*India Office,
7th December, 1904.*

The following notification in the Gazette of India, No. 1065, of the 11th November, 1904, publishing a despatch from Brigadier-General J. R. L. Macdonald, C.B., regarding the operations of the troops which accompanied the Mission to Tibet, has been received from the Government of India :—

No. 1065.—The Right Honourable the Viceroy and Governor-General of India in Council is pleased to direct the publication of the following letter from the Adjutant-General in India, dated the 26th October, 1904, forwarding a despatch from Brigadier-General J. R. L. Macdonald, C.B., R.E., Commanding Tibet Mission Escort, describing the operations of the troops which accompanied the Mission to Tibet.

2. The Governor General in Council entirely concurs with the Commander-in-Chief in India in his appreciation of the skilful manner in which Brigadier-General Macdonald has carried out the duty entrusted to him. His Excellency in Council is also fully sensible of the excellent conduct of the officers and men engaged in the operations, which were of the most trying nature, and he has noticed with satisfaction the good service of those who have been specially brought to notice. His Excellency in Council is glad to have the opportunity of expressing his appreciation of the excellent services rendered by all ranks of the Supply and Transport Corps. The services of the late Major G. H. Bretherton, to whose untiring energy and power of organisation the successful advance of the Mission to Lhasa under exceptionally difficult conditions was largely due, calls for special notice.

The services of the Civil Officers to which allusion is made in General Macdonald's despatch will form the subject of a separate notification hereafter.

From Major-General B. Duff, C.B., C.I.E., Adjutant-General in India, to the Secretary to the Government of India, Military Department,—(No. 2917-A, dated Simla, the 26th October, 1904.)

I am directed by the Commander-in-Chief to forward, for the information of the Government of India, the accompanying despatch from Brigadier-General J. R. L. Macdonald, C.B., R.E., describing the operations of the troops which accompanied the Mission to Tibet.

2. It will be seen from the despatch that the work which fell to the troops had to be carried out in the face of physical difficulties which subjected them to the severest hardships and privations, and these became increasingly acute as they neared their destination. Notwithstanding these difficulties, supplemented as they were by armed opposition, the undertaking was carried through in so successful a manner as to constitute it a highly creditable achievement. The Commander-in-Chief gladly takes this opportunity of placing on record publicly his approbation of the admirable arrangements made by Brigadier-General Macdonald and of the good services of the officers—Regimental, Staff and Departmental—and of the troops through whose efforts the objects of the Mission were so successfully attained. Not the least gratifying and creditable feature of the undertaking was the excellent discipline and conduct of the troops, as exemplified in their abstention from acts of spoliation despite the many temptations with which they were confronted throughout the operations.

3. A list of the rewards which His Excellency recommends should be bestowed on those who specially distinguished themselves is forwarded under separate cover.

From Brigadier-General J. R. L. Macdonald, C.B., R.E., Commanding Tibet Mission Force, to the Adjutant-General in India (No. 1532-A., dated Gyantse, the 9th October, 1904).

I have the honour to submit this my final despatch on the operations of the Tibet Mission Escort during 1903-04, operations which had to be carried out in the face of exceptional national and climatic difficulties.

1. The theatre of operations was on the whole singularly barren and sterile, the only comparatively fertile districts being the Chumbi Valley, the Gyantse-Shigatse Valley, the Sangpo Valley near Chaksam, and the Lhasa district.

The operations had to be carried out at an average altitude of 14,000 feet, while the troops had more than once to fight at altitudes of 17,000 to 18,000 feet. Four lofty ranges had to be surmounted by passes of 14,200, 15,200, 16,600 and 16,400 feet, respectively, and the first two of these had to be regularly traversed during the winter, when gales, snow and 50 degrees of frost were not unusual.

The Escort had to traverse two stretches of country each nearly 100 miles, when not only food for the men, but grain, fodder and even fuel had to be transported in whole and part.

To these difficulties must be added the passage of the Sangpo, a rapid and dangerous river. In addition to the formidable natural obstacles, we had to overcome the obstinate resistance of the Tibetans, whose inferior armament and want of tactical skill were largely counterbalanced by their great superiority of numbers, by the solidity of their fortifications, and the immense natural strength of their positions.

3. The first phase of the operations included the occupation of the Chumbi Valley and the period of preparation for the advance on Gyantse, or from 15th October, 1903, to 24th March, 1904. In December, 1903, the enemy had collected a considerable body of troops to watch the Mission at Khamba Jong, and every effort was made to encourage them in the idea that our main advance was to be made from there. Thus, when the Mission withdrew into Sikkim on the 13th December simultaneously with the main advance into the Chumbi Valley, it appears that a number of the enemy's levies seeing the former movement, and not having time to hear of the latter, disbanded, and could not be again collected in time to resist our advance up the Chumbi Valley. Chumbi was occupied on the 15th December, 1903, and a flying column pushed on and secured Phari Jong on 20th December, thus completing our hold on the valley. For urgent political reasons the Mission was installed at Tuna on the 8th January, 1904, with sufficient escort to protect them against the 2,000 to 3,000 Tibetans who had by now assembled at Guru. Between the Chumbi Valley and Gyantse stretched a barren tract of about 100 miles, where not even fuel or fodder could be depended on, and before an advance in force could be made some 15,000 maunds of supplies had to be collected at Phari. The forwarding of this mass of stores in mid-winter, over the lofty passes which separate Sikkim from Chumbi, was one of immense difficulty. The Nepaulese Yaks had succumbed to various diseases, and I relied on 700 ekkas to take their place on the barren uplands of Tibet; these ekkas also had to be carried in pieces over the mountains before they could be utilized at Phari. The roads also were execrable and their improvement when the soil was frost-bound a work of extreme labour. This period of preparation was one of grim strain, and I cannot speak too highly of the fortitude and endurance of all ranks, by whose efforts the necessary arrangements were completed by the 24th March, 1904.

4. The second phase included the advance to Gyantse and the period of preparation for the advance on Lhasa if necessary. For though the actual decision to advance to Lhasa was not arrived at till July, the military preparations for such an eventuality had to be made in advance.

This period extended from 25th March to 12th June.

On the 29th March the Gyantse column was concentrated at Tuna, and next day all available transport returned to Phari to bring up supplies. The Tibetans had now about 7,000 men in the field distributed as follows: 3,000 at Guru guarding the Gyantse road; 2,000 at Hram, east of the Bamtso Lake, guarding the Lhasa road, and 2,000 in reserve between Kala Tso and Gyantse. The first-mentioned body commenced active hostilities on the 31st March, as we marched to Guru, and were completely defeated. This defeat led to the hasty retirement of the Hram force on Kala Tso. A company was left at Tuna and the advance to Gyantse was resumed on the 4th April, the enemy falling back before us and skirmishing at Samoda and Kangma.

On the 10th April, having received reinforcements from Gyantse, they stood at the Zamdang gorge and were again decisively beaten. Our Escort pushed on and on the 11th April, were before Gyantse, the fort at which place was surrendered to us next day. The Mission were then located in the village of Chungloo, which was fortified and provisioned, and Lieutenant-Colonel H. R. Brander, 32nd Pioneers, was placed in command of their escort consisting of 500 Rifles, 50 Mounted Infantry, two seven pounders and two Maxims with details, and with sufficient transport for a moveable column of 400 men and two guns. The remainder of the Force, consisting of 300 rifles, 100 Mounted Infantry, and two guns, with all remaining transport, begun its return march to Chumbi on the 19th April, and dropped en route one company at Kangma and another at Kala Tso, where a Company had been already left on the way up. Chumbi was reached on 27th April. The weather had been very inclement, with frequent snowstorms.

Meanwhile the Tibetans were again assembling and Lieutenant-Colonel Brander went out with his Moveable Column on the 2nd May, and on the 6th completely defeated a gathering of 3,000 men at the Karola. Another force of 1,600 men, who had assembled at Dongtse, took the opportunity to attack the Mission Post on the early morning of the 5th May, but were beaten off with heavy loss. They, however, occupied and strengthened Gyantse Jong. Reinforcements of 200 men including half a company of Sappers and two ten-pounder guns were sent to Gyantse, and Lieutenant-Colonel Brander was directed not to assault the Jong but to be sufficiently active to keep the enemy's attention concentrated on Gyantse and off our communications. He carried out his rôle admirably, and by the capture and occupation of a house afterwards called Gurkha Post, on the 19th May, the capture and destruction of Tagu on the 20th May, the capture and occupation of Palla on 26th May, and various minor operations, kept the enemy so busy that they only attacked Kangma on the 7th June, when they were repulsed, and made one other threat on our communications which by that time had been strengthened. Meanwhile another period of intense strain fell on the Supply and Transport Services, as not only had the advanced troops to be supplied, but larger accumulations had to be laid in at Phari, Tuna, Kala Tso and Kangma to facilitate an advance in force to Lhasa if necessary. The weather on the upper plateau had improved, but early rains in the Teesta Valley and an outbreak of cholera (fortunately localised), handicapped the lower section of our line.

The Supply and Transport Services, however, responded nobly to the call made on them for a special effort, and by the middle of June the necessary reserve of 18,000 maunds of supplies had been collected and distributed.

5. The third phase of the operations was the advance in force to Gyangtse and thence to Lhasa, during the period from 13th June till 3rd August. As soon as the additional reinforcements asked for (1½ battalions Infantry, and 8 guns and details) arrived in Chumbi, the advance on Gyangtse begun, the force moving in two columns. The first column comprised 125 Mounted Infantry, 8 guns, 1,450 infantry, 950 followers and 2,200 animals; the second consisted of 500 fighting men, 1,200 followers and 1,800 animals, and included the supply train.

The leading column reached Kangma on the 22nd of June and was there joined by the second column next day.

The enemy had by this time collected against us a force of 16,000 men. They had several small cannon, some 30 jingals and wall pieces, and 800 breech-loaders, while the balance were armed with matchlocks. They were distributed as follows:—At Gyangtse 8,000; at Niani, holding the Kangma-Gyangtse road, 800; at Niru, 15 miles east of Kangma and guarding the Kangma-Ralung road, 800; at Gubshi, 18 miles east of Gyangtse and guarding the Lhasa road, 1,200; at Tsechen, guarding the Gyangtse-Shigatse road, 1,200, with a support of 2,500 men at Dongtse. All these bodies held strongly fortified positions, and a further force of 1,500 was at or en route to the Kharola, which was also fortified. Thus, though the enemy had a great numerical superiority, they were so distributed as to facilitate their being dealt with in detail.

On the 23rd June I detailed 500 infantry with 2 guns and 50 mounted troops to attack Niru. The enemy, however, hastily withdrew and retired for the most part over the Sela instead of to Ralung. The same day I occupied the outlet of the Zamdang Gorge with 250 men who entrenched themselves.

On the 24th the first-named detachment rejoined, and on the 25th June the march on Gyangtse was resumed and the enemy located in a strong position at Niani where they had been reinforced from Gyangtse. On the 26th June the enemy were driven from Niani after a sharp action, in which a portion of Lieutenant-Colonel Brander's force participated, and Gyangtse was reached on the same day. I now determined to drive the enemy from their Tsechen position and so open the fertile Shigatse valley to our foraging parties, an operation which was successfully carried out on the 28th June, with surprisingly little loss, thanks to the thorough co-operation between the artillery and infantry.

