NOTICES TO MARINERS.

(Nos. 316 to 329 of the year 1905.)

[The bearings are magnetic, and those concerning the visibility of lights are given from seaward.]

No. 316.—MEDITERRANEAN—ALGERIA.

Bougie—Harbour Works in Progress.

Information, dated 3rd April, 1905, has been received from the French Government that a new jetty is in course of construction at Bougie; it extends from the shore immediately under the south-eastern extremity of the Kasba Wall in a S. 25° E. direction to a position situated at a distance of $3\frac{3}{10}$ cables S. 71° W. from the green light on Abd el Kader Jetty, and from thence in a N. 74° E. direction to a position one cable S. 65° W. from the green light.

Two light buoys, painted red, exhibiting red fixed lights, have been moored at distances of $3\frac{1}{2}$ cables S. 70° W. and $1\frac{1}{2}$ cables S. 64° W., respectively, from the green light, to mark these works; the north-eastern buoy will presumably be moved outwards as the works progress.

Vessels entering the port must do so between the north-eastern light buoy and the green light, and on no account between the two light buoys. The head of Abd el Kader Jetty extends about four-tenths of a cable outside the green light.

Approximate position, green light, lat. 36° 45' N., long. 5° 52' E.

¶Dämnan Shoal—Fog Signal Altered.

With reference to Notice to Mariners No. 317 of 1904:—

The Swedish Government has published a supplement to the Swedish Light List, dated 1st February, 1905, in which it is stated that the fog horn at Dämnan Shoal Lighthouse, has been replaced by a mechanical trumpet, which will, during thick or foggy weather, give three blasts in quick succession every minute, the duration of each blast being six seconds.

Approximate position, lat. 57° 32' N., long. 16° 40½' E.

This Notice affects the following Admiralty Charts:—Kalmar Sound and Öland Island, No. 2251; Plan of Vällö Channel on Chart No. 2377. Also, List of Lights, Part III, 1905, No. 1300; and Baltic Pilot, Part II, 1904, page 89.

No. 318.—CANADA, PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND—NORTH COAST.

Cape Tryon—Light Established.

The Government of the Dominion of Canada has given notice, dated 21st March, 1905, that on the opening of navigation a white fixed dioptric light, elevated 106 feet above high water, and visible in clear weather from a distance of 16 miles, will be established in a rectangular wooden structure, painted white, and surmounted by a red lantern, erected on the extremity of Cape Tryon, the height of the building being 37 feet. The light is temporarily of the 7th order.

Approximate position, lat. 46° 32½' N., long. 63° 30½' W.

This Notice affects the following Admiralty Charts:—Nova Scotia, &c., No. 1651; Northumberland Strait, No. 2034. Also, List of Lights, Part VIII, 1905, page 25; and St. Lawrence Pilot, Vol. II, 1895, page 189.

No. 319.—SOUTH AMERICA—RIO DE LA PLATA.

Buenos Aires Dredged Channels—Colours of Beacons, Buoys, and Lights.

With reference to Notice to Mariners No. 368 of 1901:—

Information, dated 16th March, 1905, has been received from His Britannic Majesty's Consul that the beacons and buoys on the northern or starboard hand when entering the dredged channels to Buenos Aires are now coloured red, and those on the southern or port hand black. The beacons and buoys which are lighted exhibit red lights on the northern side, and green lights on the southern side of these channels.

Approximate position, Northern Pier Head, North Basin, lat. 34° 36' S., long. 58° 22' W.

This Notice affects the following Admiralty Chart:—Buenos Aires, No. 2526. Also, South America Pilot, Part I, 1902, pages 292, 293.

No. 320.—CENTRAL AMERICA, WEST COAST—SAN SALVADOR.

¶Acajutla—Light Discontinued.

The United States Government has given notice, dated 25th March, 1905, that information has been received that the white fixed light, formerly exhibited from the pier at Acajutla, has been discontinued.

Approximate position, lat. 13° 34½' N., long. 89° 50½' W.

This Notice affects the following Admiralty Charts:—Elena Bay to San José, No. 1049; Acajutla Anchorage, No. 1927. Also, List of Lights, Part VII, 1905, No. 254; Sailing Directions for the West Coasts of Central America, &c., 1896, page 91; and Supplement, 1901, page 18.

No. 321.—SPAIN—SOUTH-EAST COAST.

Vinaroz Light—Character Altered.

