PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five; duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the eighth day of June, in the year one thousand nine hundred and five, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter seventy; of the Act of the four-teenth and fitteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty chapter fifty-five, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated Church of the Ascension, Plumstead, situate within the parish of Plumstead, in the county of Kent, and in the diocese of Southwark.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said parish of Plumstead, and of the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Saint Nicholas, Plumstead, in the said county and diocese, which said extremities lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such parish and new parish.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that certain contiguous portions (being the portions containing the population aforesaid) of the said parish of Plumstead, and of the said new parish of Saint Nicholas, Plumstead, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said Church of the Ascension, Plumstead, situate as aforesaid.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend Edward Stuart, Bishop of Southwark, as diocesan, with the consent of Arthur William Irwin, of Prospect, Newtownmountkennedy, Ireland, Esquire, as the patron of the vicarage of the said purish of Plumstead, and with the consent of the Reverend Hugh Lambert Ogle, Vicar or Incumbent of the said vicarage of Plumstead, as the patron (in right of his vicarage) of the vicarage of the said new parish of Saint Nicholas, Plumstead (in testimony whereof, they the said consenting parties have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly represent that it would in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parish of Plumstead, and of the said new parish of Saint Nicholas, Plumstead, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said Church of the Ascension, Plumstead, situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of the Ascension, Plumstead.'

"We therefore humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration and to make such order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of the Ascension, Plumstead, comprising:—

"All those contiguous portions of the parish of Plumstead, and of the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Saint Nicholas, Plumstead, both in the county of Kent, and in the diocese of Rochester, which are comprised within and are bounded by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Nicholas, Plumstead, from the consolidated chapelry of Saint Mark, Plumstead, in the said county and diocese, at the junction of Lakedale-road with the road called King's Highway and with the road called The Slade, and extending thence south-westward along the middle of The Slade (thereby following the last-mentioned boundary) for a distance of thirteen chains or thereabouts to its junction with Garland-street, where the last-mentioned boundary meets the · boundary which divides the said consolidated chapelry of Saint Mark, Plumstead, from the said parish of Plumstead, and extending thence south-westward along the middle of Garlandstreet (thereby following in part the last-mentioned boundary) for a distance of one furlong or thereabouts to its south-western end, and extending thence south-westward and in a straight line for a distance of a quarter of a mile or thereabouts to the south-eastern corner of Little High Grove Wood, and extending thence southeastward and in a straight line for a distance of twenty-eight chains and a half or thereabouts to the northern corner of the house and premises known as Rose Cottage, and continuing thence in precisely the same direction as before and in a straight line for a distance of eight chains or thereabouts to the boundary which divides the said parish of Plumstead from the parish of East Wickham, in the said county and diocese, and extending thence first eastward, then northward and then north-eastward along the last-mentioned boundary (thereby following in part the middle of Blind-lane) for a distance of twentynine chains or thereabouts to the point where such boundary meets the boundary which divides the said parish of Plumstead from the said new parish of Saint Nicholas, Plumstead, and extending thence north-westward along the last-mentioned boundary (thereby following the middle of Blind-lane) for a distance of seventeen chains or thereabouts to a point opposite to the south-western end of the wall forming the northwestern boundary of the Woolwich Cemetery, and extending thence north-eastward to and along the said boundary wall for a distance of twenty-one chains or thereabouts to its northeastern end on the south-western side of the road called King's Highway, and extending thence first north-eastward to the middle of King's Highway and then first north-westward and afterwards westward along the middle of King's Highway for a distance of thirty-two chains or thereabouts to its junction with the road which leads across Plumstead Common towards Purrett-road, and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the said road leading across Plumstead Common for a distance of three chains or thereabouts to a point opposite to the south-eastern end of the wall or fence forming the north-eastern boundary of the premises of the Ascension Church Schools, and extending thence north-westward to and along the said wall or fence for a distance of three chains or thereabouts to its north-western end upon the eastern side of Lakedale-road, and extending thence in the same direction and in a straight line for a distance of six yards or thereabouts to the middle of Lakedale-road to the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Nicholas, Plumstead, from the said consolidated chapelry of Saint Mark, Plumstead, and extending thence southward along the lastmentioned boundary (thereby following the middle of the last-named road) to its junction with the roads called King's Highway and The Slade, where the said imaginary line com-menced."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council: now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Southwark.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the eighth day of June, in the year one thousand nine hundred and five, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

words and figures following, that is to say:—
"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria chapter thirty-seven and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty chapter one hundred and four, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your

"Whereas we are satisfied that the said parishes of Christ Church, Bradford, and Saint Cross, Clayton, are parishes wherein or in parts whereof the provision for public worship and for pastoral superintendence is insufficient for the spiritual wants of the inhabitants thereof and it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular portions of the said parishes of Christ Church, Bradford, and Saint Cross, Clayton, which are hereinafter mentioned and described should be constituted a separate district in the manner which is hereinafter set forth.

"And whereas there is not at present within the limits of the said proposed district any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of Divine worship.

"And whereas we are satisfied that an adequate and permanent maintenance for the support of the minister of the said proposed district and when the said district shall have become a new parish then for the support of the Incumbent thereof will be secured as from the date of the licensing or appointment of such Minister or Incumbent by the payment of a sum of not less than one hundred and fifty pounds which will be annually provided out of the moneys received by us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners under the provisions of the said Parish of Manchester Division Act, 1850.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend Edmund Arbuthnott Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly recommend and propose that all those portions of the said parishes of Christ Church, Bradford, and Saint Cross, Clayton, which are more particularly described in the schedule hereunder written and are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed shall upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes and that the same shall be named 'The District of Saint Paul, Bradford, Manchester.'

" And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parlia-

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 11th day of July, 1905.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Burial Act, 1853, as VV amended by the Burial Act, 1900, it was enacted that, in case it appeared to His Majesty in Council, upon the representation of the Local Government Board, that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of the Local Government Board, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial grounds or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it should be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order that no new burial ground should be opened in any city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case might require) that, after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial grounds or places of burial, should be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifica-tions mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time as circumstances might require; provided always, that notice of such representation, and of the time when it should please His Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, should be published in the London Gazette, and should be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation was so considered; provided also that no such representation should be made in relation to the burial ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation should have been given to the Incumbent and vestry clerk or churchwardens of such parish:

And whereas by the Burial Act, 1855, it was, amongst other things, enacted that it should be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, should or should not have arrived), as to His Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, might seem fit:

And whereas the Local Government Board, after giving to the Incumbent and the church-wardens of the parish of All Saints, Terrington, in the North Riding of Yorkshire, ten days' previous notice of their intention to make such representation, made a representation stating that they were of opinion that so much of the Order in Council of the third day of May, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two, as relates to burials in the parish of Terrington, should be varied as hereinafter set forth:

And whereas His Majesty was pleased by His Order in Council of the tenth day of May last to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same should be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the twenty-fourth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and five, and copies thereof have been affixed as required by the said first recited Act:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that so much of the Order in Council of the third day of May, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two, as relates to the said parish be varied by substituting for the directions contained in the said Order with regard to Terrington the following directions, viz.:—

TERRINGTON.—That burials be discontinued forthwith and entirely in the Pa ish Church of All Saints, Terrington, in the North Riding of the county of York; and in the whole of the churchyard, provided that in the churchyard in grave spaces in which no interment has heretofore taken place the burial may be allowed, at or below the depth of five feet from the surface of the ground, of the bodies of the Reverend Samuel Wimbush, Mrs. Rachel Wright and Mrs. Hannah Bickers at their decease.

A. W. FitzRoy.
