II. Sections VIII, IX, XI, and XII of the Order in Council dated the twentieth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and three, shall be and are hereby revoked, without prejudice to anything lawfully done thereunder, and in place thereof the five following sections of this Order (III, IV, V, VI, and VII) shall be substituted and take effect.

III.—(1.) The High Commissioner and Governor, with the approval of a Secretary of State, shall have power to appoint from time to time from among the members of the Council a Treasurer of the Council, who shall hold office for one year from the date of his appointment.

(2.) The Treasurer shall be responsible for the collection and custody of the revenues of the Council and for the proper expenditure thereof, and shall keep an account of such revenues and expenditure. No payment shall be made out of the said revenues except upon a warrant signed by two members of the Council, one of whom shall be the High Commissioner and Governor.

(3.) The Council shall draw up and approve regulations for the control and audit of such revenues and expenditure.

IV. The following shall be the revenues of the Council, and shall be paid to the Treasurer of the Council by the persons severally responsible for the collection thereof:—

(a) The gross receipts of the Central South African Railways, including any receipts from land or other fixed property vested in the High Commissioner and Governor under Section I of this Order.

(b) Any other receipts from railways which may become payable to the Council under any agreement made in accordance with the provisions of the Order in Council dated the twelfth day of January one thousand nine hundred and five, or otherwise.

(c) The interest on any unexpended portion of the Transvaal Guaranteed Loan of one thousand nine hundred and three which may for the time being be in the custody of the Treasurer of the Council under the provisions of Section VII of this Order.

(d) Any contributions which the Transvaal and Orange River Colony may from time to time make towards meeting the expenditure of the Council in accordance with the provisions of Section VI of this Order.

(e) Any other revenues which may from time to time with the consent of a Secretary of State become payable to the Council.

V.—(1.) At the Ordinary Annual Meeting of the Council the Treasurer shall submit to the Council for its approval estimates of the revenue and expenditure of the Council for the ensuing financial year.

(2.) The estimates of revenue shall include all the revenues of the Council specified in heads (a), (b), (c), and (e) of Section IV of this Order.

(3.) The estimates of expenditure shall include:—

(a) The payments on account of interest and sinking fund on the Transvaal Guaranteed Loan of one thousand nine hundred and three, as provided in Section X of the Order in Council, dated the twentieth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and three.

(b) The estimated expenditure of working, administration and maintenance of the Central South African Railways, including a proper allowance for depreciation, and any other necessary expenditure in connection with the said railways or with the improvement and extension of the same, which may have been approved by the Railway Committee.

(c) The estimated expenditure of the South African Constabulary.

(d) The estimated expenditure on any other public services common to the Transvaal and Orange River Colony over which authority has been or may be given to the Council in accordance with the provisions of the above recited Orders in Council or of this Order.

(e) Any other expenditure which the Council is or may at any time be authorized to incur.

(4.) The estimates of expenditure, when finally approved by the Council and by a Secretary of State, shall have the same force and effect as an Appropriation Ordinance, that is to say, they shall be authority to the several administrations concerned to expend the sums provided in the said estimates for the purposes for which they are severally granted during the ensuing financial year; and the Council shall by warrant as provided in Section III, Sub-section (2), of this Order issue to the several Administrations concerned the sums which they may from time to time require for such purposes.

(5.) If the estimates approved by the Council appear in the course of the financial year to be insufficient, the High Commissioner and Governor may summon an Extraordinary Meeting of the Council to consider Supplementary estimates. Such estimates, when finally approved by the Council and by a Secretary of State, shall have the same force and effect as the original estimates.

Supplementary estimates may also be introduced at the Ordinary Annual Meeting.

VI.—(1.) If in any financial year the revenues payable to the Treasurer of the Council under Heads (a), (b), (c), and (e) of Section IV of this Order are insufficient to meet the expenditure of the Council under any Estimates or Supplementary Estimates approved by the Council and a Secretary of State for such year, the difference shall be made good by contributions from the Treasuries of the Transvaal and Orange River Colony. Such contributions shall be in such proportion as a Secretary of State may direct, or failing such direction, in proportion to the respective revenues from Customs Duties of the said Colonies during the financial year previous to that for which the contributions are required.

