

said College as hereinbefore set out in manner following, that is to say:—

In Statute III, 1, by inserting after the words "Civil Engineering," the words "or retained under the provisions of Statute XV, Clause 4."

In Statute III, 9, by adding at the end of the clause the words "This clause shall not apply to the holder of a Fellowship retained under the provisions of Statute XV, Clause 4."

In Statute V, 9, by omitting the words "or, in case that day shall be Sunday, on the day following," and by inserting after the words "who have not exceeded the age of nineteen years," the words "on the eleventh day of June in the current year." Provided always that whenever the eleventh day of June shall fall on Sunday, or on a day appointed to be observed as a Bank Holiday or public holiday, the election shall be held on such day in that year (not being earlier than the sixth day of June or later than the eighteenth day of June) as the said President and Master shall from time to time fix."

In Statute XV, by omitting the whole of Clause 4 and by substituting for it the following clauses:—

"4. Any Official Fellow who retires from service after having served the College for not less than twenty-five years may, at the discretion of the President and Fellows, to be exercised at any time after the expiration of such twenty-five years, and on one year's notice either receive the pension corresponding to his term of service, or be permitted to retain a Fellowship during his life with an additional stipend not exceeding one hundred pounds a year payable out of the Pension Fund.

"5. If and so long as any Pensioner or holder of a Fellowship retained under the preceding clause shall hold any office in this or any other College any Professorship or Public Readership, any office tenable for life or during good behaviour, any office in the Permanent Civil Service of the State, or any ecclesiastical benefice, his pension or the emolument of his Fellowship, as the case may be, shall not exceed such amount as with the net income derivable from all those sources will make up the sum of one thousand pounds per annum, and no pension or Fellowship so retained shall be tenable with a benefice in the patronage of the College exceeding in value three hundred pounds per annum.

"In this clause the word 'emolument' shall include the additional stipend payable out of the Pension Fund."

Given under our Common Seal this seventeenth day of December, one thousand nine hundred and four.

Privy Council Office, January 12, 1905.

The following Statute, made on the seventh day of December, one thousand nine hundred and four, by the Governing Body of Christ Church, Oxford, has been submitted for the approval of His Majesty in Council, and notice of its having been so submitted is published in accordance with the provisions contained in "The Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877":—

Christ Church, Oxford.

A Statute for the Cathedral or House of Christ Church in Oxford, concerning Westminster Scholarships within the House. Clause 3 as altered by the Governing Body on the seventh day of December, one thousand nine hundred and four, by the addition and alteration of the words in italics.

Clause 3.

These Scholarships shall be tenable for two years from the twenty-fifth day of July next following the day of election, and shall then determine, unless the Governing Body of the House shall by resolution have declared themselves satisfied with the industry and good conduct of the Scholar, in which case the Scholar's tenure shall be renewed for a further term of three years. Provided that any Scholar who shall marry or be elected to a Studentship or to a place on the foundation of any other Collegiate Body within the University, or who shall without permission from the Governing Body previously accorded in writing cease to read for Honours, shall thereby vacate his Scholarship. Provided also, that nothing in this clause shall prevent the exercise at any time for sufficient cause of the power given by the Statutes of the House in force for the time being to the Governing Body of the House to deprive a Scholar of his Scholarship for any misconduct which in their judgment shall merit deprivation, subject to such appeal to the Visitor as is in the same Statutes provided, nor of that of inflicting any fines or penalties less than deprivation under any Bylaw of the House for the time being in force.
