At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 15th day of July, 1904.

PRESENT.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Consular Salaries and Fees Act, 1891, His Majesty the King is authorized by Order in Council to fix the fees to be taken in respect of any matter or thing done by a Consular Officer in the execution of his office, and to vary such fees by way of increase or decrease, and to abolish fees and to create new fees;

And whereas by the Foreign Marriage Act, 1892, and by the Foreign Marriages Order in Council, 1892, made in pursuance of that Act, it is provided that certain things may or shall be done on payment of the proper fee, and that Act further provides that the proper fee shall be such fee as may for the time being be fixed under the first recited Act, and that the fee so fixed, as respects a Consul, shall be the fee which shall be taken by any marriage officer;

And whereas under the Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1890, His Majesty in Council has power to make Orders in Council, and also to revoke or vary Orders in Council made, or deemed to have been made, in pursuance of that Act;

And whereas it is expedient that the Table of fees fixed by the China and Corea (Consular and Marriage Fees) Order in Council, 1900, should, in certain respects, be amended, and that the whole of the fees to be taken by Consular officers and marriage officers in China and Corea should be fixed in British currency by an Order in Council made under the provisions of the Consular Salaries and Fees Act, 1891;

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the before-mentioned Acts, it is hereby ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, as follows:—

1. This Order may be cited as the China and Corea (Consular and Marriage Fees) Order in Council, 1904.

2. The several fees set forth in the Tables annexed to this Order are hereby established, and the said Tables and notes thereto shall be construed as part of this Order.

3. This Order shall come into operation on the 1st day of October, 1904, or at such later date as, in the case of any particular Consular jurisdiction or part thereof, a Secretary of State, by any general or particular instructions, may from time to time direct.

4. On and after the day when this Order comes into operation in any place to which this Order applies, the China and Corea (Consular and Marriage Fees) Order in Council, 1900, shall be repealed as to that place without prejudice to any right or liability existing at the commencement of this Order in that place.

5. In this Order the expression "Consular jurisdiction" means the district, place, or places for which a Consular officer acts.

6. This Order shall extend to all places in China and Corea.

And the Most Honourable the Marquess of Lansdowne, K.G., one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

A. W. FitzRoy.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty chapter one hundred and fourteen duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the thirtieth day of June, in the year one thousand nine hundred and four, in the words following, that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine and of the Acts therein mentioned that is to say the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty chapter thirty-nine and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called ‘the said benefice’) of Saint Matthias, Ilsham, in the county of Devon, and in the diocese of Exeter.

“Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Saint Matthias, Ilsham, is vested for an estate in fee simple without incumbrances in the Reverend Thomas Nash Hicks, of Anstey’s Lea, Torquay, in the said county of Devon, Clerk in Holy Orders.

“And whereas the said Thomas Nash Hicks is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Saint Matthias, Ilsham, now vested in him as aforesaid should be transferred to and be vested in the Bishop for the time being of the said diocese of Exeter.

“And whereas the Right Reverend Archibald now Bishop of the said diocese of Exeter is willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary he the said Archibald, Bishop of the said diocese of Exeter, has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

“And whereas the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Saint Matthias, Ilsham, which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say in the new parish of Saint Matthias, Ilsham.

“Now therefore with the consent of the said Thomas Nash Hicks (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme) and with the consent of the said Archibald, Bishop of the said diocese of Exeter (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Saint Matthias, Ilsham, now vested in him the said Thomas Nash Hicks as aforesaid, shall be transferred from him to the said Archibald, Bishop of the said diocese of Exeter, and his successors Bishops of the same diocese, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Archibald, Bishop of the said diocese of Exeter and by his successors Bishops of the same diocese for ever.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament.”

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council: now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Exeter.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 15th day of July, 1904.

PRESENT,

The KING’s Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and thirteen and of the Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter eighty-four duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the sixteenth day of June, in the year one thousand nine hundred and four, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter eighty-four, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for apportioning the incomes of the following two benefices, namely, the benefice (being a rectory) of Methley, in the county of York and in the diocese of Ripon, and the benefice (being a district) of Mickletown, in the said county of York and in the said diocese of Ripon.

“Whereas the patronage of each of the said two benefices of Methley and Mickletown is vested in Your Majesty Your heirs and successors in right of Your Duchy of Lancaster and is exercised on behalf of Your Majesty by the Chancellor of the said Duchy for the time being.

