The Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice that an Open Competitive Examination for situations as Assistant Examiner in the Patent Office Department of the Board of Trade will be held in London, commencing on the 23rd April, 1906, under the Regulations dated the 16th December, 1902, and published in the London Gazette of the same date.

Not fewer than 12 Candidates will be appointed on the result of this Examination, if so many should be found to be duly qualified.

No person will be admitted to Examination from whom the Secretary of the Civil Service Commission has not received, on or before the 5th April, an application, in the Candidate's own handwriting, on a prescribed form, which may be obtained from the Secretary at once.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction consisting of two pieces or parcels of land, comprising together three roods and twenty-eight perches or thereabouts, which have been permanently secured by deed, dated the tenth day of January, in the year one thousand nine hundred and six, as a site for a parsonage or house of residence for the benefice of Coity with Nolton, in the county of Glamorgan, and in the diocese of Llandaff, and in consideration also of a further benefaction of five hundred pounds sterling which has been paid to us in favour of the same benefice, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the said benefice of Coity with Nolton, to meet the aforesaid benefactions, one capital sum of seven hundred pounds, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of providing a parsonage or house of residence for the said benefice according to plans and a specification approved or to be approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of two pounds and ten shillings per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said benefice of Coity with Nolton.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this first day of February, in the year one thousand nine hundred and six.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Saint Mark, Jarrow, in the county of Durham, and in the diocese of Durham, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, one yearly sum or stipend of one hundred and fifty pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the twelfth day of January, in the year one thousand nine hundred and six, and to be receivable in equal quarterly portions on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that the said yearly sum or stipend of one hundred and fifty pounds, hereby granted by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, to the Incumbent, for the time being, of the said vicarage of Saint Mark, Jarrow, shall be and be taken to be in lieu of and in substitution for the yearly sum or stipend of sixty pounds heretofore payable by us, subject to certain conditions respecting the employment of a third assistant curate for the parish of Jarrow, in the said county of Durham, under the authority of an Instrument sealed by us, on the fifth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five, and published in the London Gazette on the tenth day of February in the same year, and provided also that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient in our opinion to produce the said yearly sum or stipend of one hundred and fifty pounds hereby granted, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage of Saint Mark, Jarrow, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment for such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this first day of February, in the year one thousand nine hundred and six.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction consisting of a portion of the value of a certain piece or parcel of land, comprising sixteen thousand seven hundred and ten square feet or thereabouts, which is about to be permanently secured as a site for a parsonage or house of residence for the vicarage of Saint Jude, Plymouth, in the county of Devon, and in the diocese of Exeter, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her late Majesty, Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the said vicarage of Saint Jude, Plymouth, to meet such benefaction, one capital sum of seven hundred pounds, which we have agreed to pay as the consideration or part consideration for the conveyance in fee simple of the land above mentioned as and for a site for a parsonage or house of residence for the said vicarage of Saint Jude, Plymouth.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this first day of February, in the year one thousand nine hundred and six.

Somerset House, London.

CITY OF CHICHESTER ELECTRIC LIGHTING.

THE Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of the City of Chichester (hereinafter referred to as "the Corporation") being the Undertakers for the purposes of the Chichester Electric Lighting Order, 1898 (hereinafter referred to as "the Order"), hereby give notice, that with the consent of the Board of Trade they propose by Deed to be approved by the Board of Trade to transfer their powers, duties, and liabilities under the Order to the Chichester Electric Light and Power Company Limited (hereinafter referred to as "the Company").

The following are particulars of the proposed transfer:—

(a) The area in respect of which the transfer is proposed to be made is the whole of the area of supply under the Order.

(b) Subject to certain powers of the Corporation to repurchase the Undertaking as stated hereafter, there is no limit to the period of the proposed transfer.

(c) The pecuniary consideration payable in respect of the transfer is £500.

(d) The following sections of the Order are not to apply to the Company—

Section 7, as to purchase and use of lands,

Section 28, as to remuneration of electric inspectors,

Section 52, as to application of revenue,

Section 53, as to application of capital moneys,

Section 54, so far as relates to the authentication of any notice, order, or document by the Corporation, and Section 68, incorporating section 265 of the Public Health Act, 1875.

And the Company is to observe certain provisions usually forming part of Electric Lighting Orders not granted to local authorities.

In case in the opinion of an arbitrator the Company fails in material respects to work the Undertaking as required by the Electric Lighting Acts or the Order, and it is desirable in the public interest that the working thereof should be resumed by the Corporation, the Company may be required to sell the Undertaking to the Corporation on terms to be determined by arbitration.

After the expiration of 42 years the Corporation are entitled to purchase the Undertaking upon the terms mentioned in section 2 of the Electric Lighting Act, 1888.

A copy of the draft Deed of Transfer will be deposited for public inspection during office hours at the Town Clerk's Office, East-street, Chichester, during one month from the date hereof, and printed copies thereof will be supplied by the Town Clerk to every person demanding the same, on payment of sixpence for each copy.

By Order,
J. W. LOADER COOPER,

Town Clerk.

Dated February 7th, 1906.

b. The second district is the water area included between the eastern boundary of the first district and two imaginary lines, the first running in a N.  $18^{\circ}$  E. direction from the eastern extreme of San Shan Tau to the islet on the northern side of Inner Channel, and the second in a N.  $87^{\circ}$  W. direction from San Shan Tau Light to South Entry Point.

c. The third district is the water area included between the outer lines of the second district, and the following imaginary lines; first, a line running in a N.  $35^{\circ}$  E. direction from San Shan Tau Lighthouse through the islet off Hooper Point to Robinson Point; secondly, a line running in a S.  $72^{\circ}$  W. direction from San Shan Tau Lighthouse to the islet off Cap Island, and thirdly, by a line running in a N.  $73^{\circ}$  W. direction from this islet to the south-western extremity of Ping Tu Tau.

d. Ta Lien Hwan Roadstead is in Victoria Bay, and extends about one mile to the northward of Panter Point.

Approximate position of San Shan Tau Light, lat.  $38^{\circ} 51\frac{1}{2}'$  N., long.  $121^{\circ} 50\frac{1}{2}'$  E.

REGULATIONS.

1. Foreign vessels are prohibited from passing the outer limits of the third district without a permit from the officer in command of the Defence Corps. Junks must also obtain permission.

2. Vessels entering the harbour are not allowed to proceed to the roadstead described in paragraph d at night time without permission of the officer in command of the Defence Corps.

3. Vessels are prohibited from anchoring in the entrance to Ta Lien Hwan without permission.

4. Vessels intending to enter the first or second districts when within three miles of the harbour limit must hoist their ensigns and signal their names by the International Code, and keep the flags flying until anchored. Vessels leaving the harbour must hoist their ensigns and indicate their names by the same code. At night vessels must exhibit the lights prescribed by the regulations for prevention of collisions at sea.

5. Vessels must obey the orders of the officer in command of the Defence Corps respecting their movements and berthing.

6. Vessels with infectious or contagious diseases on board which have not received pratique must stop at a distance of more than one mile from Ta Lien Hwan Roadstead, hoist the quarantine flag and await orders. Should disease break out on board vessels in the first or second districts, the quarantine flag must be hoisted.

7. Rubbish must not be thrown overboard in the first district.

8. Fishing and collecting seaweed is prohibited in the first and second districts without permission.

9. The undermentioned, except by authorized officers, are prohibited without permission:—

a. Surveying, sketching, photographing the features of the land and water, and the publication of geographical notes or maps.

b. The construction of piers or wharves, the reclamation or dredging of the foreshore; the digging of hills and grounds; the establishment of buoys, beacons or navigational marks.

10. The following are strictly forbidden:—

a. To damage military building, ships of war or other vessels, or steal or damage military stores within the harbour limits.

b. To spy and divulge the conditions of armament, fortification in the harbour, and military matters generally.

c. To spread rumours, and to act to the detriment of order and discipline in the harbour.

11. Violation of the above regulations renders the offender, and in the case of ships the captain or commanding officer, liable to the punishment prescribed by military penal law.

12. The officer in command of the Ta Lien Hwan Defence Corps is empowered to enforce these regulations by the institution of byelaws if necessary.