Their defeat at Tsechen led the enemy's force at Dongtse to hastily retire on Shigatse, while some 2,000 of the enemy also deserted from Gyangtse Jong. I had moved my camp to the south bank of the Nyang Chu on the 28th, and commenced a bridge west of the town near an advanced post Lieutenant-Colonel Brander had established the same day, with a view to inducing the enemy to believe our main attack on the Jong would come from the north-west. Meanwhile the enemy sent in flags of truce, and futile negotiations, followed with the Mission until noon the 5th July, when active operations were resumed. That afternoon we directed a strong demonstration against the north-west face of the enemy's defences, to confirm them in the idea that this was the direction of our main attack. Our troops pushed in and occupied some houses within 300 yards of the enemy's line, held their positions until after dark, and then having lighted picquet fires, silently withdrew to camp. At midnight the troops intended for the real attack on the south-east side of the Jong moved silently off and were in their allotted positions at 3 30 A.M. on the 6th July. The enemy had been misled by our demonstration the previous day and when our three assaulting columns advanced against the town at 4 A.M. they effected an entrance with comparative ease, and had so strongly established themselves by the time the enemy could draw men from their north-west defences that the enemy's persistent efforts to dislodge them were completely frustrated.

Late in the afternoon, the south-west curtain of the Jong was breached and the Jong carried by assault by Gurkhas and Fusiliers supported by a concentrated fire of every gun and maxim. Though the Monastery and greater part of the town were still in their hands, the enemy fled during the night mostly towards Shigatse, and their force at Gobshi retired hastily on the Karo la.

A flying column despatched down the Shigatse valley for supplies, found both Dongtse and Penam Jong evacuated, and returned to Gyangtse with large stores of grain and meal. An advance on Lhasa was now imperative, and on the 14th July the Lhasa column consisting of 200 Mounted Infantry, 1,900 Infantry and Sappers, 8 guns and 6 Maxims, with 2,000 followers and 3,900 animals carrying 23 days' rations marched out. A garrison of 8 companies Infantry, 50 Mounted Infantry, and four guns was left to hold Gyangtse. On the 16th, after marching in daily rain, the Lhasa column reached Ralung and ascertained the Karo la (16,600 feet) was strongly fortified and held.

On the 18th July, the Karo la was forced after comparatively slight resistance, the bulk of the enemy having fled during the night. The engagement was chiefly remarkable for the great altitude at which our troops had to fight (18,500 feet) and the retreat of the enemy over a glacier and snow field.

On the 19th July, Nangartse Jong was occupied without resistance, and some loss inflicted on the retiring enemy.

The weather still continued inclement so I gave the column a day's halt and then continued the advance. Pete Jong was occupied on the 21st without resistance, and from all sources we learned the enemy were fleeing before us and devastating the already barren country. On the 24th July, we crossed the Khamba la pass (16,400 feet), and reached the Sangpo (Brahmaputra), our mounted troops having that morning seized both ferries. On the 25th July we reached Chaksam ferry and the same day passed over the river a company of Mounted Infantry and seven companies of Infantry. As our guns could effectively command the north bank of the river, our position was quite secure. To the intense regret of the force and the great loss of the service my Chief Supply and Transport Officer, Major G. H. Bretherton, D.S.O., who had so ably superintended the onerous work of the Supply and Transport Department, was drowned while crossing the river. The passage was completed on the morning of the 31st July, and the same day the advance on Lhasa was resumed. The enemy had fortified several positions between Chaksam and Lhasa, but abandoned all of them as we approached, and the force encamped before Lhasa on the 3rd August, having encountered no resistance since the skirmish at Nangartse on the 19th July.

Posts had been established at Ralung, Nangartse, Pete Jong, Chaksam ferry and Trilung bridge, and the garrisons of those, together with convoy escorts, absorbed 70 Mounted men and 400 Infantry. As about 50 sick had also been left at posts between Gyantse and Lhasa, the effective strength at Lhasa was reduced to 130 Mounted Infantry, 8 guns, 1,450 Infantry and Sappers and 6 Maxims.

6. The fourth and last phase of the operations included the occupation of Lhasa and the withdrawal of the troops after the conclusion of the Treaty, and extended from the 4th August till the close of the operations.

The Lhasa valley is extensively cultivated, but does not produce sufficient for the requirements of Lhasa and its monasteries, and the crops were not yet ripe, so that the food question soon became critical. The Amban and the Tibetan authorities promised supplies, but all the efforts of the Mission to persuade them to act up to their promises proved of no avail, and on the 5th August the troops had only one and a-half days' rations in hand. We could not expect a convoy from Gyantse before the 29th at earliest, so I decided on strong measures and on the 8th August moved out with 900 rifles and 6 guns against the Debung Monastery, which was said to contain 9,000 monks and have ample granaries. I selected this monastery mainly because it was the largest of the three great Lhasa monasteries which were reported to form the obstructive element in the Lhasa Councils. The monks were very obstinate and it was not until the guns were in position and infantry had been ordered to advance that they agreed to our demands. Next day a requisition for a smaller amount was made on the Sera Monastery, and I may say that both these monasteries satisfied our requisitions in full and were paid for the supplies furnished at market rates. The demonstration against Debung also stimulated the Lhasa authorities, and induced them to bring in satisfactory supplies daily. On the 12th August we shifted our camp to the driest site we could find in the marshy environs of Lhasa and the same day the Mission moved into the Lhalu Palace with a guard of two companies of Infantry, and were spared the discomforts of camp life in almost nightly rain. Though the Tibetan authorities had withdrawn their troops from Lhasa itself, they retained them in small bodies in the neighbourhood, so constant reconnaissances had to be made. From various sources of information I reckoned that if a proportion of the monks could be induced to take the field, the Tibetans could within 24 hours assemble a force of 8,000 to 10,000 men. On the 13th August one of our reconnoitring parties surprised a camp of Tibetans and made 64 prisoners; again on the 18th August a reconnaissance up the Kyichu valley effected the dislodgement of 600 soldiers from the arsenal. The activity of the reconnoitring parties induced the Tibetan troops to withdraw 20 to 30 miles from the capital and reduced the tension.

At the beginning of August I had procured and issued for sick some Tibetan woollen cloth and towards the end of the month, my supply department bought a large quantity to be made into poncho blankets in case our departure should be delayed, as low temperatures and snow were reported on the uplands between Lhasa and Gyantse.

By the 1st September the situation had so far improved that I allowed the troops to pay daily visits to Lhasa City and Bazar, and on the 7th September the Treaty was signed in the Pota La; small bodies of men selected from units composing the Lhasa Column were present at the interesting ceremony as a Guard of Honour.

In consultation with Colonel Younghusband it was decided that the Force should withdraw on the 23rd September. By this time the posts between Lhasa and Gyantse had been stocked with two or three days' supplies for the column, and on the 9th September I sent the Sappers, with one company of infantry, the brigade coolies and five days' supplies for the Force to Chaksam, to arrange for the passage of the Sangpo. The upper crossing, Parti, was found the more suitable, and three ferries were extemporised.

On the 23rd the force marched from Lhasa in one column.

On the 25th Colonel Younghusband, with the bulk of his staff and a small mounted escort, left us and pushed ahead by double marches for India. On the 27th Parti ferry was reached, and so excellent were the arrangements of the Engineers that the whole force was passed over by 2 P.M. on the 29th. The Force marched from Parti to Gyantse in two columns leaving the former place on the 29th and 30th September and arriving at Gyantse on the 5th and 6th October, respectively. The supply arrangements at the posts were excellent and the only discomfort was the low temperature at night which registered 10 to 21 degrees of frost. A survey party with an escort marched independently, and did some useful work between the Sangpo and Gyantse. From Gyantse the escort returns to India in smaller columns and picks up the garrisons of posts en route.

7. In all the escort had 16 engagements and skirmishes in which we suffered loss, and the total war casualties amounted to 202, including 23 British officers, of whom five were killed. A separate abstract of war casualties is attached.

8. The Artillery co-operated with the Infantry in a manner which did credit to their training, and I attribute the comparatively small losses we sustained in several of the more important actions to the thorough artillery support afforded to the assaulting infantry.

9. The engineering work of the escort comprised road-making (170 miles), bridging, hutting, defence of posts, siege works, demolitions, and heading storming columns with explosive parties and was carried out in a very creditable manner, often under extremely trying conditions. The gallantry of the explosive parties was marked, and the work of the Engineers, Sappers and Attock boatmen at the crossing of the Sangpo River was excellent.

10. The most important work of the Supply and Transport Department was carried out in a way that justly merited the admiration of the whole force. The extraordinary difficulties this department had to face and overcome must have been seen to be fully realised. In the unhealthy Teesta Valley one form of disease after another seized the transport animals in spite of every precaution. During the winter the transport service had to be maintained over the passes in spite of intense cold and constant gales and snowstorms. On the barren uplands of Tibet there was one long sustained struggle to provide grain, fodder, and fuel. But, thanks to excellent organisation and a loyal devotion to duty, the work was throughout performed in a thoroughly efficient manner.

11. The peculiar climatic and physical conditions threw an additional strain on the Medical Department. But all requirements were met and the force maintained in good health throughout the operations. The total number of deaths and men invalided, excluding war casualties, was 411 and 671, respectively, and of these numbers 202 and 405 were more or less due to the special climatic conditions. In addition to the above 160 wounded from among our forces had to be cared for, exclusive of a large number of Tibetan wounded who also received medical attendance. That everything worked so well reflects great credit on this department.

12. The Survey Department succeeded in mapping a large extent of practically unknown country and the geographical results are likely to be most valuable. In all some 17,000 square miles were surveyed on the inch to the mile scale, and a total of 3,000 square miles on double this scale in the neighbourhood of Chumbi, Gyantse and Lhasa, as well as about 300 miles of route sketches on the scale of one inch to a mile.

13. The Veterinary Department carried out its duties to my complete satisfaction and it is largely due to the skill and resources displayed that the casualties amongst our transport animals were so low.

14. The line of communications was a long and difficult one, from Siliguri to Gyantse, being 225 miles, and from Siliguri to Lhasa 370 miles. In all some 30 posts had to be maintained, five of which were in the unhealthy Teesta Valley, and of the remainder, seven were approximately 15,000 feet above the sea. Up to the end of the second phase no special officer was sanctioned to command communications, but during the third and fourth phases Colonel H. Read, 4th Rajputs, was appointed to this duty, and the force strengthened by another battalion of Infantry with two guns and 100 Mounted Infantry. Colonel Read had charge of the line from Siliguri to Ralung, a length of nearly 260 miles, and carried out his work with ability and judgment and to my complete satisfaction.

15. I was fortunate in my staff and am happy to say that the conduct and discipline of the troops was throughout all that could be desired, while their patience and fortitude under privation and their gallantry in face of the enemy are worthy of the highest praise. The Staff and Departments carried out their work smoothly, and with the greatest efficiency. I trust that His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief in India will see fit to recommend that His Majesty the King Emperor may be pleased to bestow on the Force some special mark of His Majesty's approval.

16. The Field postal service had many difficulties to contend with, but carried out its work satisfactorily. From Siliguri to Tuna the mails were carried by departmental agency and thence on to Lhasa by military agency. Up to Gyantse a daily service was maintained latterly, and between Gyantse and Lhasa mails were carried by Mounted Infantry every three days.

17. The construction and working of the telegraph was admirably carried out. In the first phase of the operations the line accompanied the force and was extended from Sikkim to Phari, the construction parties being exposed to the full rigour of the climate. During the second phase the line was extended to Kala Tso, and during the third phase it accompanied the force to Gyantse. Throughout the whole operations the work of this department was thoroughly satisfactory in every way.

18. The operations threw a very great deal of extra work on the Public Works Department, both in the Teesta Valley and in Sikkim. I always found the officers of the department ready to furnish all the assistance in their power, and would wish the name of Mr. H. H. Green, Executive Engineer, Sikkim, brought forward for special consideration for his zealous and excellent work. Mr. R. Dover, State Engineer, Sikkim, also rendered great assistance.

19. I am much indebted to the Government of Bengal for their ready assistance and trust that the special valuable services rendered by Mr. J. H. F. Garrette, I.C.S., Deputy Commissioner of Darjeeling, may be recognized by the Government of India.

20. His Highness the Maharajah of Nepal and the Nepal Durbar offered substantial help in the matter of transport, while His Highness's Agent in Lhasa, Captain Jit Bahadur Khattri Chittri Vakil, at all times placed his valuable services at my disposal in the matter of collecting information and supplies.

