

with the consents of Samuel Lindow Burns-Lindow, of Ingwell, near Moor Row, in the said county of Cumberland, Esquire, and of Isaac William Burns-Lindow, of Cleator, in the same county, a Captain of Your Majesty's Eighth Regiment of Hussars, as the patrons of the vicarage of the said parish of Drigg (in testimony whereof they the said consenting parties have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parish of Gosforth and of the said parish of Drigg which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Cuthbert, Seascale situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Cuthbert, Seascale.'

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Cuthbert, Seascale, comprising:—

"All those two contiguous portions of the parish of Gosforth and of the parish of Drigg both in the county of Cumberland and in the diocese of Carlisle which are comprised within and are co-extensive with the limits of the civil parish of Seascale as enlarged by the Order of the Local Government Board entitled 'The County of Cumberland (Seascale and Drigg-and-Carleton) Confirmation Order 1901' confirming the Order of the County Council of Cumberland dated the seventh day of November in the year one thousand nine hundred for the alteration of the boundaries of the civil parishes of Seascale and Drigg-and-Carleton."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council: now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Carlisle.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 14th day of November, 1904.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the third day of November, in the year one thousand nine hundred and four, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint James, situate at Huncote; in the parish of Narborough, in the county of Leicester, and in the diocese of Peterborough.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint James, situate at Huncote as aforesaid.

"Now therefore, with the consent of the Honourable and Right Reverend Edward Carr, Bishop of the said diocese of Peterborough (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, that it would in our opinion be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Narborough, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint James, situate at Huncote, as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint James, Huncote.'

"And with the like consent of the said Edward Carr, Bishop of the said diocese of Peterborough (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church of Saint James, situate at Huncote as aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being. Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us the said Commissioners, to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint James, Huncote, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Narborough, in the county of Leicester and in the diocese of Peterborough, which is comprised within, and is co-extensive with, the limits of the hamlet and civil parish of Huncote."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council: now therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the
