EDWARD, R. & I.

EDWARD THE SEVENTH, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and of the British Dominions beyond the Seas King, Defender of the Faith, to

Our right trusty and right well-beloved Cousin Osbert Cecil, Earl of Sefton, Master of Our Horse;

Our right trusty and right entirely beloved Cousin and Councillor William John Arthur Charles James, Duke of Portland, Knight of Our Most Noble Order of the Garter, Knight Grand Cross of Our Royal Victorian Order;

Our right trusty and right well-beloved Cousin and Councillor George William, Earl of Coventry;

Our trusty and well-beloved—

Sir Walter Gilbey, Baronet;

Sir John Gilmour, Baronet; and John Bowen-Jones, Esquire; Greeting!

Whereas by Royal Warrant bearing date the third day of December, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven, Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, after reciting that for many years the breeding of sound horses had been encouraged by the gift out of the Civil List of Queen's Plates, to be won at race meetings in different parts of Great Britain, and that it appeared to Her Majesty that the Royal Bounty in that form was not so effective as could be desired, and that the said Bounty should be bestowed directly for the encouragement of horse breeding, did appoint Commissioners to consider and report as to the regulations under which the said Royal Bounty might best be expended in prizes, to be bestowed by Her Majesty at the chief Agricultural Shows in Great Britain, for the purpose of encouraging the breed and maintenance of a race of sound horses, or in such other methods as Her Majesty might approve:

And whereas We have deemed it expedient that a new Commission should issue for the purposes specified in the said Warrant:

Now Know Ye that We have revoked, and determined, and do by these Presents revoke and determine the said Warrant of the third day of December, one thousand eight hundred and eighty seven; and the subsequent Warrants dated respectively the first day of September, one thousand eight hundred and ninety two, the sixth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and ninety five, and the twenty-fifth day of August one thousand nine hundred and three, and every matter and thing therein contained.

And We reposing great trust and confidence in your ability and discretion and being heartily desirous to do what in Us lies for the furtherance of so important a national object, have authorized and appointed, and do by these Presents authorize and appoint you the said Osbert Cecil, Earl of Sefton; William John Arthur Charles James, Duke of Portland; George William, Earl of Coventry; Digby Wentworth Bayard, Baron Middleton; Thomas, Baron Ribblesdale; Henry Chaplin; Sir Walter Gilbey; Sir John Gilmour; and John Bowen-Jones, to be Our Commissioners to consider and report to Us the regulations under which the moneys annually voted by Parliament for the purpose may best be expended in prizes, to be bestowed by Us at the chief Agricultural Shows in Great Britain, for the purpose of encouraging the breed and maintenance of a race of sound horses, or in such other method as We may approve.

And for the better and more perfectly enabling you to perform the duty entrusted to you, We are hereby pleased to declare that during the continuance of this Our Royal Commission, We will bestow any moneys which Parliament may grant, for such objects and in such expenditure for the purposes of this Our Royal Commission, as We may, upon your recommendation, approve.

And for the better effecting the purposes of this Our Commission, We do by these Presents give and grant unto you, or any three or more of you, full power to call before you such persons as you shall judge likely to afford you any information upon the subject of this Our Commission; and also to call for, have access to and examine all such books, documents, registers and records as may afford you the fullest information on the subject, and to inquire of and concerning the premises by all other lawful ways and means whatsoever.

And We do by these Presents will and ordain that this Our Commission shall continue in full force and virtue, and that you Our said Commissioners, or any three or more of you, may from time to time proceed in the execution thereof, and of every matter and thing therein contained, although the same be not continued from time to time by adjournment.

And We do further ordain that you, or any three or more of you, have liberty to report your proceedings under this Our Commission from time to time if you shall judge it expedient so to do.

And Our will and pleasure is that you do report to Us under your hands and seals, or under the hands and seals of any three or more of you, your opinion upon the matter herein submitted for your consideration.

And Our further will and pleasure is that on voidance of the Office of Master of the Horse by the said Osbert Cecil, Earl of Sefton, and his successors, Our Master of the Horse for the time being shall be a Member of this Our Commission.

And for the better enabling you to execute these Presents We hereby appoint Our trusty and well-beloved John Herbert Taylor, Esquire, to be Secretary to this Our Commission.

Given at Our Court at Saint James's, the twenty-fourth day of March, one thousand nine hundred and six, in the sixth year of Our Reign.

By His Majesty's Command.

H. J. Gladstone.

Whitehall, March 26, 1906.

The KING has been graciously pleased to award the Albert Medal of the First Class to Mr. Leslie Urquhart, British Vice-Consul at Baku, for conspicuous gallantry in saving the lives of four British workmen who, in September last, during the outbreak which occasioned serious losses to the Petroleum Industry at Baku, were surrounded by the insurgents in an isolated position at Balachani Zabrat and were in imminent danger of losing their lives, a fate which shortly after their rescue befell all the persons remaining in the buildings where they had been shut up. The four Englishmen had already been isolated for some time when news of their perilous position reached the British Embassy at St. Petersburg, and Mr. Urquhart, accompanied by two Cossacks and several Tartars from the village of Mushtagee, started to relieve the beleaguered men. The district was full of armed Tartars, and in such a state of unrest that when Mr. Urquhart started upon his expedition it was not expected by the remainder of the British Colony in Baku that he would live to return.

On the night of his departure Mr. Urquhart proceeded to a farm which he possessed in the neighbourhood, where he hoped to be able to get help from his own farm hands, who were Tartars, and also to collect supplies, and notwithstanding that the party was stopped and fired on from time to time the supplies were collected and a start was made early the next morning for Balachani.

Mr. Urquhart's courageous and spontaneous action was rewarded with success. He got through and found the four Englishmen in a dreadful condition, especially on account of want of water, and after feeding them he persuaded them to go with him in carts which he had brought, with as many Armenians as they could bring with them. Immediately afterwards the whole of the buildings were carried by storm and everyone found therein put to death.

Whitehall, March 26, 1906.

The KING has been pleased to confer the Albert Medal of the Second Class upon Mr. Patrick Cullinan, an Inspector of the Great Southern and Western Railway Company of Ireland, for gallantry displayed in saving life at Ennis Railway Station, on the 6th November, 1905. The ceremony of the presentation of the medal by His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, took place in the Throne Room of Dublin Castle, on Wednesday last.

On the evening of the 16th November, 1905, between 6 and 7 o'clock, while a special cattle train was running through Ennis Station from Limerick, a woman fell between the rails in front of, and about 15 yards from, the approaching train. Inspector Cullinan, who was on the platform at the time, immediately jumped on the track, and just succeeded in dragging the woman into the six-foot way, though not before the guard of the engine had come in contact with her clothing. So little time remained for action that but for Inspector Cullinan's promptitude and great personal strength the woman's life would have been lost.
