TUESDAY, MAY 22, 1906.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 11th day of May, 1906.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty chapter one hundred and fourteen duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the twenty-ninth day of March, in the year one thousand nine hundred and six, in the words following, that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called ‘the said benefice’) of Botley, in the county of Southampton and in the diocese of Winchester.

“Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Botley is vested for an estate in fee simple without encumbrances in Emily Mary Lee, of Highfield House, in the town and county of Southampton, Widow, Frederick Lee, of Frogmore, Leigham Court-road, Streatham, in the county of London, Esquire, and the Reverend James Palmer Nash, late of Bishops Waltham, in the county of Southampton, but now of Saint Swithun's Rectory, Winchester, in the same county, Clerk in Holy Orders, Honorary Canon of Winchester, as Trustees upon trust to sell the said advowson and to hold the net proceeds of such sale upon trust for Ellen Annie Lee, of Highfield House aforesaid, Spinster.

“And whereas the said Emily Mary Lee, Frederick Lee, James Palmer Nash, and Ellen Annie Lee are desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Botley should be transferred to and be vested in the Bishop for the time being of the said diocese of Winchester.

“And whereas the Right Reverend Herbert Edward, now Bishop of Winchester, is willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary he, the said Herbert Edward, Bishop of Winchester, has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

“And whereas the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Botley which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed, will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the parish of Botley.

“Now therefore with the consent of the said Emily Mary Lee, Frederick Lee, James Palmer Nash, and Ellen Annie Lee (in testimony whereof they have signed and sealed this scheme) and with the consent of the said Herbert Edward, Bishop of Winchester (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Botley, shall be transferred from the said Emily Mary Lee, Frederick Lee, James Palmer Nash, and Ellen Annie Lee to the said Herbert Edward, Bishop of Winchester, and his successors in the same bishoprick, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Herbert Edward, Bishop of Winchester, and by his successors in the same bishoprick, for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council: now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Winchester.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 11th day of May, 1906.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the fifth day of April, in the year one thousand nine hundred and six, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes to be taken partly out of the parish of Great Canford and partly out of the district parish of Saint Mary, Longfleet, both in the county of Dorset and in the diocese of Salisbury.

"Whereas we are satisfied that the said parish of Great Canford and the said district parish of Saint Mary, Longfleet, are cures wherein or in parts whereof the provision for public worship and for pastoral superintendence is insufficient for the spiritual wants of the inhabitants thereof and it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular portions of the said parish of Great Canford and of the said district parish of Saint Mary, Longfleet, which are hereinafter mentioned and described, should be constituted a separate district in the manner which is hereinafter set forth.

"And whereas there is not at present within the limits of the said proposed district any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of Divine worship but there is an unconsecrated building known as the Church of Saint John the Baptist situate at Broadstone within the limits of the said proposed district.

"And whereas Edith Sophia Harriet Dawson Damer deceased (who died on the twenty-fourth day of January in the year one thousand nine hundred and five) the widow of the late Reverend Lionel Dawson Damer, Clerk in Holy Orders, formerly vicar of the said parish of Great Canford, did by her will dated the fourteenth day of March in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine and proved on the twenty-seventh day of February in the year one thousand nine hundred and five bequeath to the Right Honourable Philip Henry Wodehouse, Baron Currie, Laurence Currie, Esquire, and Denis Marshall, Esquire, the executors and trustees named in her said will, a sum of ten thousand pounds to be applied by them as they shall in their absolute and uncontrolled discretion think fit for or towards the endowment of the said building known as the church of Saint John the Baptist situate as aforesaid when a separate ecclesiastical district shall have been assigned thereto.

"And whereas the said building known as the church of Saint John the Baptist, situate as aforesaid, has been duly conveyed to us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, and it is our intention that such building when duly consecrated shall become the church of the separate district which is hereinafter recommended and proposed.

"And whereas we are satisfied that by virtue of the said bequest an adequate and permanent maintenance will be available for the support of the minister of the said proposed district and when the said district shall have become a new parish then for the support of the incumbent thereof.

