The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Urban District Council of Beaconsfield, in the county of Buckingham, have, under the provisions of the Burial Act, 1857, presented a petition to His Majesty in Council stating that the district of the said Urban District Council is co-extensive with the district for which it is proposed to provide a burial ground, that no Burial Board has been appointed for such district, and that an Order in Council was passed on the seventh day of October, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-nine, directing the discontinuance of burials in the Parish Church of Beaconsfield and in the old part of the churchyard, and in the Congregational Chapel and chapelyard at Beaconsfield, and praying that His Majesty would be pleased to order that the said Urban District Council should be a Burial Board for the said district.

Privy Council Office, January 12, 1905.

The following Statute made by the Governing Body of Saint John's College, Oxford, on the twentieth day of April, one thousand nine hundred and four (and sealed on seventeenth day of December, one thousand nine hundred and four), has been submitted for the approval of His Majesty in Council, and notice of its having been so submitted is published in accordance with the provisions contained in "The Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877":—

Ex parte the President and Fellows of Saint John's College in the University of Oxford.

A STATUTE made to amend a Statute framed by the Commissioners appointed under the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877 (40 and 41 Vict., c. 48), in relation to Saint John's College, in the University of Oxford, duly passed at a General Meeting of the Governing Body of the said College, specially summoned for this purpose on the twentieth day of April, one thousand nine hundred and four, by the votes of the whole number of persons present and voting, and submitted to His Majesty the King in Council.

Whereas in Statute III, 12, of the Statutes of the said College it is enacted:—"Every Fellow elected to an Official Fellowship, not being then married, shall vacate his Fellowship by marriage, if such marriage shall take place within seven years from the day of his election. Every Official Fellow shall reside in rooms in the College during the usual College Terms, unless the President and Fellows at a Stated General Meeting shall have given him leave to reside elsewhere; and there shall always be at least four unmarried Official Fellows resident in rooms in the College during the usual College terms. So long as that number is complete, an Official Fellow vacating his Fellowship by marriage shall not be incapable of being elected to fill the vacancy so created, if the College should desire to retain his services as a Tutor, Lecturer, or Principal Bursar.

And whereas it appears to us, the President and Fellows of the said College, that it is desirable that the said Statute shall be altered and amended in manner hereinafter appearing.

Now we, the President and Fellows of the said College, in exercise of the powers vested in us under and by virtue of the 54th section of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, do, by this present instrument under our seal, alter and amend Statute III, 12, of the Statutes of the said College, as hereinbefore set out, in manner following, that is to say:—By omitting the whole of Clause 12 in Statute III, and by substituting for it the following clause:—

12.—(a) Every Official Fellow shall reside in rooms in the College during the usual College Terms, unless the President and Fellows at a Stated General Meeting shall have given him leave to reside elsewhere; and there shall always be at least four unmarried Official Fellows resident in rooms in the College during the usual College Terms, of whom two at least shall be Tutors of the College.
