

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 11th day of May, 1906.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by section thirteen of "The Weights and Measures Act, 1889," it is enacted that if the Board of Trade represent to His Majesty that it would be expedient to fix fees to be paid on the verification and stamping of weights, measures, or weighing instruments, in cases other than those specified in the first schedule to the said Act, it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by Order in Council, from time to time to direct such fees to be paid :

And whereas the Board of Trade have represented to His Majesty that it would be expedient to fix the fees to be taken in respect of the verification and stamping by Inspectors of Weights and Measures of weights of twenty pounds, ten pounds, and five pounds mentioned in the schedule hereto :

And whereas it has been made to appear that the fees specified in the schedule hereto are reasonable and proper :

Now therefore, His Majesty, by virtue of the power vested in Him by the said Act, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to direct that the fees specified in the schedule hereto shall be taken by the Inspectors of Weights and Measures on the verification and stamping of each such weight of twenty pounds, ten pounds, and five pounds respectively.

A. W. FitzRoy.

SCHEDULE.

On the verification and stamping of each 20 lb. and 10 lb. weight of octagonal form	2d.
On the verification and stamping of each 5 lb. ditto	1d.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 11th day of May, 1906.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Burial Act, 1853, as amended by the Burial Act, 1900, it was enacted that, in case it appeared to His Majesty in Council, upon the representation of the Local Government Board, that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of the Local Government Board, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial grounds or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it should be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order that no new burial ground should be opened in any city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case might require) that, after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial grounds or places of burial, should be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time as circumstances might require; provided always that notice of such representation, and of the time when it should please His Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, should be published in the London Gazette, and should be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation was so considered; provided also that no such representation should be made in relation to the burial ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation should have been given to the Incumbent and vestry clerk or churchwardens of such parish :

And whereas the Local Government Board, after giving to the Incumbent and the churchwardens of the parish of Saint Nicholas, Stenigot, in the parts of Lindsey, and of the parish of Saint Martin, North Nibley, in the county of Gloucester, ten days' previous notice of their intention to make such representations, made representations stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial grounds should be opened in the civil parishes of Stenigot and North Nibley, without the previous approval of the Local Government Board, and that burials should be discontinued in the said parishes as hereinafter directed :

And whereas His Majesty was pleased by His Order in Council of the sixteenth day of February last, to give notice of such representations, and to order that the same should be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the second day of April, one thousand nine hundred and six, and such Order has been published in the London Gazette, and copies thereof have been affixed, as required by the said Act :

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that no new burial ground shall be opened in the said civil parishes without the previous approval of the Local Government Board, and that burials in the said parishes shall be discontinued as follows, viz. :—

STENIGOT.—Forthwith and entirely in the old church of Saint Nicholas, Stenigot, in the parts of Lindsey, and in the churchyard attached thereto.

NORTH NIBLEY.—Forthwith and entirely in the Parish Church of Saint Martin, North Nibley, in the county of Gloucester; and, after the thirtieth of June, one thousand nine hundred and six, in the churchyard, except as follows :—

(a.) In any vault or walled grave now existing in the said churchyard burial may be allowed subject to the condition that every coffin buried in such vault or grave be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented :

(b.) In any earthen grave now existing in the said churchyard the burial may be allowed, at or below the depth of five feet from the surface of the ground, of the body of any member of the family of the person or persons heretofore buried in such grave
