ORDER of the Local Government Board:
District Auditor: Assignment of Duties and District:—

SOUTH-WESTERN COUNTIES AUDIT DISTRICT.

To John O'Neill, District Auditor;—

To the County Councils of the several Administrative Counties named in the Schedule to this Order;—

To the Visiting Committees of any lunatic asylums belonging wholly or in part to one or more of the County Councils named in the said Schedule and not belonging in part to any other County Council;—

To the Council of the Isles of Scilly and to the Overseers of the Poor of the parishes of Bryher, Saint Agnes, Saint Martin's, Saint Mary's and Tresco, which are included in the said Isles;—

And to all others whom it may concern.

Whereas by Section 4 of the District Auditors Act, 1879, it is enacted that the Local Government Board may from time to time assign to District Auditors their Duties, and the Districts in which such Auditors respectively are to act, and may from time to time change wholly or in part such Duties or Districts;

And whereas John O'Neill is a District Auditor duly appointed under the provisions of the Statutes in that behalf;

Now therefore, We, the Local Government Board, hereby certify the appointment to the office of District Auditor of the said John O'Neill (hereinafter referred to as "the District Auditor"), and do Order and Prescribe as follows:—

ARTICLE I.—It shall be the duty of the District Auditor to audit the Accounts of the following Authorities and of their Officers; namely:—

- (1.) The County Councils of the several Administrative Counties named in the Schedule to this Order.
- (2.) The Visiting Committee of any lunatic asylum belonging wholly, or in part, to one or more of the said County Councils, and not belonging in part to any other County Council.

(3.) Any Joint Committee consisting of representatives of two or more of the said County Councils, or of representatives of one or more of the said County Councils and of other persons not being representatives of any other County Council.

(4.) The Council of the Isles of Scilly and the Overseers of the Poor of the parishes of Bryher, Saint Agnes, Saint Martin's, Saint Mary's and Tresco, which are included in the said Isles.

(5.) Such of the Visiting Committees of lunatic asylums or Joint Committees including representatives of the County Council of one or more of the said counties and representatives of the County Council or Councils of some other county or counties as we may by Order hereafter prescribe.

ARTICLE II.—The District Auditor shall audit the said Accounts according to the provisions of the several Statutes and of the Orders issued by competent authority in force for the time being in that behalf, and shall perform all such duties and exercise all such powers in connection with the audit of such Accounts as are prescribed and conferred by the said Statutes and Orders.

ARTICLE III.—The District in which the District Auditor shall act as Auditor, and which We hereby assign to him for the performance of his duties under this Order, shall be termed "The South-Western Counties Audit District," and shall, until We otherwise prescribe, comprise the area for the time being subject to the jurisdiction of the County Councils of the several Administrative Counties named in the Schedule to this Order, and the areas within which the Council of the Isles of Scilly, and any such body as is referred to in paragraph (5) of Article I of this Order may exercise authority.

ARTICLE IV.—Any Order in force assigning a District to the District Auditor for the discharge of his duties or prescribing his duties, shall, from and after the date upon which this Order shall come into operation, be rescinded, but nothing in this Order shall affect or interfere with the existing duties and powers of the District Auditor as regards any Audit or any matters or proceedings already commenced.

ARTICLE V.—This Order shall come into operation on the sixteenth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and six.

ORDER OF THE BOARD OF AGRICULTURE AND FISHERIES.

(DATED 10TH JULY 1906.)

NEWPORT (SALOP) (SWINE - FEVER) PROHIBITION OF MOVEMENT (AMENDMENT) ORDER OF 1906.

The Board of Agriculture and Fisheries, by virtue and in exercise of the powers vested in them under the Diseases of Animals Acts, 1894 to 1903, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:

Movement with Licence direct to Bacon Factory or Slaughterhouse.