"And whereas the said maintenance for the support of the minister of the said proposed district will be provided as aforesaid upon the understanding and condition that the whole right of patronage of the said proposed district, and so soon as the said district shall have become a new parish under the provisions of the firstly hereinbefore mentioned Act then of the said new parish, and the nomination of the minister or incumbent thereof should be assigned in the manner which is hereinafter set forth.

"And whereas the said executors and trustees named in the said will have nominated the Bishop of Salisbury for the time being as the person to whom they desire that the whole right of patronage of the said proposed separate district shall be assigned.

"Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend John, now Bishop of Salisbury (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that all those portions of the said parish of Great Canford and of the said district parish of Saint Mary, Longfleet, which are more particularly described in the schedule hereunder written, and are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named 'The District of Saint John the Baptist, Broadstone.'

"And we further recommend and propose that the whole right of patronage of the said district so recommended to be constituted, and when such district shall have become a new parish as aforesaid then of the said new parish, and the nomination of the minister or incumbent thereof shall without any assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid be assigned to and be absolutely vested in and shall and may be exercised by the said John, Bishop of Salisbury, and by his successors in the same bishoprick for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of either of them or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing scheme has reference.

"The district of Saint John the Baptist, Broadstone, comprising:—

"I. All that portion of the parish of Great Canford, in the county of Dorset and in the diocese of Salisbury, which is bounded upon the south by the district parish of Saint Mary, Longfleet, upon the west by the parish of Corfe Mullen, both in the said county and diocese, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the north and upon the east, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Corfe Mullen from the said parish of Great Canford at the point at Rushcombe Bottom where the ancient Roman road leading towards Upton House is crossed by the road leading from Blandford to Poole, and extending thence in a straight line due east (thereby crossing the Corfe Hills and passing to the north of the Gravel Hill Brick Works) for a distance of one mile and thirty chains or thereabouts to a point in the middle of the road leading from Wimborne to Poole, and extending thence southward along the middle of the last mentioned road for a distance of one mile and sixty chains or thereabouts to the boundary which divides the said parish of Great Canford from the said district parish of Saint Mary, Longfleet.

"II. And also all that portion of the said district parish of Saint Mary, Longfleet, which is bounded upon the south-west by the parish of Hamworthy, in the said county and diocese, upon the west partly by the last-named parish and partly by the said parish of Corfe Mullen, upon the north by the above described portion of the parish of Great Canford, and upon the remaining side, that is to say, upon the east, by an imaginary line commencing at the point where the boundary which divides the said parish of Great Canford from the said district parish of Saint Mary, Longfleet, crosses the middle of the road leading from Wimborne to Poole, and extending thence southward along the middle of the last mentioned road for a distance of twenty-two chains or thereabouts to the point where it is crossed by the boundary of the municipal borough of Poole, and extending thence first westward and then generally southward along the said borough boundary (thereby following in part the middle of the channel called Creekmoor Lake) for a distance of two miles or thereabouts to the junction of the channel called Creekmoor Lake with the channel called Upton Lake where the said borough boundary meets the boundary which divides the said district parish of Saint Mary, Longfleet, from the said parish of Hamworthy."

And whereas drafts of the said scheme have, in accordance with the provisions of the firstly hereinbefore mentioned Act been transmitted to the patron and to the incumbents of the vicarage of the said parish of Great Canford and the vicarage of the said district parish of Saint Mary, Longfleet, out of which it is intended that the district recommended in such scheme to be constituted shall be taken.

And whereas the incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Great Canford has signified his assent to such scheme.

And whereas the patron of the said two vicarages, and the Incumbent of the said vicarage of Saint Mary, Longfleet, have offered certain objections to the same scheme.

And whereas, notwithstanding these objections, the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council: now therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Salisbury.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 11th day of May, 1906.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her late

Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the fourth year of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred (local), which Local Act is named the Liverpool and Wigan Churches Act, 1904, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the fifth day of April, in the year one thousand nine hundred and six, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the fourth year of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred (local), which Local Act is named the Liverpool and Wigan Churches Act, 1904, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes, to be taken out of the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Saint Bridget, Wavertree, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Liverpool.

