If the vessel be brought into dock the pilot shall also be paid the full rate for port pilotage from limits of harbour to dock.

8. The following rules are for the regulation of disputes among the pilots themselves and shall not interfere with the obligation of any pilot to take charge of any ship upon being required to do so by the master, owner, agent, &c., thereof, under a penalty not exceeding one hundred pounds as provided in sub-section "H" of section six hundred and six of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894:—

(a) The first pilot who arrives off Blacknore Point in his cutter shall be deemed to be the first on turn for any vessel bound from Kingroad to Port Talbot, and having been engaged, his cutter must follow him to Port Talbot.

(b) The first pilot who shall arrive in his cutter inside Newport River Bell Buoy, shall be deemed to be first on turn for any vessel bound to Port Talbot.

(c) The first pilot who shall arrive in his cutter inside a line from Cardiff Corporation Buoy to Penarth Pierhead shall be deemed to be first on turn for any vessel bound from Cardiff to Port Talbot.

(d) The first pilot who shall arrive in his cutter inside Neath Buoy shall be deemed to be first on turn for any vessel bound from Neath or Briton Ferry to Port Talbot.

(e) The first pilot who shall arrive in his cutter inside Swansea Buoy shall be deemed to be first on turn for any vessel bound from Swansea to Port Talbot.

(f) The pilot who first speaks to a Port Talbot bound vessel to the westward of Fort Talbot and eastward of Lundy, shall be entitled to the prior right of piloting that vessel into port provided he gives his number to the vessel and follows her up and arrives alongside the vessel before the docking signal is up; or in the event of her receiving orders, or being able to dock early on tide, provided he arrives alongside in time.

(g) Should he speak to the vessel so far away that it will be impossible for him to be up in his cutter in time to dock, he shall be at liberty to follow up the vessel, provided he does so in the most expeditious way possible. Should he fail to arrive in time to take the vessel into dock, he shall still have the prior right to take the vessel out, provided that he gives due notice of his claim (with proof to do so) to the clerk.

(h) When a pilot is following a vessel in accordance with the preceding rule, he shall not board any other vessel for the purpose of piloting her unless his services are demanded by signal within the limits of his licence, in which case he must give up the vessel of which he is in charge to the first pilot who may speak to him. The channel pilotage payable by such vessel to be proportionately divided between the two pilots proportionately to the distance piloted by each, the first pilot retaining his prior right to the outward pilotage of the vessel which he is following up.

(i) Should any vessel bound to Port Talbot and brought from the westward or followed up by a Port Talbot pilot receive orders to proceed to some other port and thence to Port Talbot, the pilot who brought her or followed her up shall be entitled to the prior right of piloting that vessel into Port Talbot, provided he notifies the clerk of his intention to do so, and his services are required.

9. No pilot shall be entitled to more than one inward bound vessel from the time he leaves the Port Talbot Pierhead until he rejoins his cutter within the limits of the Port Talbot Harbour (this provision shall not prevent any pilot taking charge of a ship with signals flying for a pilot), except under the following conditions:—

Should a pilot after boarding a vessel to the westward desire to send his cutter into any harbour situate within the Bristol Channel he shall not leave that harbour to go seeking for another vessel until such time shall have elapsed after his departure from Port Talbot and arrival on board his cutter as is herein-after provided.

Any harbour lying between a line drawn from the Mumbles Head through the Scarweather Lightship to the Nash Lights, and a line drawn from Worms Head to Ilfracombe, twelve hours.

Any harbour situated between westward of a line drawn from Worms Head to Ilfracombe, and eastward of Lundy Island, eighteen hours.

No pilot shall join his cutter outside the limits of his licence for the purpose of seeking employment.

10. No pilot shall tow his cutter with a vessel further than the distance for which he shall have been engaged to pilot such vessel, neither shall he join his cutter beyond the limits for which he is engaged, except under conditions laid down in Rule 9. Pilot cutters leaving Port Talbot to go seeking shall not under any circumstances be towed further than the Port Talbot Bell Buoy, and at the same time shall not be towed past another Port Talbot cutter, not in tow, going seeking. No pilot shall join his cutter in the open channel under any circumstances, unless on leaving a vessel of which he has been a bonâ fide pilot (this does not apply to a cutter within the Mumbles limit).

11. Any pilot missing his cutter when down channel may return to port by any means available, but he must not while so returning board any vessel for the purpose of piloting her, unless such vessel has the usual signal flying for a pilot within pilotage waters.

12. Should a pilot desire to work in any cutter other than his own, written application to do so must be sent to the clerk, and the permission of the Board obtained, but the Board shall have full power to grant or withhold such permission.

13. Should any pilot be absent when a vessel for which he has been engaged is ready to come into dock the pilot who docks her will be entitled to the inward pilotage. Such pilot shall also be entitled to the prior right of piloting such vessel outwards.

14. Any pilot who in the opinion of the Board has wilfully forestalled another pilot of his turn or prior right as defined by the foregoing Rules, shall for the first offence be fined a sum not exceeding five pounds, and for the second or subsequent offence, a sum not exceeding ten pounds, or be liable to suspension or to the loss of his licence at the discretion of the Board.

15. The pilots are permitted to collect their own pilotage rates, or they may be collected by a person who may be appointed for the purpose by the Board; and every pilot is required to make a monthly return to the Board of the pilotage earned by him, whether in piloting vessels to or from Port Talbot or elsewhere, the name and tonnage of the vessels piloted, where belonging, where from, and where bound, the cargo and the distance piloted; paying over at the same time to the persons appointed by the Board to receive it, a poundage of one shilling in the pound, for the creation of a fund under sub-section eight of section five hundred and eighty-two of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, or such other sum of not more than one shilling in the pound as shall from time to time be fixed by the Board, on the amount earned. The pilot shall also state in such return all cases where vessels bound to or from Port Talbot have been piloted over any and what portion of the district by a pilot not licensed by the Board. Any pilot failing to make a proper return, or making a false return shall be liable to a penalty of not exceeding ten pounds and to the loss of his licence.

16. Any master or mate of a vessel who holds a certificate under the Board to enable him to pilot his vessel within any portion of the district under the jurisdiction of the Board, shall, for every time he may navigate his vessel within the waters of the district over which he is licensed pay into the Port Talbot Pilotage Fund a sum not exceeding five per cent. of the amount of pilotage which the vessel of which he is in charge would have paid had the services of a licensed pilot been engaged; and every such master or mate shall, within a month of the thirtieth June and thirty-first December in each year, make a return to the Clerk of the Board of such services rendered by him during the previous six months (but such payment shall not entitle any such master or mate to participation in any of the benefits of the said Fund) under a penalty of not exceeding five pounds for every breach thereof.

17. If a master of a ship navigating within the limits of the Port Talbot Pilotage Board, as defined by section thirty-one of the Port Talbot Railway and Docks Act, 1899, knowingly employs or continues to employ an unqualified pilot after a qualified pilot has offered to take charge of the ship, or has made a signal for that purpose, he shall, for each offence, be liable to a fine of double the amount of pilotage which could be demanded for the conduct of the ship.

18. The master of every ship carrying passengers between any place in the British Isles and any other place so situate, shall, while navigating within the limits of this district, employ a qualified pilot, unless he or the mate of his ship holds a certificate for this district, and if he fails to do so, shall for each offence be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred pounds, but pilotage shall not be compulsory in any other case.

19. Each pilot shall provide himself with a good and efficient cutter or pilot boat, which shall be approved and registered by the Board, he paying two shillings and sixpence for such register. And such cutter or boat shall be kept in good repair, and be subject to periodical examinations by the Board; and there shall be one indentured apprentice to each pilot, articulated to serve his apprenticeship as a Port Talbot pilot. Two but not more than three pilots may, by permission of the Board, sail in the same boat and act in conjunction.

20. Every candidate for apprenticeship, before he can be considered eligible for the pilot service, shall produce satisfactory testimonials as to character, a surgeon's certificate that he is of sound health, and a Board of Trade certificate as to colour blindness; he shall prove to the satisfaction of the Board that he is not less than fourteen, nor more than eighteen years of age, and that he is able to read and write correctly, and that he has a competent knowledge of arithmetic. Having complied with these requirements, he may, after a month's probation, if approved by the Board, be apprenticed to a pilot for five years.

21. The indenture of apprenticeship, which shall be in a form approved by the Board, shall be signed by the pilot and the apprentice, and then be registered at the Pilotage Office.

The Board shall have full power to enquire into the conduct of the pilots towards their apprentices, and vice versa, and to investigate all complaints made by pilots against their apprentices and also by apprentices against pilots, whether they be masters to such apprentices or not, and into the general conduct of apprentices. And the Board shall have full power to make such orders or inflict fines in reference thereto and also to direct any Apprenticeship Indenture to be cancelled upon such terms and conditions as shall be determined, 22. The pilot to whom any apprentice is serving shall endorse on the back of every Indenture, a statement of time lost by the apprentice, and of pecuniary losses which have been incurred by the pilot, by reason of the negligence or want of attention of the apprentice, and such statement shall be initialled by the pilot and the apprentice on the respective dates when such losses shall be charged against the apprentice.

23. At the completion of the five years' apprenticeship the pilot shall appear before the Board with the apprentice and his indenture, and the Board shall thereupon decide as to the amount of time or money (if any) to be made good by the apprentice, before his indenture shall be surrendered to him, and such decision shall be finally binding on all parties. Whenever an apprentice shall for the first time appear before the Board or their Examining Committee for examination for a licence to act as pilot, his indenture of apprenticeship and all necessary papers required by these Bye-laws shall be submitted to the inspection of the Board.

24. A rota shall be prepared by the Clerk of the Board of the pilots and their cutters on turn for duty, so that there shall at all times, both day and night, be at least one cutter and its pilots under weigh and stationed within the port limits guarding the port. Any pilot who shall neglect to get and keep his cutter under weigh and on station duly guarding the port upon any day or night upon which it was his turn to keep guard, shall for the first offence pay a sum according to the judgment of the Board, not exceeding ten pounds; and for the second or subsequent offence pay the sum of ten pounds, or lose his licence. Provided always that any pilot may, with the consent of the Clerk, provide by arrangement some other duly licensed cutter and pilot as a substitute.

25. Each pilot's cutter or boat shall have on her stern the name of her owner and the port to which she belongs, painted in white letters at least one inch broad and three inches long, and on each bow the number of her licence, and shall have the letters P.T. marked in black paint of not less than three feet six inches in length painted on her foresail or mainsail, and shall by day carry at her mast head a flag of not less than six feet by four feet in two colours—the upper horizontal half white and the lower part red; and at night each pilot's cutter or boat shall carry a white light only at the mast head and shall exhibit a flare-up light or flare-up lights at short intervals which shall never exceed fifteen minutes. Every pilot shall immediately on boarding any vessel and taking charge thereof hoist a flag in some conspicuous place and keep the same flying during the time he so remains in charge; the flag to be the regular pilot flag, red and white with the colours horizontal. In case of default in any of the above requirements, the pilot to be liable to a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds for every breach thereof.

26. If any vessel whilst in charge of a pilot, does or receives damage, he shall immediately report such damage done or received to the Clerk of the Board on the form adopted by the Board under a penalty not exceeding ten pounds, and such report shall be read to the Board at their next meeting. The circumstances of the accident shall be investigated by the Board, if deemed necessary, and the Board may, if they see fit, require the licence of the pilot to be given up to the Board, until the case has been disposed of, and the pilot shall forfeit his prior right to the outward pilotage.

27. Any captain, master, or agent of any ship or vessel bound to sea, who may make application at the office of the Board for a pilot, shall give the ship's draught of water and registered tonnage with such other information as may be required; and upon payment of the pilotage fees shall have a pilot named and appointed to take charge of his ship or vessel, preference in all cases to be given to the pilot who piloted her inwards, such application to be made during office hours, and at least twelve hours before the pilot shall be wanted. Any pilot attending after being ordered, and the captain declining to go to sea (except the weather be such as to prevent his going) shall receive the sum of ten shillings for each attendance.

28. Any pilot who shall refuse or neglect to proceed to either of the pilot stations in the channel fixed by the Board when ordered to do so by the Clerk unless prevented by illness or the loss of his boat, or who shall be guilty of drunkenness or of insolent or abusive language, or unwarrantable conduct towards any member of the Board or the Clerk or other officers of the Board, or the captain, master, owner, or agent of any ship or vessel for which he may be engaged shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding ten pounds for the first offence, and for the second or any subsequent offence to the like penalty or the loss of his licence.

29. Any pilot who may absent himself from duty, or go overland to take charge of any ship or vessel or seek employment otherwise than in his own boat, without the written consent of the Clerk shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding ten pounds.

30. Should any owner or captain apply for a pilot to be sent for the purpose of bringing a vessel to Port Talbot, such application must be made to the Pilotage Office, and a pilot will be sent according to the rotation of the printed pilotage list. Should the pilot first on turn be absent, then the pilot next on turn shall be sent. The absent pilot to lose his turn.

31. Each pilot shall strictly conform to the directions of the harbour or dock master, touching the mooring or unmooring, placing or removing of any ship or vessel which such pilot may have under his charge, so long as such vessel shall be within the limits of the authority of any such harbour or dock master.

32. For every original licence which shall be granted, there shall be paid to the Board the sum of twenty-one shillings, and for every renewal thereof, the sum of ten shillings and sixpence. The licences of the pilots shall be renewable annually at the Board's first meeting in January.

33. Any pilot having charge of a vessel inward bound, shall not be released from his duties or responsibilities until such vessel is securely moored in the dock or basin as directed by the dockmaster; but if in charge of a vessel bound to a port for which he is not licensed, he shall be released from his duties and responsibilities when such vessel is anchored in the nearest roadstead to the port to which she is bound, and if outward bound to the distance or stage for which he has been engaged. Any pilot violating this rule shall be subject to a penalty not exceeding ten pounds or the loss of his licence, or such other punishment as the Board may think necessary.

34. Every pilot making any change in his residence shall forthwith, thereafter, give notice thereof, and of his new residence to the Clerk of the Board, under a penalty not exceeding twenty shillings for each offence.

35. Every pilot shall strictly obey and observe all quarantine instructions and regulations; and all other regulations of a like nature, applicable either to the district or the port which may from time to time be issued by any competent authority, under a penalty of not exceeding ten pounds for each offence.

36. Each pilot shall keep in his possession his licence together with a printed copy of the rates, bye-laws, and regulations, and shall produce the same to the captain, commander, owner, or agent of any ship or vessel when required so to do, under a penalty not exceeding ten pounds.

37. All complaints of offences by pilots against the Acts of Parliament or the foregoing bye-laws shall be made in writing, signed by the party aggrieved, and delivered to the Clerk of the Board, or left at his office, as soon as practicable after the commission of the offence; and the Clerk shall procure the attendance of all such persons as the Board may desire to examine.

38. Every pilot shall when required by the Clerk of the Board (by writing delivered or offered to such pilot or left a reasonable time at his registered place of residence) attend the Board or any of their Committees, or their Clerk, to answer any charge brought against him for any breach of these bye-laws, or in relation to any matter in connection with the Pilotage Service; and in default of such attendance every such pilot shall for the first offence be liable to a penalty not exceeding forty shillings, and for the second and every subsequent offence not exceeding five pounds.

39. If any pilot shall be guilty of a breach of any of the foregoing Bye-laws for which breach no pecuniary penalty is hereinbefore provided, or shall be guilty of any misconduct in any matter relating to the Pilotage Service, for which misconduct no punishment is hereinbefore provided, he shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds for every such offence.

40. All pecuniary penalties incurred by the breach of the foregoing Bye-laws shall be applied to the Superannuation Fund.

41. Throughout these Bye-laws the expression "the Board" shall mean the Pilotage Board of the Port of Port Talbot as appointed under section twenty-six of the Port Talbot Railway and Docks Act, 1899, the word "vessel" shall include any ship, boat, lighter and craft of every kind, and whether navigated by steam or otherwise.

42. The preceding Bye-laws shall commence and take effect from the date of the Order in Council approving the same, on which day all Bye-laws previously made by the Port Talbot Pilotage Board for the government of pilots in the Port Talbot Pilotage District and approved by an Order in Council dated the third day of March, one thousand nine hundred, so far as the same or any of them are now in force shall be repealed.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 23rd day of October, 1905.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by Section 418 of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, His Majesty is empowered from time to time on the joint recommendation of the Admiralty and the Board of Trade by Order in Council to make regulations for preventing collisions at sea:

And whereas by an Order in Council dated the eleventh day of August, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, and expressed to be made in pursuance of the Merchant Shipping Act Amendment Act, 1862, and on the joint recommendation of the Admiralty and the Board of Trade, Her late Majesty was pleased to direct that on and after the first day of September, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, the regulations contained in the schedule thereto (being regulations for preventing collisions at sea and as to signals of distress) should be substituted for the regulations contained in the first schedule to an Order in Council made under the same Act and on such joint recommendation as aforesaid and dated the fourteenth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine.

And whereas by an Order in Council dated the thirtieth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, and expressed to be made in pursuance of the Merchant Shipping Act Amendment Act, 1862, and on the joint recommendation of the Admiralty and the Board of Trade, Her late Majesty was pleased to direct that on and after the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five, the regulations contained in the schedule to the said recited Order in Council of the eleventh August, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, should, as regards British fishing vessels and boats when in the sea off the coast of Europe lying north of Cape Finisterre, be modified and added to as in the said Order and schedule thereto were more particularly set forth:

And whereas by an Order in Council dated the twenty-seventh day of November, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six, and expressed to be made in pursuance of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, and on the joint recommendation of the Admiralty and the Board of Trade, Her late Majesty was pleased to direct that on and after the first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven, the regulations for preventing collisions at sea contained in the schedule to the said Order in Council dated the eleventh day of August, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, except the Article numbered 10 in such regulations, should be annulled, and the regulations for preventing collisions at sea, contained in Schedule I thereto, should be substituted therefor (with the exception aforesaid) and come into operation as regards British ships and boats:

And whereas by Article 10 of the Regulations contained in the schedule to the said Order in Council dated the eleventh day of August, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, it was provided, amongst other things, as follows:—

(g) In fog, mist, or falling snow, a drift-net vessel attached to her nets, and a vessel when trawling, dredging, or fishing with any kind of drag-net, and a vessel employed in line fishing with her lines out, shall at intervals of not more than two minutes make a blast with her fog horn and ring her bell alternately.

And whereas the Admiralty and the Board of Trade have in pursuance of the said recited Act jointly recommended to His Majesty that the above recited Article 10 should be amended in manner hereinafter appearing:

And whereas His Majesty was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, on the seventh day of August, one thousand nine hundred and five, to approve as a provisional Rule, within the meaning of the Rules Publication Act, 1893, the amendment of the said Article 10, as from the date of the said Order of the seventh day of August, one thousand nine hundred and five:

And whereas the provisions of Section one of the Rules Publication Act, 1893, have been complied with:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in Him by the said Act and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to direct that the following provision, that is to say:—

In fog, mist, falling snow, or heavy rain storms, drift-net vessels attached to their nets, and vessels when trawling, dredging, or fishing with any kind of drag-net, and vessels line fishing with their lines out, shall, if of twenty tons gross tonnage or upwards respectively, at intervals of not more than one minute make a blast; if steam-vessels, with the whistle or syren, and if sailing vessels with the fog-horn; each blast to be followed by ringing the bell. Fishing vessels and boats of less than twenty tons gross tonnage shall not be obliged to give the above-mentioned signals; but if they do not, they shall make some other efficient sound signal at intervals of not more than one minute, shall be substituted for paragraph (g) of Article 10 of the regulations scheduled to the said Order in Council, dated the eleventh day of August, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, and that the said Article 10 shall be read and construed accordingly.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 23rd day of October, 1905.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by virtue and in pursuance of the provisions of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, His Majesty was pleased by Order in Council dated the twenty-fourth day of March, one thousand nine hundred and two, to make the regulations set forth in the Schedule to the said Order for the registry, lettering, and numbering of British Sea Fishing Boats: And by such Order did revoke the provisions of the Orders in Council mentioned in the Sixth Schedule thereto to the extent specified in the last column of that Schedule, provided that the revocation shall not affect anything done or suffered under any of the provisions so revoked:

And whereas by paragraph 24 (2) of the said regulations scheduled to the Order in Council dated the twenty-fourth day of March, one thousand nine hundred and two, it was provided that any registry, naming, lettering, or numbering of a sea fishing boat already effected in accordance with any regulation contained in the Orders in Council revoked by the Order in Council dated the twenty-fourth day of March, one thousand nine hundred and two, although not in accordance with the regulations scheduled to the said last-mentioned Order in Council, shall so long as the prescribed marks on the boat were duly maintained, be deemed sufficient in the case of that boat until the boat is required by the last-mentioned regulations to be registered again:

And whereas the said regulations have been amended or varied by Orders in Council dated respectively the twenty-fourth day of October, one thousand nine hundred and four, and eleventh day of July, one thousand nine hundred and five:

And whereas it is deemed expedient to revoke the said proviso set out in the above-mentioned paragraph 24 (2) of the Schedule to the said Order in Council of the twenty-fourth day of March, one thousand nine hundred and two, and to require all vessels to be registered, lettered, and numbered in accordance with the regulations scheduled to such last-mentioned Order in Council as amended by the Orders in Council dated respectively the twenty-fourth day of October, one thousand nine hundred and four, and eleventh day of July, one thousand nine hundred and five:

And whereas the provisions of section one of the Rules Publication Act, 1893, have been complied with:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, in exercise of the power vested in Him, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to revoke and doth hereby revoke the proviso contained in paragraph 24 (2) of the regulations scheduled to the said Order in Council dated the twenty-fourth day of March, one thousand nine hundred and two, and doth order and direct that on and after the first day of January, one thousand nine hundred and six, every British sea fishing boat belonging to or hailing from any port or place in the British Islands except such vessels and boats as are exempted from the operation of the regulations scheduled to the said Order in Council dated the twenty-fourth day of March, one thousand nine hundred and two, shall be registered, named, lettered, and numbered in accordance with the regulations scheduled to such last-mentioned Order in Council as amended by the Orders in Council dated respectively the twenty-fourth day of October, one thousand nine hundred and four, and eleventh day of July, one thousand nine hundred and five.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Burial Act, 1855, it was, amongst other things, enacted that it should be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, should

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Burial Act, 1853, as amended by the Burial Act, 1900, it was enacted that, in case it appeared to His Majesty in Council, upon the representation of the Local Government Board, that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of the Local Government Board, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial grounds or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it should be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order that no new burial ground should be opened in any city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case might require) that, after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial grounds or places of burial, should be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time as circumstances might require; provided always, that notice of such representation, and of the time when it should please His Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, should be published in the London Gazette, and should be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation was so considered; provided also, that no such representation should be made in relation to the burial ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation should have been given to the Incumbent and vestry clerk or churchwardens of such parish:

And whereas the Local Government Board, after giving to the Incumbent and the churchwardens of the parish of Wigan, ten days' previous notice of their intention to make such representation, have made a representation stating that they are of opinion that so much of the Order of Her late Majesty in Council of the twenty-sixth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, as relates to burials in the Wesleyan burial ground of Goose Green, Wigan, should be varied by substituting for the directions contained in the said Order relating to the said burial ground the following directions, viz.:—
