ORDER OF THE BOARD OF AGRICULTURE AND FISHERIES.

(DATED 26TH JANUARY 1906.)

SWINE-FEVER (MOVEMENT FROM IRELAND) ORDER OF 1906.

The Board of Agriculture and Fisheries, by virtue and in exercise of the powers vested in them under the Diseases of Animals Acts, 1894 to 1903, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:

Modification of Swine-Fever (Movement from Ireland) Order of 1904.

1. The Swine-Fever (Movement from Ireland) Order of 1904, which restricts the landing in Great Britain of swine brought from Ireland and regulates the movement of swine so landed, is modified by this Order in manner hereinafter appearing.

Provision for Landing of Store Swine.

2. Swine brought from Ireland may be landed in Great Britain and moved from the place of landing to premises in Great Britain with a view to detention on such premises in accordance with Article 4 of this Order, if accompanied by a licence authorising such landing and movement granted by an Inspector or other officer duly authorised in that behalf by the Department of Agriculture and Technical Instruction for Ireland, and subject to the following conditions, namely:

(i.) Every application for a licence under this Article shall be accompanied by—

(a) a declaration in the Form A set forth in the Schedule to this Order or to the like effect signed by the occupier of the premises where the swine to which the application relates have been kept, and countersigned by a member of the Police force of the District in which such premises are situate; and

(b) a declaration in the Form B set forth in the said Schedule or to the like effect signed by the applicant for the licence.

(ii.) A licence shall become void if the swine to which it relates are during the voyage to Great Britain permitted to come in contact with swine which are not accompanied by a licence under this Order.

(iii.) The licence shall forthwith after completion of the movement be delivered up at, or sent by post to, the nearest Police Station in the same District by the person in charge of the swine at the time of completing the said movement.

General Provisions as to Movement.

3.—(1.) Swine, while being moved under this Order, shall so far as is practicable be kept separate from all swine which are not accompanied by a licence under this Order, and shall be moved by the nearest available route, and by railway so far as is practicable, and without unnecessary delay, to the place of destination specified in the licence, and not elsewhere.

(2.) Swine while being moved under this Order shall not, unless otherwise hereafter expressly provided by Order of the Board of Agriculture and Fisheries, be subject to any restriction on movement of swine imposed by Order of the Board or by regulations made by the Local Authority of any District.

Detention and Isolation after Arrival at Destination.

4.—(1.) Swine moved with a licence under this Order shall not, for a period of twenty eight days after arrival at the place of destination specified in the licence, be moved from such place of destination. Swine, while detained under this Article, shall be kept separate from all other swine. This provision does not restrict the removal of any carcase of a pig.

Production of Licences; Names and Addresses.

5.—(1.) Any person in charge of a pig being landed or moved, where under this Order a licence is necessary, shall, on demand of an officer of Customs or of a Justice, or of a constable, or of an Inspector or other officer of the Board of Agriculture and Fisheries or of a Local Authority, produce and show to him the licence, if any, authorising the landing or movement, and shall allow it to be read and a copy of or extract from it to be taken by the person to whom it is produced.

(2.) Any person so in charge shall, on demand by any such person as aforesaid, give to him his name and address.

Local Authority to enforce Order.

6. The provisions of this Order shall be executed and enforced in Great Britain by the Local Authority.

Offences.

7.—(1.) If a pig is landed or moved in contravention of this Order, the owner of the pig, and the person for the time being in charge thereof, and the person causing, directing, or permitting the landing or movement, and the person landing or moving or conveying the pig, and the consignee or other person receiving or keeping it knowing it to have been landed or moved in contravention as aforesaid, and the occupier of the place from which the pig is so moved, shall, each according to and in respect of his own acts and defaults, be deemed guilty of an offence against the Diseases of Animals Act, 1894.

(2.) If a person in charge of a pig being landed or moved, where under this Order a licence is necessary, on demand made under this Order, fails to give his true name and address, or gives a false name or address, he shall be deemed guilty of an offence against the Diseases of Animals Act, 1894.

(3.) If a pig is not isolated as required by this Order, the owner, consignee, or other person for the time being in charge thereof, shall, each according to and in respect of his own acts and defaults, be deemed guilty of an offence against the Diseases of Animals Act, 1894.

(4.) If any person fail to deliver up or send a licence, as required by this Order, he shall be deemed guilty of an offence against the Diseases of Animals Act, 1894.

Commencement.

8. This Order shall come into operation on the first day of March, nineteen hundred and six.

Short Title.

9. This Order may be cited as the SWINE-FEVER (MOVEMENT FROM IRELAND) ORDER OF 1906.

In witness whereof the Board of Agriculture and Fisheries have hereunto set their Official Seal this twenty-sixth day of January, nineteen hundred and six.

T. H. Elliott,
Secretary.

Work No. 10 in the centre of Wyle Cop, opposite St. Julian's Friars.

2. To enable the Corporation from time to time to make and maintain all such cuts, channels, aqueducts, culverts, tunnels, drains, sluices, gauges, reservoirs, tanks, wells, water towers, filter beds, banks, bridges, arches, piers, abutments, embankments, roads, approaches, engines, machinery, telegraphs, telephones and appliances as may be necessary or convenient in connection with the before mentioned works or any of them, or for conducting, inspecting, cleansing, repairing or managing the same, and together with full power and right at all times of approach and access to the works aforesaid, or any of them for the purposes of the Bill or their Undertaking.

3. To authorize the Corporation to lay down and maintain mains, pipes, wires, and apparatus in, over, under, through, and across, and for that purpose to break up, alter, divert, stop up, and interfere with permanently or temporarily, public and private streets, roads, lanes, footways, thoroughfares, bridges, rivers, water-courses, streams, drains, gas-mains, pipes, and telegraph, telephonic, and other electric apparatus.

4. To empower the Corporation for any of the purposes of the Bill or their Waterworks Undertaking to purchase, take, and acquire compulsorily or by agreement, or to take on lease and to hold lands, streams, springs, waters, houses and buildings, and other property, and any rights and easements therein, thereunder or thereover, and in particular to enable the Corporation to acquire, for the purposes of their water Undertaking, by compulsion or agreements, lands, houses, buildings and other property in the parishes above mentioned, and also in the parishes of Ratlinghope, All Stretton, Smethcott and Church Pulverbatch.

5. To authorize the Corporation to take and divert, and to appropriate and use for the purposes of the Bill, and for the general purposes of their Undertaking the waters of streams above referred to, and particularly the waters of the Cound Brook and its tributaries which flow through, between and to the north of the villages of Picklescott and Castle Pulverbatch into the River Severn and thence into the sea, and to enable the Corporation to make compensation in money or water to any parties injuriously affected by the abstraction of the water by the Corporation.

6. To enable the Corporation to deviate laterally and vertically from the lines and levels of the intended works to any extent as defined by the Bill or prescribed by Parliament.

7. To authorize the Corporation to purchase additional lands by agreement and to acquire easements in, through, under, and over public and private lands, roads, streets, footways and highways, and to lay down, maintain and renew mains, pipes, apparatus and works in, through, over or under streets, roads, footways, highways, thoroughfares, railways, tramways, bridges, canals, rivers, streams, watercourses, sewers, drains, pipes, and telegraph apparatus, and to break up and interfere with the same.

8. To discontinue as public highways, and to vest in the Corporation the site and soil of the portions of all public or other roads and footpaths shown upon the said plans as intended to be diverted or stopped under the powers of the Bill, and to extinguish all rights of way and other rights in or over any lands which shall be taken under the powers of the Bill, and to provide for the maintenance and repair of the new or diverted portions of road by and at the expense of the road authorities or other persons respectively who are for the time being legally liable for the repair and maintenance of the portions of road so diverted, or as may be prescribed by the Bill.

9. To make such provisions as may have been or may be agreed upon, or as may be thought proper by Parliament to be prescribed or authorized by the Bill for the protection and benefit of the landowners, mine-owners, owners of mills, and other works, and other bodies and persons whose property, rights, and interests will or may be affected by the intended works, and of their property, rights and interests, and to authorize, confirm or give effect to any agreements or arrangements which may be entered into between the Corporation and such land, mine, mill-owner or owners, bodies or persons, or some or any of them.

10. To make provision with reference to the quantity or amount of compensation (if any) by water or otherwise to be given by the Corporation in respect of the proposed taking, impounding, and diverting of such water and (in case of compensation by water) with reference to the time and manner of the delivery thereof, and the mode of measuring or ascertaining the quantity to be delivered.

11. To authorize the Corporation temporarily to discharge water from any of the works aforesaid, into any available river, stream or water-courses, including any river, stream or water-course with which any of the intended conduit, lines of pipes, by-washes, or over-flows may communicate, or into any river, stream or water-course crossed by any of the works aforesaid, and to make provisions for compensating all riparian owners and other persons for any damage which may be caused by the exercise of such power.

12. To empower the Corporation to hold lands for the purpose of protecting, securing and preserving their waterworks or water supply, and to sell, lease or exchange lands vested in them, and to exempt such lands and the Corporation in respect thereof from the provisions or some of the provisions of the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, with respect to the sale of superfluous lands.

13. To enable the Corporation to make byelaws for securing the purity of the water impounded by them, for preventing contamination from farming or other operations on any lands within the watershed of the reservoir and works proposed to be authorized by the Bill.

14. To prescribe a period for the completion of the works authorized by the Bill, and to enable the Local Government Board to enlarge such period.

15. To authorize the Corporation on the one hand and any Local Authority, Corporation, Company, body, or person on the other hand, to enter into and carry into effect and to vary or rescind contracts and agreements for the sale or supply by the Corporation from their intended works of water in bulk, by measure, or otherwise, to any such authority, corporation, trustees, bodies, person, or persons for use either within or beyond the limits for the supply of water by the Corporation, on such terms and conditions as may be agreed between them or the Bill may prescribe.

16. To constitute the waterworks and other works and things proposed to be authorized by the Bill part of the Water Undertaking of the Corporation, and to extend and apply all or some of the enactments now in force in relation to the existing waterworks of the Corporation, with such modifications, as the case may be, indicated in the Bill to the waterworks and other works and things so proposed to be authorized.

17. To empower the Corporation to utilise their existing waterworks for other purposes than for domestic supply, or to abandon the same, or sell, lease, dispose of, or otherwise deal with, the same as may be defined by the Bill.

18. To authorize the Corporation to charge for water supplied to baths and waterclosets, and to provide that hotels, inns, and large public institutions shall be supplied by meter.

19. To empower the Corporation to raise money, by the issue of stock, or by mortgage or otherwise, for the construction of new waterworks, tramroad, road diversion, and alterations of existing waterworks, and for the other purposes of the Bill.

20. To empower the Corporation to charge the moneys borrowed for the purposes of the Bill, by mortgage or other means, on the Borough Fund and Borough Rate, and on the District Fund and General District Rate, and upon the property and revenue of their waterworks Undertaking, and the rates and revenues to arise under the Bill or other properties, funds, rates, and revenues of or under the control of the Corporation, or on any of the properties, funds, rates, and revenues aforesaid as they may determine.

21. To empower the Corporation to invest their sinking funds in the rates or other securities of any corporation, including those of the Corporation, and to include in all mortgages granted by the Corporation, as security for moneys borrowed by them, the corporate estate and all properties and undertakings and the rents and profits thereof.

22. To confirm or otherwise give effect to any agreements which may be made before the passing of the Bill touching any of the matters mentioned or contained in this Notice.

23. To empower the Corporation to extend the provisions of any existing bye-laws, to make new bye-laws, rules and regulations with reference to all or any of the matters referred to in this Notice, and to enforce the same by penalties or otherwise, or to vary or rescind the same, and to confer upon them all powers, rights, authorities and privileges which are or may become necessary for carrying the powers granted by the Bill into execution, to vary or extinguish all existing rights or privileges which would or might in any way prevent or interfere with or delay the accomplishment of any of the objects of the Bill, and to confer other rights and privileges.

24. To incorporate, with alterations and amendments, and to apply, amend, alter, or repeal all or some of the provisions of the several Acts of Parliament following, or some of them (that is to say):—The Lands Clauses Acts; the Waterworks Clauses Acts, 1847 and 1863; the Local Loans Acts, 1875; the Public Health Acts, and all Acts amending the said Acts respectively, or any of them.

25. To alter, amend, extend, enlarge, or repeal or re-enact with or without amendment, all or some of the provisions of the Shrewsbury Waterworks Act, 1856, and other Acts and Orders relating to the Corporation.

And notice is hereby also given, that plans and sections of the works intended to be authorized by the Bill showing the lines and levels thereof, and showing the lands intended to be taken compulsorily under the powers of the Bill, with a book of reference to such plans, and a copy of this Notice as published in the London Gazette, have been or will forthwith be deposited for public inspection with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Salop at his office at Shrewsbury, and a copy of so much of the said plans and sections and book of reference as relates to each parish in or through which the intended works or any of them will be made to pass, or in which any lands, houses or other property intended to be taken are situate, together with a copy of this Notice, have been or will forthwith be deposited with the Clerk to the Rural District Council of Church Stretton, at his office at Shrewsbury, and with the Clerk to the Rural District Council of Clun, at his office at Bishop's Castle, and with the Clerk to each of the Parish Councils of All Stretton, Church Pulverbatch, Pontesbury, Conover, and Meole-Brace, at his residence, or if there be no Clerk to any Council, with the Chairman of that Council at his residence; and also with the Chairman of the parish meeting of Ratlinghope and Smethcott respectively, at his residence.

Printed copies of the intended Act will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons if and as soon as leave may be given to introduce the Bill.

Mr. Justice Buckley.

1905. H. 0102.

In the Matter of the HIGH WYCOMBE TIMBER COMPANY Limited and Reduced; and in the Matter of the Companies Act, 1867; and in the Matter of the Companies Act, 1877.

NOTICE is hereby given, that by an Order of the High Court of Justice made by Mr. Justice Buckley, on the 21st day of December, 1905, in the above mentioned matters, this Court did, in conformity with the provisions of the Companies Acts, 1867 and 1877, thereby confirm the cancellation and reduction of the capital of the High Wycombe Timber Company Limited and Reduced, resolved on or effected by the Special Resolutions passed and confirmed at two Extraordinary General Meetings of the said Company held respectively on the 8th day of March and 25th day of March, 1904, which resolution was in the words and figures following, viz:—"That the capital of the Company be reduced from £15,000 (divided into 740 preference shares of £10 each, 750 ordinary shares of £10 each, and 10 founders shares of £10 each) to £11,250, divided into 740 preference shares of £10 each, 750 ordinary shares of £5 each; and 10 founders shares of £10 each, and that such reduction be effected by cancelling paid up capital to the extent of £5 per share each of the 600 ordinary shares which have been issued and are now outstanding, and by reducing the nominal amount of the ordinary shares from £10 to £5 each." And it was ordered that the addition of the words "and Reduced" to the title of the said Company be continued until the 16th January, 1906. And notice is hereby also given, that the said Order has been produced to the Registrar of Joint Stock Companies and a copy thereof has been delivered to him together with a minute approved by the said Judge in the words and figures following; namely:—"The capital of the High Wycombe Timber Company Limited and Reduced henceforth is £11,250, divided into 740 preference shares of £10 each, 750 ordinary shares of £5 each, and 10 founders shares of £10 each, instead of the original capital of £15,000, divided into 740 preference shares of £10 each, 750 ordinary shares of £10 each, and 10 founders shares of £10 each. At the time of the registration of this minute 544 of the said £10 preference shares and no more are issued, and such preference shares are fully paid up and numbered 1 to 544 both inclusive, and of the said £5 ordinary shares 600 and no more are issued, and such ordinary shares are fully paid up and numbered 1 to 600 both inclusive, and the whole of the said £10 founders shares are issued and fully paid up at the time of the registration of this minute, the residue of the said preference shares and the residue of the said ordinary shares are unissued." And such Order and minute have been duly registered by the said Registrar of Joint Stock Companies—Dated this 26th day of January, 1906.