(2.) As soon as the Estimates of the Revenue and Expenditure of the Council for any financial year, as specified in Sections IV and V of this Order, have been approved by the Council and a Secretary of State, the High Commissioner and Governor shall inform the Lieutenant-Governors of the Transvaal and Orange River Colony of the amount of the contributions, if any, towards the expenditure of the Council, estimated to be required from each of those Colonies respectively during the said financial year. Such contributions shall, subject to the provisions of Section X of the Order in Council dated the twentieth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and three, and Section 2 of the Transvaal Guaranteed Loan Ordinance of one thousand nine hundred and three, be a charge on the revenues of the said Colonies, and shall be paid by the Treasurers of the Transvaal and Orange River Colony to the Treasurer of the Council at such times and in such sums as may be necessary to enable the Council to meet its current expenditure, and, in case of doubt, as may be directed by the High Commissioner and Governor. No legislative or other authority shall be required to empower the Treasurers of the Transvaal and Orange River Colony to make the aforesaid payments, and the receipt of the Treasurer of the Council shall be a full and sufficient discharge to them for the same.

(3.) If the contributions so estimated fall short of the amount actually required to balance the revenue and expenditure of the Council for the financial year, the difference, as soon as it is accurately ascertained, shall be paid by the Treasurers of the Transvaal and Orange River Colony to the Treasurer of the Council in such proportions as the contributions originally estimated.

(4.) If, when the accounts of the Council for any financial year are finally closed, it shall appear that the contributions made by the Transvaal and Orange River Colony towards the expenditure of the Council exceed the sum requisite to balance the revenue and expenditure of the Council for such year, the excess shall be repaid by the Treasurer of the Council to the Treasurers of the Transvaal and Orange River Colony in proportion to the amount of their respective contributions.

VII.—(1.) In addition to the duties imposed on him by Section III of this Order, the Treasurer of the Council shall be responsible for the custody of any portion of the loan authorized by the Transvaal Guaranteed Loan Ordinance of one thousand nine hundred and three which has been or may be transferred to the Council by the Lieutenant-Governor of the Transvaal for the purposes specified in the Schedule to the said Ordinance.

(2.) No payment shall be made from any loan funds which may be in the custody of the Treasurer of the Council under the provisions of this Section, except upon a warrant signed by two members of the Council, one of whom shall be the High Commissioner and Governor. Such funds shall also be subject, with regard to control and audit, to the regulations to be drawn up by the Council under the provisions of Section III, Sub-section 3 of this Order.

VIII.—(1.) The Office of Commissioner of Railways shall be abolished, and any duties which under any Order in Council or Ordinance are specially assigned to that officer, shall in future be discharged by the Chairman of the Railway Committee hereinafter referred to. Subject to the foregoing provision, the Council shall continue to be constituted as provided in Section I of the Order in Council dated the twenty-first day of April, one thousand nine hundred and four.

(2.) The High Commissioner and Governor, with the approval of a Secretary of State, shall from time to time appoint one of the members of the Council to be Chairman of the Railway Committee, who shall hold office for one year from the date of his appointment.

(3.) The Railway Committee shall consist of a Chairman appointed as aforesaid, the Treasurer of the Council, and seven members, to be elected annually by the Council at its Ordinary Annual Meeting, of whom not less than three shall be representatives of the Orange River Colony. Three members of the Committee, of whom one shall be a representative of the Orange River Colony, shall form a quorum.

(4.) Until the next Ordinary Annual Meeting of the Council, the Railway Committee shall continue as at present constituted, with a Chairman to be appointed by the High Commissioner, and with the addition of the Treasurer of the Council when appointed.

(5.) In case of any vacancy arising in the Railway Committee owing to the death or resignation of any member, or to his ceasing to be a member of the Council, or from any other cause, it shall be competent to the Committee, with the approval of the High Commissioner, to elect another member of the Council, to fill such vacancy, provided that the member of the Council so elected shall be a representative of the same Colony as the member whose place he is elected to fill.

(6.) In addition to the duties devolving upon it under the above recited Orders in Council, the Railway Committee shall exercise such powers in the control and administration of the Central South African Railways as may be conferred upon it by regulations to be framed and approved by the Council.

IX. In addition to the sections hereinbefore expressly revoked, any provisions of the above-recited Orders in Council which may be in conflict with the provisions of this Order, shall be and are hereby repealed, but without prejudice to anything lawfully done thereunder.

X. This Order may be cited as "The Inter-Colonial Council South Africa Order in Council (No. 2) 1905," and shall be read and construed as one with the Orders in Council hereinbefore recited dated respectively the twentieth May, one thousand nine hundred and three, the twenty-first April, one thousand nine hundred and four, and the twelfth January, one thousand nine hundred and five, and the said Orders in Council may, together with this Order, be cited collectively as "The Inter-Colonial Council South Africa Orders in Council 1903 to 1905."

XI. His Majesty may at any time alter, add to, or amend the provisions of this Order.

XII. This Order shall come into operation forthwith.

XIII. Judicial notice shall be taken of this Order and of the commencement thereof.

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting under the provisions of the Act of the seventh and eighth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria chapter ninety-four of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Her said late Majesty chapter ninety-four and of the Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her said late Majesty chapter ninety-four have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme or representation for altering the boundaries of the new parish of Saint Luke, Wallsend, in the county of Northumberland and in the diocese of Newcastle.

"Whereas by the authority of an Order of Her said late Majesty in Council bearing date the twelfth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven, and published in the London Gazette upon the fifteenth day of the same month, a part of the parish of Wallsend in the said county of Northumberland and diocese of Newcastle was assigned as a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Luke situate in the said parish, and the said district chapelry was named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Luke, Wallsend.'

"And whereas the said district chapelry of Saint Luke, Wallsend, has under the provisions of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty chapter one hundred and four become a new parish of the character contemplated by that Act, by the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her said late Majesty chapter thirty-seven and by the above-mentioned Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her said late Majesty chapter ninety-four.

"And whereas it has been represented to us and it appears to us to be expedient that the boundaries of the said new parish of Saint Luke, Wallsend, shall be altered in the manner which is hereinafter mentioned.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend Arthur Thomas Bishop of the said diocese of Newcastle (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme or representation) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent recommend and propose that from and after the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme or representation and without any assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the boundaries of the said new parish of Saint Luke, Wallsend, shall be altered so that all that portion of the said parish of Wallsend which is described in the schedule hereunder written and is delineated and set forth upon the map or plan hereunto annexed and is thereon coloured pink shall be dissevered from such parish and shall be annexed to and shall in future form part of the said new parish of Saint Luke, Wallsend.

"And we further represent recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from representing recommending or proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Acts or of any of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme or Representation has reference.

"The territory to be annexed to the new parish of Saint Luke, Wallsend, in the county of Northumberland and in the diocese of Newcastle, being:—

"All that portion of the parish of Wallsend, in the said county and diocese, which is bounded upon the south by the middle of the River Tyne, upon the south-west by the said new parish of Saint Luke, Wallsend, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the north-west and upon the north-east, by an imaginary line commencing at the centre of the bridge which connects Swan-street with the roadway which leads to the house known as High Farm where the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Luke, Wallsend, from the said parish of Wallsend crosses the middle of Wallsend Burn, and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the said Burn for a distance of four chains and a half or thereabouts to the point where the middle of the said Burn enters the recreation ground known as Wallsend Public Park, and extending thence south-eastward and in a straight line for a distance of thirteen chains and a half or thereabouts (thereby crossing the said recreation ground) to the point where North-road is joined by Park-road, and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of Park-road for a distance of thirty-two chains or thereabouts (thereby passing under the Newcastle, Tyne-mouth and Newcastle Branch Line of the North-Eastern Railway) to the junction of Park-road with Hadrian-road, and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of Hadrian-road for a distance of one chain or thereabouts to the point where it is joined by the roadway leading over the level crossing at the western end of the passenger platform of Carville Railway Station and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the said roadway for a distance of one chain and a half or thereabouts to the centre of the said level crossing and extending thence south-eastward and in a straight line for a distance of nineteen chains or thereabouts to the north-eastern end of the landing stage known as Swan and Hunter's Jetty and continuing thence in precisely the same direction and in a straight line to the middle of the River Tyne aforesaid."

