Appointments will be offered to not fewer than 10 of the Candidates highest on the list, provided they obtain the necessary aggregate of marks and are duly qualified in other respects.

No person will be admitted to Examination from whom the Secretary of the Civil Service Commission has not received, on or before the 5th October, an application in the Candidate's own handwriting, on a prescribed form, which may be obtained from the Secretary at once.

The notice respecting the above-mentioned Examination which appeared in the London Gazette of the 1st September, 1905, is hereby cancelled.

Civil Service Commission,

September 15, 1905.

The Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice that the following Regulations have been approved by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, viz. :—

REGULATIONS respecting Open Competitive Examinations for Clerkships in the Second Division of the Civil Service.

(To come into force after the Examination of October, 1905.)

N.B.—These Regulations are liable to alteration for future Examinations.

1. Open Competitive Examinations of Candidates for Clerkships in the Second Division of the Civil Service will be held from time to time at such places as may be deemed expedient.

2. These examinations are open, under such general restrictions as may be laid down, to all natural-born or naturalized British subjects, being of the prescribed age and of good health and character. The undermentioned special conditions are at present in force:—

(i.) The following classes of persons are ineligible to compete, viz. :—

Persons actually serving in the Army and Navy.

(ii.) The following classes of persons will not be eligible unless they obtain the permission of the authorities of their department to attend the examination before the commencement of the competition, viz. :—(a) Persons holding situations in the Civil Service, (b) Probationary Engineer Cadets in the Navy, and Apprentices in His Majesty's Dockyards.

(iii.) Persons who have been trained in Training Colleges at the public expense will not be qualified to receive appointments until the consent of the Board of Education in England, the Committee of Council on Education for Scotland, or the Commissioners of National Education, Ireland, as the case may be, given in conformity with rules sanctioned by the Lords of the Treasury, has been notified to the Civil Service Commissioners.

(iv.) In reckoning age for competition the following allowances will be made, viz. :—

(1) Persons who have served in the Army or Navy may deduct from their actual age any time during which they have served;

(2) Members of the Militia, the Imperial Yeomanry, the Honourable Artillery Company, or the Volunteers (whether commissioned or non-commissioned), may deduct from their actual age any time spent on actual military service, such time being reckoned by the number of days for which they received Army pay;

(3) Persons who have served for two full consecutive years, (a) in any Civil situation to which they were admitted with the certificate of the Civil Service Commissioners; or (b) as Registered Boy Clerks or Registered Boy Copyists in connection with the Civil Service, may, if their service commenced before the 20th April, 1900, deduct from their actual age any time not exceeding five years which they may have spent in such service; if their service did not commence before the 20th April, 1900, they may deduct only two years.

3. The limits of age are 17 and 20. Candidates must be of the prescribed age on the first day of the Examination.

4. The subjects of Examination will be as follows:—

1. Handwriting and Orthography, including Copying Manuscript.

2. Arithmetic.

INSTRUMENT substituting the New Church of Saint John the Baptist, situate within the new parish of Saint John the Baptist, Greenhill, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London, for the Old Church of Saint John the Baptist, formerly situate within and having been the Parish Church of the same new parish, but now pulled down.

To all to whom these presents shall come the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England send Greeting.

WHEREAS a new church has lately been built within the new parish of Saint John the Baptist, Greenhill, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London, and has been consecrated and dedicated to Saint John the Baptist.

And whereas the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Arthur Foley, Bishop of the said diocese of London, as Diocesan, and as one of the patrons of the vicarage of the said new parish, and the Venerable Henry Edward James Bevan, Archdeacon of Middlesex, and the Reverend Frederick Wayland Joyce, Vicar of Harrow, in the said county and diocese, Clerk in Holy Orders, as the remaining patrons of the said vicarage of the said new parish of Saint John the Baptist, Greenhill, and the Reverend Thomas Smith, Clerk in Holy Orders, as the Vicar or Incumbent of the same vicarage, have by an Instrument under their hands, bearing date on or about the twenty-second day of July, in the year one thousand nine hundred and five, certified to us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, that it would be for the convenience of the said new parish of Saint John the Baptist, Greenhill, that the said new church of Saint John the Baptist, situate within such new parish, should be substituted for the old parish church (also dedicated to Saint John the Baptist) of the same new parish.

Now, therefore, we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in exercise and execution of the power or authority in that behalf contained in the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter seventy, and in the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, and of all other powers or authorities in anywise enabling us in the same behalf, do by this Instrument, under our common seal, with the consents (testified as hereinafter mentioned) of the said Arthur Foley, Bishop of the said diocese of London, and of the said Henry Edward James Bevan, Frederick Wayland Joyce, and Thomas Smith, hereby declare that the said new church of Saint John the Baptist, situate within the said new parish of Saint John the Baptist, Greenhill, and duly consecrated as aforesaid, shall be and the same is hereby substituted for the said old parish church (dedicated to Saint John the Baptist as aforesaid) of the same new parish, and that such new church shall henceforth be the parish church of the said new parish of Saint John the Baptist, Greenhill, in lieu of the said old parish church of Saint John the Baptist, as fully in all respects as if the said new church of Saint John the Baptist, so hereby substituted, had been originally the parish church of the same new parish; and we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in further pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities aforesaid, and with such consents as aforesaid (testified as hereinafter mentioned), do hereby transfer all the endowments, emoluments, and rights of or belonging to the said old parish church (dedicated to Saint John the Baptist as aforesaid), of the said new parish of Saint John the Baptist, Greenhill, or of or belonging to the Vicar or Incumbent thereof, to the said new church of Saint John the Baptist, now being by virtue of these presents the parish church of the said new parish of Saint John the Baptist, Greenhill, and to the Vicar or Incumbent thereof, and his successors, for ever.

In witness whereof to these presents we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have set our common seal, and the said Arthur Foley, Bishop of the said diocese of London, has set his hand and affixed his episcopal seal, and the said Henry Edward James Bevan, Frederick Wayland Joyce, and Thomas Smith have respectively set their hands and affixed their seals this twenty-seventh day of July, in the year one thousand nine hundred and five.

NOTICES TO MARINERS.

(Nos. 924 to 934 of the year 1905.)

[The bearings are magnetic, and those concerning the visibility of lights are given from seaward.]
No 924.—CANADA, BRITISH COLUMBIA—
VANCOUVER ISLAND.

Victoria Harbour—Fog Signal on Brotchy Ledge Altered.

The Government of the Dominion of Canada has given notice, dated 29th July, 1905, that a fog bell, worked by electricity, has been established on Brotchy Ledge Beacon, which will give during thick or foggy weather one stroke every ten seconds.

The electric fog horn formerly used has been discontinued, but is left in place so that in the event of any accident happening to the bell its use could be temporarily resumed.

Whenever the electricity is shut off for any cause it will be impossible to work either fog signal.

Approximate position, lat. 48° 24' N., long. 123° 23' W.

[Variation 19° Westerly in 1905.]

This Notice affects the following Admiralty Charts:—Haro and Rosario Straits, No. 2689; Juan de Fuca Strait, No. 1911; Haro Strait and Middle Channel, No. 2840; Esquimalt and Victoria Harbour, No. 576; Victoria Harbour, No. 1897b.