1. The Newport (Salop) (Swine-Fever) Prohibition of Movement Order of 1906 shall not, after the commencement of this Order, apply to, or be deemed to prohibit, the movement of swine direct to a bacon factory or slaughterhouse, if accompanied by a Licence authorising such movement granted by an Inspector of the Local Authority of the district in which the bacon factory or slaughterhouse is situate, and subject to the following conditions, namely:—

- (i.) The swine shall be marked by and at the expense of the owner by painting with an indelible composition of red colour of a broad line down the back and another broad line across the loins of each of the swine thus +, each line being not less than nine inches long;
- (ii.) The swine shall, so far as is practicable, be moved by railway, and during such movement shall not be permitted to come in contact with swine not marked under this Article;
- (iii.) The swine shall, while being moved along, over, or across any highway or thoroughfare, be confined in a van or float;
- (iv.) The swine shall after their arrival at the bacon factory or slaughterhouse be there detained until they are slaughtered.

Licences after the Completion of Movement.

2. Where swine are moved with a Licence under this Order to any bacon factory or slaughterhouse the Licence shall forthwith after completion of the movement be delivered up at, or sent by post to, the nearest Police Station by the person in charge of the swine at the time of completing the said movement.

General Provisions as to Movement.

3.—(1.) Swine being moved under this Order shall be moved by the nearest available route and without unnecessary delay to the bacon factory or slaughterhouse specified in the Licence, and not elsewhere.

(2.) This Order does not authorise movement of swine in a Swine-Fever Infected Place, or of swine the movement of which is prohibited by notice of an Inspector of a Local Authority or of the Board given under any Order of the Board.

Production of Licences: Names and Addresses.

4.—(1.) Any person in charge of a pig being moved, where under this Order a Licence is necessary, shall on demand of a Justice, or of a constable, or of an Inspector or other officer of the Board or of a Local Authority, produce and show to him the Licence, if any, authorising the movement, and shall allow it to be read and a copy of or extract from it to be taken by the person to whom it is produced.

(2.) Any person so in charge shall, on demand as aforesaid, give his name and address to the Justice, or constable, or Inspector or other officer.

Offences.

5.—(1.) If a person in charge of a pig being moved, where under this Order a Licence is necessary, on demand made under this Order, fails to give his true name and address or gives a false name or address, he shall be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1894.

(2.) If any person, with a view unlawfully to evade or defeat the operation of this Order, by washing, or in any other manner, takes out, effaces, or obliterates, or attempts to take out, efface, or obliterate, any mark painted on any pig, as required by this Order, the person doing the same, and the person causing, directing, or permitting the same to be done, and the owner of the pig, and the person for the time being in charge thereof, shall, each according to and in respect of his own acts and defaults, be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1894.

(3.) If any person fail to deliver up or send a Licence as required by this Order, he shall be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1894.

Interpretation.

6. In this Order, unless the context otherwise requires:

"Bacon factory" means premises in which the business of a curer of bacon is carried on:

"Slaughterhouse" means any premises where animals are habitually slaughtered:

"Swine-Fever Infected Place" means a place for the time being declared to be infected with swine-fever under any Order of the Board:

"Inspector" includes Veterinary Inspector:

"The Board" means the Board of Agriculture and Fisheries:

"The Act of 1894" means the Diseases of Animals Act, 1894.

Commencement.

7. This Order shall come into operation on the fourteenth day of July, nineteen hundred and six.

Short Title.

8. This Order may be cited as the NEWPORT (SALOP) (SWINE-FEVER) PROHIBITION OF MOVEMENT (AMENDMENT) ORDER OF 1906, and shall be read as one with the Newport (Salop) (Swine-Fever) Prohibition of Movement Order of 1906.

In witness whereof the Board of Agriculture and Fisheries have hereunto set their Official Seal this tenth day of July, nineteen hundred and six.

T. H. Elliott,
Secretary.

Copies of the above Order can be obtained on application to the Secretary, Board of Agriculture and Fisheries, 4, Whitehall Place, London, S. W.

INCOME TAX.

Whereas it has become necessary to renew the list of persons to supply vacancies amongst the Commissioners appointed to act in the division of North Erpingham, in the county of Norfolk, as Commissioners for the general purposes of the Acts of Parliament for granting to His Majesty duties on profits arising from property, professions, trades, and offices: Now we, two of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, in pursuance of the powers vested in us in that behalf, do hereby convene a meeting of the Land Tax Commissioners for the county aforesaid, being respectively qualified to act as such Commissioners, to be holden at the Court House, Cromer, on Monday, the 30th day of July, 1906, at 11 o'clock in the forenoon, for the purpose of choosing fit and proper persons to be Commissioners to supply vacancies amongst the Commissioners for the general purposes of the Income Tax for the division of North Erpingham aforesaid.