And whereas drafts of the said scheme or representation have been transmitted to the patron and to the Incumbents of the cures affected by the arrangements which are contemplated by such scheme or representation and such patron and Incumbents have respectively signified their assent thereto.

And whereas the said scheme or representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council: now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme or representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Newcastle.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 10th day of May, 1905.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the sixth day of April, in the year one thousand nine hundred and five, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria chapter thirty-seven and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty chapter one hundred and four, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes to be taken out of the parish (sometime district under the Parish of Manchester Division Act 1850) of Saint Matthew, Stretford, within the original limits of the parish of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Manchester.

"Whereas we are satisfied that the said parish of Saint Matthew, Stretford, is a parish wherein or in parts whereof the provision for public worship and for pastoral superintendence is insufficient for the spiritual wants of the inhabitants thereof and it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular part of the said parish of Saint Matthew, Stretford, which is hereinafter mentioned and described should be constituted a separate district in the manner which is hereinafter set forth.

"And whereas there is not at present within the limits of the said proposed district any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of Divine worship.

"And whereas we are satisfied that an adequate and permanent maintenance for the support of the minister of the said proposed district and when the said district shall have become a new parish then for the support of the Incumbent thereof will be secured as from the date of the licensing or appointment of such Minister or Incumbent by the payment of a sum of not less than one hundred and fifty pounds which will be annually provided out of the moneys received by us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners under the provisions of the said Parish of Manchester Division Act 1850.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend Edmund Arbutnot Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly recommend and propose that all that part of the said parish of Saint Matthew, Stretford, which is more particularly described in the schedule hereunder written and is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed shall upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes and that the same shall be named 'The District of Saint Peter, Stretford.'

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"The District of Saint Peter, Stretford, being:—

"All that part of the parish (sometime district under the Parish of Manchester Division Act, 1850) of Saint Matthew, Stretford, within the original limits of the parish of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Manchester, which is bounded upon the east by the parish of Saint Hilda, Old Trafford, upon the north and upon the north-west by the district of Saint Cuthbert, Old Trafford, upon the south-west and upon the south by the parish of All Saints, Stretford, all in the said county and diocese, and upon the remaining side, that is to say, upon the south-east, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish of All Saints, Stretford, from the said parish of Saint Matthew, Stretford, at the point where the middle of the line of the Manchester South Junction and Altrincham Railway crosses the middle of Longford Brook, and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the said line of railway for a distance of forty-seven chains or thereabouts, to a point opposite to the middle of Warwick-road, upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Saint Matthew, Stretford, from the said parish of Saint Hilda, Old Trafford."

And whereas drafts of the said scheme have, in accordance with the provisions of the firstly hereinbefore mentioned Act, been transmitted to the patrons and to the Incumbent of the parish out of which it is intended that the district recommended in such scheme to be constituted shall be taken, and such patrons and Incumbent have respectively signified their assent to such scheme.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council: now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Manchester.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 10th day of May, 1905.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five; duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-third day of February, in the year one thousand nine hundred and five, in the words and figures following; that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Bartholomew, Nottingham, situate within the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Saint Ann, Nottingham, in the county of Nottingham, and in the diocese of Southwell.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said new parish of Saint Ann, Nottingham, and of the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Saint Matthias, Snenton, which said extremities lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such new parishes.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that certain contiguous portions (being the portions containing the population aforesaid) of the said new parish of Saint Ann, Nottingham, and of the said new parish of Saint Matthias, Snenton, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Bartholomew, Nottingham, situate as aforesaid.

And whereas an Order in Council was made on the thirteenth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, directing the discontinuance of burials in, amongst other places, the burial ground of the Cathedral of Winchester:
