

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 10th day of August, 1904.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria chapter thirty-seven duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the fourteenth day of July, in the year one thousand nine hundred and four, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria chapter thirty-seven, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property in the parish of Saint Davids in the county of Pembroke now vested in us.

"Whereas under and by virtue of an indenture bearing date the twenty-fifth day of April one thousand nine hundred and three and made or expressed to be made between Martha Williams of the Grove House Hotel in the city of Saint Davids in the county of Pembroke Widow of the first part William Phillips Ormond of the town and county of Haverfordwest in the said county Esquire of the second part and us the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England of the third part the land and hereditaments described in the second schedule to the said indenture became with their appurtenances and are now vested in us in fee simple for the purposes and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas the land and hereditaments aforesaid are not subject to any outstanding beneficial lease or grant but are now in our possession but the same on account of their character or situation are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the same or of the proceeds thereof for the ultimate improvement of our common fund it is expedient that the said land and hereditaments or such part or parts thereof as we shall at any time and from time to time think fit should be sold or disposed of and accordingly that we should be empowered to sell or dispose of our interest in such land and hereditaments or in any part or parts thereof in such manner as shall appear to us to be advisable.

"Now therefore we humbly recommend and propose that we may be authorized and empowered by instrument or instruments in writing duly executed according to law from time to time to sell or dispose of and duly to convey according to the provisions of the said Act all or any of the said land and hereditaments so vested in us as aforesaid with their appurtenances and all our estate right title and interest therein or in any part or parts thereof unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same and his or their heirs executors administrators or assigns or otherwise as he or they shall direct or appoint and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable it being our intention to invest the proceeds of such sale from time to time as occasion may arise in the purchase of other lands tithes rent charges tenements or hereditaments or of some estate or interest therein convenient to be held by us for the purposes of the Acts by which our proceedings are governed as aforesaid and in the meantime to invest the said proceeds in some Government or Parliamentary Stock or other public securities in England.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council: now therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Saint Davids.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 10th day of August, 1904.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria chapter thirty-seven duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the fourteenth day of July, in the year one thousand nine hundred and four, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria chapter thirty-seven have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for assigning the right of patronage of the district and new parish of Saint Columba, Southwick, in the county of Durham, and in the diocese of Durham.

"Whereas by an Order of Her said late Majesty in Council bearing date the eleventh day of August in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four and published in the London Gazette on the nineteenth day of the same month the district of Saint Columba, Southwick, was under the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Act, constituted out of the new parish of All Saints, Monkwearmouth, and the parish of Southwick, both in the said county of Durham and in the said diocese of Durham.

"And whereas the said district of Saint Columba, Southwick, has under the provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, now become a new parish of the character contemplated by that Act.

"And whereas no assignment of the patronage of the said district and new parish of Saint Columba, Southwick, was made by the said Order, and no such assignment has since been made,
