The KING'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of the Act of the forty-seventh and forty-eighth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter sixty-five (the New Parishes Acts and Church Building Acts Amendment Act 1884) duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the first day of December, in the year one thousand nine hundred and four, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the forty-seventh and forty-eighth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter sixty-five (the New Parishes Acts and Church Building Acts Amendment Act, 1884) have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a dissolution of the district of St. Catherine, Loughborough Park, in the county of Surrey, and in the diocese of Rochester.

"Whereas by the authority of an Order of Her said late Majesty in Council bearing date the thirtieth day of April in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven and published in the London Gazette on the fourth day of the following month a separate district for spiritual purposes was constituted under the New Parishes Acts, 1843, 1844 and 1856, or some or one of them, partly out of the new parish of Saint John, Angell Town, partly out of the new parish of Saint Jude, East Brixton, and partly out of the district of St. Catherine, Loughborough Park, all in the said county of Surrey and at that date in the diocese of Rochester, and the said district was named 'The District of St. Catherine, Loughborough Park,' and the boundaries thereof were defined in and by such Order, and were delineated on a map or plan annexed to the same.

"Whereas the boundaries of the said district, and the extent of the area included within them, are and remain the same as they were at the date of the constitution of the same district.

"And whereas by instrument under our common seal bearing date the twenty-eighth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven, and published in the London Gazette on the sixth day of the following month, we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners did grant to the minister or Incumbent of the said district and to his successors, ministers or Incumbents of the same district, one yearly sum or stipend of two hundred pounds to be payable out of the common fund under our control.

"And whereas no church or chapel has been provided for or allotted to the said district of Saint Catherine, Loughborough Park.

"And whereas under the provisions of the New Parishes Act, 1843, section twenty-one, the right of patronage of the said district of Saint Catherine, Loughborough Park, and the nomination of the minister thereof is exercisable alternately by Your Majesty in right of the Crown, and by the Bishop of the diocese of Rochester (within which diocese the said district is now situate) as such Bishop.

"And whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would be expedient that the said district should now be dissolved in the manner which is hereinafter recommended and proposed.

"And whereas the incumbency of the said district is now vacant and a pension of fifty pounds per annum is paid by us out of the endowments of the said district to the retired minister thereof.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend Edward Stuart, Bishop of the said diocese of Rochester (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly recommend and propose that as and from the day upon which any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme shall be published in the London Gazette, the said district of Saint Catherine, Loughborough Park, shall be dissolved, and that as and from the same day the whole of the area of such district as the same was defined and set forth in the Order in Council and in the map or plan above mentioned and as the same area is set forth and delineated on the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall be added to the said new parish of Saint John, Angell Town, and shall become and be and form part of such new parish.

"And we further recommend and propose that as and from the day of the publication as aforesaid of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme we and the Ecclesiastical Commissioners, in accordance with law, shall be provided with assurance in law that the endowment so to be provided by us as aforesaid and to be paid to the minister of the district as aforesaid shall absolutely cease and determine, and the moneys appropriated by us for the purpose of such endowment shall return to and again become absolutely vested in us the said Commissioners as full and ample a manner as if the same moneys had not been so appropriated: Provided always, that so long as the said pension of fifty pounds per annum shall continue to be payable to the retired minister of the said district, such pension shall be paid by us out of the said moneys.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

"And whereas drafts of the said scheme have in accordance with the provisions of the said Act been transmitted to the patrons and to the Incumbents of the three curates out of which the district of Saint Catherine, Loughborough Park, was taken and to the patrons of the said district (the incumbency thereof being vacant).

"And whereas the patrons of the said district and the patrons and Incumbents of two of the said cures, that is to say the patrons and Incum-ments of the benefices of Saint John, Angell Town and Saint Matthew Brixton, and some of the patrons of the benefice of Saint Jude East Brixton have respectively signified their assent to such scheme or offered no objection thereto.
And whereas the remaining patrons of the said benefice of Saint Jude East Brixton, and the Incumbent thereof have offered certain objections to the same scheme.
And whereas notwithstanding these objections the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council; Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Rochester.

Provided always that no such agreement made by or on behalf of the Council as in this section provided shall take effect until the same has been approved by a Secretary of State.”

III. His Majesty may at any time alter, add to or amend the provisions of this Order.

Provided that this application is made, in the case of a patent, within seven months, and, in the case of a design or trade mark, within four months, from his applying for protection in the foreign state with which the arrangement is in force.

Provided that nothing in this section contained shall entitle the patentee or proprietor of the design or trade mark to recover damages for infringements committed prior to the date of the actual acceptance of his complete specification or the actual registration of his design or trade mark in this country, as the case may be.

2. The publication in the United Kingdom, or the Isle of Man, during the respective periods aforesaid, of a description of the invention, or the registration of a design, or the representation thereof, the use thereof, during such periods of the invention, or the exhibition or use therein during such periods of the design, or the publication therein during such periods of a description or representation of the design, or the use therein during such periods of the trade mark, shall not invalidate the patent which may be granted for the inventions or the registration of the design or trade mark.

3. And whereas it pleased Her late Majesty Queen Victoria to make an arrangement of the nature contemplated by the said enactment, by and in virtue of a Declaration signed and sealed by Her Majesty's Ambassador at Paris on the seventeenth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, duly conveying the accession of Great Britain and Ireland to the International Convention and Protocol for the Protection of Industrial Property, signed by representatives of certain Powers on the twentieth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three, and duly ratified on the sixth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, power being reserved to Her Majesty to accede thereafter to the provisions of the said Convention and Protocol on behalf of the Isle of Man, the Channel Islands, and any of Her Majesty's Possessions, which Declaration of Accession was duly accepted by the French Government on behalf of the signatory Powers, by and in virtue of a Declaration dated the second day of April, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four.

And whereas by various Orders in Council Her late Majesty Queen Victoria was pleased to declare that the herebefore recited provisions of the said Act should apply to the several foreign countries named in the said Orders parties to the said Convention and Protocol annexed thereto, the ratifications of which Additional Act were duly effected except as regards the Dominican Republic and Servia:

And whereas by section one of the Patents Act, 1901, it is enacted as follows:

(1) The provisions of section one hundred and three of the Patents, Designs, and Trade Marks Act, 1883, as amended by section six of the Patents, Designs, and Trade Marks Act (Amendment) Act, 1885, and by section one of the Patents Act, 1901, should apply to the Republic of Cuba.

(2) An application under that section shall be accompanied by a complete specification which, if it be not accepted within the period of twelve months shall, with the drawings (if any), be open to public inspection at the expiration of that period.

And whereas on the first day of May, one thousand nine hundred and three, the German Empire duly acceded to the said International Convention, Protocol, and Additional Act:

And whereas by an Order in Council dated the seventh day of October, one thousand nine hundred and three, His Majesty was pleased to declare that the provisions of section one hundred and three of the Patents, Designs, and Trade Marks Act, 1883, as amended by section six of the Patents, Designs, and Trade Marks Act (Amendment) Act, 1885, and by section one of the Patents Act, 1901, should apply to the German Empire:

And whereas on the twenty-second day of September, one thousand nine hundred and four, the Republic of Cuba duly acceded to the said International Convention, Protocol, and Additional Act.

Now therefore His Majesty by and with the advice of His Privy Council, and by virtue of the authority committed to Him by the above enactment, doth declare, and it is hereby declared as follows:

1. The provisions of section one hundred and three of the Patents, Designs, and Trade Marks Act, 1883, as amended by section six of the Patents, Designs, and Trade Marks Act (Amendment) Act, 1885, and by section one of the Patents Act, 1901, shall apply to the Republic of Cuba.

2. This Order shall take effect from the seventeenth day of November, one thousand nine hundred and four.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 12th day of January, 1905.

PRESENT,
The KING’s Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Burial Act, 1853, as amended by the Burial Act, 1800, it was enacted that, in case it appeared to His Majesty in Council, upon the representation of the Local Government Board, that for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial-ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of the Local Government Board, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within such other limits, save in any burial-grounds or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it should be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order that no new burial-ground should be opened in any city or town, or within any other limits, save in any burial-grounds or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it should be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order that no new burial-ground should be opened in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of the Local Government Board, or (as the case might require) that, after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial-grounds or places of burial, should be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time as circumstances might require; provided always that notice of such representation, and of the time when it should please His Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, should be published in the London Gazette, and should be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation was so considered; provided also that no such representation should be made in relation to the burial-ground of any parish until ten days’ previous notice of the intention to make such representation should have been given to the Incumbent and vestry clerk or churchwardens of such parish:

And whereas the Local Government Board, after giving to the Incumbent and the churchwardens of the parish of Saint Edmund, Emneth, in the county of Norfolk, ten days’ previous notice of their intention to make such representation, made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground should be opened in the civil parish of Emneth without the previous approval of the Local Government Board and that burials should be discontinued in the said parish as hereinafter directed:

And whereas His Majesty was pleased by His Order in Council of the fourteenth day of November last, to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same should be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the thirty-first day of December, one thousand nine hundred and four, and such Order has been published in the London Gazette, and copies thereof have been affixed as required by the said Act:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that no new burial-ground shall be opened in the said civil parish, without the previous approval of the Local Government Board, and that burials in the said parish shall be discontinued as follows, viz.:

Emneth.—Forthwith and entirely in the Parish Church of Saint Edmund, Emneth, in the county of Norfolk; and in the churchyard as it existed prior to the year one thousand nine hundred and four, except as follows:

(a.) In any vault or walled grave now existing in the said portion of the churchyard burial may be allowed subject to the condition that every coffin buried in such vault or grave be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented:

(b.) In the said portion of the churchyard in any grave space in which no interment has heretofore taken place the burial may be allowed, at or below the depth of five feet from the surface of the ground, of the body of any person for whom or of any existing in the said portion of the churchyard as it existed prior to the year three thousand eight hundred and ninety-nine, directing that this Order be published in the London Gazette, and circulating in the district of the Urban District Council aforesaid, one month at least before the said twenty-eighth day of February, one thousand nine hundred and five.

Whereas in Statute III, 12, of the Statutes of the said College it is enacted:—"Every Fellow elected to an Official Fellowship, not being then married, shall vacate his Fellowship by marriage, if such marriage shall take place within seven years from the day of his election. And whereas it appears to us, the President and Fellows of the said College, that is it desirable that the said Statute shall be altered and amended in manner hereinafter appearing.

Now we, the President and Fellows of the said College, in exercise of the powers vested in us and by virtue of the 54th section of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877 (40 and 41 Vict., c. 48), in relation to Saint John's College, in the University of Oxford, by this present instrument under our seal, do, by this present instrument under our seal, alter and amend Statute III, 12, of the Statutes of the said College, as hereinbefore set out, in manner following, that is to say:—By omitting the whole of Clause 12 in Statute III, and by substituting for it the following clause:

12.—(a) Every Official Fellow shall reside in rooms in the College during the usual College Terms, unless the President and Fellows at a Stated General Meeting shall have given him leave to reside elsewhere; and there shall always be at least four unmarried Official Fellows resident in rooms in the College during the usual College terms. So long as that number is complete, an Official Fellow vacating his Fellowship by marriage shall not be incapable of being elected to fill the vacancy so created, if the College should desire to retain his services as a Tutor, Lecturer, or Principal Bursar.

12.—(a) Every Official Fellow shall reside in rooms in the College during the usual College Terms, unless the President and Fellows at a Stated General Meeting shall have given him leave to reside elsewhere; and there shall always be at least four unmarried Official Fellows resident in rooms in the College during the usual College Terms, of whom two at least shall be Tutors of the College.
(b) Every Fellow elected to an Official Fellowship, not being then married, shall vacate both his office and his Fellowship by marriage, unless an application by him for leave to retain his Fellowship after marriage shall, previously to such marriage, have been granted by the President and Fellows at either a Special General Meeting or a Meeting held in Full Term of which at least thirty days' notice shall have been given. Provided always that no application for leave to retain his Fellowship after marriage shall be entertained by the President and Fellows unless the Fellow applying shall have served as an Officer of the College for at least five years, and shall have submitted for the approval of His Majesty in Council, and notice of its having been submitted, for the provisions contained in the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877:—

A STATUTE made to amend certain Statutes of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge, 1877:—

Whereas in Statute III, 1, of the said Statutes it is enacted (inter alia):—'The number of Fellowships exclusive of Fellowships held ex officio by the President of the College and of Mechanics and Civil Engineering shall not be less than fourteen nor greater than eighteen.' And in Statute III, 9, 'Every Ordinary Fellow (not elected under Clause 13 of this Statute) who shall be instituted to an ecclesiastical benefice, his pension shall not exceed three hundred pounds per annum.'

Now, whereas the President and Fellows of the said College in exercise of the powers vested in us under and by virtue of the fifty-fourth section of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, do by this present instrument under our seal, alter and amend the Statutes of the Civil Service of the State, and who shall retain such benefice, property, pension, or office for twelve calendar months from the day of his institution, accession, or admission thereto, shall, if the net annual value of such ecclesiastical benefice clear of deductions (except for property or income tax) shall exceed five hundred pounds, or if he shall exceed the possession of an income in the gift of the College, or if the net annual income derivable by him from such property, pension, or office, or from any two or more of the above-mentioned sources (including or not including an ecclesiastical benefice) clear of deductions except as aforesaid, shall exceed five hundred pounds, vacate both his office and his Fellowship and in the expiration of such twelve calendar months, or in the case of a benefice in the gift of the College at the expiration of eighteen calendar months from the avoidance thereof; and for this purpose the income which the estimated value of any property would produce, if invested in three pounds per centum Consolidated Annuities at the price current at the time of the acquisition thereof, shall, in case of doubt, be considered to be the income derivable from such property. The word 'property' shall in this clause include any estate or interest in possession in any property real or personal, or in any estate or interest in possession in any property real or personal. In any case in which the property or sources of income may have been acquired at several times, the latest time at which any part of such property or any of such sources of income shall have been acquired, shall, in construing this clause, be considered as the time of the acquisition of the whole thereof. Except as aforesaid no Fellow shall be disqualified for retaining his Fellowship by reason of his having become possessed of any property or income or been instituted to any benefice.'

And whereas in Statute V, 9, it is enacted (inter alia):—'The Merchant Taylors' Scholarships, when vacated shall be filled up at Merchant Taylors' School or at such other convenient place as the President of the College and the Master of the Company of Merchant Taylors shall appoint on the eleventh day of June in each year, or in case that day shall be Sunday, on the day following the day in which the vacancy shall have occurred. An Official Fellow, who shall have become possessed of any property or sources of income which any part of such property or any of such sources of income may have been acquired at several times, the latest time at which any part of such property or any of such sources of income shall have been acquired, shall, in construing this clause, be considered as the time of the acquisition of the whole thereof. Except as aforesaid no Fellow shall be disqualified for retaining his Fellowship by reason of his having become possessed of any property or income or been instituted to any benefice.'

And whereas in Statute XV, 4, it is enacted:—'If and so long as any pensioner shall hold any office in this or any other College any Professorship or Public Readership, any office tenable for life or during good behaviour, any office in the Permanent Civil Service of the State, or any ecclesiastical benefice, his pension shall not exceed such amount as with the net income derivable from all those sources will make up the sum of one thousand pounds per annum, and that no pensioner shall be tenable with a benefice in the patronage of the College exceeding in value three hundred pounds per annum.'

And whereas it appears to us, the President and Fellows of the said College, that it is desirable that the said Statutes shall be altered and amended in manner hereinafter appearing.

Now, whereas the President and Fellows of the said College in exercise of the powers vested in us under and by virtue of the fifty-fourth section of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, do by this present instrument under our seal, alter and amend the Statutes of the said College as hereinafore set out in manner following, that is to say:—

In Statute III, 1, by inserting after the words "Civil Engineering," the words "or retained under the provisions of Statute XV, Clause 4." In Statute III, 9, by adding at the end of the clause the words "This clause shall not apply to the holder of a Fellowship retained under the provisions of Statute XV, Clause 4." In Statute V, 9, by omitting the words "or, in case that day shall be Sunday, on the day following," and by inserting after the words "who have not exceeded the age of nineteen years," the words "on the eleventh day of June in the current year." Provided always that whenever the eleventh day of June shall fall on Sunday, or on a day appointed to be observed as a Bank Holiday or public holiday, the election shall be held on such day in that year (not being earlier than the sixteenth day of June or later than the eighteenth day of June) as the said President and Master shall from time to time fix.

In Statute XV, by omitting the whole of Clause 4 and by substituting for it the following clauses:—

"4. Any Official Fellow who retires from service after having served the College for not less than twenty-five years may, at the discretion of the President and Fellows, to be exercised at any time after the expiration of such twenty-five years, and on one year's notice receive the pension corresponding to his term of service, or be permitted to retain a Fellowship during his life with an additional stipend not exceeding one hundred pounds a year payable out of the Pension Fund.

"5. If and so long as any Pensioner or holder of a Fellowship retained under the preceding clause shall hold any office in this or any other College any Professorship or Public Readership, any office tenable for life or during good behaviour, any office in the Permanent Civil Service of the State, or any ecclesiastical benefice, his pension or the emolument of his Fellowship, as the case may be, shall not exceed such amount as with the net income derivable from all those sources will make up the sum of one thousand pounds per annum, and no pension or Fellowship so retained shall be tenable with a benefit in the patronage of the College exceeding in value three hundred pounds per annum.

"In this clause the word 'emolument' shall include the additional stipend payable out of the Pension Fund."

Given under our Common Seal this seventeenth day of December, one thousand nine hundred and four.
