1898," or any statutory modification thereof, with regard to sales of College Estates effected under those Acts; but such Board shall not be required to join in any conveyance for effecting any such sale.

3. The Provost and Fellows, and their successors, shall also from time to time have power to raise money for the purposes of this Scheme by mortgage of the College Estates, or any part of them, or of any Estate or interest therein for the time being belonging to the College.

4. No purchaser, mortgagee, or other person dealing with the Provost and Fellows shall be bound or concerned to inquire whether any disposition purporting to be made under the powers hereby conferred is in fact proper or authorized.

5. The expenses of and incidental to any such sale or mortgage, including, in the case of a sale, the expenses of obtaining the consent of the Board of Agriculture and Fisheries thereto, shall be paid out of the moneys arising from such sale or mortgage, and the residue of such moneys shall be paid into a fund to be established for the purposes of this Scheme and to be called "The Improvement Fund."

6. The moneys from time to time remaining to the credit of the Improvement Fund shall be placed at the disposal of the Provost and Fellows and their successors, and shall be applied by them for or towards all or any of the purposes or objects following, in such manner and in such order as they may think fit, that is to say:—

- (a.) In or towards paying off any mortgage or debt for the time being charged on the College Estates, or any part thereof, whether such mortgage or debt shall have been made or incurred previously or subsequently to the making of the Schemes hereby revoked, and whether such mortgage or debt shall have been made or incurred for the purposes of such last-mentioned Schemes, or of this Scheme, or for any other purposes whatsoever.
- (b.) To effect in the College Estates, or any part thereof, any improvement of land within the meaning of "The Improvement of Land Act, 1864," or any statutory modification thereof.
- (c.) To effect improvements for the benefit of the College or School, and for that purpose to repair, improve, enlarge, and add to the buildings belonging to the College or School, to build new buildings, and purchase land.
- (d.) To purchase the interest of any lessee under any lease for years, or for a life or lives in any part of the College Estates.

7. All moneys arising from any sale or mortgage in pursuance of this Scheme shall, until applied for the purposes of this Scheme, be invested, by the Provost and Fellows, and their successors, in Government Securities or deposited in a Bank, in the name of the Provost and Fellows of Eton College, and the income arising from any such investment or deposit shall form part of the annual revenue or income of the College or School; the Provost and Fellows, and their successors, shall, from time to time, cause to be made such investments in the aforesaid securities, and such sales of the said investments, or any of them, as they shall think fit.

8. Proper accounts of the receipts and expenditure of "The Improvement Fund" shall be kept by the Bursar or Bursars for the time being, and these accounts shall be subject to all the provisions as to audit and examination of Statute XVII of the College or School.

Signed and sealed the eleventh day of July, one thousand nine hundred and four, in the presence of

J. J. Hornby, Provost.
Cobham.
Henry E. Roscoe.

Privy Council Office, July 15, 1904.

Notice is hereby given, that a Petition has been presented to His Majesty in Council by Sir Alfred Lewis Jones, K.C.M.G., and others, praying for the grant of a CHARTER OF INCORPORATION under the name of "The British Cotton Growing Association"; and His Majesty having referred the said Petition to a Committee of the Lords of the Council, notice is further given, that all petitions for or against such grant should be sent to the Privy Council Office, on or before the twenty-fifth day of July instant.

Order made under Section 27 (2) of the Education Act, 1902.

Whereas by Sub-section (2) of Section 27 of the Education Act, 1902, (hereinafter referred to as "the Act,") it is enacted that the Act shall, except as expressly provided, come into operation on the appointed day, and the appointed day shall be the twenty-sixth day of March, nineteen hundred and three, or such other day, not being more than eighteen months later, as the Board of Education may appoint, and different days may be appointed for different purposes and for different provisions of the Act and for different Councils.

And whereas by an Order dated the sixteenth day of March, nineteen hundred and three, the Board of Education have fixed the first day of April, nineteen hundred and three, as the appointed day for the purposes of Sub-section (5) of Section 23 of the Act.

And whereas by an Order dated the twenty-second day of December, nineteen hundred and three, the Board of Education have fixed as the appointed day for the Council of the County of Cardigan, for all other purposes and provisions of the Act, the first day of April, nineteen hundred and four, or such later day or days as the Board might for any such other purpose or provision for the said Council thereafter appoint.

And whereas by an Order dated the eighteenth day of March, nineteen hundred and four, the Board of Education have fixed as the appointed day for the said Council for all the other purposes and provisions aforesaid (except for the purposes and provisions of Part II of the Act and of so much of the Act as is consequential upon and necessary for the operation of Part II of the Act) the first day of July, nineteen hundred and four, or such later day or days as the Board might for any such other purpose or provision for the said Council thereafter appoint.

And whereas Part II of the Act and so much of the Act as is consequential upon and necessary for the operation of Part II of the Act came into operation accordingly for that Council upon the first day of April, nineteen hundred and four, aforesaid.

Now, therefore, the Board of Education pursuant to the Act and to every other power enabling them in that behalf, hereby appoint as the appointed day for the said Council for all the other purposes and provisions aforesaid (other than those excepted by the aforesaid Order of the eighteenth day of March, nineteen hundred and four) the first day of August, nineteen hundred and four, or such later day or days as the Board may for any such other purpose or provision for the said Council hereafter appoint.

Given under the Seal of Office of the Board of Education this thirtieth day of June, nineteen hundred and four.

H. M. LINDSELL,
Principal Assistant Secretary of the Board of Education.

This Order may be referred to as
Order of Appointment No. 82.

No. 559.—CHINA, EAST COAST—MIRS BAY, LONG HARBOUR.

Warburg Rock—Decreased Depth Over.

Information has been received through the Commander-in-Chief of the China Station that Warburg Rock, in Long Harbour, having recently been examined by divers, with a view to its removal, was found to consist of a number of boulders, on the shallowest of which the depth was only  $3\frac{1}{2}$  fathoms. This was a sharp egg-shaped pinnacle, on which the lead would not rest.

Approximate position, lat.  $22^{\circ} 28' N.$ , long.  $114^{\circ} 21' E.$

This Notice affects the following Admiralty Charts:—Macao to Pedro Blanco, No. 3026; Mirs Bay, No. 1964; Long Harbour, No. 3386. Also, China Sea Directory, Vol. III, 1904, page 180.

No. 560.—CANADA—BAY OF FUNDY ENTRANCE.

Cautionary Notice with Respect to Vessel Observing Currents.

The Government of the Dominion of Canada has given notice, dated 2nd June, 1904, that during the present season the D.G.S.S. "Gulnare" will be employed taking current observations in the entrance to the bay of Fundy and its vicinity. The vessel will be anchored in or near the routes of steam vessels over an area extending from, between Digby Neck and Grand Manan on the north, to from 5 to 20 miles off Cape Sable on the south. Mariners are cautioned to pass at a safe distance from this vessel, which will be at anchor, and therefore unable to move.

This Notice temporarily affects the following Admiralty Chart:—Bay of Fundy, No. 352.

No. 561.—EASTERN ARCHIPELAGO—CELEBES, NORTH COAST.

Kwandang Bay—Prohibited Anchorage, Light.

The Netherlands Government has given notice, dated 30th June, 1904, that the shore end of the telegraph cable has been laid in the eastern part of Kwandang Bay, vessels are therefore prohibited from anchoring within a distance of  $2\frac{1}{2}$  miles from the cable house in an area included between the bearings of  $S. 17^{\circ} E.$ , through south, and  $S. 6^{\circ} W.$

The cable house is situated at a distance of about 3 cables  $S. 66^{\circ} E.$  from the eastern end of Katialada, and a red fixed light has been established on it.

Approximate position, lat.  $0^{\circ} 51\frac{1}{2}' N.$ , long.  $122^{\circ} 55' E.$

[Variation  $2^{\circ}$  Easterly in 1904.]

No. 562.—CANADA—GULF OF ST. LAWRENCE, QUEBEC.

Martin River, Matane, and Metis Point Lighthouses—Colours to be Altered.

The Government of the Dominion of Canada has given notice that, between the 15th and 30th of July, 1904, and without further notice, the colours of the undermentioned lighthouses in the Gulf of St. Lawrence will be altered as follows:—

1. Martin River lighthouse will be changed from white with two black bands to bright red over the entire structure.

Approximate position, lat.  $49^{\circ} 13' N.$ , long.  $66^{\circ} 9' W.$

2. Matane lighthouse will be changed from white with a black cross to bright red covering the entire structure

Approximate position, lat.  $48^{\circ} 52' N.$ , long.  $67^{\circ} 32' W.$

3. Metis Point lighthouse will be changed from white to bright red covering the entire structure.

Approximate position, lat.  $48^{\circ} 41' N.$ , long.  $68^{\circ} 2' W.$

These alterations are being made with a view of rendering these lighthouses more conspicuous in the daytime. When they have been made, mariners are invited to inform the Chief Engineer of the Department of Marine and Fisheries, Ottawa, whether the new colour is effective in all conditions of weather.