By Order,

Dated the 11th July, 1906.

LEYTON URBAN DISTRICT COUNCIL.

TRAMWAYS, BYE-LAWS.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Urban District Council of Leyton, being the Promoters of the tramways in the Urban District of Leyton, at a Meeting held on the 26th June, 1906, made, pursuant to the powers conferred upon them by the Tramways Act, 1870, certain Bye-laws in reference to tramways, of which the following is a copy, viz.:—

Interpretation.

1. Throughout these Bye-laws the word "Council" means the Leyton Urban District Council, and shall include any lessees or persons for the time being working the tramway system hereinafter referred to; the word "Tramways" means the tramway system worked by the Council; the word "Car" means any carriage or car run by the Council upon the tramways for the conveyance of passengers; the word "Conductor" means any officer or servant of the Council having charge of or helping in the charge of a car; and the word "Driver" means any officer or servant of the Council driving or assisting to drive a car.

Penalty.

2. Any person infringing any of the following Bye-laws shall be liable to a penalty of not exceeding (40s.) forty shillings, and in case of a continuing offence to a penalty of not exceeding ten shillings, in addition to the first-mentioned penalty, for every day during which such offence continues.

Offensive Language or Conduct.

3. No person shall swear or use obscene or offensive language or conduct himself offensively whilst in or upon any car, or spit, or commit any nuisance in or upon or against any car or tramway station or premises used in connection with the tramway system, or in any way wilfully interfere with the comfort of any passenger. No person shall sing or play or perform upon any musical instrument, or distribute advertisements, pamphlets, notices, handbills, or tracts of any kind, or beg or collect money, alms or subscriptions, or sell any article, or play any game, or gamble, or paste notices or handbills, or deposit remnants of food or fruit in or upon any car.

Objectionable Persons.

4. Any person who is in a state of intoxication, or who from that or any other cause is, in the opinion of the conductor, unfit to be a passenger on a car, shall not be allowed to board or enter upon any car, and if any such person be found in or upon any car he shall be requested by the conductor to leave the car, failing which, it shall be lawful for the conductor or any other officer or servant of the Council to remove such person from the car. Any person whose dress or clothing might, in the opinion of the conductor, soil or injure the linings or cushions of a car, or the dress or clothing of any passenger, shall not be entitled to enter or remain in or upon any car.

Dogs, etc.

5. No person shall take a dog or other animal into or upon any car. Any dog or other animal taken into or found in or upon any car shall be removed by the person in charge thereof from the car immediately upon request by the Conductor.

Damaging Cars.

6. No person shall wilfully cut, tear, soil, or damage the seats, cushions, curtains, or linings, or remove or deface any number plate, printed or other notice, in or on any car, or break or scratch any window of, or otherwise wilfully damage any car. Any person acting in contravention of this Bye-law shall be liable, in addition to the penalty prescribed by these Bye-laws, for the amount of any damage so done.

Smoking.

7. No person shall smoke or carry lighted pipes, cigars, or cigarettes in or upon any car, except on such seats outside the car as may be specially set apart for persons smoking or desirous of so doing.

Payment of Fares.

8. Each passenger shall, before leaving the car, or immediately upon demand by the conductor, if such demand shall be first made, pay to the conductor the fare legally payable for his journey and obtain a ticket therefor. Any person leaving a car shall be deemed to have completed his journey.

No child under five years of age who is sitting on the lap of a passenger shall be liable to pay a fare.

Tickets.

9. Each passenger shall, immediately upon demand, produce and hand his ticket to any duly authorized officer or servant of the Council, and shall also, when required so to do, either deliver up his ticket or pay the fare for the distance travelled over by such passenger.

Tickets shall not be transferable, and shall be available only by the car on which they are issued.

Interference with or Obstruction to Conductor, Driver, or other Servant.

10. No person other than the conductor or driver shall change or remove the route indicators or destination boards, or interfere with the controllers, brakes, lights, ventilators, trolley cord, or any part of a car, or its equipment, or any switch or point connected with the tramway track, or any frog-rope or other appliance or attachment to the equipment of the tramways, or signal a car to start. Any person acting in contravention of this Bye-law shall, in addition to the penalty prescribed by these Bye-laws, be liable for and pay for any damage so caused or done.

No passenger or other person shall wilfully obstruct or impede any officer or servant of the Council in the execution of his duty upon or in any car or tramway of the Council.

Luggage.

11. No luggage which, in the opinion of the conductor, from its size or otherwise, is unsuitable for conveyance in or upon a car shall be taken in or upon such car. Any personal luggage carried by passengers shall be placed in such part of the car as the conductor may direct, and if placed on a platform of the car shall be carried at the owner's risk. No package or luggage of any description, unaccompanied by a passenger, shall be conveyed upon any car, except under any regulations or restrictions which the Council may adopt.

Entering Full Cars.

12. When any car, or the inside or outside of a car, or any compartment of a car contains the full number of passengers which it is licensed to carry, no additional person shall enter, board, or remain in or upon any such car or portion of such car. The conductor shall not permit any person beyond the licensed number of passengers to enter, board, or remain in or upon any part of a car. All such persons shall leave the car immediately upon the request of the conductor.

Disabled Cars.

13. If at any time a car becomes disabled, or in any way injured, or from any cause unable to proceed, the passengers shall, upon the request of the conductor, leave the same, and, if such passengers have paid their fares, shall not be entitled to demand back the amount of their fares so paid. No person shall, except with the leave of the conductor, enter a disabled or injured car.

Travelling on Steps, etc.

14. No person, not being an officer or servant of the Council, shall travel or ride on the steps, platforms, outside rails, buffers, or guards of any car, and no person, not being an officer or servant of the Council, shall stand either on the platforms or on the outside of any car, or except in accordance with the regulations of the Council exhibited upon such car, in the interior of a car.

No person except a passenger or intending passenger shall enter or board a car, and no person shall hold or hang on by or to any part of a car.

Firearms, etc.

15. No person shall travel in or on any car with firearms, or dangerous or offensive articles, instruments, tools, or implements: Provided that nothing contained in this Bye-law shall apply to persons in the Naval, Military, Reserve, or Auxiliary Forces, travelling in uniform, carrying unloaded firearms.

Entering and Leaving Cars.

16. Every person shall enter or depart from a car by the step of the hindermost or conductor's platform, and not otherwise, unless so directed by the conductor.

All persons desiring to alight from any car shall do so before any person boards the car for the purpose of travelling thereon, and all persons desiring to board the car shall permit such persons to alight as aforesaid.

Entering a Car when in Motion.

17. No person shall enter, board, or leave, or attempt to enter, board, or leave any car whilst in motion.

Persons Suffering from Disease Not to Travel on Cars.

18. No person afflicted with any infectious or contagious disease shall board, enter, or travel on any car, or attempt so to do. And no driver or conductor shall suffer or permit any such person so to do.

Power to Remove Passengers Committing Offence.

19. Any person who shall commit, whilst on any car, any legal offence, or any breach of these Bye-laws, shall, in addition to being liable to a penalty, be liable to be immediately removed from the car, and, if such person shall have paid his fare, he shall not be entitled to demand back the amount of his fare so paid.

20. There shall be placed and kept placed in a conspicuous position in each car in use on the tramways a printed copy of these Bye-laws.

The Seal of the Leyton Urban District Council was affixed hereto at a Meeting of the said Council on the 26th day of June, 1906, in the presence of

A. W. GOLIGHTLY, Chairman.
R. VINCENT, Clerk.

In the Matter of the WIGAN COAL AND IRON CO. Limited, and in the Matter of the Companies (Memorandum of Association) Act, 1890.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a petition was, on the 27th day of April, 1906, presented to His Majesty's High Court of Justice by the above named Company to confirm a Special Resolution of the Company passed at a General Meeting of the said Company held on the 21st day of February, 1906, and subsequently confirmed at a General Meeting of the said Company held on the 16th day of March, 1906, which Resolution is as follows:—

(1) That the provisions of the Memorandum of Association of the Company with respect to the Company's objects be altered by substituting for the sub-clauses of clause 3 of such Memorandum of Association the sub-clauses appearing in the print submitted to this Meeting and headed "A," and which for the purposes of identification is signed by the Chairman. The sub-clauses appearing in the said print headed "A" are as follows:—

"(a) To purchase, take on lease, and work coal, iron, limestone, and other mines, quarries, and minerals. (b) To work and carry on the several collieries and ironworks, called respectively 'The Haigh Collieries,' 'The Kirkless Hall Coal and Iron Works,' 'The Standish and Shevington Works,' 'The Broomfield Colliery,' and 'The Clock Face Collieries,' all situate in or near Wigan, in the county of Lancaster, and the 'Manton Colliery,' situate in the county of Nottingham, and all extensions thereof respectively, and all other the works and concerns for the time being belonging to the Company. (c) To make steel, and to smelt, roll, and forge and deal with iron and steel and other metallic substances, and to carry on the business of iron founding and all other branches of business in any way connected with or incidental to the manufacture of iron and steel and other metallic substances. (d) To carry on generally all or any of the trades or businesses of colliery proprietors, iron and steel masters, workers of limestone, coke, and lime burners, miners, smelters, brick, tile, and flag makers, farmers, waggon and truck builders, millwrights, boiler-makers, wire-drawers, builders of ships, boats, and steamers, makers and sellers of gas, electricity, and other power, and patent manure, bye-products arising in the process of coke, iron, and steel making engineers, and coal, coke, and fuel merchants in all their respective branches, and to search for, get, work, raise, make merchantable, purchase, manufacture, sell, and deal in coal, coke, and other fuel, iron, iron ore, ironstone, shale, brick-earth, fire-clay, bricks, tiles, and other minerals, metals, and substances, or any combination or product thereof, farm produce, cattle, sheep, and horses, and to manufacture, purchase, and sell patent fuel. (e) To sell water for domestic and other purposes. (f) To acquire, undertake, and carry on the whole or any part of the trade or business, property, and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any business which this Company is authorised to carry on, or which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the business of the Company, or calculated directly or indirectly to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights. (g) To sell, exchange, improve, manage, develop, lease on rent, royalty, share of profits or otherwise mortgage, dispose of absolutely or conditionally, or for any limited interest turn to account or otherwise deal with and to accept surrenders of all or any part of the property or rights of the Company, or any right or interest over the same, with power to sell in consideration of a chief rent or chief rents. To develop and turn to account any lands acquired by or in which the Company is interested, and in particular by constructing, altering, pulling down, maintaining, fitting up, and improving buildings, conveniences, ovens, furnaces, works, and plant, and by draining, cultivating, letting on building lease or building agreement, and by advancing money to and entering into contracts and arrangements of all kinds with builders, lessees, tenants, and others. (h) To purchase or otherwise acquire any patents, brevets d'invention, licenses, concessions, and the like, conferring any exclusive or non-exclusive or limited right to use any invention which may seem capable of being used for any of the purposes of the Company, or the acquisition of which may seem calculated directly or indirectly to benefit the Company, and to use, exercise, develop, or grant licenses in respect of or otherwise turn to account the property and rights so acquired. (i) To enter into any arrangements with any authorities, municipal, local, or otherwise, that may seem conducive to the Company's objects, or any of them, and to obtain from any such authority any rights, privileges, and concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions. (j) To erect, construct, improve, maintain, alter, work, manage, carry out, or control any buildings, roads, ways, machinery, tramways, railways, branches, or sidings, reservoirs, watercourses, wharves, manufacturing, warehouses, electric works, shops, and stores; to sink pits, drive headings, make borings, and to construct other works and conveniences which may seem calculated directly or indirectly to advance the Company's interests, and contribute to subsidise or otherwise assist or take part in any such operations. (k) To make, accept, indorse, and execute promissory notes, bills of exchange, and other negotiable instruments. (l) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concession, or mutual indemnity against any kind of risk, or otherwise, with any person, partnership, or Company, carrying on, or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in any business or transaction which this Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as to directly or indirectly to benefit this Company. (m) To take by subscription, or purchase, or otherwise acquire and hold shares or stock in any Company in which the liability of members shall be limited, and having objects or purposes of a like or kindred nature, with those