"Whereas we are satisfied that the said new parish of Saint Bridget, Wavertree, is a new parish wherein or in parts whereof the provision for public worship and for pastoral superintendence is insufficient for the spiritual wants of the inhabitants thereof, and it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular part of the said new parish of Saint Bridget, Wavertree, which is hereinafter mentioned and described should be constituted a separate district in the manner which is hereinafter set forth.

"And whereas there is not at present within the limits of the said proposed separate district any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of Divine worship, but there is a site therein which has been duly conveyed to us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, under the provisions of the Church Building Acts, 1818 to 1884, and upon which the trustees of the said Liverpool and Wigan Churches Act, 1904, propose to build a permanent church out of the proceeds of the sale of the old church of Saint Thomas mentioned in that Act.

"And whereas the said trustees of the Liverpool and Wigan Churches Act, 1904, have applied to us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, to take steps for the constitution of the said proposed separate district in conformity with the provisions of the seventeenth section of that Act.

"And whereas the said proposed separate district will under the provisions of the said seventeenth section of the said Liverpool and Wigan Churches Act, 1904, be endowed with endowments of or connected with the old church of Saint Thomas mentioned in that Act producing an income exceeding two hundred pounds per annum.

"And whereas the said seventeenth section of the Liverpool and Wigan Churches Act, 1904, provides that the patronage of the said proposed separate district shall belong to the patrons of the said old church of Saint Thomas mentioned in that Act.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend Francis James, Bishop of Liverpool (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that all that part of the said new parish of Saint Bridget, Wavertree, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part together with the boundaries thereof is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme as aforesaid become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes and that the same shall be named 'The District of Saint Thomas, Wavertree.'

"And we further recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme the whole right of patronage of the said district so recommended to be constituted and when such district shall have become a new parish under the provisions of the firstly hereinbefore mentioned Act, then of the said new parish and of the nomination of the Minister or Incumbent thereto, shall be assigned to and be absolutely vested in and shall and may be exercised by the patrons of the said old church of Saint Thomas as contemplated by the said seventeenth section of the Liverpool and Wigan Churches Act, 1904.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"All that part of the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Saint Bridget, Wavertree, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Liverpool, which is bounded upon the west by the new parish of Saint Dunstan, Earle-road, Edge Hill, upon the north-east by the new parish of Saint Mary, Wavertree, upon the east by the new parish of (the Holy Trinity), Wavertree, all in the said county and diocese, and upon the remaining side, that is to say, upon the south, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of (the Holy Trinity), Wavertree, from the said new parish of Saint Bridget, Wavertree, at the centre of the bridge which carries the Edge Hill and Garston Branch Line of the London and North Western Railway across Wellington-road, and extending thence south-westward along the middle of Wellington-road for a distance of two chains or thereabouts to its junction with Ono-street, and extending thence north-westward along the middle of Ono-street for a distance of five chains and a quarter or thereabouts to its junction with Grosvenor-road, and extending thence north-westward along the middle of Grosvenor-road for a distance of twenty-four chains and a quarter or thereabouts to its junction, at its north-western end, with the common passage between the houses known as No. 120 and No. 122, Alderson-road, and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the said passage for a distance of one chain or thereabouts to its junction with Alderson-road, and extending thence south-westward along the middle of Alderson-road for a distance of seven chains and a half or thereabouts to its junction with Lawrence-road, and extending thence north-westward along the middle of Lawrence-road for a distance of eight chains and three-quarters or thereabouts to the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Bridget, Wavertree, from the said new parish of Saint Dunstan, Earle-road, Edge Hill."

And whereas drafts of the said scheme have, in accordance with the provisions of the secondly hereinbefore mentioned Act, been transmitted to the patron and to the Incumbent of the cure out of which it is intended that the district recommended in such scheme to be constituted shall be taken, and such patron and Incumbent have respectively signified their assent to such scheme:

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council: now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Liverpool.
