PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty chapter one hundred and fourteen duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the first day of December, in the year one thousand nine hundred and four, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty, Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called 'the said benefice') of All Saints, Hastings, in the county of Sussex and in the diocese of Chichester.

"Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of All Saints, Hastings, is vested for an estate in fee simple without incumbrances in the Reverend George Alfred Foyster, of Guise House, Aspley Guise, in the county of Bedford, Clerk in Holy Orders.

"And whereas the said George Alfred Foyster is desirous that the said advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of All Saints, Hastings, now vested in him as aforesaid, should be transferred to and be vested in the Bishop for the time being of the said diocese of Chichester.

"And whereas the Right Reverend Ernest Roland, now Bishop of the said diocese of Chichester, is willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary, he, the said Ernest Roland, Bishop of the said diocese of Chichester, has executed this scheme as herein-after mentioned.

"And whereas the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of All Saints, Hastings, which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed, will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the parish of All Saints, Hastings.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said George Alfred Foyster (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme) and with the consent of the said Ernest Roland, Bishop of the said diocese of Chichester (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of All Saints, Hastings, now vested in him, the said George Alfred Foyster as aforesaid, shall be transferred from him to the said Ernest Roland, Bishop of the said diocese of Chichester, and his successors, Bishops of the same diocese, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Ernest Roland, Bishop of the said diocese of Chichester, and by his successors, Bishops of the same diocese, for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council: now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Chichester.

"And with the like consent of the said Edgar, Bishop of the said diocese of Saint Albans (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church of Saint Saviour, Saint Albans, situate as aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us the said Commissioners to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the forty-seventh and forty-eighth years of Her late Majesty, Queen Victoria, chapter sixty-five (the New Parishes Acts and Church Building Acts Amendment Act, 1884) have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a dissolution of the district of St. Catherine, Loughborough Park, in the county of Surrey, and in the diocese of Rochester.

"Whereas by the authority of an Order of Her said late Majesty in Council bearing date the thirtieth day of April in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven and published in the London Gazette on the fourth day of the following month a separate district for spiritual purposes was constituted under the New Parishes Acts, 1843, 1844 and 1856, or some or one of them, partly out of the new parish of Saint John, Angell Town, partly out of the new parish of Saint Jude, East Brixton, and partly out of the district parish of Saint Matthew, Brixton, all in the said county of Surrey and at that date in the diocese of Winchester, and the said district was named 'The District of Saint Catherine, Loughborough Park,' and the boundaries thereof were defined in and by such Order, and were delineated on a map or plan annexed to the same.

"And whereas the boundaries of the said district, and the extent of the area included within them, are and remain the same as they were at the date of the constitution of the same district.

"And whereas by an instrument under our common seal bearing date the twenty-eighth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven, and published in the London Gazette on the sixth day of the following month, we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners did grant to the minister or Incumbent of the said district and to his successors, ministers or Incumbents of the same district, one yearly sum or stipend of two hundred pounds to be payable out of the common fund under our control.

"And whereas no church or chapel has been provided for or allotted to the said district of Saint Catherine, Loughborough Park.

"And whereas under the provisions of the New Parishes Act, 1843, section twenty-one, the right of patronage of the said district of Saint Catherine, Loughborough Park, and the nomination of the minister thereof is exercisable alternately by Your Majesty in right of the Crown, and by the Bishop of the diocese of Rochester (within which diocese the said district is now situate) as such Bishop.

"And whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would be expedient that the said district should now be dissolved in the manner which is hereinafter recommended and proposed.

"And whereas the incumbency of the said district is now vacant and a pension of fifty pounds per annum is paid by us out of the endowments of the said district to the retired minister thereof.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend Edward Stuart, Bishop of the said diocese of Rochester (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly recommend and propose that as and from the day upon which any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme shall be published in the London Gazette, the said district of Saint Catherine, Loughborough Park, shall be dissolved, and that as and from the same day the whole of the area of such district as the same was defined and set forth in the Order in Council and in the map or plan above mentioned and as the same area is set forth and delineated on the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall be added to the said new parish of Saint John, Angell Town, and shall become and be and form part of such new parish.

