

State will take such representation into consideration, and any person who may desire to object to the abolition of the Fair should intimate his objections to the Secretary of State before that day.

Home Office, Whitehall, February 24, 1905.

MARTOCK FAIR.

ALTERATION OF DATE.

(36 and 37 Vict., cap. 37, and 56 and 57 Vict., cap. 73.)

Whereas a representation has been duly made to me, as Secretary of State for the Home Department, by the Yeovil Rural District Council, that a Fair has been annually held at Martock, in the county of Somerset, on the 21st August (if falling on a Sunday, the preceding Monday), and that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the said Fair should in future be held on the Tuesday nearest the 21st August in each year:

And whereas notice of the said representation and of the time when I should take the same into consideration has been duly published in pursuance of "The Fairs Act, 1873":

And whereas on such representation and consideration it appears to me that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the said Fair should in future be held on the Tuesday nearest the 21st August in each year:

And whereas Walter Leach, Esq., as lord or owner of the said Fair and the tolls thereof, has consented in writing that the said Fair should in future be held on the Tuesday nearest the 21st August in each year:

Now therefore I, as the Secretary of State for the Home Department, in exercise of the powers vested in me by "The Fairs Act, 1873," do hereby order that the Fair which has been annually held on the 21st August (if falling on a Sunday, the preceding Monday) shall in future be held on the Tuesday nearest the 21st August in each year.

Given under my hand at Whitehall, this 27th day of February, 1905.
