

paragraph 24 (2) of the Schedule to the said Order in Council of the twenty-fourth day of March, one thousand nine hundred and two, and to require all vessels to be registered, lettered, and numbered in accordance with the regulations scheduled to such last-mentioned Order in Council as amended by the Orders in Council dated respectively the twenty-fourth day of October, one thousand nine hundred and four, and eleventh day of July, one thousand nine hundred and five:

And whereas the provisions of section one of the Rules Publication Act, 1893, have been complied with:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, in exercise of the power vested in Him, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to revoke and doth hereby revoke the proviso contained in paragraph 24 (2) of the regulations scheduled to the said Order in Council dated the twenty-fourth day of March, one thousand nine hundred and two, and doth order and direct that on and after the first day of January, one thousand nine hundred and six, every British sea fishing boat belonging to or hailing from any port or place in the British Islands except such vessels and boats as are exempted from the operation of the regulations scheduled to the said Order in Council dated the twenty-fourth day of March, one thousand nine hundred and two, shall be registered, named, lettered, and numbered in accordance with the regulations scheduled to such last-mentioned Order in Council as amended by the Orders in Council dated respectively the twenty-fourth day of October, one thousand nine hundred and four, and eleventh day of July, one thousand nine hundred and five.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 23rd day of October, 1905.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Burial Act, 1853, as amended by the Burial Act, 1900, it was enacted that, in case it appeared to His Majesty in Council, upon the representation of the Local Government Board, that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial-ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of the Local Government Board, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial-grounds or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it should be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order that no new burial-ground should be opened in any city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case might require) that, after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial-grounds or places of burial, should be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time as circumstances might require; provided always that notice of such representation, and of the time when it should please His Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, should be published in the London Gazette, and should be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation was so considered; provided also that no such representation should be made in relation to the burial-ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation should have been given to the Incumbent and vestry clerk or churchwardens of such parish:

And whereas the Local Government Board, after giving to the Incumbent and the churchwardens of the parish of Saint Mary the Virgin, Hawkwell, in the county of Essex, and of the parish of Saint Michael, Bishop's Itchington, in the county of Warwick, ten days' previous notice of their intention to make such representations, made representations stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-grounds should be opened in the civil parishes of Hawkwell and Bishop's Itchington, without the previous approval of the Local Government Board, and that burials should be discontinued in the said parishes as hereinafter directed:

And whereas His Majesty was pleased, by His Order in Council of the eleventh day of July last, to give notice of such representations, and to order that the same should be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the thirty-first day of August, one thousand nine hundred and five, and such Order has been published in the London Gazette, and copies thereof have been affixed as required by the said Act:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that no new burial-ground shall be opened in the said civil parishes without the previous approval of the Local Government Board, and that burials in the said parishes shall be discontinued as follows, viz.:

HAWKWELL.—Forthwith and entirely in the Parish Church of Saint Mary the Virgin, Hawkwell, in the county of Essex; and in that part of the churchyard which existed prior to the year one thousand nine hundred and two, except as follows:—

In any walled grave now existing in the said portion of the churchyard burial may be allowed subject to the condition that every coffin buried in such grave be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

BISHOP'S ITCHINGTON.—Forthwith and entirely in the Parish Church of Saint Michael, Bishop's Itchington, in the county of Warwick, and in the churchyard.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 23rd day of October, 1905.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Burial Act, 1855, it was, amongst other things, enacted that it should be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, should