The Spanish Government has given notice that, on 16th April, 1905, the character of the light on the eastern mole head at Vinaroz would be altered from white fixed to a white group occulting light, showing groups of two eclipses about every ten seconds, thus:—light, five and a quarter seconds; eclipse, one and a half seconds; light, one and three quarter seconds; eclipse, one and a half seconds. It would be elevated 37 feet above the sea, and visible in clear weather from a distance of 10 miles, and shown from an iron column, about 30 feet high, painted grey, erected on a masonry base.

Approximate position, lat. $40^{\circ} 27\frac{3}{4}'$ N., long. $0^{\circ} 28\frac{1}{2}'$ E.

Mariners are warned that the exact times of the period of this light as given above may vary, but that groups of two occultations will always be maintained as its principal characteristic.

This Notice affects the following Admiralty Charts:—Mediterranean, No. 2158a; Alicante to Palamos, No. 1187; Cape San Antonio to Cape Tortosa, No. 1320. Also, List of Lights, Part V, 1905, No. 78; and Mediterranean Pilot, Vol. I, 1904, page 177.

No. 322.—AFRICA, NORTH COAST—ALGERIA.

LONDON COUNTY COUNCIL (TRAMWAYS).

[Petition for Additional Provision.]

(Power to London County Council to lay Temporary Rails in Streets in which Tramways are being Reconstructed; Exemption from certain Provisions of Tramways Act, 1870; Application of other Provisions of that Act.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application will be made to Parliament by Petition for Additional Provision for leave to introduce into the Bill now pending in Parliament, under the title of the "London County Council (Tramways) Bill," promoted by the London County Council (hereinafter called "the Council"), provision for the following purposes:—

To empower the Council and their contractors, officers, and servants to lay, maintain, and use upon the surface of any part of the roadway of any street in which a tramway of the Council is in course of adaptation or reconstruction for working by electrical or other mechanical traction an additional line or additional lines of rails for the purpose of maintaining the service of tram-cars in such street during such adaptation or reconstruction.

To provide that such additional rails may be raised above the surface of the roadway, and to render inapplicable to such rails such of the provisions of the Tramways Act, 1870, as would be inconsistent with such laying, maintenance, and use, and to apply to such rails all or some of the other provisions of the said Act.

Printed copies of the proposed Additional Provision may be obtained at the offices of the undersigned.

Dated this 19th day of April, 1905.