I would wish to express my acknowledgement of the cordial assistance afforded by the Tongsa Penlop of Bhutan.

His Highness the Raja of Sikkim placed the resources of his State, both in men and animals at our disposal, and a locally raised Cooly Corps, organized by Mr. J. C. White, Political Officer, Sikkim, worked over the Nathula Pass from January till the end of the operations in a very efficient manner.

In this connection I would wish that His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief will bring to the special notice of the Government of India, the names of Mr. J. C. White and the Kumar of Sikkim, both of whom personally interested themselves in the working of the Sikkim Cooly Corps in the most inclement weather.

21. I attach list of the names of the officers and men whom I wish to bring to the notice of His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief.

By the KING.
A PROCLAMATION.

EDWARD, R. & I.

Whereas Our Parliament stands prorogued to Tuesday, the twentieth day of December, one thousand nine hundred and four; We, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, hereby issue Our Royal Proclamation, and publish and declare that the said Parliament be further prorogued to Tuesday, the seventeenth day of January, one thousand nine hundred and five.

Given at Our Court at Buckingham Palace, this twelfth day of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and four, and in the fourth year of Our Reign.

GOD save the KING.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 12th day of December, 1904.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

This day the Right Honourable Gilbert John. Earl of Minto, G.C.M.G., having been appointed a Member of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the eleventh day of August, one thousand nine hundred and two, was, by His Majesty's Command. sworn, and took his place at the Board accordingly.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 12th day of December, 1904.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HIS MAJESTY in Council was this day pleased upon a Representation of the Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Council on Education in Scotland to appoint John Struthers, Esquire, C.B., to be Secretary to the said Committee.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 12th day of December, 1904.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria chapter thirty-seven, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the tenth day of November, in the year one thousand nine hundred and four, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-seven, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property in the parish of Bishopstoke, in the county of Southampton, now vested in us.

“Whereas, under and by virtue of a certain indenture, bearing date the nineteenth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, made between Alfred Barton of the first part, the Reverend Henry Brandt, and the Reverend Herbert Brandt of the second part, and us, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England of the third part, the lands and hereditaments described in the schedule hereunto annexed, became with their appurtenances, and are now vested in us.

“And whereas the lands and hereditaments aforesaid are not subject to any outstanding beneficial lease or grant, but are now in our possession, but some portions thereof on account of their character or situation, are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable, under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

“And whereas with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the same or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our common fund, it is expedient that the said lands and hereditaments or such part or parts thereof as we shall at any time and from time to time think fit should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly that we should be empowered to sell or dispose of our interest in such lands and hereditaments or in any part or parts thereof in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

“Now therefore we humbly recommend and propose that we may be authorized and empowered by instrument or instruments in writing duly executed according to law from time to time to sell or dispose of and duly to convey according to the provisions of the said Act all or any of the said lands and hereditaments so vested in us as aforesaid with their appurtenances, and all our estate right title and interest therein or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his or their heirs executors administrators or assigns or otherwise as he or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and enquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable, it being our intention to invest the proceeds of such sale from time to time as occasion may arise in the purchase of other lands, tithes, rent charges, tenements or hereditaments, or of some estate or interest therein, convenient to be held by us for the purposes of the Acts by which our proceedings are governed as aforesaid, and in the meantime to invest the said proceeds in some Government or Parliamentary Stock, or other public securities in England.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Act or of any other Act of Parliament.

“The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing scheme has reference:—

No. on plan on Deed.	Description.	Cultivation.	Quantity.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council: now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Winchester.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 12th day of December, 1904.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of the Act of the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter fifty, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the seventeenth day of November, in the year one thousand nine hundred and four, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria chapter fifty, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting an exchange of the patronage of the benefice (being a vicarage) of Croxall, situate in the counties of Derby and Stafford, and in the diocese of Southwell, for the patronage of the benefice (being a rectory) of Harlaston, situate in the said county of Stafford and in the diocese of Lichfield.

“Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Croxall is vested in the Bishop of the said diocese of Lichfield for the time being.

“And whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Harlaston is vested for an estate in fee simple without incumbrances in Albert Edward Pritchard, of Dolobran, Wood Green, Wednesbury, in the said county of Stafford, Esquire, his heirs and assigns.

“And whereas the Honourable and Right Reverend Augustus, now Bishop of the said diocese of Lichfield, and the said Albert Edward Pritchard have respectively signified to us their desire that the patronage of the said two benefices of Croxall and Harlaston may be re-arranged by way of exchange in the manner which is hereinafter recommended and proposed.

“And whereas we have made due inquiry and calculation as to the circumstances and relative value of the said two benefices and of the patronage thereof respectively and we do hereby certify to Your Majesty in Council that the circumstances and present values of the said two benefices are as set forth in the schedule which is hereunto annexed.

“Now therefore with the consent of the said Augustus, Bishop of the said diocese of Lichfield, as the patron in right of his See of the said benefice of Croxall (in testimony whereof he has affixed his hand and his episcopal seal to this scheme) and with the consent of the said Albert Edward Pritchard, as the patron of the said benefice of Harlaston (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Croxall and the church thereof shall be assigned and transferred from the said Augustus, Bishop of the said diocese of Lichfield, and from his successors, Bishops of the same diocese, and shall become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time and at all times be exercised by the said Albert Edward Pritchard, his heirs and assigns, for ever, and that in exchange for the same the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Harlaston and the church thereof shall in like manner and upon and from the same date be assigned and transferred from the said Albert Edward Pritchard and from his heirs and assigns and shall become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time and at all times be exercised by the said Augustus, Bishop of the said diocese of Lichfield, and his successors, Bishops of the same diocese, for ever.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of either of them or of any other Act of Parliament.

“The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

Name and Quality of the Benefice to be given in exchange by the Bishop of Lichfield.	County.	Diocese.	Population.	Gross Income.	Residence.
Croxall, a Vicarage	Derby and Stafford	Southwell	174	£282	Yes

Name and Quality of the Benefice to be given in exchange by Mr. Albert Edward Pritchard.	County.	Diocese.	Population.	Gross Income.	Residence.
Harlaston, a Rectory	Stafford	Lichfield	250	£323	Yes.”

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council: now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrars of the said dioceses of Lichfield and Southwell.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 12th day of December, 1904.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty chapter one hundred and fourteen duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the third day of November, in the year one thousand nine hundred and four, in the words following, that is to say:—

“We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine and of the Acts therein mentioned that is to say the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty chapter thirty-nine and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of one half part of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called ‘the said benefice’) of Sempringham with the chapelries of Pointon and Birthorpe annexed in the county of Lincoln and in the diocese of Lincoln.

“Whereas one half part of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Sempringham with Pointon and Birthorpe is vested for an estate in fee simple without incumbrances in the Honourable Hugh Fortescue commonly and hereinafter called Viscount Ebrington.

“And whereas the said Viscount Ebrington is desirous that the said one half part of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Sempringham with Pointon and Birthorpe now vested in him as aforesaid should be transferred to and be vested in the Bishop of Exeter for the time being.

“And whereas the Right Reverend Archibald now Bishop of Exeter is willing to accept such transfer and in token of such his willingness he has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

“And whereas the Right Reverend Edward Bishop of Lincoln is consenting to the said transfer and in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary he the said Edward Bishop of Lincoln has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

“And whereas the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Sempringham with Pointon and Birthorpe which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the parish of Sempringham with the chapelries of Pointon and Birthorpe annexed.

“Now therefore with the consent of the said Viscount Ebrington (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme) and with the consents of the said Archibald Bishop of Exeter and of the said Edward Bishop of Lincoln (in testimony whereof they have signed this scheme and sealed the same with their episcopal seals) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the said one half part of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Sempringham with Pointon and Birthorpe now vested in him the said Viscount Ebrington as aforesaid shall be transferred from him to the said Archibald Bishop of Exeter and his successors in the same bishoprick and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Archibald Bishop of Exeter and by his successors in the same bishoprick for ever.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament.”

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council: now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Lincoln.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 12th day of December, 1904.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and thirteen, of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the seventeenth day of November, in the year one thousand nine hundred and four, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and thirteen, of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the parish of Stoke Poges, in the county of Buckingham and in the diocese of Oxford, and out of the parish of Upton-cum-Chalvey, in the said county of Buckingham and in the said diocese of Oxford.

“Whereas we are satisfied that the said parishes of Stoke Poges and Upton-cum-Chalvey are parishes wherein or in parts whereof the provision for public worship and for pastoral superintendence is insufficient for the spiritual wants of the inhabitants thereof, and it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular portions of the said parishes of Stoke Poges and Upton-cum-Chalvey which are hereinafter mentioned and described should be constituted a separate district in the manner which is hereinafter set forth.

“And whereas there is not at present within the limits of the said proposed separate district any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purpose of Divine worship.

“And whereas by a certain indenture bearing date on or about the seventeenth day of November in the year one thousand nine hundred and four and made or expressed to be made under the authority of the ‘New Parishes Acts 1843, 1844, and 1856’ or some or one of them, between the Reverend Joshua Fielding Hoyle, vicar or Incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Stoke Poges, of the first part, the Most Noble George Godolphin, Duke of Leeds, the patron of the said vicarage of the said parish of Stoke Poges, of the second part, the Right Reverend Francis, Bishop of the said diocese of Oxford, of the third part, and us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, of the fourth part (which indenture is intended to be enrolled in the Chancery Division of the High Court of Justice) the said Joshua Fielding Hoyle did with the consent of the said George Godolphin, Duke of Leeds, grant and confirm unto the minister or Incumbent of the district hereinafter recommended to be constituted so soon as one shall have been appointed and his successors ministers or Incumbents thereof for the time being one clear yearly rent charge or sum of one hundred pounds to be payable half-yearly on the twenty-fifth day of March and the twenty-ninth day of September in every year, a proportionate part of the first of such half-yearly payments to be made on such of those days as shall first happen next after the publication in the London Gazette of any such Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme free from all deductions, taxes, charges, rates, assessments and outgoings whatsoever (except on account of income or property tax, if any) to be for ever issuing and payable out of and charged upon all that the vicarage of the parish of Stoke Poges aforesaid and the tithes or tithe commutation rent charges glebe lands and hereditaments and all other the endowments and emoluments for the time being belonging or in any wise appertaining to the said vicarage.

“And whereas Algernon Gilliat, of Duffield, in the said parish of Stoke Poges, Esquire, has contributed and paid to the credit of our account at the Bank of England a sum of one thousand pounds sterling towards the endowment of the district hereinafter recommended to be constituted and so soon as such district shall have become a new parish under the provisions of the secondly hereinbefore mentioned Act then of the said new parish and towards the maintenance of the minister or Incumbent thereof for the time being and we have in respect of such sum agreed and have undertaken to provide and pay by equal quarterly payments on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August and the first day of November in each year to such minister or Incumbent as aforesaid when duly licensed in accordance with the provisions of the lastly-mentioned Act the sum of thirty pounds per annum so long as the said capital sum shall remain in our hands.

“And whereas the said capital sum of one thousand pounds sterling has been so contributed and paid as aforesaid upon the understanding and condition that we should grant out of the common fund created by the firstly hereinbefore mentioned Act a capital sum of seven hundred pounds sterling in respect of which there should be paid by us to the minister or Incumbent for the time being of the said proposed district or new parish when duly licensed as before mentioned a yearly sum of twenty-one pounds and upon the further understanding that (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient) the whole right of patronage of the said intended district and of the nomination of the Incumbent thereto should be assigned in the manner which is hereinafter mentioned.

“And whereas the said grant of seven hundred pounds sterling will after the publication in the London Gazette of an Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme be made and secured by an instrument to be executed by us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners under our common seal in accordance with the provisions of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven.

