

chapelry) of Saint Laurence, Catford, in the county of Kent, and in the diocese of Rochester.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Andrew, Catford, situate as aforesaid.

"Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Edward Stuart, Bishop of the said diocese of Rochester (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said new parish of Saint Laurence, Catford, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Andrew, Catford, situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Andrew, Catford.'

"And with the like consent of the said Edward Stuart, Bishop of the said diocese of Rochester (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church of Saint Andrew, Catford, situate as aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always that so long as the Reverend William John Salt, Clerk in Holy Orders, the present Vicar or Incumbent of the vicarage of the said new parish of Saint Laurence Catford shall continue to be such Vicar or Incumbent, all the fees which may be received in respect of such publication, solemnization or performance at the said church of Saint Andrew, Catford, situate as aforesaid shall be paid over by the minister thereof to the said William John Salt; and provided also that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us the said Commissioners to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Andrew, Catford, being:—

"All that part of the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Saint Laurence, Catford, in the county of Kent, and in the diocese of Rochester, which is bounded upon the south partly by that isolated portion of the parish of Lewisham which includes Southend and partly by the district chapelry of Saint Augustine, Grove Park, Lee, upon the north-east by the new parish of Saint Mildred, Burnt Ash Hill, Lee, upon the north by the new parish of Saint Swithun, Hither Green, Lewisham, all in the said county and diocese, and upon the remaining side, that is to say, upon the west, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Swithun, Hither Green, Lewisham, from the said new parish of Saint Laurence, Catford, at the junction of Brownhill-road with Saint Fillans-road, and extending thence southward along the middle of Saint Fillans-road for a distance of seventeen chains or thereabouts to its junction with Sandhurst-road, and extending thence eastward along the middle of Sandhurst-road for a distance of five chains or thereabouts to its junction with Muirkirk-road, and extending thence southward along the middle of Muirkirk-road for a distance of thirty-five chains or thereabouts to the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Laurence, Catford, from the said isolated portion of the parish of Lewisham."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council: now, therefore, His Majesty by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Rochester.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 20th day of March, 1905.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five; duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the ninth day of March, in the year one thousand nine hundred and five, in the words and figures following; that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint James, Ealing, situate within the new parish (sometime consolidated chapelry) of Saint John, Ealing Dean, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said new parish of Saint John, Ealing Dean, and of the parish of Hanwell, in the said county and diocese, which said extremities lie contiguous one to another and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such new parish and parish.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that certain contiguous portions (being the portions containing the population aforesaid) of the said new parish of Saint John, Ealing Dean, and of the said parish of Hanwell, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical
