Re JOHN COWELL BARTLEY.

WHEREAS by an Order of the High Court of Justice, Chancery Division, dated the 21st day of November, 1904, made by the Honourable Mr. Justice Warrington, in an action entitled "In the Matter of the estate of John Cowell Bartley, deceased, EVANS v. BARTLEY, 1904 B. No. 4267," an enquiry was directed as to who were the persons entitled by virtue of, and according to, the Statute of Distribution, or otherwise, to the personal estate of the intestate John Cowell Bartley, living at the time of his death (namely, on the 25th day of September, 1904), and whether any of them are since dead, and, if so, who are their legal personal representatives. Notice is hereby given, that any person claiming to be entitled, as one of the next-of-kin of the said John Cowell Bartley, or as the legal personal representative of any such next-of-kin, who has died since the 25th day of September, 1904, are, by their Solicitors, on or before Tuesday, the 30th day of May, 1905, to come in and prove their claims at the chambers of Mr. Justice Warrington, Room No. 252, at the Royal Courts of Justice, London, England, or in default thereof he or his representative will be peremptorily excluded from the benefit of the distribution of the said estate. Wednesday, the 7th day of June, 1905, at 11 o'clock, at the said chambers, is appointed for hearing and adjudicating upon the claims.

NOTE.—The intestate John Cowell Bartley for many years prior to his death resided at 14, Warwick House-street, Charing Cross, in the county of London, England. He was the son of John Metge Bartley and Jane Bartley, deceased, formerly of St. Helier, in the Island of Jersey. The said John Metge Bartley was it is believed a son of George Bartley and Christinna Metge, his wife, both of whom it is believed died in Ireland many years since. Alexander Fisher Bartley a half-brother of the intestate, is believed to have married once only to Rennell, and predeceased the intestate (on the 9th September, 1900) without issue him surviving. William Bartley, an uncle of the deceased, is believed to have married once only, and to have predeceased the intestate, leaving a daughter him surviving, who it is believed also predeceased the intestate. Christinna Bartley, an aunt of the deceased, is believed to have married once only to John Barry, and predeceased the intestate. It is believed that there was issue of the marriage of the said Christinna Bartley with John Barry four children only, namely, Joyce Foster Barry, who predeceased the intestate (on the 22nd September, 1900), and three others, all of whom it is believed predeceased the intestate. Jessey Bartley, an aunt of the deceased, died it is believed in 1876 without having been married. Walter Tyler Bartley, a son of George Bartley, an uncle of the intestate, and Catherine Frere, his wife, is believed to have predeceased the intestate.—Dated this 17th day of April, 1905.