“And whereas the endowments of the said benefice of Methley comprise among other things a sum exceeding twenty thousand pounds of India three pounds per centum per annum stock held by us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners in trust for and for the benefit of the rector or Incumbent of the said benefice of Methley and as part of the endowments of the same benefice.

"And whereas the endowments of the said benefice of Mickletown comprise one clear yearly rent charge or sum of one hundred and twenty-five pounds which by a certain indenture bearing date on or about the first day of July in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy and made or expressed to be made under the authority of the New Parishes Acts 1843, 1844 and 1856, is now payable out of and charged upon the whole of the endowments of the said benefice of Methley in favour of the minister or Incumbent of the said benefice of Mickletown and his successors for ever.

"And whereas it has been made to appear to us that the said benefice of Mickletown is at present insufficiently endowed and that after that apportionment of the incomes of the said two benefices of Methley and Mickletown which is hereinafter recommended and proposed has been effected the said benefice of Methley will still be sufficiently endowed.

"And whereas it has been represented to us and we are of opinion that it is desirable that additional provision should be made for the cure of souls within the said district of Mickletown by means of that apportionment of the incomes of the said two benefices of Methley and Mickletown which is hereinafter recommended and proposed.

"And whereas the said benefice of Methley is now full of a clerk, the rector or Incumbent of the same being the Reverend Henry Armstrong Hall, Clerk in Holy Orders, and the said benefice of Mickletown is also full of a clerk, the minister or Incumbent of the same being the Reverend Hubert Stanley Darbyshire, Clerk in Holy Orders.

"And whereas the said Henry Armstrong Hall and the said Hubert Stanley Darbyshire are consenting that the apportionment hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed shall take effect as from the day hereinafter mentioned in that behalf.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend William Boyd, Bishop of the said diocese of Ripon, acting as such Bishop, and with the consent of the Right Honourable Sir William Hood Walrond, Baronet, now Chancellor of the said Duchy of Lancaster, acting on behalf of Your Majesty as the patron as aforesaid of each of the said two benefices of Methley and Mickletown, and also with the consent of the said Henry Armstrong Hall acting as rector or Incumbent of the said benefice of Methley, and also with the consent of the said Hubert Stanley Darbyshire acting as minister or Incumbent of the said benefice of Mickletown (in testimony whereof they the said consenting parties have respectively signed and sealed this scheme, the Bishop sealing the same with his episcopal seal) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly recommend and propose firstly that as from the tenth day of June in the year one thousand nine hundred and four and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same a sum of thirteen thousand three hundred and thirty-three pounds six shillings and eight pence India three pounds per centum per annum Stock (being part of the hereinbefore mentioned sum exceeding twenty thousand pounds of India three pounds per centum per annum Stock) shall cease to form part of the endowments of the said benefice of Methley and shall be held by us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners in trust for and for the benefit of the minister or Incumbent of the said benefice of Mickletown and as part of the endowments of that benefice, and secondly that such further portion of the hereinbefore mentioned sum exceeding twenty thousand pounds of India three pounds per centum per annum stock as shall be sufficient to produce a capital sum of one thousand seven hundred and fifty pounds shall also cease to form part of the endowments of the said benefice of Methley and shall be sold by us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners and that the proceeds of such sale shall be applied by us towards defraying the cost of building a parsonage house for the said benefice of Mickletown and thirdly that as from the said tenth day of June in the year one thousand nine hundred and four all that clear yearly rent charge or sum of one hundred and twenty-five pounds which by the said indenture bearing date on or about the first day of July in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy and made or expressed to be made under the authority of the New Parishes Acts, 1843, 1844, and 1856, is now payable out of and charged upon the whole of the endowments of the said benefice of Methley in favour of the minister or Incumbent of the said benefice of Mickletown and his successors for ever shall cease and determine and shall no longer be payable by the rector of the said benefice of Methley to the minister or Incumbent of the said benefice of Mickletown.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council: now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Ripon.

Treasury Chambers, July 15, 1904.

The Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury hereby give notice, that at a Trial of the Pyx, begun at Goldsmiths' Hall, in the City of London, on the 7th June, and concluded on the 6th July, 1904, in accordance with the provisions of the Orders in Council of the 29th June, 1871, and the 30th January, 1901, the following Verdicts of the Pyx Jury were delivered to the King's Remembrancer, viz:—

TRIAL OF THE PYX OF THE LONDON MINT.

VERDICT.

