Privy Council Office, May 11, 1906.

The following Statute made by the Governing Body of All Souls College, Oxford, on the 24th day of February, 1906 (and sealed on the 31st day of March, 1906), amending Statute III, Clause 7, has been submitted for the approval of His Majesty in Council, and notice of its having been so submitted is published in accordance with the provisions contained in "The Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877":—

Whereas the University of Oxford Commissioners, under and by virtue of all and every the powers in that behalf enabling them contained in the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, did by an Instrument under their seal dated the sixteenth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one, make certain Statutes thereunto annexed for your Petitioners, who are therein described as "the College of All Souls of the Faithful Departed, commonly called All Souls College, in the University of Oxford."

And whereas such Statutes were approved by Her late Majesty in Council on the third day of May, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two.

And whereas Statute III, Clause 7, is in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"7. Seven other Fellowships shall be awarded by a Board of Electors consisting of the Warden, four Fellows of the College appointed for a term of five years by the Warden and Fellows, Bodley's Librarian for the time being, and three Members of Convocation appointed for a term of five years by the Hebdomadal Council of the University. Elections to these Fellowships may be held after examination or without examination as the electors shall from time to time determine, but subject to the following conditions of eligibility (that is to say):—any person may be elected who having passed all the examinations required by the University for the degree of Bachelor of Arts, and being in the judgment of the electors qualified by character and attainments to be a Fellow of the College, undertakes to prosecute in the College or the University, or under the direction of the College or the University elsewhere, some definite literary or scientific work which shall be specified in the Resolution by which he is elected. The right to elect shall be vested in the electors present at the election, and that person shall be elected for whom the greatest number of those present shall have voted. In case of equality of votes, the Warden, if present, shall have a casting vote.

"Not more than one of these Fellowships shall be filled up in any year. If in any year there be no person whom the electors shall judge qualified for election, the Fellowship shall be suspended, and the emoluments of it shall fall into the Corporate Revenues of the College. A Fellow elected under this Clause may be re-elected in like manner and under like conditions from time to time."

And whereas at a General Meeting of the Governing Body of our said College, specially summoned for that purpose and held on the twenty-fourth day of February, one thousand nine hundred and six, it was unanimously Resolved that after the words "any person may be elected who," contained in Statute III, Clause 7, of the College Statutes, the words "having passed all the examinations required by the University for the degree of Bachelor of Arts and," shall be omitted.

Now we the said Warden and College, in pursuance of the provisions of the said Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, do