1905. B. No. 043.

In the Matter of the BIRMINGHAM EXCHANGE
BUILDINGS COMPANY Limited, and in the Matter of the Companies (Memorandum of Association) Act, 1890.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a petition was, on the 29th day of March, 1905, presented to His Majesty's High Court of Justice by the above named Company, to confirm a Special Resolution of the Company passed at an Extraordinary General Meeting of the said Company, held on the 13th day of February, 1905, and subsequently confirmed at an Extraordinary General Meeting of the said Company, held on the 3rd day of March, 1905, and which resolution runs as follows:—"That the provisions of the Memorandum of Association of the Company with regard to the Company's objects be altered by omitting therefrom the words 'and for letting the buildings so erected on lease or otherwise,' and by adding thereto the words following (that is to say):—(b) To purchase, take on lease or license, or in exchange, or otherwise acquire any other freehold or leasehold land, buildings, and property in New-street or Stephenson-place aforesaid or elsewhere in the city of Birmingham, or any interest therein, and any easements, rights, or privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient with reference to any of the objects of the Company. (c) To manage, develop, and turn to account any lands, buildings, or property for the time being belonging to the Company, or in which the Company is interested, and in particular by laying out and preparing the same for building purposes, and by constructing, erecting, pulling down, altering, maintaining, fitting up, and improving any houses, manufactories, warehouses, offices, public rooms, or other buildings. (d) To sell, lease, let, exchange, or otherwise deal with and dispose of any land, buildings, hereditaments, or property, or any easement, right, or privilege of the Company, or in which the Company is interested, for any estate, term, or interest whatsoever, and upon such terms and conditions as may be agreed upon. (e) To lend money from time to time either upon or without mortgage or other security at such rates of interest and generally on such terms and conditions and in such manner as may be deemed expedient, and in particular to lend money to builders and other persons having dealings with the Company, for the purpose of enabling or assisting them to erect buildings on land leased or agreed to be leased to them by the Company or the like, and to guarantee the performance of contracts by any such persons. (f) To purchase or otherwise acquire the business or property of any person, firm, association, or company carrying on or (in the case of a company) formed to carry on any business which this Company is authorised to carry on or possessed of property suitable to the purposes of this Company, and as the consideration for the same to pay cash or to issue any shares, stocks, or obligations of this Company, and in connection with any such transaction to undertake any liabilities relating to the business or property acquired. (g) To borrow or raise money or to secure the payment of money and the interest thereon in such manner and on such terms as may seem expedient, and for such purposes to mortgage or charge all, or any part of the property and undertaking of the Company (inclusive of unpaid calls and uncalled capital), and to issue at par or at a premium or discount, mortgage or other debentures or debenture stock, or other securities, payable either to bearer or otherwise, and either redeemable or irredeemable, and to redeem and contract to redeem any such securities either at par or at a premium, and to set aside and provide a fund or funds for redemption thereof. (h) To establish, regulate, and discontinue any agencies for promoting the purposes of the Company, and to act as agents for others. (i) To sell, dispose of, or otherwise turn to account or make any arrangements for the development, working or disposal of, or otherwise deal with the whole or any part of the property of the Company, or any part thereof, or any share or interest therein, and to make and carry into effect any arrangements for amalgamation or for carrying on business together, or in connection with any other Company, Corporation, or person, or for working any other undertaking of a nature or character similar to that of the Company, and on any such sale, disposition or arrangement, to accept payment in whole, or in part, in shares (fully or partly paid up), bonds, debentures, debenture stock, or other securities of any Company in the United Kingdom or elsewhere. (j) To promote, or join, or assist in promoting any Company or undertaking for the purpose of acquiring all, or any part of the property or rights of this Company, or in which this Company is interested, or for any other purpose which may seem directly or indirectly calculated to benefit this Company, and to pay the costs, charges and expenses, preliminary or incidental to the formation, establishment, registration and advertising of any such Company. (k) To acquire or hold shares in, or become members of, any Company incorporated by Special Act of Parliament, or under the Companies Acts, and carrying on, whether in the United Kingdom, or abroad, any trade or business of a nature or character similar to any trade or business which this Company is authorised to carry on, and to acquire shares in, or become members of, any Company or Association for insuring the property of the Company against claims and liabilities arising out of injuries suffered by persons in its service. (l) To draw, make, accept, endorse and discount bills of exchange, and other negotiable or transferable instruments or securities. (m) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of any of the above objects." And notice is further given that the said petition is directed to be heard before the Honourable Mr. Justice Kekewich, on Tuesday, the 16th day of May, 1905, and any person interested in the said Company, whether as creditor, shareholder, or otherwise desiring to oppose the making of an Order for the confirmation or the said resolution, under the above Act, should appear at the time of hearing, by himself or his counsel, for the purpose, and a copy of the said petition will be furnished to any such person requiring the same by the undersigned Solicitors, Messrs. The LAW REVERSIONARY INTEREST SOCIETY Limited.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a General Meeting of the holders of the debenture stock of the above named Society, constituted by trust deed dated the 16th August, 1893, made between the Society of the one part, and Edward James Bevir, John Clerk, and Charles Hoare, as Trustees, of the other part, will be held at the offices of the Society, 24, Lincoln's-inn-fields, London, W.C., on Wednesday, the 3rd day of May, 1905, at 3.30 o'clock in the afternoon, for the purpose of considering, and, if thought fit, passing a resolution sanctioning and assenting to certain proposed modifications of the provisions contained in the said trust deed (which modifications are provided for by a draft supplemental deed which will be produced to the meeting), and to such modifications of the rights of the stockholders against the Society or its property as are expressed to be effected by the said supplemental deed (the said modifications having been proposed by the Society and being recommended by the Trustees of the said deed), and for the purpose of considering, and, if thought fit, passing a resolution authorising and directing the Trustees of the said trust deed to execute a supplemental deed in the terms of the said draft, and declaring that the said supplemental deed shall be binding upon all the holders of the stock, and that such holders shall be bound to give effect thereto accordingly. A copy of the draft supplemental deed may be inspected at the Society's offices at any time previously to the Meeting, during the usual hours of business. The principal object of the modifications to be effected by the supplemental deed is to comply with the requirements of the London Stock Exchange, with a view to obtaining an official quotation for the stock. Provision is also to be made for enabling stockholders to vote by proxy at Meetings of stockholders held under the provisions of the trust deed. This notice is issued pursuant to the provisions contained in the 3rd schedule to the said trust deed.—Dated this 19th day of April, 1905.
