Whitehall, January 9, 1906.

The KING was pleased, this morning, at Buckingham Palace, to present to Mr. John Wardrop Thomson, a Town Postman of Stirling, the Albert Medal of the Second Class, conferred upon him by His Majesty's command for gallantry in saving life as detailed below:—

On the night of Saturday, the 21st October, 1905, while Thomson was on duty at the Stirling Railway Station, his attention was called, by an outcry, to the fact that a man was lying on the metals of the down main line.

An engine was approaching rapidly, and was not more than 30 yards distant, when Thomson, without hesitation, sprang to the man's assistance, and both men disappeared from view as the engine passed by. The railway officials and passengers on the platform who witnessed the occurrence thought that both men had been run over, especially as another engine passed by, almost at the same moment, on the next line of rails. Thomson had, however, managed to drag the man on to the six-foot way. The rescued man was of heavy build and was quite unable to help himself, being in a state of intoxication; he was unhurt, while Thomson only received cuts about the face.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty chapter one hundred and fourteen, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the thirtieth day of November, in the year one thousand nine hundred and five, in the words following, that is to say:—

“We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called ‘the said benefice’) of Saint James, Hill, in the county of Warwick, and in the diocese of Birmingham.

“Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Saint James, Hill, is vested for an estate in fee simple without incumbrances in Albert Edward Pritchard, of Wood Green, Wednesbury, in the county of Stafford, one of Your Majesty's Justices of the Peace.

“And whereas the said Albert Edward Pritchard is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Saint James, Hill, now vested in him as aforesaid should be transferred to and be vested in the Bishop for the time being of the said diocese of Birmingham.

“And whereas the Right Reverend Charles, now Bishop of the said diocese of Birmingham, is willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary, he, the said Charles, Bishop of the said diocese of Birmingham, has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

“And whereas the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Saint James, Hill, which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the new parish of Saint James, Hill.

“Now therefore with the consent of the said Albert Edward Pritchard (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), and with the consent of the said Charles, Bishop of the said diocese of Birmingham (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Saint James, Hill, now vested in him the said Albert Edward Pritchard as aforesaid, shall be transferred from him to the said Charles, Bishop of the said diocese of Birmingham, and his successors, Bishops of the same diocese, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Charles, Bishop of the said diocese of Birmingham, and by his successors, Bishops of the same diocese for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council: now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Birmingham.

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called "the said benefice") of North Reston in the county of Lincoln and in the diocese of Lincoln.

"And whereas the said Dean and Chapter are willing to accept the proposed transfer and in token of such their willingness, have executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas the Right Reverend Edward, now Bishop of the said diocese of Lincoln, in token that the proposed transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited, or by some or one of them is made necessary, has also executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of North Reston which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will, in our opinion, tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid, arises or exists, that is to say, in the parish of North Reston.

"Now therefore, with the consent of the said John Hampden Jackson (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme) and with the consent of the said Edward, Bishop of the said diocese of Lincoln (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal), and with the consent of the said Dean and Chapter of the cathedral church of Lincoln (in testimony whereof they have caused their common or capitular seal to be affixed to this scheme) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of North Reston, now vested in him the said John Hampden Jackson as aforesaid, shall be transferred to the said Dean and Chapter of the cathedral church of Lincoln and their successors and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Dean and Chapter of the cathedral church of Lincoln and by their successors for ever.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five; duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the second day of November, in the year one thousand nine hundred and five, in the words following; that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Nathaniel, Platt Bridge, situate within the new parish (sometime particular district) of Saint Peter, Hindley, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Liverpool.

“Whereas at certain extremities of the said new parish of Saint Peter, Hindley, and of the new parish of Saint Mary, Ince-in-Makerfield, in the said county and diocese, which said extremities lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such new parishes.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that certain contiguous portions (being the portions containing the population aforesaid) of the said new parish of Saint Peter, Hindley, and of the said new parish of Saint Mary, Ince-in-Makerfield, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Nathaniel, Platt Bridge, situate as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Francis James, Bishop of Liverpool, as such Bishop, with the consents of Thomas Southworth, of Laurel House, Hindley, in the said county of Lancaster, Gentleman, of James Carlton Eckersley, of Ashfield, Wigan, in the said county, Esquire, of Cornelius Beazer, of Borsden House, Hindley aforesaid, Esquire, of Herbert Spencer Woodcock, of Wigan aforesaid, Esquire, and of John Leyland Pennington, of Hindley aforesaid, Cotton Spinner, as the patrons of the vicarage of the said new parish of Saint Peter, Hindley, and with the consents of the Reverend Robert Baker Girdlestone, an Honorary Canon of the Cathedral Church of Oxford, of Warleigh Lodge, Wimbledon, in the county of Surrey, Clerk in Holy Orders, of the Reverend Ernest Augustus Eardley-Wilmot, a Prebendary of the Cathedral Church of Wells, of Saint Jude's Vicarage, South Kensington, Clerk in Holy Orders, of the Reverend Joseph Edmund Rogers, of Walcot Rectory, Bath, Clerk in Holy Orders, of the Reverend John Charles Wright, a Canon of the Cathedral Church of Manchester, and of the Reverend Arthur Evelyn Barnes-Lawrence, a Canon of the Cathedral Church of Southwark, as the patrons of the vicarage of the said new parish of Saint Mary, Ince-in-Makerfield (in testimony whereof they the said consenting parties have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said new parish of Saint Peter, Hindley, and of the said new parish of Saint Mary, Ince-in-Makerfield, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Nathaniel, Platt Bridge, situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Nathaniel, Platt Bridge.'

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Nathaniel, Platt Bridge, comprising:—

"All those two contiguous portions of the new parish (sometime particular district) of Saint Peter, Hindley, and of the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Saint Mary, Ince-in-Makerfield, both in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Liverpool, which are comprised within and are bounded by an imaginary line commencing at the point where the boundary which divides the new parish of Saint John the Evangelist, Abram,

The French Government has given further notice, that on 23rd December, 1905, the under-mentioned lights were established to mark the eastern entrance to the Sheltered Roadstead at Brest:—

1. A green fixed dioptric light (unwatched), elevated 33 feet above high water, and visible in clear weather from a distance of 3 miles, was established in a metal turret, 34 feet high, painted white, erected on the head of the eastern breakwater of the Sheltered Roadstead. This light, which has a light power of 10 candles, is obscured from the bearing of south, through west, to N. 44° W. It has been placed on the chart at a distance of 11½ cables S. 8° W. from St. Louis Church.

2. A red fixed dioptric light (unwatched), elevated 33 feet above high water, and visible in clear weather from a distance of 3 miles, was established in a metal turret, 34 feet high, painted white, erected on the eastern head of the south breakwater of the Sheltered Roadstead. This light, which has a light power of 16 candles, is obscured from N. 65° E, through east, to S. 68° E. It has been placed on the chart at a distance of 12 cables S. 16° W. from St. Louis Church.
