The Board of Trade have received, through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Despatch, dated September 12, from His Majesty's Representative at Christiania, enclosing the following translation of a Circular issued by the Norwegian Authorities laying down certain Regulations against cholera:—

Department of Justice and Police, Christiania, 9th September, 1905.

By Virtue of the Law of the 26th June, 1893, and the Royal Proclamation of the 14th July, 1893, the following Regulations are laid down respecting

Precautions against cholera.

1. Persons arriving in Norway by land or sea from a district abroad infected, or declared to be infected, with cholera, either direct, or indirect through an uninfected district, shall on arrival at their destination in Norway at once report themselves to the Local Board of Health or to the Medical Officer chosen for the purpose. They shall also during the first five days after arrival in Norway report themselves daily to the Board of Health or its Medical Officer at the place where they pass a night or remain over twelve hours. Persons may report themselves direct, or indirectly through the person receiving them as lodgers.

2. All persons receiving travellers as lodgers are bound to report to the Local Board of Health, or its Medical Officer, immediately on the arrival of travellers from a district abroad infected, or declared to be infected, with cholera, and who have not yet been five days within the frontiers of Norway.

3. Masters of vessels arriving at Norwegian ports from abroad, and who come within the provisions of section I of the Quarantine Regulations of the 4th September, 1893, are bound to place before the proper Customs Officials a list of the ship's crew and passengers, stating each person's name, occupation, domicile, and address, and whether such person has stayed at a place infected with cholera (giving both place and time).

4. Before the quarantine flag is allowed to be lowered on a vessel which is not placed in quarantine, the Quarantine Commission, or the inspecting physician, Customs Officer, or Senior Pilot acting for the same, shall fill out a pass for each traveller liable to report himself under the above Regulations. Should any traveller wish to leave the place of landing before the expiry of five days, the person issuing the pass must also report this to the Board of Health at the place where the traveller states his intention of first passing a night or staying longer than twelve hours. A list of persons bound to report themselves and who wish to reside temporarily on shore or leave the vessel shall be sent at once to the Director of the Medical Department, stating the destination of the persons named.

These Regulations shall come into force at once.

Contravention of these Regulations shall be punishable under the common civil penal law, section 357, by fines or imprisonment not exceeding three months, unless otherwise more heavily punishable.

PURSUANT to an Order of the Court of Chancery of the County Palatine of Lancaster, Liverpool District, made in an action, Frederick Turner and Ethel Jefferis (Married Woman), the holders of first mortgage debentures of the DEFENDANT COMPANY v. R. JEFFERIS AND SON Limited, and dated the 12th day of September, 1905, whereby it is (inter alia) ordered that the following accounts and enquiries be taken, that is to say:—1. An enquiry what debentures (if any) have been issued by the Defendant Company and which of them are now outstanding and unpaid, and what are their priorities and who are the holders of or the persons entitled to the benefit of the same respectively. 2. An account of what is due to the holders of or to the persons entitled to the benefit of the said debentures respectively under and by virtue of such debentures. 3. An enquiry what other encumbrances affect the property comprised in or charged by the said debentures, or any and what part thereof and in whom the same are vested, and what are their priorities. 4. An account of what is due to such other incumbrancers respectively. Notice is hereby given to all persons claiming under the said accounts and enquiries that they are required, on or before the 10th day of October, 1905, to produce their debentures and securities, together with the following written particulars, namely:—their names and addresses, particulars of their claims, including the amounts due for principal and interest in respect thereof, the numbers of their debentures and the names and addresses of their Solicitors (if any), to Mr. Louis Nicholas, the Receiver appointed in the said action, at his office, No. 19, Castle-street, in the city of Liverpool, between the hours of 10 A.M. and 4 P.M., and if so required, by notice in writing, such persons are by their Solicitors to come in and prove their claims at such time and place as shall be specified in such notice, or in default thereof they shall be excluded from the benefit of the said judgment. Tuesday, the 17th day of October, 1905, at 11 o'clock in the forenoon, at the chambers of the Registrar, No. 9, Cook-street, in the said city of Liverpool, is the time appointed for adjudicating on the claims.—Dated this 15th day of September, 1905.