"And we further recommend and propose that as and from the day of the publication as aforesaid of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any other assurance in law the endowment so to be provided by us as aforesaid and to be paid to the minister of the district as aforesaid shall absolutely cease and determine, and the moneys appropriated by us for the purpose of such endowment shall return to and again become absolutely vested in us the said Commissioners in as full and ample a manner as if the same moneys had not been so appropriated: Provided always, that so long as the said pension of fifty pounds per annum shall continue to be payable to the retired minister of the said district, such pension shall be paid by us out of the said moneys.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas drafts of the said scheme have in accordance with the provisions of the said Act been transmitted to the patrons and to the Incumbents of the three cures out of which the district of Saint Catherine, Loughborough Park, was taken and to the patrons of the said district (the incumbency thereof being vacant).

And whereas the patrons of the said district and the patrons and Incumbents of two of the said cures, that is to say the patrons and Incumbents of the benefices of Saint John, Angell Town and Saint Matthew Brixton, and some of the patrons of the benefice of Saint Jude East Brixton have respectively signified their assent to such scheme or offered no objection thereto.

And whereas the remaining patrons of the said benefice of Saint Jude East Brixton, and the Incumbent thereof have offered certain objections to the same scheme.

And whereas notwithstanding these objections the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Rochester.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter forty-nine; of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter sixty; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the fifteenth day of December, in the year one thousand nine hundred and four, in the words following, that is to say:—

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Andrew, Litherland, situate as aforesaid.

"Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Francis James, Bishop of the said diocese of Liverpool (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said new parish of Saint Philip, Litherland, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part together with the boundaries thereof is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said Church of Saint Andrew, Litherland, situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Andrew, Litherland.'

"And with the like consent of the said Francis James, Bishop of the said diocese of Liverpool (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church of Saint Andrew, Litherland, situate as aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us the said Commissioners to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Andrew, Litherland, being:—

"All that part of the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Saint Philip, Litherland, in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Liverpool, which is bounded upon the south by the new parish of Saint Matthew, Bootle, upon the south-west by the new parish of Saint Leonard, Bootle, both in the said county and diocese, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the north-west and upon the north-east, by an imaginary line commencing at the point where the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Leonard, Bootle, from the said new parish of Saint Philip, Litherland, crosses the middle of the Fazakerley and North Mersey Branch line of the Lancashire and Yorkshire Railway, and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the said line of railway for a distance of nineteen chains or thereabouts to the centre of the bridge which carries it across the Leeds and Liverpool Canal, and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the said canal for a distance of thirty-eight chains and a half or thereabouts to the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Philip, Litherland, from the said new parish of Saint Matthew, Bootle."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council: now, therefore, His Majesty by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Liverpool,

WHEREAS by section one hundred and three of the Patents, Designs, and Trade Marks Act, 1883, as amended by section six of the Patents, Designs, and Trade Marks (Amendment) Act, 1885, it is enacted as follows :—

1. If Her Majesty is pleased to make any arrangement with the government or governments of any foreign state or states for mutual protection of inventions, designs, and trade marks, or any of them, then any person who has applied for protection for any invention, design, or trade mark in any such state, shall be entitled to a patent for his invention or to registration of his design or trade mark (as the case may be) under this Act, in priority to other applicants; and such patent or registration shall have the same date as the date of the application in such foreign state.

Provided that this application is made, in the case of a patent, within seven months, and, in the case of a design or trade mark, within four months, from his applying for protection in the foreign state with which the arrangement is in force.

Provided that nothing in this section contained shall entitle the patentee or proprietor of the design or trade mark to recover damages for infringements happening prior to the date of the actual acceptance of his complete specification or the actual registration of his design or trade mark in this country, as the case may be.

2. The publication in the United Kingdom, or the Isle of Man, during the respective periods aforesaid, of any description of the invention, or the use therein during such periods of the invention, or the exhibition or use therein during such periods of the design, or the publication therein during such periods of a description or representation of the design, or the use therein during such periods of the trade mark, shall not invalidate the patent which may be granted for the invention, or the registration of the design or trade mark.

3. The application for the grant of a patent, or the registration of a design, or the registration of a trade mark under this section must be made in the same manner as an ordinary application under this Act, provided that, in the case of trade marks, any trade mark the registration of which has been duly applied for in the country of origin may be registered under this Act.

4. The provisions of this section shall apply only in the case of those foreign states with respect to which Her Majesty shall from time to time by Order in Council declare them to be applicable, and so long only in the case of each state as the Order in Council shall continue in force with respect to that state.

And whereas it pleased Her late Majesty Queen Victoria to make an arrangement of the nature contemplated by the said enactment, by and in virtue of a Declaration signed and sealed by Her Majesty's Ambassador at Paris on the seventeenth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, duly conveying the accession of Great Britain and Ireland to the International Convention and Protocol for the Protection of Industrial Property, signed by representatives of certain Powers on the twentieth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three, and duly ratified on the sixth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, power being reserved to Her Majesty to accede thereafter to the provisions of the said Convention and Protocol on behalf of the Isle of Man, the Channel Islands, and any of Her Majesty's Possessions, which Declaration of Accession was duly accepted by the French Government on behalf of the signatory Powers, by and in virtue of a Declaration dated the second day of April, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four.

(2) An application under that section shall be accompanied by a complete specification which, if it be not accepted within the period of twelve months shall, with the drawings (if any), be open to public inspection at the expiration of that period.

And whereas on the first day of May, one thousand nine hundred and three, the German Empire duly acceded to the said International Convention, Protocol, and Additional Act:

And whereas by an Order in Council dated the ninth day of October, one thousand nine hundred and three, His Majesty was pleased to declare that the provisions of section one hundred and three of the Patents, Designs, and Trade Marks Act, 1883, as amended by section six of the Patents, Designs, and Trade Marks Act (Amendment) Act, 1885, and by section one of the Patents Act, 1901, should apply to the German Empire:

And whereas on the twenty-second day of September, one thousand nine hundred and four, the Republic of Cuba duly acceded to the said International Convention, Protocol, and Additional Act.

Now therefore His Majesty by and with the advice of His Privy Council, and by virtue of the authority committed to Him by the above enactments, doth declare, and it is hereby declared as follows:

And whereas it is, in the judgment of His Majesty, expedient for the public safety that certain fireworks of a dangerous nature should be prohibited except under certain conditions:

And whereas the provisions of section one of the Rules Publication Act, 1893, have been complied with:

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the above-mentioned provisions of the Act, His Majesty is pleased by and with the advice of His Privy Council to order and prescribe,

And whereas the Local Government Board, after giving to the Incumbent and the churchwardens of the parish of Saint Edmund, Emneth, in the county of Norfolk, ten days' previous notice of their intention to make such representation, made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground should be opened in the civil parish of Emneth without the previous approval of the Local Government Board and that burials should be discontinued in the said parish as hereinafter directed:

And whereas His Majesty was pleased by His Order in Council of the fourteenth day of November last, to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same should be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the thirty-first day of December, one thousand nine hundred and four, and such Order has been published in the London Gazette, and copies thereof have been affixed as required by the said Act:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that no new burial-ground shall be opened in the said civil parish without the previous approval of the Local Government Board, and that burials in the said parish shall be discontinued as follows, viz.:

EMNETH.—Forthwith and entirely in the Parish Church of Saint Edmund, Emneth, in the county of Norfolk; and in the churchyard as it existed prior to the year one thousand nine hundred and four, except as follows:—

(a.) In any vault or walled grave now existing in the said portion of the churchyard burial may be allowed subject to the condition that every coffin buried in such vault or grave be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented:

(b.) In the said portion of the churchyard in any grave space in which no interment has heretofore taken place the burial may be allowed, at or below the depth of five feet from the surface of the ground, of the body of any person for whom or of any member of a family for which such grave space has been reserved and appropriated as a burial-place, with the exclusive right of burial therein.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 12th day of January, 1905.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Urban District Council of Beaconsfield, in the county of Buckingham, have, under the provisions of the Burial Act, 1857, presented a petition to His Majesty in Council stating that the district of the said Urban District Council is co-extensive with the district for which it is proposed to provide a burial ground, that no Burial Board has been appointed for such district, and that an Order in Council was passed on the seventh day of October, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-nine, directing the discontinuance of burials in the Parish Church of Beaconsfield and in the old part of the churchyard, and in the Congregational Chapel and chapelry at Beaconsfield, and praying that His Majesty would be pleased to order that the said Urban District Council should be a Burial Board for the said district.

Now, therefore, His Majesty in Council is pleased to give notice of such petition, and to order that the same, together with any other petition on the same subject, be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the twenty-eighth day of February, one thousand nine hundred and five.

And His Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be published in the London Gazette, and in one of the newspapers usually circulating in the district of the Urban District Council aforesaid, one month at least before the said twenty-eighth day of February, one thousand nine hundred and five.

A. W. FitzRoy.

Privy Council Office, January 12, 1905.

The following Statute made by the Governing Body of Saint John's College, Oxford, on the twentieth day of April, one thousand nine hundred and four (and sealed on seventeenth day of December, one thousand nine hundred and four), has been submitted for the approval of His Majesty in Council, and notice of its having been so submitted is published in accordance with the provisions contained in "The Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877":—

Ex parte the President and Fellows of Saint John's College in the University of Oxford.