“And whereas the said Joshua Fielding Hoyle and Algernon Gilliat have nominated the said Francis, Bishop of Oxford, themselves, the said Joshua Fielding Hoyle and Algernon Gilliat, the Reverend David James Stather Hunt, of Trinity Vicarage, Tunbridge Wells, in the county of Kent, Clerk in Holy Orders, and the Reverend Walter Evelyn Gilliat, of Iver, in the said county of Buckingham, Clerk in Holy Orders, as the persons to whom they desire that the whole right of patronage of the said proposed district or new parish and the nomination of the minister or Incumbent thereof shall be assigned.

“Now therefore with the consent of the said Francis Bishop of Oxford (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that all those portions of the said parishes of Stoke Poges and Upton-cum-Chalvey which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions together with the boundaries thereof are delineated and set forth upon the map or plan hereunto annexed shall upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes and that the same shall be named 'The District of Saint Paul, Slough.'

"And we further recommend and propose that the whole right of patronage of the said district so recommended to be constituted and when such district shall have become a new parish then of such new parish and of the nomination of an Incumbent thereto, shall without any assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid, be assigned to and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Francis Bishop of Oxford, Joshua Fielding Hoyle, Algernon Gilliat, David James Stather Hunt and Walter Evelyn Gilliat, their heirs and assigns for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing scheme has reference.

"The District of Saint Paul, Slough, comprising:—

"1. All that portion of the parish of Stoke Poges, in the county of Buckingham and in the diocese of Oxford, which is bounded upon the west by the parish of Farnham Royal, upon the south and upon the south-east by the parish of Upton-cum-Chalvey, upon the east by the parish of Wexham, all in the said county and diocese, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the north and upon the north-west, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Wexham from the said parish of Stoke Poges, at a point in the middle of the road leading from Wexham to Slough opposite to the eastern end of the fence which divides the close numbered 419 upon the ordnance map of the parish of Stoke Poges published in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven upon the scale of twenty-five inches to one mile and also upon the map or plan which is annexed to this scheme, from the close numbered 420 upon the said maps and extending thence westward to and then first westward and afterwards south-westward along the fences which divide the said close numbered 419 from the said close numbered 420 and the close numbered 418 upon the said maps for a distance of thirty-two chains or thereabouts to the western end of the said fences upon the eastern side of the road leading from Stoke Poges to Slough and extending thence north-westward across the said road for a distance of twenty-five yards or thereabouts to the fence which divides the close numbered 415 upon the said maps from the close numbered 425 upon the said maps, and extending thence first westward and then south-westward along the fences which divide the said close numbered 415 and the closes numbered 414 and 413 upon the said maps from the said close numbered 425 and the close numbered 426 upon the said maps for a distance of forty chains or thereabouts to the south-western end of such fences upon the eastern side of the road leading from Stoke Poges Church to Chalvey, and extending thence south-westward in a straight line across the last-mentioned road for a distance of two chains or thereabouts to the eastern end of the fence dividing the close which is numbered 410 upon the said maps and which includes the roadway leading to Baylis House and the row of trees on the south-eastern side of such roadway from the close numbered 409 upon the said maps and extending thence south-westward along the fences which divide the said close numbered 410 and the close numbered 408 upon the said maps from the said close numbered 409 and the close numbered 428 upon the said maps (thereby passing to the south-east of Baylis House) for a distance of eighteen chains and a half or thereabouts to the point where the fence which divides the said close numbered 408 from the said close numbered 428 meets the fence on the north-eastern side of the close numbered 432 upon the said maps and extending thence due westward and in a straight line across the said close numbered 432 for a distance of five chains and a half or thereabouts to a point in the middle of the stream which flows from Stoke Park into Chalvey Ditch, upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Stoke Poges from the said parish of Farnham Royal.

"2. And also all that portion of the said parish of Upton-cum-Chalvey, which is bounded upon the south-east by the parish of Langley Marish, in the said county and diocese, upon the north-east by the said parish of Wexham, upon the north-west by the above described portion of the parish of Stoke Poges, and upon the remaining side, that is to say, upon the south-west, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Stoke Poges from the said parish of Upton-cum-Chalvey at the centre of the bridge which carries the road connecting Stoke-road and William-street across the line of the Great Western Railway and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the said line of railway for a distance of sixty-two chains or thereabouts to the point where it is crossed by the boundary which divides the said parish of Upton-cum-Chalvey from the said parish of Langley Marish."

And whereas drafts of the said scheme have, in accordance with the provisions of the secondly hereinbefore mentioned Act, been transmitted to the patrons and to the Incumbents of the cures out of which it is intended that the district recommended in such scheme to be constituted shall be taken, and such patrons and Incumbents have respectively signified their assent to such scheme.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council: now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Oxford.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 12th day of December, 1904.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the seventeenth day of November, in the year one thousand nine hundred and four, in the words following, that is to say:—

“We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty, King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her late Majesty, Queen Victoria, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of district chapelries to the consecrated church of Saint John the Evangelist, Great Ilford, and to the consecrated church of Saint Mary, Great Ilford, both situate within the parish of Great Ilford, in the county of Essex and in the diocese of Saint Albans.

“Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to each of the said churches of Saint John the Evangelist, Great Ilford, and Saint Mary, Great Ilford, situate as aforesaid.

“Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Edgar, Bishop of the said diocese of Saint Albans (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient, firstly, that all that part of the said parish of Great Ilford which is described in the first schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, and is thereon coloured pink, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint John the Evangelist, Great Ilford, situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named ‘The District Chapelry of Saint John the Evangelist, Great Ilford,’ and secondly that all that part of the said parish of Great Ilford which is described in the second schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth upon the said map or plan and is thereon coloured green, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Mary, Great Ilford, situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named ‘The District Chapelry of Saint Mary, Great Ilford.’ And with the like consent of the said Edgar Bishop of the said diocese of Saint Albans (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at each of the two churches aforesaid and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the respective ministers thereof for the time being: Provided always that, so long as the Reverend Henry William Elliott Molony, Clerk in Holy Orders, the present Vicar or Incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Great Ilford, shall continue to be such Vicar or Incumbent, all the fees which may be received in respect of such publication, solemnization or performance at the two churches aforesaid shall be paid over by the respective ministers thereof to the said Henry William Elliott Molony; and provided also that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us, the said Commissioners, to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

“We therefore humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

“The SCHEDULES to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

“THE FIRST SCHEDULE.

“The District Chapelry of Saint John the Evangelist Great Ilford, being:—

“All that part of the parish of Great Ilford, in the county of Essex and in the diocese of Saint Albans, which is bounded upon the north partly by the new parish of Trinity, Barking Side, and partly by the new parish of Saint Peter, Aldborough Hatch, upon the east by the consolidated chapelry of Saint Chad, Chadwell Heath, all in the said county and diocese, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the south and upon the west by an imaginary line commencing at the point where the boundary which divides the said consolidated chapelry of Saint Chad, Chadwell Heath, from the said parish of Great Ilford, is intersected by the middle of the main line of the Great Eastern Railway, and extending thence westward along the middle of the said line of railway for a distance of twenty-two chains or thereabouts to the centre of the iron bridge over the said line of railway where the high road leading from Ilford to Romford is joined by Cameron-road, and extending thence north-westward along the middle of Cameron-road for a distance of nineteen chains or thereabouts to its junction with Benton-road, and extending thence north-westward along the middle of Benton-road for a distance of thirty chains or thereabouts to its junction with Ley-street and Horns-road, and extending thence northward along the middle of Horns-road for a distance of thirty-eight chains or thereabouts to its junction with Hatch-lane upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Great Ilford from the said new parish of Trinity, Barking Side.

“THE SECOND SCHEDULE.

“The District Chapelry of Saint Mary, Great Ilford, being:—

“All that part of the parish of Great Ilford, in the county of Essex and in the diocese of Saint Albans, which is bounded upon the south and upon the east by the parish of Barking, in the said county and diocese, upon the north-east by the consolidated chapelry of Saint Chad, Chadwell Heath, in the said county and diocese, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the north and upon the west, by an imaginary line commencing at the point where the boundary which divides the said consolidated chapelry of Saint Chad, Chadwell Heath, from the said parish of Great Ilford is intersected by the middle of the main line of the Great Eastern Railway, and extending thence westward along the middle of the said line of railway for a distance of twenty-two chains or thereabouts to the centre of the iron bridge over the said line of railway, where the high road leading from Ilford to Romford is joined by Cameron-road, and extending thence north-westward along the middle of Cameron-road for a distance of nineteen chains or thereabouts to its junction with Benton-road, and extending thence north-westward along the middle of Benton-road for a distance of thirty chains or thereabouts to its junction with Ley-street, and extending thence first southward and then south-westward along the middle of Ley-street for a distance of forty-eight chains or thereabouts to its junction with Hainault-street, and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of Hainault-street for a distance of nine chains or thereabouts (thereby crossing the said main line of the Great Eastern Railway) to the junction of Hainault-street with the said high road leading from Ilford to Romford, and extending thence eastward along the middle of the said high road for a distance of four chains or thereabouts to its junction with Richmond-road, and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of Richmond-road for a distance of sixty chains or thereabouts to its present south-eastern end, and continuing thence in precisely the same direction and in a straight line for a distance of thirty-eight chains or thereabouts (thereby crossing Loxford-lane and the Barking Recreation Ground) to the boundary which divides the said parish of Great Ilford from the said parish of Barking."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council: now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Saint Albans.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 12th day of December, 1904.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and thirteen, of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the seventeenth day of November, in the year one thousand nine hundred and four, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her late Majesty, Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and thirteen, of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her said late Majesty chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes to be taken out of the parish of Bishopwearmouth, in the county of Durham and in the diocese of Durham.

"Whereas we are satisfied that the said parish of Bishopwearmouth is a parish wherein or in parts whereof the provision for public worship and for pastoral superintendence is insufficient for the spiritual wants of the inhabitants thereof and it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular part of the said parish of Bishopwearmouth, which is hereinafter mentioned and described should be constituted a separate district in the manner which is hereinafter set forth.

"And whereas there is not at present within the limits of the said proposed separate district any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of Divine worship.

"And whereas certain hereditaments and premises situate within the said parish of Bishopwearmouth have become vested in us under the provisions of and for the purposes of the herein mentioned Acts or of some or one of them and we have in respect of such hereditaments and premises agreed to make and pay out of the common fund created by the firstly herein mentioned Act a grant of one hundred pounds per annum to the minister of the said proposed separate district so soon as a minister shall have been duly licensed in accordance with the provisions of the secondly herein mentioned Act and to his successors.

"And whereas by a certain indenture bearing date on or about the seventeenth day of November, in the year one thousand nine hundred and four, and made or expressed to be made under the authority of the 'New Parishes Acts, 1843, 1844 and 1856' or some or one of them, between the Venerable Robert Long, Archdeacon of Auckland, and Rector or Incumbent of the rectory of the said parish of Bishopwearmouth, of the first part, the Right Reverend Handley Carr Glyn, Bishop of Durham, as ordinary and also as patron of the said rectory, of the second part, and us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners of the third part (which indenture is intended to be enrolled in the Chancery Division of the High Court of Justice) the said Robert Long did with the consent of the said Handley Carr Glyn, Bishop of Durham, grant and confirm unto and to the use of the minister or Incumbent of the district hereinafter recommended to be constituted, so soon as one shall have been appointed and his successors ministers or Incumbents thereof for the time being one clear yearly rent charge or sum of one hundred pounds to be payable quarterly on the first day of February the first day of May the first day of August and the first day of November in each and every year, a proportionate part of the first of such quarterly payments to be made on such one of those days as shall first happen next after the date when an Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme shall be published in the London Gazette, such rent charge or sum to be free from and clear of all deductions, taxes, charges, rates, assessments and outgoings whatsoever (except on account of income or property tax, if any) and to be for ever issuing out of and charged upon the said rectory of the parish of Bishopwearmouth aforesaid and all the endowments and emoluments appertaining thereto.

