ELING FAIR.

The Secretary of State for the Home Department hereby gives notice that by Memorial dated the 1st June, 1905, a representation has been duly made to him by the Rural District Council of New Forest that a Fair has been annually held at Eling, in the county of Southampton, on the 5th and 6th days of July, and that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that such Fair should be abolished. On the 5th day of July, 1905, the Secretary of State will take such representation into consideration, and any person who may desire to object to the abolition of the Fair should intimate his objections to the Secretary of State before that day.