A STATUTE made to amend a Statute framed by the Commissioners appointed under the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877 (40 and 41 Vict., c. 48), in relation to Saint John's College, in the University of Oxford, duly passed at a General Meeting of the Governing Body of the said College, specially summoned for this purpose on the twentieth day of April, one thousand nine hundred and four, by the votes of the whole number of persons present and voting, and submitted to His Majesty the King in Council.

Whereas in Statute III, 12, of the Statutes of the said College it is enacted:—"Every Fellow elected to an Official Fellowship, not being then married, shall vacate his Fellowship by marriage, if such marriage shall take place within seven years from the day of his election. Every Official Fellow shall reside in rooms in the College during the usual College Terms, unless the President and Fellows at a Stated General Meeting shall have given him leave to reside elsewhere; and there shall always be at least four unmarried Official Fellows resident in rooms in the College during the usual College terms. So long as that number is complete, an Official Fellow vacating his Fellowship by marriage shall not be incapable of being elected to fill the vacancy so created, if the College should desire to retain his services as a Tutor, Lecturer, or Principal Bursar.

And whereas it appears to us, the President and Fellows of the said College, that it is desirable that the said Statute shall be altered and amended in manner hereinafter appearing.

Now we, the President and Fellows of the said College, in exercise of the powers vested in us under and by virtue of the 54th section of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, do, by this present instrument under our seal, alter and amend Statute III, 12, of the Statutes of the said College, as hereinbefore set out, in manner following, that is to say:—By omitting the whole of Clause 12 in Statute III, and by substituting for it the following clause:—

12.—(a) Every Official Fellow shall reside in rooms in the College during the usual College Terms, unless the President and Fellows at a Stated General Meeting shall have given him leave to reside elsewhere; and there shall always be at least four unmarried Official Fellows resident in rooms in the College during the usual College Terms, of whom two at least shall be Tutors of the College.

(b) Every Fellow elected to an Official Fellowship, not being then married, shall vacate both his office and his Fellowship by marriage, unless an application by him for leave to retain his Fellowship after marriage shall, previously to such marriage, have been granted by the President and Fellows at either a Stated General Meeting or a Meeting held in Full Term, of which at least thirty days' notice shall have been given. Provided always that no application for leave to retain his Fellowship after marriage shall be entertained by the President and Fellows unless the Fellow applying shall have served as an Officer of the College for at least seven years.

(c) An Official Fellow, who shall have vacated his office and Fellowship by marriage, may be re-appointed to his office in the College and receive one hundred pounds per annum out of the corporate revenues in lieu of his Fellowship; Provided always that his marriage shall not have reduced the number of unmarried Official Fellows below the number required by this Statute.

(d) Nothing in this Statute shall be so construed as to prevent the College from electing a person who is already married to an Official Fellowship, if the College should think fit.

Given under our Common Seal this seventeenth day of December, one thousand nine hundred and four.

Privy Council Office, January 12, 1905.

The following Statute made by the Governing Body of Saint John's College, Oxford, on the twelfth day of October, one thousand nine hundred and four (and sealed on seventeenth day of December, one thousand nine hundred and four), has been submitted for the approval of His Majesty in Council, and notice of its having been so submitted is published in accordance with the provisions contained in "The Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877":—

Ex parte the President and Fellows of Saint John's College in the University of Oxford.

A STATUTE made to amend certain Statutes framed by the Commissioners appointed under the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877 (40 and 41 Victoria, chapter 48), in relation to Saint John's College in the University of Oxford, duly passed at a General Meeting of the Governing Body of the said College specially summoned for this purpose on the twelfth day of October, one thousand nine hundred and four, by the votes of the whole number of persons present and voting and submitted to His Majesty the King in Council.

Whereas in Statute III, 1, of the said Statutes it is enacted (inter alia):—"The number of Fellowships exclusive of Fellowships held ex officio by the Professors of Arabic and of Mechanics and Civil Engineering shall not be less than fourteen nor greater than eighteen." And in Statute III, 9, "Every Ordinary Fellow (not elected under Clause 13 of this Statute) who shall be instituted to an ecclesiastical benefice or shall become entitled either by descent or devolution, or by virtue of any testamentary or other gift or settlement to property, or to any government pension, or be admitted to any office tenable for life or during good behaviour (not being an academical office within the University of Oxford), or to any office in the Permanent Civil Service of the State, and who shall retain such benefice, property, pension, or office for twelve calendar months from the day of his institution, accession, or admission thereto, shall, if the net annual value of such ecclesiastical benefice clear of deductions (except for property or income tax) shall exceed five hundred pounds, or shall exceed three hundred pounds if the benefice be in the gift of the College, or if the net annual income derivable by him from such property, pension, or office, or from any two or more of the above-mentioned sources (including or not including an ecclesiastical benefice) clear of deductions except as aforesaid, shall exceed five hundred pounds, vacate his Fellowship at the expiration of such twelve calendar months, or in the case of a benefice in the gift of the College at the expiration of eighteen calendar months from the avoidance thereof; and for this purpose the income which the estimated value of any property would produce; if invested in three pounds per centum Consolidated Annuities at the price current at the time of the acquisition thereof, shall, in case of doubt, be considered to be the income derivable from such property. The word 'property' shall in this clause include any estate or interest in possession in any property real or personal. In any case in which the property or sources of income may have been acquired at several times, the latest time at which any part of such property or any of such sources of income shall have been acquired, shall, in construing this clause, be considered as the time of the acquisition of the whole thereof. Except as aforesaid no Fellow shall be disqualified for retaining his Fellowship by reason of his having become possessed of any property or income or been instituted to any benefice."

And whereas in Statute V, 9, it is enacted inter alia):—"The Merchant Taylors' Scholarships, when vacant shall be filled up at Merchant Taylors' School or at such other convenient place as the President of the College and the Master of the Company of Merchant Taylors shall appoint on the eleventh day of June in each year, or in case that day shall be Sunday, on the day following by the election of boys educated in the said School for the two years at least last preceding, who have not exceeded the age of nineteen years. The Electors shall be the Master Wardens and Assistants of the Worshipful Company of Merchant Taylors, the President or Vice-President of the College, and two Fellows of the College to be annually appointed by the President and Fellows for that purpose."

And whereas in Statute XV, 4, it is enacted:—"If and so long as any pensioner shall hold any office in this or any other College any Professorship or Public Readership, any office tenable for life or during good behaviour, any office in the Permanent Civil Service of the State, or any ecclesiastical benefice, his pension shall not exceed such amount as with the net income derivable from all those sources will make up the sum of one thousand pounds per annum, and that no pension shall be tenable with a benefice in the patronage of the College exceeding in value three hundred pounds per annum."

And whereas it appears to us, the President and Fellows of the said College, that it is desirable that the said Statutes shall be altered and amended in manner hereinafter appearing.

Now, we, the President and Fellows of the said College in exercise of the powers vested in us under and by virtue of the fifty-fourth section of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, do by this present instrument under our seal, alter and amend the Statutes of the said College as hereinbefore set out in manner following, that is to say:—

In Statute III, 1, by inserting after the words "Civil Engineering," the words "or retained under the provisions of Statute XV, Clause 4."

In Statute III, 9, by adding at the end of the clause the words "This clause shall not apply to the holder of a Fellowship retained under the provisions of Statute XV, Clause 4."

In Statute V, 9, by omitting the words "or, in case that day shall be Sunday, on the day following," and by inserting after the words "who have not exceeded the age of nineteen years," the words "on the eleventh day of June in the current year." Provided always that whenever the eleventh day of June shall fall on Sunday, or on a day appointed to be observed as a Bank Holiday or public holiday, the election shall be held on such day in that year (not being earlier than the sixth day of June or later than the eighteenth day of June) as the said President and Master shall from time to time fix."

In Statute XV, by omitting the whole of Clause 4 and by substituting for it the following clauses:—

"4. Any Official Fellow who retires from service after having served the College for not less than twenty-five years may, at the discretion of the President and Fellows, to be exercised at any time after the expiration of such twenty-five years, and on one year's notice either receive the pension corresponding to his term of service, or be permitted to retain a Fellowship during his life with an additional stipend not exceeding one hundred pounds a year payable out of the Pension Fund.

"5. If and so long as any Pensioner or holder of a Fellowship retained under the preceding clause shall hold any office in this or any other College any Professorship or Public Readership, any office tenable for life or during good behaviour, any office in the Permanent Civil Service of the State, or any ecclesiastical benefice, his pension or the emolument of his Fellowship, as the case may be, shall not exceed such amount as with the net income derivable from all those sources will make up the sum of one thousand pounds per annum, and no pension or Fellowship so retained shall be tenable with a benefice in the patronage of the College exceeding in value three hundred pounds per annum.

"In this clause the word 'emolument' shall include the additional stipend payable out of the Pension Fund."

Given under our Common Seal this seventeenth day of December, one thousand nine hundred and four.