"And whereas the said yearly rent charge or sum of one hundred pounds has been so granted and confirmed as aforesaid upon the understanding and condition that (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient) we should recommend and propose to Your Majesty in Council that the whole right of patronage of the said proposed district or new parish and the nomination of the minister or Incumbent thereof should be assigned in the manner which is hereinafter set forth.

"And whereas the said grant of the said yearly sum of one hundred pounds out of our common fund will after the publication in the London Gazette of an Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme be made and secured by an instrument to be executed by us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners under our common seal in accordance with the provisions of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said Handley Carr Glyn, Bishop of Durham (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that all that part of the said parish of Bishopwearmouth which is described in the schedule hereunder written all which part together with the boundaries thereof is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme as aforesaid become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes and that the same shall be named 'The District of Saint Gabriel, Bishopwearmouth.'

"And we further recommend and propose that the whole right of patronage of the said district so recommended to be constituted and when such district shall have become a new parish as aforesaid then of the said new parish and the nomination of the minister or Incumbent thereof shall without any assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid be assigned to and be absolutely vested in and shall and may be exercised by the said Robert Long, as such rector or Incumbent of the said rectory of Bishopwearmouth as aforesaid, and by his successors in the same rectory for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or any of them or any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"The District of Saint Gabriel, Bishopwearmouth, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Bishopwearmouth, in the county of Durham and in the diocese of Durham, which is bounded upon the north-west by the new parish of South Hylton, upon the north by the new parish of Saint Luke, Pallion, upon the north-east by the new parish of Saint Mark, Millfield, upon the east by the consolidated chapelry of Saint Hilda, Millfield, all in the said county and diocese, and upon the remaining side, that is to say, upon the south-east, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said consolidated chapelry of Saint Hilda, Millfield, from the said parish of Bishopwearmouth, at the centre of the bridge which carries the Hetton Coal Company's line of railway over the road or street called Eden House-road, and extending thence in a south-westerly direction along the centre of Eden House-road for a distance of seven chains or thereabouts to its junction with Hunter's Hall-road, and extending thence in a westerly direction along the centre of Hunter's Hall-road for a distance of four chains and a half or thereabouts to its junction with Mount-road, and extending thence south-westward along the middle of Mount-road for a distance of fifty-four chains or thereabouts to its present south-western end at its junction with the road called Ettrick-grove, and continuing thence in a south-westerly direction along the centre of the proposed course of the extension of Mount-road for a distance of thirty-five chains or thereabouts to the boundary which divides the said parish of Bishopwearmouth from the said new parish of South Hylton: Provided always, that the territory occupied by Bishopwearmouth Cemetery and the Bishopwearmouth Union Workhouse and its appurtenances shall be excepted from the said part of the parish of Bishopwearmouth and shall not be included in the said proposed District of Saint Gabriel, Bishopwearmouth."

And whereas drafts of the said scheme have, in accordance with the provisions of the secondly hereinbefore mentioned Act, been transmitted to the patron and to the Incumbent of the said parish of Bishopwearmouth out of which it is intended that the district recommended in such scheme to be constituted shall be taken, and such patron and Incumbent have respectively signified their assent to such scheme.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council: now, therefore, His Majesty by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Durham.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 12th day of December, 1904.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five; duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the third day of November, in the year one thousand nine hundred and four, in the words following; that is to say:—

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her late Majesty, Queen Victoria, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint John, Birkdale, situate within the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Saint James, Birkdale, in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Liverpool.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said new parish of Saint James, Birkdale, and of the new parish (sometime consolidated chapelry) of Saint Peter, Birkdale, in the said county and diocese, which said extremities lie contiguous one to another and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such new parishes.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that certain contiguous portions (being the portions containing the population aforesaid) of the said new parish of Saint James, Birkdale, and of the said new parish of Saint Peter, Birkdale, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint John, Birkdale, situate as aforesaid.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend Francis James, Bishop of Liverpool, and with the consents of William McInroy, of Lude, Blair Atholl, in the county of Perth, Esquire, of the Reverend Thomas Alfred Stowell, Honorary Canon of Manchester and Rector of Chorley, in the county of Lancaster aforesaid, of the Reverend James Denton Thompson, Honorary Canon of Liverpool, and Rector of North Meols, in the last-named county, of the Reverend James Hardy Honeyburne, Honorary Canon of Liverpool and Vicar of Christ Church, Southport, in the last-named county, and of Henry Taylor, of Birklands, Birkdale aforesaid, Esquire, as the patrons of the vicarage of the said new parish of Saint James, Birkdale, and with the consents of the said William McInroy, of Sir Charles Scarisbrick, of Queen's-road, Southport aforesaid, Knight, of the Reverend Charles Stead Hope, of Holy Trinity Vicarage, Southport aforesaid, Clerk in Holy Orders, of the said James Hardy Honeyburne, and of Percy Neville Palin, of Aylesmore Court, Saint Briavels, near Coleford, in the county of Gloucester, Esquire, as the patrons of the vicarage of the said new parish of Saint Peter, Birkdale (in testimony whereof they, the said consenting parties, have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly represent that it would in our opinion be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said new parish of Saint James, Birkdale, and of the said new parish of Saint Peter, Birkdale, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint John, Birkdale, situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint John, Birkdale.'

"We therefore humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration and to make such order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint John, Birkdale, comprising:—

"All those contiguous portions of the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Saint James, Birkdale, and of the new parish (sometime consolidated chapelry) of Saint Peter, Birkdale, in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Liverpool, which, taken together, are bounded upon the south-west by the chapelry of Formby in the parish of Walton-on-the-Hill, in the said county and diocese, upon the south-east and upon the east by the parish of Halsall, in the said county and diocese, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the north and upon the north-west by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Halsall from the said new parish of Saint Peter, Birkdale, at or near the junction of Stamford-road with Bedford-road, and extending thence south-westward along the middle of Bedford-road for a distance of eleven chains and one-third or thereabouts to its junction with Dinorwic-road, and extending thence north-westward along the middle of Dinorwic-road for a distance of twelve chains and two-thirds or thereabouts to its junction with Carlisle-road, and extending thence south-westward along the middle of Carlisle-road for a distance of fifteen chains or thereabouts to its junction with Liverpool-road, and extending thence northward along the middle of Liverpool-road for a distance of two chains and three-quarters or thereabouts to its junction with the road called Stanley-avenue, and extending thence westward along the middle of the said road called Stanley-avenue and its continuation called Conyer's-avenue for a distance of twenty-six chains and a half or thereabouts to the south-eastern side of the Liverpool Crosby and Southport line of the Lancashire and Yorkshire Railway, and extending thence first westward to the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Peter, Birkdale, from the said new parish of Saint James, Birkdale, in the middle of the said line of railway and then south-westward along the middle of the said line of railway for a distance of one mile and fifty-one chains or thereabouts (thereby in part following the last-mentioned boundary) to the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint James, Birkdale, from the said chapelry of Formby."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council: now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Liverpool.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 12th day of December, 1904.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter forty-nine; of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter sixty; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the first day of December, in the year one thousand nine hundred and four, in the words following, that is to say:—

“We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter forty-nine; of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter sixty; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated Church of the Ascension, Victoria Docks, situate in the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Saint Luke, Victoria Docks, in the county of Essex and in the diocese of Saint Albans.

“Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said Church of the Ascension, Victoria Docks, situate as aforesaid.

“Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Edgar, Bishop of the said diocese of Saint Albans (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent that it would in our opinion be expedient that all that part of the said new parish of Saint Luke, Victoria Docks, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part together with the boundaries thereof is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said Church of the Ascension, Victoria Docks, situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named ‘The District Chapelry of the Ascension, Victoria Docks.’

“And with the like consent of the said Edgar, Bishop of the said diocese of Saint Albans (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published and that marriages, baptisms, churchings and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said Church of the Ascension, Victoria Docks, situate as aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always that so long as the Reverend Jonathan Charles Buckley, Clerk in Holy Orders, and Honorary Canon of the Cathedral Church of Saint Albans, the present Vicar or Incumbent of the vicarage of the said new parish of Saint Luke, Victoria Docks, shall continue to be such Vicar or Incumbent, all the fees which may be received in respect of such publication, solemnization or performance at the said Church of the Ascension, Victoria Docks, situate as aforesaid, shall be paid over by the minister thereof to the said Jonathan Charles Buckley; and provided also, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us the said Commissioners to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

“We therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

“The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

“The District Chapelry of the Ascension, Victoria Docks, being:—

“All that part of the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Saint Luke, Victoria Docks, in the county of Essex and in the diocese of Saint Albans, which is bounded upon the south by the new parish of Saint Mark, Victoria Docks, in the said county and diocese, upon part of the east by the new parish of Saint John the Evangelist, North Woolwich, partly in the said county of Essex and partly in the county of Kent and wholly in the said diocese of Saint Albans, and upon the remaining part of the east by the parish of East Ham, in the said county of Essex and in the said diocese of Saint Albans, upon the north and upon a small part of the west by the new parish of Saint Andrew, Plaistow, in the said county of Essex and in the said diocese of Saint Albans, and upon the remaining side, that is to say, upon the remaining part of the west, by an imaginary line commencing at the point where the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Andrew, Plaistow, from the said new parish of Saint Luke, Victoria Docks, diverges from the middle of Prince Regent's-lane, and extending thence southward along the middle of Prince Regent's-lane for a distance of twenty-four chains or thereabouts to its junction with Throckmorton-road, and extending thence westward along the middle of Throckmorton-road for a distance of ten chains or thereabouts to its junction with Berwick-road, and extending thence southward along the middle of Berwick-road for a distance of ten chains or thereabouts to its junction with Dock-road, and extending thence due south in a straight line (thereby crossing the North Woolwich Branch Line and the Royal Albert Dock Branch Line of the Great Eastern Railway) for a distance of seventeen chains or thereabouts to a point in the middle of the Royal Victoria Dock, upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Luke, Victoria Docks, from the said new parish of Saint Mark, Victoria Docks.”

And whereas the said representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council: now, therefore, His Majesty by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Saint Albans.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter eighty-four, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the seventeenth day of November, in the year one thousand nine hundred and four, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter eighty-four, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for apportioning the income of the benefice (being a rectory) of Algarkirk, in the county of Lincoln and in the diocese of Lincoln, between that benefice and a certain other benefice, namely the benefice (being a vicarage) of All Saints, Lincoln, which said lastly-named benefice is situate in the said county of Lincoln and in the said diocese of Lincoln.

“Whereas the Bishop of the said diocese of Lincoln is the patron in right of his See of the said benefice of Algarkirk and of the said benefice of All Saints, Lincoln.

“And whereas it has been made to appear to us that the said benefice of All Saints, Lincoln, is at present insufficiently endowed, and that the said benefice of Algarkirk has endowments of such an amount as that after the apportionment hereinafter recommended and proposed to be made shall have been made the said benefice of Algarkirk will still be sufficiently endowed.

“And whereas we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, are of opinion that it is desirable that additional provision should be made for the cure of souls within the new parish of All Saints, Lincoln, by means of that apportionment of the income of the said benefice of Algarkirk which is hereinafter recommended and proposed.

“And whereas the said benefice of Algarkirk is now full.

“Now therefore with the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Randall Thomas, Archbishop of Canterbury, acting as Archbishop of the Province within which each of the said two benefices is situate (in testimony of which consent he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his archiepiscopal seal), and with the consent of the Right Reverend Edward, Bishop of the said diocese of Lincoln, acting as such Bishop and also as the patron in right of his See of each of the said two benefices as aforesaid (in testimony of which consent he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same and as from the day on which from whatsoever cause the said benefice of Algarkirk shall next be avoided the following apportionment of the income of the same benefice shall take place, that is to say (firstly), all those the lands and hereditaments situate in the parishes of Algarkirk and Sutterton, in the said county of Lincoln, and containing by admeasurement one hundred and fifty-nine acres one rood and seventeen perches or thereabouts which are more particularly described in the schedule to this scheme annexed shall be severed from the said benefice of Algarkirk and shall be annexed and belong to the said benefice of All Saints, Lincoln, and (secondly) all the glebe lands which may then belong or which thereafter may belong to the said benefice of Algarkirk shall be charged and for ever thereafter chargeable in favour of the vicar or Incumbent for the time being of the said benefice of All Saints, Lincoln, with one clear annual sum or yearly rentcharge of one hundred pounds, such clear annual sum or yearly rentcharge to be due and payable to the vicar or Incumbent of the said benefice of All Saints, Lincoln, and to be apportionable between any outgoing vicar or Incumbent of the said benefice of All Saints, Lincoln, or his representatives, on the one hand, and his successor in the same incumbency on the other hand, and to be receivable by the vicar or Incumbent in whose favour it is charged as aforesaid by equal half-yearly payments upon the first day of May and upon the first day of November in every year.

“And we further recommend and propose that the vicar or Incumbent for the time being of the said benefice of All Saints, Lincoln, shall as to the lands and hereditaments to be annexed to his benefice as hereinbefore mentioned have all such rights and powers of ownership in the same as are now enjoyed by the rector or Incumbent of the said benefice of Algarkirk, and that as to the said annual sum or yearly charge of one hundred pounds the vicar or Incumbent for the time being of the said benefice of All Saints, Lincoln, shall have the following powers for recovering the same, that is to say, power if and whenever any part of the said annual sum or yearly charge of one hundred pounds shall at any time be unpaid for twenty-eight days after any of the times appointed for the payment thereof to enter into the receipt of the endowments charged therewith or any part thereof and to receive and take the same until he shall thereby or otherwise be paid and satisfied the same rentcharge and the arrears thereof due at the time of such entry or afterwards to become due during his being in possession of the same premises together with all costs and expenses occasioned by the non-payment thereof and for the purpose of collecting receiving and recovering such endowments or any of them to use exercise and enjoy all such powers and remedies for collecting recovering and enforcing payment thereof as may be statutorily exercised or exercisable by him under the law then in force.

“Provided always that none of the powers aforesaid shall be exercised by or on behalf of the vicar or Incumbent of the said benefice of All Saints, Lincoln, until the expiration of twenty-one clear days at the least after a written notice demanding payment of the sum then in arrear shall have been left at the last known residence of the Incumbent of the said benefice of Algarkirk which written notice nevertheless the said vicar or Incumbent of the benefice of All Saints, Lincoln, shall be at liberty to leave as aforesaid at any time after the expiration of the first seven days of the twenty-eight days aforesaid.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending or proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of either of them or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council: now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Lincoln.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by Section 8 of "The Weights and Measures Act 1878" it is provided that the Board of Trade shall from time to time cause such new denominations of standards, being either equivalent to or multiples or aliquot parts of the imperial weights and measures ascertained by the said Act as appears to them to be required in addition to those mentioned in the second schedule to the said Act to be made and duly verified and that those new denominations of standards when approved by His Majesty in Council shall be Board of Trade standards in like manner as if they were mentioned in the said schedule.

And whereas by "The Weights and Measures (Metric System) Act 1897," it is provided that the Board of Trade standards which may be made under Section 8 of the Weights and Measures Act 1878, shall include metric standards derived from the iridio-platinum linear standard metre deposited with the Board of Trade and numbered sixteen.

And whereas it has been made to appear to the Board of Trade that a new denomination of standard measure of length of twenty metres being a multiple of the standard metre aforesaid is required and they have caused the same to be made and duly verified.

Now therefore His Majesty by virtue of the power vested in Him by the said Acts by and with the advice of His Privy Council is pleased to approve of the measure of length of twenty metres as a new denomination of standard and doth direct that the same shall be a Board of Trade standard in like manner as if it was mentioned in the second schedule to "The Weights and Measures Act, 1878."

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

PURSUANT to Section 5 of the County Courts Act, 1903, His Majesty is pleased by and with the advice of His Privy Council to order and it is hereby ordered as follows:—

1. This Order may be cited as the County Courts Order in Council 1904.

2. As respects the County Court circuits mentioned in the first column of the schedule hereto the County Courts named in the second column of the schedule opposite to the names of those circuits respectively shall be the courts in which shall be tried the actions in which by virtue of this Act the plaintiff claims a sum exceeding £50 commenced in the Courts named in the third column of the schedule opposite to the names of those Courts so respectively mentioned in the second column.

3. Every Court to which actions are transferred by virtue of this Order shall have the same jurisdiction in such actions as it would have had in case they had been commenced therein, and the judgment of the Court in which such actions are tried shall have the same effect as if the judgment therein had been the judgment of the Court in which they were commenced.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 12th day of December, 1904.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS on the ninth day of September one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six a Convention (hereinafter called the Berne Convention) with respect to the protection to be given by way of copyright to the authors of literary and artistic works was concluded between Her late Majesty Queen Victoria and the foreign countries following, that is to say:—Belgium, Hayti, Switzerland, France, Italy, Germany, Spain and Tunis.

And whereas on the fifth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven, the ratifications of the said Convention were duly exchanged between Her late Majesty Queen Victoria and the aforesaid countries.

And whereas by an Order in Council dated the twenty-eighth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven, and made under the authority committed to Her late Majesty Queen Victoria by the International Copyright Acts, 1844 to 1886, Her Majesty was pleased to make provision for giving rights of copyright throughout Her Majesty's dominions to the authors of literary and artistic works first produced in any of the said foreign countries (therein referred to as the foreign countries of the Copyright Union) and otherwise giving effect throughout Her Majesty's dominions to the terms of the said Berne Convention, and an English translation of the said Convention was set out in the first schedule to the said Order in Council.

And whereas since the date of the said Order in Council the foreign countries following, namely, Luxemburg, Monaco, Montenegro, and Norway, have acceded to the said Berne Convention and by Orders in Council dated respectively the tenth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, the fifteenth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, the sixteenth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three, and the first day of August, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six, and made under the authority aforesaid, the provisions of the said Order in Council of the twenty-eighth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven, have been extended to the last-mentioned foreign countries respectively.

And whereas an Additional Act to the said Berne Convention was agreed upon between Her late Majesty Queen Victoria and the following foreign countries for the purpose of varying the provisions of the said Berne Convention, namely, Germany, Italy, Switzerland, Belgium, Luxemburg, Spain, Monaco, Tunis, France, and Montenegro, and the ratifications of the said Additional Act were on the ninth day of September one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven exchanged between Her late Majesty Queen Victoria and the said foreign countries.

And whereas by an Order in Council dated the seventh day of March, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-eight, and made under the authority aforesaid, Her late Majesty Queen Victoria was pleased to make provision for varying the hereinbefore recited Order in Council of the twenty-eighth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven, and otherwise giving effect to the said Additional Act throughout Her Majesty's dominions so far as regards the foreign countries hereinbefore named as parties to the said Additional Act and an English translation of the said Additional Act is set forth in the schedule to the Order in Council now in recital.

And whereas the Republic of Hayti having duly acceded to the said Additional Act the said Order in Council of the seventh day of March, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-eight, was by Order in Council of the nineteenth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-eight, extended to the said Republic.

And whereas the Empire of Japan and the Kingdom of Denmark and the Faroe Islands having duly acceded to the said Berne Convention and the said Additional Act the said Orders in Council of the twenty-eighth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven, and the seventh day of March, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-eight, were by Orders in Council dated respectively the eighth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-nine, and the ninth day of October, one thousand nine hundred and three, extended to the said Empire of Japan and to the said Kingdom of Denmark and the Faroe Islands.

And whereas the Principality of Montenegro having duly denounced the said Berne Convention the said Order in Council of the sixteenth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three, was revoked by an Order in Council of the eighth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-nine, and the provisions of the said Orders in Council of the twenty-eighth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven, and the seventh day of March, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-eight, have ceased to apply to the said Principality of Montenegro.

And whereas the foreign countries following, namely: Luxemburg, Monaco, Norway, Japan and Denmark and the Faroe Islands together with the foreign countries comprised in the said Order in Council of the twenty-eighth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven, now constitute the foreign countries of the Copyright Union within the meaning of the said Order in Council of the twenty-eighth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven.

And whereas it has been intimated to His Majesty's Government that the Government of Sweden have notified the accession of that country to the said Berne Convention, such accession to take effect from the first day of August, one thousand nine hundred and four.

And whereas His Majesty in Council is satisfied that the said Government of Sweden has made such provisions as it appears to His Majesty expedient to require for the protection of authors' works first produced in His Majesty's dominions.

Now therefore His Majesty by and with the advice of His Privy Council and by virtue of the authority committed to His Majesty by the International Copyright Acts, 1844 to 1886, doth order and it is hereby ordered as follows:—

1. From and after the commencement of this Order the hereinbefore recited Order in Council of the twenty-eighth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven, shall extend to the Kingdom of Sweden.

2. This Order shall come into operation as from the first day of August, one thousand nine hundred and four, which date is hereinbefore referred to as the commencement of this Order.

3. And the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary orders herein accordingly.

A. W. Fitz Roy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 12th day of December, 1904.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Burial Act, 1853, as amended by the Burial Act, 1900, it was enacted that, in case it appeared to His Majesty in Council, upon the representation of the Local Government Board, that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of the Local Government Board, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial grounds or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it should be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order that no new burial ground should be opened in any city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case might require) that, after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial grounds or places of burial, should be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time as circumstances might require; provided always that notice of such representation, and of the time when it should please His Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, should be published in the London Gazette, and should be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation was so considered; provided also that no such representation should be made in relation to the burial ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation should have been given to the Incumbent and vestry clerk or churchwardens of such parish:

And whereas the Local Government Board, after giving to the Incumbents and the churchwardens of the parishes of Saint Andrew the Less, Saint Mary the Less, and Saint Botolph, in the borough of Cambridge, ten days' previous notice of their intention to make such representation, made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial ground should be opened in the borough of Cambridge without the previous approval of the Local Government Board, and that burials should be discontinued therein as hereinafter directed:

And whereas His Majesty was pleased by His Order in Council of the twenty-fourth day of October last, to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same should be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the sixth day of December, one thousand nine hundred and four, and such Order has been published in the London Gazette, and copies thereof have been affixed, as required by the said Act:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that no new burial ground shall be opened in the said borough of Cambridge without the previous approval of the Local Government Board, and that burials in the said borough shall be discontinued as follows, viz.:—

BOROUGH OF CAMBRIDGE—MILL-ROAD BURIAL GROUND.—Forthwith and entirely in such portions of the Mill-road Burial Ground, Cambridge, as are assigned to the parishes of Saint Andrew the Less, Saint Mary the Less, and Saint Botolph, in the said borough, except as follows:—

(a.) In any vault or walled grave now existing in the said portions of the said burial ground, burial may be allowed subject to the condition that every coffin buried in such vault or grave be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented:

(b.) In any earthen grave now existing in the said portions of the said burial ground, the burial may be allowed, at or below the depth of five feet from the surface of the ground of the body of any member of the family of the person or persons heretofore buried in such grave:

(c.) In such portion of the said burial ground as is assigned to the parish of Saint Mary the Less, in any grave space in which no interment has heretofore taken place, the burial may be allowed, at or below the depth of five feet from the surface of the ground, of the body of any person for whom or of any member of a family for which such grave space has been reserved and appropriated as a burial place, with the exclusive right of burial therein:

(d.) In such portion of the said burial ground as is assigned to the parish of Saint Andrew the Less, in any grave space in which no interment has heretofore taken place, the burial may be allowed in a walled grave of the body of any person for whom or of any member of a family for which such grave space has been reserved and appropriated as a burial place, with the exclusive right of burial therein, subject to the condition that every coffin buried in such grave be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 12th day of December, 1904.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Burial Act, 1853, as amended by the Burial Act, 1900, it was enacted that, in case it appeared to His Majesty in Council, upon the representation of the Local Government Board, that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial-ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of the Local Government Board, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial-grounds or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it should be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order that no new burial-ground should be opened in any city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case might require) that, after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial-grounds or places of burial, should be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time as circumstances might require; provided always, that notice of such representation, and of the time when it should please His Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, should be published in the London Gazette, and should be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within; the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation was so considered: provided also, that no such representation should be made in relation to the burial-ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation should have been given to the Incumbent and vestry clerk or churchwardens of such parish:

And whereas by the Burial Act, 1855, it was, amongst other things, enacted that it should be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, should or should not have arrived), as to His Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, might seem fit:

And whereas the Local Government Board, after giving to the Incumbent and the churchwardens of the parish of Greasbrough, Rotherham, ten days' previous notice of their intention to make such representation, have made a representation stating that they are of opinion that so much of the Order of Her late Majesty in Council of the third day of February, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, as relates to the church and churchyard of the said parish, should be varied by substituting for the directions contained in the said Order relating to Greasbrough the following directions, viz. :—

GREASBROUGH, ROTHERHAM.—That burials be discontinued forthwith and entirely in the Parish Church of Saint Mary, Greasbrough; and in the churchyard, provided that in any vault or walled grave now existing in the said churchyard, burial may be allowed, subject to the condition that every coffin buried in such vault or grave be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

Now, therefore, His Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the twenty-third day of January next.

And His Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette, and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some conspicuous places within, the parish affected by such representation one month before the said twenty-third day of January.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 12th day of December, 1904.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Local Government Board, after giving to the Incumbent and the churchwardens of the parish of Saint Mary, Leighton, in the county of Salop; and of the parish of Saint Giles, Gilestone, in the county of Glamorgan, ten days' previous notice of their intention to make such representations, have, under the provisions of the Burial Act, 1853, made representations stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial grounds should be opened in the civil parishes of Leighton and Gilestone, without the previous approval of the Local Government Board, and that burials should be discontinued therein, as follows, viz. :—

LEIGHTON.—Forthwith and entirely in the Parish Church of Saint Mary, Leighton, in the county of Salop, and in the churchyard, except as follows:—

(a.) In the vault beneath the chancel of the said church belonging to the Kynnersley family burials may be allowed subject to the condition that as soon as conveniently may be after the deposit of a coffin in the said vault the coffin shall be wholly and permanently enclosed by means of stone flagging properly jointed in cement in such manner as effectually to prevent the escape of any noxious gas from the interior of the enclosure so formed:

(b.) In the vault or walled grave now existing in the said churchyard and belonging to the Everall family burial may be allowed subject to the condition that every coffin buried in such vault or grave be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented:

(c.) In the said churchyard, in a grave space reserved and appropriated as a burial place for the family of Mr. William Edge, and in which no interment has heretofore taken place, the burial may be allowed, at or below the depth of five feet from the surface of the ground, of the body of any member of the said family.

GILESTONE.—Forthwith and entirely in the Parish Church of Saint Giles, Gilestone, in the county of Glamorgan, and in the churchyard.

Now, therefore, His Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such representations, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the twenty-third day of January next:

And His Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette, and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representations one month before the said twenty-third day of January.

A. W. Fitz Roy.

Privy Council Office, December 12, 1904.

The following Statute made by the Governing Body of University College, Oxford, on the 26th day of November, 1904, amending Statute III of the Statutes of the College, has been submitted for the approval of His Majesty in Council, and notice of its having been so submitted is published in accordance with the provisions contained in "The Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877":—

A STATUTE to amend Statute III framed by the Commissioners appointed under the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877 (40 and 41 Vic. c. 48) in relation to the College of the Great Hall of the University commonly called University College, in the University of Oxford, duly made at an Extraordinary General Meeting of the Master and Fellows being the Governing Body of the said College specially summoned for the purpose held on the twenty-sixth day of November, one thousand nine hundred and four, and passed at such meeting by the unanimous votes of those present and voting, and submitted for the approval of His Majesty in Council:

Whereas it is desirable that the Fellowships of the College should be used for the furtherance of Learning and Education, and whereas Fellowships given as prizes tenable only for a short term, and entailing no duties, have not in practice tended to advance the pursuit of Learning, and whereas such advance seems to the College more certainly secured by the election to Fellowships of Students undertaking to pursue some definite branch of learning:

We, the Master and Fellows of the said College, in exercise of the powers given to us by section 54 of the said Act, and by Statute XI, framed by the said Commissioners appointed by the said Act in relation to the said College, alter and amend Statute III, by introducing in clause 11, 5th line (page 13), after the words "within class (a)" the words "or class (c)."

By substituting in clause 11 at end (page 14) for the words "sub-sections (b) and (c) thereof or either of them," the words "subsection (b) thereof"

By substituting in clause 12, subclause (c), line 8 (page 14), after the word "person" for the words "Fellow for a fresh Fellowship term of seven years," the words "to his Fellowship for any term of years not exceeding seven."

By introducing as a new subclause (f) (page 15), "Every Fellow elected under Statute III, section 11 (c), shall hold his Fellowship for seven years, or any less period determined by the Master and Fellows at the time of his election, and shall be eligible for re-election under clause 12 (c)."

By substituting in clause 15, line 1 (page 15), for the words "except a Fellow elected under clause 11 (b) or (c) of this statute, but including any such Fellow, if," the words "elected by open examination, or."

Given under our Common Seal, this twenty-sixth day of November, one thousand nine hundred and four.

Privy Council Office, December 12, 1904.

WHEREAS the Governing Body of Charterhouse School, in virtue of the powers conferred upon them by "The Public Schools Act, 1868," did, on the tenth day of November, one thousand nine hundred and four, make Statutes amending Statutes 4 and 6 of the Statutes of the School.

And whereas the said Statutes have this day been laid before His Majesty in Council, the same are published in the London Gazette in pursuance of the said Act.

And notice is hereby given, that it is lawful for the bodies or persons authorized so to do in that Act, within two months from the date of the publication of this notification, to petition His Majesty in Council to withhold His approval from the whole or any part of such Statutes.

Amendment of Statutes (as made by the Governing Body of Charterhouse School, under the provisions of "The Public Schools Act, 1868") submitted by the said Governing Body for the approval of His Majesty in Council.

Whereas by "The Public Schools Act, 1868," section 11, the Governing Body of any School to which that Act applies is empowered from time to time to repeal or alter any Statute made in exercise of the powers of that Act, subject to certain conditions and restrictions therein specified.

And whereas by Statutes 4 and 6 for the government of Charterhouse School, it is provided that:—

4. There shall not be less than thirty Senior Scholarships, and the value of each of such Scholarships shall be £80 per annum.

6. There shall not be less than thirty Junior Scholarships, and the value of each of such Junior Scholarships shall be £60 per annum.

And whereas on the 10th day of November, 1904, it was resolved by the Governing Body of the said School that it was expedient to alter the form and effect of the said Statutes.

Now, therefore, we, the Governing Body of Charterhouse School aforesaid, do hereby alter the form and effect of the said Statutes. The said Statutes, as proposed to be amended, will be in the terms following:—

4. There shall be such number of Senior and Junior Scholarships as the Governing Body shall in each year determine. Provided that the total number of Scholarships in each year shall not be less than 60.

6. In respect of each Senior Scholarship the payment by the Governing Body shall be £80 per annum, and in respect of each Junior Scholarship £60 per annum.

Sealed the 16th day of November, 1904. By me,

Wm. Haig Brown,
Master of Charterhouse and a Member of the Governing Body of the School.

Wm. Haig Brown.

Privy Council Office, December 10, 1904.

BRISTOL CHANNEL.Burry Inlet—Alteration in Buoyage.

Information, dated 23rd November, 1904, has been received from the Trinity House, London, that the conical fairway buoy at the entrance to Burry Inlet has been replaced by a black can buoy, marked "Llanelly fairway buoy," moored in a position from which Burry Holm Δ 105 bears S. 65° E., distant 2 miles, and Worms Head S. 6° E.

Approximate position, lat. 51° 37' N., long. 4° 22' W.

Also, that the channel to Llanelly is now marked on the port hand by black can buoys, some of which are light-buoys, and on the star-board hand by red can-shaped buoys.

The buoys formerly marking the North and South Channels have been withdrawn.

A new edition of Chart No. 1167 will be issued.

Active Pass—Dangers in.

Information, dated 3rd November, 1904, has been received from Commander J. F. Parry, His Majesty's surveying-vessel "Egeria," of the existence of the undermentioned rocks, and particulars respecting other dangers in Active Pass:—

a. A rocky patch, consisting of several heads, with depths over them of 5 feet at low-water springs, situated at a distance of $4\frac{5}{10}$ cables N. 15° W. from Helen Point. This patch is well marked by kelp in summer and autumn.

b. A rocky head, with a depth of 18 feet over it at low-water springs, situated at a distance of $1\frac{3}{10}$ cables N. 20° E. from Helen Point. This rock is not marked by kelp.

c. The rock shown on the Chart as "dries 2 feet," immediately to the northward of Helen Point, in reality dries 6 feet at low-water ordinary springs, and the rock situated at a distance of $9\frac{1}{2}$ cables N. 36° W. from the same point dries 8 feet at low-water ordinary springs.

Approximate position of Helen Point on Chart No. 2840, lat. 48° 51½' N., long. 123° 20½' W.

d. The shoal, situated to the northward of Georgina Point, has a depth of 5 feet over it at low-water ordinary springs, in the place of the $1\frac{1}{2}$ fathoms shown on the Chart at a distance of $2\frac{1}{2}$ cables N. 18° E. from Georgina Point light-house.

e. The shoal, with a depth of 7 fathoms over it, shown on the Chart at a distance of 3 cables N. 88° W. from Georgina Point lighthouse, is situated 2 cables farther to the westward, and has a depth of 5 fathoms over it, in a position from which Georgina Point light bears S. 88° E., distant $5\frac{2}{10}$ cables.

This shoal is usually plainly marked by heavy tide rips.

Caution.—A recent survey shows that Active Pass is not accurately charted, caution should therefore be exercised in using it; but Mary Anne Point, bearing S. 9° W., will give a good line for entering or leaving the northern entrance.

No. 1151.—SWEDEN—EAST COAST.

Kalmar Sound—Dredged Channel Completed, Buoyage of.

The Swedish Government has given notice, dated 23rd November, 1904, that a channel has now been dredged through Kalmar Sound, and buoyed in accordance with the undermentioned system.

The channel, which commences to the northward of Krongrundet and terminates to the southward of Holmströmsgrund, is 6,566 yards long in a S. 31° W. direction, and 87 yards wide at the bottom; it has throughout a uniform depth of 19½ feet at lowest water.

The northern entrance of the channel is marked by a bell buoy, exhibiting a white fixed light, moored in the centre of the channel about a quarter of a mile to the northward of the entrance, or about one mile N. 60° E. from the north-eastern point of Svinö.

The southern end is marked by a light-buoy, exhibiting a red fixed light, moored on the eastern side of the channel to the southward of Prästor, at a distance of 2 cables S. 86° E. from Grimskar Light.

Approximate position, lat. 56° 39¼' N., long. 16° 22¾' E.

NOTE.—This light-buoy shows a white fixed light temporarily until the end of the season.

The channel between the above buoys is marked by black buoys on the western side of the channel, and by red buoys on the eastern side; some of these buoys exhibit lights, the light-buoys on the western side of the channel white lights, on the eastern side red lights.

A channel to Kalmar Harbour has been dredged to the same depth as the main channel, but the breadth of this channel is only 65 yards, the junction of the Kalmar Harbour and main channel is marked by a black and white buoy.