This Notice affects the following Admiralty Publications:—List of Lights, Part VIII, 1904, Nos. 315, 320, 322; and St. Lawrence Pilot, Vol. 1, 1894, pages 85, 88, 89.

No. 563.—CHINA—MANCHURIA.

Yen Toa Bay—Rock reported.

The Japanese Government has given notice that the Commander of H.I.J.M.S. "Kaimon" reports the existence of a rock, which dries 11 feet at low water in Yen Toa Bay, to the northward of Terminal Head, situated in a position from which Matsuoza (Matuoza) summit bears S. 36° W., distant about 1½ miles, and Lump Island summit S. 71° E.

Approximate position, lat. 39° 13½' N., long. 122° 11¼' E.

There are two shoal heads which form part of this danger to the southward of the above rock.

COUNTY OF SUFFOLK.

(Dissolution of Suffolk Joint Committee; Repeal of Suffolk Joint Committee (Borrowing Powers) Act, 1893, and Vesting of Property; Counties of East and West Suffolk to be Separate Counties for all Administrative Business; Provisions as to Quarter Sessions and Clerks of the Peace; Charge of Existing Mortgages and Securities on Rates of two Counties Separately; Melton Asylum and Suffolk Militia Artillery Depot; Miscellaneous and Incidental Provisions.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that a Bill has been introduced into and is now pending in the House of Commons, for the purpose of making better provision for the administration of Justice at Sessions of the Peace, and for the transaction of County business in the county of Suffolk.

The Bill proposes among other things:—

(1) To dissolve the Suffolk Joint Committee incorporated by the Suffolk Joint Committee (Borrowing Powers) Act, 1893, and to repeal that Act, and to vest the property of the Joint Committee in the County Councils of East and West Suffolk in the proportions prescribed by the Bill.

(2) To constitute the Administrative County of East Suffolk and the Administrative County of West Suffolk separate Administrative Counties for all purposes of Administrative business, and to define the position of the two counties under the Acts relating to the registration of voters.

(3) To make provisions with reference to the duties of the Clerk of the Peace in relation to the Commission of the Peace; the issue of subpoenas; the holding of separate Courts of Quarter Sessions, and with regard to jury precepts and jurors.

(4) To make provisions with respect to the mortgages and other securities relating to the entire county granted by the Justices of the Peace for the county or by the Suffolk Joint Committee, and to provide as to the future charge of such mortgages and securities, and to fix the proportions in which the two Administrative Counties respectively shall be liable in respect of such mortgages and securities.

(5) To make provision for the County Lunatic Asylum at Melton being used as a District Asylum in accordance with the provisions contained in the Bill, and to provide for the Militia Storehouse or Suffolk Militia Artillery Depot at Ipswich being vested in the county of East Suffolk, and to make provision with respect thereto.

(6) To make provisions as to deposit with and holding by the Clerk of the Peace of each county of any documents deposited or required to be deposited with the Clerk of the Peace of a County.

(7) To make incidental provision with reference to the standing Joint Committees and for the appointment of a separate Committee for each county with reference to the preparation of a basis or standard for County rates.

(8) To make provision with reference to the Sheriff's Warrant of appointment, and the fees payable in respect of any Justice added to or removed from the Commission of the Peace.

(9) To provide for the holding of local inquiries by a Secretary of State or the Local Government Board, and for the cost of such inquiries, and to make provision as to the payment of the costs of the Bill.

(10) Various other provisions are proposed to be made consequential upon or incidental to the several matters aforesaid.

(11) Printed copies of the Bill are obtainable at the offices of either of the undersigned.

Dated this 7th day of July, 1904.

A. TOWNSEND COBOLD, Clerk of the Peace for East and West Suffolk, County Hall, Ipswich.

Drxon and Co., 9, Great George-street, Westminster, S.W., Parliamentary Agents.

COUNTY OF LONDON.

The London County Council (Improvements)
Act, 1897.

TOTTENHAM COURT ROAD WIDENING AT BOZIER'S
COURT.

THE London County Council hereby gives notice that the Arbitrator appointed by the Local Government Board for the purposes of Part III of the above-mentioned Act has duly made and published his award, a copy of which is appended hereto.

