DORMANT FUNDS IN COURT.

SUPREME COURT PAY OFFICE,
ROYAL COURTS OF JUSTICE,
LONDON,

March 1, 1905.

Funds.—The Supreme Court Funds Rules, 1894, provide that :—

“On or before the 1st day of March in every third year the Paymaster shall prepare, in such form and with such particulars as the Treasury may from time to time direct, a list or statement of the accounts in the books of the Pay Office to the credit of which there stood on the 1st day of September then next preceding, any funds not less than £50, which have not been dealt with, otherwise than by the continuous investment or placing on deposit of dividends, during the 15 years immediately preceding the last-mentioned date.” (Rule 101.)

In pursuance of the above Rule, the following Alphabetical List of Accounts in the several Divisions of the High Court, which have not been dealt with since 1st September, 1889, is published in the London Gazette for general information, together with an Index of Names, and cross-references to the sub-titles of the several accounts.

This is the only authorized List of dormant or unclaimed Funds in Court.*

Amount.—The aggregate amount of these funds is less than £1,000,000, distributed over more than 3,300 separate accounts. One-half do not exceed £150 in value, and only about one-twentieth exceed £1,000.

* Copies of the List can be inspected, without fee, in the Eastern corridor, ground floor, at the Royal Courts of Justice, or may be purchased from the publishers, Messrs. T. and J. W. Harrison, 19, May's-buildings, St. Martin's-lane, London, W.C., at the price of One Shilling each. Applications to the publishers for copies to be sent abroad must enclose 4d. to cover postage, in addition to the cost of the Gazette.

Information.—A person desiring information as to the origin of a fund in Court may in most cases obtain it by inspecting the Orders, &c., of the Court quoted in the List (see Note below). If he finds reason to believe that he may be interested in a particular fund he may apply, in writing only, to THE ASSISTANT PAYMASTER-GENERAL, ROYAL COURTS OF JUSTICE, LONDON, who, at his discretion, may supply information as to—

(a.) The amount of the Fund.

(b.) The date of any Order of Court known to relate to it, other than that stated in the List.

This is usually the only information which can be furnished, as the Supreme Court Pay Office is solely a financial Department, and has no record of the origin or details of the various suits, or of the circumstances under which the funds have been directed or allowed to remain in Court.

Application.—Each application for information must quote the correct title of the matter or suit, and must be signed by the applicant.

If the application be made by a person who is not a Solicitor, he must state the grounds upon which he claims to be beneficially interested in the fund. The mere fact that he bears the same surname as that of a person named in an account is not sufficient. Probates of Wills or baptismal or other certificates should not accompany an application.

If the application be made by a Solicitor he must state the name and address of the client by whom he is instructed, and that he believes him to be beneficially interested in the fund.

Stamps.—Each application must be stamped with a 2s. 6d. adhesive Judicature Stamp. Such Stamps can be obtained at the Royal Courts of Justice (Room 2); at the District Registries of the High Court; and at all Head Post Offices in England.

Payment for Stamps on applications from abroad may be made by Money Order payable to "The Commissioners of Inland Revenue."

Foreign coin or postage stamps must not be sent.

Orders of Court.—Funds in Court can only be paid out, or otherwise dealt with, under the direction of an Order of Court. If a Fund cannot be dealt with under any Order quoted in the List, or under any other existing Order, application to the Court for further directions will be necessary, in accordance with the ordinary forms of legal procedure. In many cases the Funds have remained in Court for more than a century, and proof of title might involve expense quite out of proportion to the amount recoverable. No legal advice can be given at the Supreme Court Pay Office as to the steps necessary to be taken in any particular case; nor can advice be given as to the selection of a Solicitor.

Caution.—The lists of "next-of-kin," "heirs to unclaimed money," &c., issued by various persons, are not official publications, and sometimes contain gross misstatements and exaggerations.

The public are also cautioned against relying upon the statements of persons styling themselves "unclaimed money agents," at home or abroad, and professing to be able to recover money in Chancery on payment of fees or percentage, or to act on behalf of the "Court of Chancery." The Supreme Court of Judicature has no such agents.

It is recommended that independent advice should be obtained before making a payment to any agency for information, searches, copies of advertisements, &c., in respect to money alleged to be in Court. Experience has shown that the information so supplied is often valueless to the persons concerned.

NOTE.—The Orders, Reports, Certificates, and Affidavits, referred to in the List are kept, if prior to 1881, at the Public Record Office, Chancery Lane, London, where they can be inspected on personal application and on payment of the prescribed search fees. Copies may be obtained on application to the Secretary, if the date of the document and the title of the cause be given, but it must be understood that no search can be undertaken by the officials of the Public Record Office. The Orders, &c., from 1881 to the present time are kept at the Filing and Record Department of the Central Office, Royal Courts of Justice (Room 81).

Enquiries respecting Wills, Probates, and Letters of Administration may be made at the Principal Probate Registry, Somerset House, London.

Records of Births, Marriages, and Deaths, since 1st July, 1837, are kept at the General Register Office, Somerset House, London.

All the above can be inspected during official hours, or copies obtained, on payment of the prescribed Fees.

Application to inspect Orders in Lunacy should be made to the Masters in Lunacy, Room 213, Royal Courts of Justice.