The light-buoys in the channels may, on account of ice, be replaced by spar buoys, but the light and bell buoy at the northern end of the channel will always be maintained in position.

[Variation 7° Westerly in 1904.]

NOTE.—A new edition of Chart No. 3435 will shortly be issued.

This Notice affects the following Admiralty Chart:—Kalmar Sound on Chart No. 3435. Also, Baltic Pilot, Part II, 1904, page 77.

Narenta River Entrance—Lights Altered.

The Austrian Government has given notice, dated 17th November, 1904, that the undermentioned alterations have been made in the lighting of the Entrance to Narenta River:—

1. A red fixed lantern light has been established on the north mole head.

2. A red fixed lantern light has been established on the south mole at a distance of about 2 cables from its extremity.

These two lights in line lead to the river entrance, as far as the inner limit of the red sector shown from the light on the south mole head.

3. A fixed light showing red and green sectors has been established on the south mole head, the red sector being visible over an arc of 11°.

Approximate position, lat. 43° 1' N., long. 17° 27' E.

The former fixed light on the south mole head showing red and white sectors, has been discontinued.

Portland Outer Breakwater—Pole Beacons.

With reference to Notice to Mariners No. 793 of 1901:—

Information, dated 29th November, 1904, has been received from the King's Harbour Master, Portland, that a pole beacon, about 20 feet high, and surmounted by a rectangular topmark, has been placed on the outer breakwater at a distance of 930 yards from the light on the north end of the breakwater.

Approximate position, lat. $50^{\circ} 34\frac{1}{2}'$ N., long. $2^{\circ} 25'$ W.

Also, that a re-determination of the positions of the two other pole beacons on the outer breakwater shows that they are situated on the breakwater at distances of 510 and 120 yards, respectively, from the north-eastern corner of the engine house on the south end of the breakwater, and not in the positions formerly assigned to them.

This Notice affects the following Admiralty Chart:—Portland Harbour, No. 2268. Also Channel Pilot, Part I, 1900, page 180; and Supplement, 1903, page 16.

No. 1158.—AFRICA, EAST COAST.

Port Bartholomew Diaz—Bar Altered.

The Harbour Master at Beira has given notice, dated 23rd September, 1904, that the bar into Port Bartholomew Diaz has altered, the leading beacons do not consequently indicate the channel, the buoys marking the entrance to the port have also been washed away. Vessels therefore should not attempt to enter without a pilot.

Further notice will be given when the buoys have been replaced and the beacons altered to suit the new conditions of the bar.

Approximate position, lat. $21^{\circ} 7'$ S., long. $35^{\circ} 6'$ E.

This Notice affects the following Admiralty Chart:—Plan of Port Bartholomew Diaz on Chart No. 648. Also, Africa Pilot, Part III, 1897, page 216.

Cape Barbas—Shoal North-Westward of.

The German Government has given notice, dated 26th November, 1904, that the captain of the steamship "Silvia" reports that a sounding of 6 fathoms, grey sandy bottom, was obtained on board his vessel at a distance of about 27 miles north-westward of Cape Barbas.

Approximate position, lat. $22^{\circ} 42'$ N., long. $17^{\circ} 0'$ W.

About 2 miles to the westward of the above position a depth of 30 fathoms was found.

This Notice affects the following Admiralty Charts:—Strait of Gibraltar to River Gambia, No. 1226; Garnet Head to Cape Verde, No. 1230. Also, Africa Pilot, Part I, 1899, page 199.

No. 1160.—NORTH SEA—NETHERLANDS, RIVER SCHELDE.Flushing Mole Head Lights—Alteration in.

The Netherlands Government has given notice that, on 1st December, 1904, the undermentioned alterations would be made in the Mole Head lights at the entrance to the outer harbour of Flushing, or Vlissingen:—

a. The light (fixed) on the Western Mole Head shows red over the roadstead, and green over the harbour.

b. The light (fixed) on the Eastern Mole Head shows green over the roadstead, and red over the harbour.

Approximate position, lat. $51^{\circ} 26\frac{1}{2}'$ N., long. $3^{\circ} 36\frac{1}{2}'$ E.

The limits of the above sectors are not stated, but it signifies that either when entering or leaving the harbour the red light will be at the port head and the green on the starboard.

This Notice affects the following Admiralty Chart:—River Schelde, No. 120. Also, List of Lights, Part II, 1904, Nos. 57, 56. Also, North Sea Pilot, Part IV, 1901, page, 92.

Pulo Tunjuk—Leading Lights Established

With reference to Notice to Mariners No. 530 of 1904:—

The Netherlands Government has given further notice, dated 26th November, 1904, that the undermentioned leading lights have been established on Pulo Tunjuk to assist in navigating the northern entrance to Rhio Strait:—

a. The high (or rear) light is a white flashing light, elevated 72 feet above high water, and visible in clear weather from a distance of 14 miles. It is erected on the south part of the island. Its power is equal to 500 candles.

Approximate position, lat. $0^{\circ} 56' 40''$ N., long. $104^{\circ} 12' 20''$ E.

Between the bearings of S. 6° W. and S. 85° W. this light is partially obscured by trees.

b. The low (or front) light is red fixed, elevated 59 feet above high water, and visible in clear weather from a distance of 13 miles, between the bearings of S. 3° W., through south, and S. 7° E. It is erected at a distance of $2\frac{1}{4}$ cables N. 2° W. from the high light. Its power is equal to 500 candles.

The above lights in line S. 2° E. lead through the northern entrance of Rhio Strait.

Macau Light—Normal Character Resumed.

With reference to Notice to Mariners No. 1098 of 1904:—

The Brazilian Government has given further notice that on 24th October, 1904, repairs having been effected, Macau light (white fixed and flashing) resumed its normal character.

Approximate position, lat. $5^{\circ} 7'$ S., long. $36^{\circ} 34'$ W.

Macau light shows the characteristics given in the Admiralty List of Lights, Part VII, 1904, No. 63.

This Notice affects the following Admiralty Chart:—Rio Mossoro to St. Roque Channel, No. 888. Also, List of Lights, Part VII, 1904, No. 63; and South American Pilot, Part I, 1902, page 473.

No. 1165.—IRELAND, EAST COAST—
BELFAST LOUGH.

Briggs Rocks—Intended Alteration in Buoyage of.

The Commissioners of Irish Lights have given notice, dated 30th November, 1904, that during 1905 the black can buoy northward of Briggs Rock, about one mile N. 63° E. from Groomsport Church, Belfast Lough, will be replaced by a light-buoy of the same shape and colour, exhibiting a white fixed light.

Approximate position, lat. $54^{\circ} 41\frac{1}{2}'$ N., long. $5^{\circ} 35\frac{1}{2}'$ W.

Also, that the red conical buoy marking the southern extreme of the North Briggs would be replaced by a light-buoy, exhibiting a white occulting light every four seconds, thus:—light, two seconds; eclipse, two seconds.

Approximate position, lat. $54^{\circ} 44'$ N., long. $5^{\circ} 43'$ W.

[Variation 19° Westerly in 1904.]

Further notice will be given when these alterations have been made:

This Notice affects the following Admiralty Chart:—Belfast Lough, No. 1753. Also, Irish Coast Pilot, 1902, page 228.

No. 1166.—BALTIC—GERMAN COAST.

Port Swinemünde—Fog Signal Altered.

The German Government has given notice that, on 1st December, 1904, a fog trumpet worked by compressed air would be established on the eastern mole head at the entrance to Swinemünde; during thick or foggy weather it will give two blasts in succession every twenty-five seconds, thus:—blast, three seconds; silent interval, four seconds; blast, three seconds; silent interval, fifteen seconds.

The fog gun previously used as the fog signal will be discontinued, except in case of the trumpet being disabled, when it will be fired every five minutes as before.

Approximate position, lat. $53^{\circ} 55'$ N., long. $14^{\circ} 17\frac{1}{2}'$ E.

This Notice affects the following Admiralty Charts:—Femern to Bornholm, No. 2150; Arkona to Dievenow River, No. 2366; Port Swinemünde, No. 185. Also, List of Lights, Part III, 1904, Nos. 549, 553; Baltic Pilot, Part II, 1904, page 192.

By command of their Lordships,

A. Mostyn Field, Hydrographer.

Hydrographic Office, Admiralty, London,

00106 of 1904.

In the Matter of WILLIAMS, HARVEY AND CO. Limited and Reduced; and in the Matter of the Companies Act, 1867; and in the Matter of the Companies Act, 1877.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Order of the High Court of Justice, Chancery Division, dated the 29th day of November, 1904, confirming the reduction of the capital of the above named Company from £100,000 to £80,000, and the Minute approved by the Court showing with respect to the capital of the Company, as altered, the several particulars required by the above statutes was registered by the Registrar of Joint Stock Companies on the 8th day of December, 1904. The said Minute is in the words and figures following:—The capital of Williams, Harvey and Company Limited and Reduced henceforth is £80,000, divided into 10,000 shares of £8 each, instead of the original capital of £100,000, divided into 10,000 shares of £10 each. At the time of the registration of this Minute all the said 10,000 shares have been issued and the sum of £8 has been and is to be deemed paid up on each of the said shares.—Dated the 10th December, 1904.

1904. B., No. 0113.

In the Matter of the BROCKHAM BRICK COMPANY Limited and Reduced, and in the Matter of the Companies Acts, 1867 and 1877.

NOTICE is hereby given, that by an Order of the High Court of Justice, made by Mr. Justice Swinfen Eady, on the 19th day of November, 1904, in the above mentioned matter, it was ordered that the cancellation and reduction of the capital proposed to be effected by the Special Resolution passed and confirmed at Extraordinary General Meetings of the said Company, held respectively on the 12th May, 1904, and 10th June, 1904, and which resolution was in the words and figures following, that is to say:—"That the capital of this Company be reduced from £20,000 to £15,270 by the extinguishment of 350 'A' shares and 596 'B' shares, which were on and between the 30th July, 1883, and 31st March, 1890, purchased by this Company," be confirmed; and it was ordered that the words "and reduced" be deemed part of the name of the said Company until after the 19th day of December, 1904. And notice is hereby also given, that the said Order has been produced to the Registrar of Joint Stock Companies, and a copy thereof has been delivered to him, together with a Minute approved by the said Judge, in the words and figures following, namely:—"The capital of the Brookham Brick Company Limited and Reduced henceforth is £15,270, divided into 3054 shares of £5 each, instead of the original capital of £20,000, divided into 4000 shares of £5 each, and that such reduction be effected by the cancellation of the 350 'A' shares that have been issued and of 596 issued 'B' shares. At the time of the registration of this Minute 2096 'B' shares are issued and 958 are unissued, and the sum of £5 has been and is to be deemed to be paid upon each of the 2096 shares now issued," and such Order and Minute have been duly registered by the said Registrar of Joint Stock Companies.—Dated this 9th day of December, 1904.

In the Matter of SIDEBOTTOMS (Rochdale and Oldham) Limited and Reduced and in the Matter of the Companies Act, 1867; and in the Matter of the Chancery of Lancaster Acts, 1850 to 1890.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a petition has been presented to the Court of Chancery of the County Palatine of Lancaster, Manchester District, for confirming resolutions of the above Company for reducing its capital from £70,000 to £30,000. By an affidavit of Herbert Ashworth, the Secretary of the above named Company, in the said matter sworn and filed, on the 2nd day of December, 1904, it appears that to the best of his knowledge, information, and belief, there was not on the 1st day of December, 1904, the day fixed by the Order in this matter, dated the 27th day of October, 1904, any debt or claim, which if such date were the commencement of the winding up of the said Company would be admissible to proof against the said Company. Any person who claims to have been on the said last mentioned day and still to be a creditor of the said Company, must, on or before the 31st day of December, 1904, send his name and also the particulars of his claim, and the name and address of his Solicitor (if any), to the under-signed, at the address mentioned below, or in default thereof he will be precluded from objecting to the proposed reduction of capital.