Dated the 14th day of July, 1904.

G. L. GOMME,
Clerk of the London County Council.
County Hall, Spring Gardens, S.W.

TOTTENHAM COURT ROAD WIDENING.
IMPROVEMENT CHARGE.

I Benjamin P'Anson Breach do solemnly and sincerely declare that I will faithfully and honestly and to the best of my skill and ability hear and determine the matters referred to me under the provisions of the London County Council (Improvements) Act, 1897.

B. P'ANSON BREACH.

Made and subscribed this 18th day of April, 1904, in the presence of

J. C. LEWIS COWARD,
Recorder of Folkestone.

TO ALL TO WHOM these Presents shall come I Benjamin P'Anson Breach of 29 Fleet Street in the County of London Surveyor send Greeting Whereas under and by virtue of the London County Council (Improvements) Act 1897 the London County Council duly made a Specification under their Seal dated the Twenty-fifth day of November One thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven being two months at least before the said Council commenced any part of any improvement authorized by the said Act as provided by the said Act of all the lands within the improvement area of the Tottenham Court Road Widening (being an improvement authorized by the said Act) upon which they proposed to place an Improvement Charge and which they desired to include in the Assessment mentioned in the said Act (which Specification included the property mentioned in the Schedule hereto) and gave Notice of and deposited a Copy of the said Specification as and within the period required by the said Act And whereas under and by virtue of the said Act an Initial Valuation of the said property was made after such

Notice and hearing as therein provided by an Instrument in writing dated the Thirty-first day of December One thousand eight hundred and ninety-eight under the hand of James Green the Valuer appointed by the Local Government Board and was deposited with the Clerk of the said Council for the period required by the said Act And whereas under and by virtue of the said Act an Assessment of the said property was framed by the said Council in manner and within the period by the said Act required and was approved by the said Council by a Resolution made on the Twenty-eighth day of July One thousand nine hundred and three and such Assessment was in the words and figures set forth in the first four columns of the Schedule hereto And whereas the said Council duly published posted and served Notices of and deposited the said Resolution or copies thereof in manner and upon the persons and within and during the periods provided by the said Act And whereas during the period by the said Act limited for objections to the said Assessment written Notices of such objections were served on the said Council in respect of the House and Shop 1A Tottenham Court Road and Bozier's Court (being the property first mentioned in the Schedule hereto) severally by or on behalf of Amand Malzy and by or on behalf of T M Beedle (in the said Notice called Arthur Thomas Morgan Beedle) in the Schedule hereto respectively mentioned and in respect of the House Shops Offices Areas and Yard Tottenham Chambers 4 Oxford Street and Bozier's Court (being the property secondly mentioned in the Schedule hereto) severally by or on behalf of the Master and Scholars of Baliol College Oxford and by or on behalf of Ernest Henry Baker (in the Notice called Ernest Henry Bridewell Baker) and Richard Baker and by or on behalf of The West End Clothiers Company Limited in the Schedule hereto respectively mentioned (the last mentioned Notice being also given by or on behalf of The West End Clothiers Company Limited incorporated in One thousand nine hundred and two). And whereas each of the Notices mentioned in the last recital contained objections (1) that the said lands and premises to which such Notice related ought to be excluded from the said Assessment by reason that it had not been or could not be clearly shown that the market value thereof was substantially and permanently increased by the said Improvement (2) that the amount of the Charge proposed to be placed upon the said Lands and premises to which such Notices related ought to be varied and the Notice given by or on behalf of the said West End Clothiers Company Limited and the West End Clothiers Company incorporated in One thousand nine hundred and two contained in the further Objections (3) that the said Assessment was incorrect in that it included the first mentioned Company as persons liable to the payment of the said Improvement Charge whereas the said Company were no longer interested in the said lands to which the last mentioned Notice related and further that the said Company and their successors in title were not liable to payment of the said Charge having regard to the terms upon which the last mentioned lands were demised by an Indenture of Lease dated the Twenty-sixth day of June One thousand eight hundred and ninety-four and made between William Henry Baker and Richard Baker of the one part and Hugh Hutchinson Gardiner of the other part. And whereas no Notices of Objection except as above mentioned were served on the said Council:

in respect of the said Assessment and no Notices of decrease in the value of other property caused by the said Improvement were given to the said Council And whereas by an Order dated the Fourth day of March One thousand nine hundred and four and made by the Local Government Board under their Seal on the application of the said Council the Local Government Board appointed me the said Benjamin l'Anson Breach to act as Arbitrator for the purposes of Part III of the said Act so far as it relates to the said Improvement And whereas after my appointment as aforesaid the said Council applied to me to appoint a time for determining the matter of all the said objections and for making an Award and duly published Notice of the time and place appointed and served Copies of such Notice as required by the said Act upon the said Objectors and also upon all the Owners Lessees and Occupiers mentioned in the second column of the said Schedule hereto And whereas upon the hearing of the said objections the said Objectors respectively requested me the said Benjamin l'Anson Breach to apportion the Improvement Charges respectively charged upon the property first and secondly mentioned in the Schedule hereto between the several persons having any estate or interest in such property respectively And whereas I the said Benjamin l'Anson Breach by an Instrument in writing under my hand dated the First day of June One thousand nine hundred and four and endorsed on the said Order of the Local Government Board enlarged my time for making my Award until the Fourth day of September One thousand nine hundred and four Now I the said Benjamin l'Anson Breach having taken upon myself the burthen of the said reference and having heard examined and considered the allegations and the Witnesses documents and evidence of the said Council and of the said Objectors concerning the premises (including the value of the said property and the parts of the said Assessment as to which no notice of objection was served as aforesaid) and having viewed the property included in the said Assessment do hereby make and publish my award in writing of and concerning the premises in manner following that is to say—

1. I award and determine that the property mentioned in the first column of the Schedule hereto should be included in the said Assessment by reason that the value thereof is substantially and permanently increased by the said Improvement.

2. I award assess and determine that the enhanced values of the property respectively mentioned in the first column of the Schedule hereto from the said Improvement after making all fair and proper deductions for rates taxes assessments and impositions on the said lands as defined by the said Act according to such increased value are the sums set opposite such property respectively in the fifth column of the Schedule hereto and that the Improvement Charges on such property respectively equal to Three per cent. per annum upon one-half of such enhanced values respectively are the sums set opposite such enhanced values respectively in the sixth column of the Schedule hereto.

3. I award assess and determine that the said Improvement Charge of Seventy-eight pounds charged upon the property first mentioned in the Schedule hereto shall be apportioned between the persons entitled to such property, as follows—

During the subsistence of the Leasehold Interest in a part of the said property created by an Indenture of Sub-Lease dated the Eighteenth day of June One thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven and made between the said Amand Malzy of the one part and Joseph Leather of the other part whereby such part was demised for a term of Fourteen years and since extended to a term of Twenty-one years from the Twenty-fourth day of June One thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven Fifteen pounds per annum part of the said Charge shall be borne and paid by the said Arthur Thomas Morgan Beedle (in whom the said Leasehold Interest is now vested) and his successors in title. During the subsistence of the Leasehold Interest in the said property created by an Indenture dated the Seventeenth day of November One thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven and made between Alfred Ridley Bax of the first part Charles Herbert Henderson Henry Henderson and Edwin Henderson of the second part and the said Amand Malzy of the third part whereby the said property was demised for a term of Thirty-two years from the twenty-ninth day of September One thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven the whole of the said Charge except such part as may for the time being be payable as hereinbefore provided shall be borne and paid by the said Amand Malzy and his successors in title Except as hereinbefore otherwise provided the whole of the said Charge shall be borne and paid by John Shaw and Bernard Nugent Shaw (in whom the fee simple of the said property is vested subject to the said Lease) and their successors in title.

4. I award assess and determine that the said Improvement Charge of one hundred and fifteen pounds ten shillings charged upon the property secondly mentioned in the Schedule hereto shall be apportioned between the persons entitled to such property as follows—During the subsistence of the Leasehold Interest in the said property created by an Indenture of Lease dated the Nineteenth day of June One thousand eight hundred and ninety-four and made between William Frederick Honeywood Hinde and Henry Norris Glynn Hinde of the one part and William Henry Baker and the said Richard Baker of the other part whereby the said premises were demised for a term of Ninety-five years from the Twenty-fifth day of December One thousand eight hundred and ninety-three the whole of the said Charge shall be borne and paid by the said William Henry Baker and Richard Baker and their successors in title Except as hereinbefore otherwise provided the whole of the said charge shall be borne and paid by the Master and Scholars of the Baliol College Oxford (in whom the fee simple of the said property is vested subject to the said Lease) and their successors in title.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this First day of July One thousand nine hundred and four.
