Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury.

May 28, 1906,

Whitehall, June 5, 1906.

The KING has been pleased to issue a Commission under His Majesty's Royal Sign Manual to the following effect:—

EDWARD, R. & I.

EDWARD THE SEVENTH, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and of the British Dominions beyond the Seas King, Defender of the Faith, to

Our right trusty and well-beloved Councillor Sir Edward Fry, Knight, late one of Our Lords Justices of Appeal;

Our right trusty and well-beloved Councillor Christopher Palles, Lord Chief Baron of the Exchequer Division of Our High Court of Justice in Ireland; and

Our trusty and well-beloved:—

Sir Thomas Raleigh, Knight Commander of Our Most Exalted Order of the Star of India, Doctor of Civil Law of Our University of Oxford, Fellow of All Souls College in Our said University;

Sir Arthur William Rücker, Knight, Principal of the University of London, Doctor of Laws, Fellow and late Secretary of the Royal Society of London;

Henry Jackson, Esquire, Doctor of Letters, Regius Professor of Greek in Our University of Cambridge;

Samuel Henry Butcher, Esquire, Doctor of Letters, late Professor of Greek in Our University of Edinburgh;

Douglas Hyde, Esquire, Doctor of Laws of Our University of Dublin;

Denis Joseph Coffey, Esquire, Master of Arts, Fellow of Our Royal University of Ireland; and Stephen Barnabas Kelleher, Esquire, Fellow of Trinity College in Our University of Dublin; Greeting!

Whereas by Warrant under Our Royal Sign Manual bearing date the first day of July, one thousand nine hundred and one, We were pleased to issue a Commission to inquire into the condition of the higher general and technical education available in Ireland outside Trinity College, Dublin, and to report as to what reforms, if any, were desirable in order to render that education adequate to the needs of the Irish People:

And whereas We have deemed it expedient that a further Commission should issue to inquire into and report upon the present state of Trinity College, Dublin, and of the University of Dublin, including the revenues of the College and of any of its officers and their application the method of government of the University and of the College; the system of instruction in the College and the teachers by whom it is conducted; the system of University examinations, and the provision made for post-graduate study and the encouragement of research; and also to inquire and report upon the place which Trinity College, Dublin, and the University of Dublin now hold as organs of the higher education in Ireland, and the steps proper to be taken to increase their usefulness to the country:

Now know ye that We, reposing great trust and confidence in your knowledge and ability, have nominated, constituted and appointed, and do by these Presents nominate, constitute and appoint you the said Sir Edward Fry (Chairman); Christopher Palles; Sir Thomas Raleigh; Sir Arthur William Rücker; Henry Jackson; Samuel Henry Butcher; Douglas Hyde; Denis Joseph Coffey; and Stephen Barnabas Kelleher to be Our Commissioners for the purposes of the said inquiry.

And for the better effecting the purposes of this Our Commission, We do by these Presents give and grant unto you, or any three or more of you, full power to call before you such persons as you shall judge likely to afford you any information upon the subject of this Our Commission; and also to call for, have access to, and examine all such books, documents, registers and records as may afford you the fullest information on the subject; and to inquire of and concerning the premises by all other lawful ways and means whatsoever.

And We do by these Presents authorize and empower you, or any three or more of you, to visit and personally inspect such places as you may deem it expedient so to inspect for the more effectual carrying out of the purposes aforesaid, and to employ such persons as you may think fit to assist you in conducting any inquiry which you may hold.

And We do by these Presents will and ordain that this, Our Commission, shall continue in full force and virtue, and that you, Our said Commissioners, or any three or more of you, may from time to time, proceed in the execution thereof and of every matter and thing therein contained, although the same be not continued from time to time by adjournment.

And We do further ordain that you, or any three or more of you, have liberty to report your proceedings under this Our Commission from time to time, if you shall judge it expedient so to do.

And We do further ordain that you shall be at liberty so far as proper for the purposes of your said inquiry, to consider the reports of the before mentioned Commission of the first day of July, one thousand nine hundred and one, and the notes appended thereto, and also the evidence taken before the said Commission, but shall not take evidence upon matters inquired into by the said Commission.

And Our further will and pleasure is that you do, with as little delay as possible, report to Us under your hands and seals, or under the hands and seals of any three or more of you, your opinion upon the matters herein submitted for your consideration.

Given at Our Court at Saint James's, the second day of June, 1906, in the sixth year of Our Reign.

H. J. Gladstone.

SKIPTON (MARKETS AND SALES) ORDER OF 1906.

The Board of Agriculture and Fisheries, by virtue and in exercise of the powers vested in them under the Diseases of Animals Acts, 1894 to 1903, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:

Regulation of Sales of Animals within the Urban District of Skipton.

1. From and after the commencement of this Order—

(i.) No animal shall be exposed for sale in or upon any road or street in the Urban District of Skipton, in the administrative county of the West Riding of the county of York; and (ii.) No market or sale of animals shall be held in or upon any saleyard or other premises in the said Urban District unless the premises, or a part thereof sufficient to accommodate the number of animals usually exposed at such market or sale, are so paved with cement, concrete, asphalt, or other hard material impervious to water, as to permit of the same being effectually cleansed by washing.

Local Authority to enforce Order.

2. The provisions of this Order, except where it is otherwise provided, shall be executed and enforced by the Local Authority.

Offences.

3. If any animal is exposed for sale, or any market or sale of animals is held, in contravention of this Order, the person exposing the animal or holding the market or sale, and the owner or consignee of each animal exposed at the market or sale and the person exposing the same thereat and the purchaser thereof of any animal knowing the market or sale to be held in contravention as aforesaid, shall, each according to and in respect of his own acts and defaults, be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1894.

Interpretation.

4. In this Order, unless the context otherwise requires—
 "Animals" means cattle, sheep, and goats, and all other ruminating animals, and swine :
 "The Act of 1894" means the Diseases of Animals Act, 1894 :
 Other terms have the same meaning as in the Act of 1894.

Commencement.

5. This Order shall come into operation on the first day of July, nineteen hundred and six.

Local Government Provisional Orders (Gas).

LIVERPOOL (FAZAKERLEY) GAS ORDER.

Amendment of Order in respect of the Site to be used for the Construction and Maintenance of Gasworks.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that the above-mentioned Order has been amended in the House of Commons by substituting for the lands originally described in the schedule to that Order the lands hereinafter described, so as to empower the Corporation of Liverpool to construct and maintain gasworks on the said last-mentioned lands (that is to say):—

A piece of land situate in the township of Fazakerley, in the city, bounded on the north by the Fazakerley and North Mersey branch of the Lancashire and Yorkshire Railway, on the south in part by land in occupation of James West, and in other part by land in occupation of Robert Stubbart, and extending eastward from Barlow's lane to and bounded on the east by an accommodation road leading from Longmoor-lane to the Railway Signal Works, and containing $3\frac{1}{2}$ acres or thereabouts.

Plans of the said lands have been deposited for public inspection with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Lancaster at his office at Preston, and with the Town Clerk of the city of Liverpool at his office. Copies of the said plan have also been deposited at the Parliament Office of the House of Lords, the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons, and at the offices of the Local Government Board.

The Gas and Water Works Facilities Act, 1870, provides that if while a Bill for confirming a Provisional Order made under that Act is pending in either House of Parliament a petition is presented against any Provisional Order comprised therein, the Bill, so far as it relates to the Order petitioned against, may be referred to a Select Committee, and the petitioner shall be allowed to appear and oppose as in the case of a Bill for a special Act.

Dated this 31st day of May, 1906.
