The following Address was handed to His Majesty by the Mayor of Bury St. Edmunds on Saturday, the 17th December last, on the occasion of Their Majesties' visit to the Borough en route for London:—

To His Majesty King Edward VII and Her Majesty Queen Alexandra.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

We, Your Majesty's loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Ancient Borough of Bury St. Edmunds, gladly seize the opportunity of expressing to Your Majesty our loyalty and devotion to Your House and Person, and our satisfaction is much increased by the fact that Your Majesty is accompanied by Her Majesty the Queen.

In the centuries which have passed English Monarchs frequently sojourned in this Town, and it will always be a proud memory to our Burgesses that at the High in Saint Edmunds Abbey were laid the foundations of our civil rights.

Time has worked many changes since that historic date, and we are pleased in welcoming Your Majesty to recognize in Your Royal Person a free Sovereign ruling a free people.

We earnestly pray Your Majesty may in the Providence of God be spared for many years to reign over a prosperous, happy, and contented nation.

Given under the Common Seal of the Council this seventeenth day of December, one thousand nine hundred and four:

"We therefore humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

Privy Council Office, February 10, 1905.

The following Statute made by the Governing Body of Saint John's College, Oxford, on the twentieth day of January, one thousand nine hundred and five (and sealed on fourth day of February, one thousand nine hundred and five), has been submitted for the approval of His Majesty in Council, and notice of its having been so submitted is published in accordance with the provisions contained in "The Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877":—

Ex parte the President and Fellows of Saint John's College in the University of Oxford.

A STATUTE made to amend certain Statutes framed by the Commissioners appointed under the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877 (40 and 41 Vict., c. 48), in relation to Saint John's College, in the University of Oxford, duly passed at a General Meeting of the Governing Body of the said College, specially summoned for this purpose on the twentieth day of January, one thousand nine hundred and five, by the votes of the whole number of persons present and voting, and submitted to His Majesty the King in Council.

Whereas in Statute XVI, Clause 2, of the Statutes of the said College it is enacted:—"So soon as the amount of the corporate revenues of the College will permit, after satisfying the several charges and payments imposed or authorized by these Statutes including the augmentation of the number of Open Scholarships to twelve, the said corporate revenues shall be further charged with the payment of an annual sum of five hundred pounds, to be increased, when and as the corporate revenues will permit, to eight hundred and fifty pounds, for or towards the maintenance of a Professorship of Mechanics and Civil Engineering within the University: Provided that, if at the time when the said annual sum becomes available the said Professorship shall have been established and endowed from other sources (not being payments from the University Chest), the same sum shall be paid to the University, and shall be applied to such other purposes connected with the Professoriate, or otherwise with the advancement of learning, science, and research within the University, as the University, with the consent of the College, may determine.

"The Professor of Mechanics and Civil Engineering, when appointed and when the annual sum of five hundred pounds provided for his endowment has become payable by the College, shall become a Fellow of the College on the same terms as the Laudian Professor.

"This Professorship shall not, after the full endowment of eight hundred and fifty pounds per annum shall have been provided for it by the College, be tenable with a Headship or Fellowship with emolument in any other College."

And whereas in Statute III, Clause 1, it is enacted (inter alia) "The number of Fellowships exclusive of Fellowships held ex officio by the Professors of Arabic and of Mechanics and Civil Engineering shall not be less than fourteen nor greater than eighteen." And in Clause 16, "No Fellowship, other than the Fellowships annexed to the Professorship of Arabic and to that of Mechanics and Civil Engineering, shall be tenable with a Headship or Fellowship in any other College within the University (except a Fellowship without emolument)."

And whereas it appears to us, the President and Fellows of the said College, that it is desirable that the said Statutes shall be altered and amended in manner hereinafter appearing.

Now we, the President and Fellows of the said College, in exercise of the powers vested in us under and by virtue of the 54th section of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, do, by this present instrument under our seal, alter and amend the Statutes of the said College as hereinbefore set out, in manner following, that is to say:—

In Statute XVI, by omitting the whole of Clause 2 and by substituting for it the following clause:—

"In the year 1908, and in every succeeding year, the President and Fellows shall contribute the sum of six hundred pounds towards the emoluments of the Sibthorpe Professor of Rural Economy, or if they shall elect the said Professor to an ordinary Fellowship in the College, then so long as the Professor shall be a Fellow of the College, they shall contribute four hundred pounds a year to the emoluments of the Professor, in addition to the emoluments of his Fellowship.

"So soon as the amount of the corporate revenues of the College will permit, after satisfying the several charges and payments imposed or authorized by these Statutes, including the augmentation of the number of Open Scholarships to twelve, the said corporate revenues shall be further charged with the payment of an annual sum of two hundred and fifty pounds, which shall be paid to the University, and shall be applied to such purposes connected with the Professoriate, or otherwise with the advancement of learning, science, and research within the University as the University with the consent of the College may determine."

In Statute III, Clause 1, by substituting for the words "Professors of Arabic and of Mechanics and Civil Engineering" the words "the Professor of Arabic and the Sibthorpean Professor" and in Clause 16 by substituting for the words "Mechanics and Civil Engineering" the words "the Sibthorpean Professor."

Given under our Common Seal this fourth day of February, one thousand nine hundred and five.

An enquiry whether Thomas Kerfoot, named in the will of the said Sarah Kerfoot, is living or dead, and, if dead, when he died and whether he left a widow, and if so whether she is living or dead, and, if dead, when she died, and also whether the said Thomas Kerfoot had any and what children, and if so whether such children are living or dead, and whether such of the said children as are dead lived to attain the age of 21 years, or being daughters were married, and when and to whom and who are the legal personal representatives of any such children as have died after having attained the age of 21 years, or after marriage if daughters.