WE, whose names are hereunder written, having been sworn on the seventh day of June, one thousand nine hundred and four, before the King's Remembrancer, at Goldsmiths' Hall, in the City of London, have made the Assays and Trials of His Majesty's Gold and Silver Coins in the Pyx of the Royal Mint, in London, which, according to accounts produced by the Officers of the Mint, were coined in the said Mint from the first day of July, one thousand nine hundred and three, to the thirtieth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and four, both days inclusive. We ascertained that the number of coins, both of gold and silver, in each packet produced to us, corresponded with the number which the Officers of the Mint represented it to contain; and we took a coin or coins from each of such packets of Gold coins, amounting altogether to one hundred and forty-two Sovereigns or Twenty-shilling pieces, and to twenty-four Half-Sovereigns or Ten-shilling pieces, and we weighed each of the said coins separately, and ascertained that they were within the remedy as to weight prescribed in the First Schedule to the Coinage Act, 1870, as amended by the Coinage Act, 1891. We found that the amount of variation from the Standard of Weight specified in the said First Schedule to the said Act was minus one-thousandth of an ounce (-001 oz.) on the whole of such coins. We then melted the said Gold coins so taken out and weighed, into an ingot, and assayed such ingot, comparing it with the standard Gold Trial Plate produced by the Board of Trade, so as to ascertain whether the metal was within the remedy as to fineness prescribed in the said First Schedule to the said Act, and we found that the amount of variation thereof from the Standard of Fineness specified in the said First Schedule to the said Act was plus four hundred-thousandths (or $+00004$), and that, therefore, the said metal was within the prescribed remedy as to fineness. We weighed the residue of the said Gold coins in bulk, and we ascertained that they were within the remedy as to Weight. We then took from such residue eight Sovereigns, and three Half-Sovereigns, and weighed and assayed them separately, and we found that such Sovereigns weighed respectively,—the first, 123.172 grains, the second, 123.406 grains, the third, 123.175 grains, the fourth, 123.233 grains, the fifth, 123.317 grains, the sixth, 123.257 grains, the seventh, 123.208 grains, and the eighth, 123.212 grains, and that such Half-Sovereigns weighed respectively,—the first, 61.637 grains, the second, 61.667 grains, the third, 61.580 grains. We then assayed the said eight Sovereigns, and three Half-Sovereigns separately, and we found the millesimal fineness of such Sovereigns to be,—the first, 916.96, the second, 916.90, the third, 916.80, the fourth, 916.76, the fifth, 916.80, the sixth, 916.70, the seventh, 916.86, and the eighth 916.80, respectively, and the millesimal fineness of such Half-Sovereigns to be,—the first, 916.56, the second, 916.70, the third, 916.70, respectively. We also took two coins from each of such packets of Silver coins, making altogether two Half-Crowns, thirty-eight Florins, eighteen Shillings, twenty-four Sixpences, two Fourpences, forty-six Threepences, two Twopences, and two Pennies, and weighed each of the said Silver coins separately, and ascertained that they were within the remedy prescribed in the said First Schedule to the said Coinage Act, 1870, as amended by the said Coinage Act, 1891. We found that the amount of variation from the Standard Weight specified in the said First Schedule to the said Act was minus one-thousandth of an ounce (-001 oz.) on the whole of such coins. We then melted the said Silver coins, so taken out and weighed, into an ingot, and assayed such ingot, comparing it with the standard Silver Trial Plate produced by the Board of Trade, so as to ascertain whether the metal was within the remedy as to fineness prescribed in the said First Schedule to the said Act, and we found that the amount of variation from the Standard of Fineness specified in the said First Schedule to the said Act was minus three ten-thousandths (or -0003), and that, therefore, the said metal was within the prescribed remedy as to fineness. We weighed the residue of the said Silver coins in bulk, and we ascertained that they were within the remedy as to Weight. We then took from such residue one Half-Crown, one Florin, one Shilling, one Sixpence, and one Threepence, and weighed and assayed them separately, and we found that such Half-Crown weighed 217.699 grains, that such Florin weighed 173.927 grains, that such Shilling weighed 86.805 grains, that such Sixpence weighed 43.565 grains, and that such Threepence weighed 21.878 grains. We then assayed the said Half-Crown, the said Florin, the said Shilling, the said Sixpence, and the said Threepence separately, and we found the millesimal fineness of such Half-Crown to be 925.5, of such Florin to be 924.6, of such Shilling to be 925.8, of such Sixpence to be 924.9, and of such Threepence to be 926.7. —Dated the sixth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and four.

We weighed the residue of the said Gold coins in bulk, and we ascertained that they were within the remedy as to weight.