of the Company or any of them, or calculated to benefit the property or business of the Company or otherwise. (n) To amalgamate with any other Company carrying on any business included in the objects of this Company. (o) To sell the undertaking, business, goodwill, and all or any part of the assets of the Company as a going concern for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular either wholly or partially for shares, stock, debentures or securities of or in any other Company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company. (p) To promote any other Company for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property and liabilities of this Company or for any other purpose which may seem directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit this Company. (q) To purchase, take on lease or in exchange, hire or otherwise acquire and surrender any real and personal property, and any rights or privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purpose of its business, and in particular any land, buildings, collieries, mines, easements, machinery, plant, rolling stock and stock-in-trade, and to pay for any property or rights or privileges or other act or service done or rendered to the Company or benefit acquired by the Company wholly or partly in shares of the Company or in cash or in any other manner. (r) To invest all moneys from time to time set apart as a reserve fund and all other moneys of the Company not immediately required in the purchase of ordinary or preference shares or stock or debenture stock of or in any railway, canal or Power Company, or upon such other securities and in such manner as may from time to time be determined, and to sell, hold or otherwise deal with the same. (s) To receive money on deposit at interest or otherwise from customers and others having dealings with the Company. (t) To guarantee the performance of contracts by members of or persons having dealings with the Company, and by other persons. (u) To borrow or raise from time to time for the purpose of the Company, any sum or sums of money on mortgage of its property and assets (both present and future), or any part thereof, including its uncalled capital, or by the issue of bonds or debentures or debenture stock, payable to bearer or otherwise, or in all or any of such ways, and at such rate of interest on such terms as to price or rate of issue, time of repayment and otherwise as the Company shall think fit, including a right for the holders of any such securities to exchange the same for shares or stock in the Company, and in like manner to give security for any money payable by the Company. (v) To insure the Company or all or any of the servants of the Company against risk by accident occurring to such servants in the course of employment by the Company or otherwise, and to pay any premiums on such insurance and to make arrangements (either by entering into partnership with any person or persons, or becoming a member of any Company or Companies formed for the purpose of mutual indemnity or otherwise), so as to indemnify the Company against liability in respect of accidents as aforesaid. (w) To establish and support or aid in the establishment and support of associations for the benefit of (amongst others), persons employed by or having dealings with the Company, or the children or other relatives of such persons, and in particular hospitals, friendly societies, reading rooms, libraries, educational institutions, institutions for recreation, and technical, elementary, and other schools, and to subscribe or guarantee money for charitable or benevolent objects, or for any exhibition, or for any public, general, or useful object, and to grant pensions and allowances to or for persons who are or have been employed by the Company or persons related to or connected with any such employees. (x) To do all or any of the above things as principals, agents, contractors, trustees, or otherwise, and by or through trustees, agents, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others. (y) To maintain existing agencies, and to establish and regulate in the United Kingdom and elsewhere additional agencies, and to act as agents of any affiliated or other company or companies for any of the purposes of the Company. (z) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects." And notice is further given, that the said petition is directed to be heard before the Honourable Mr. Justice Swinfen Eady, on Tuesday, the 7th day of August, 1906, and any person interested in the said Company whether as creditor, shareholder, or otherwise, desirous to oppose the making of an Order for the confirmation of the said resolution under the above Act should appear at the time of hearing by himself, or his Counsel, for that purpose, and a copy of the petition will be furnished to any person being a creditor or shareholder of, or otherwise interested in the said Company requiring the same by the undersigned, the Solicitors of the said Company, on payment of the regulated charges for the same.—Dated this 12th day of July, 1906.

In the Matter of the HORSE CARRIAGE AND GENERAL INSURANCE COMPANY Limited, and in the Matter of the Companies (Memorandum of Association) Act, 1890.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a petition was presented to the High Court of Justice, Chancery Division, on the 21st day of June, 1906, for confirmation by the Court, under the Companies (Memorandum of Association) Act, 1890, of a Special Resolution, as follows:—"That the Company be authorized to undertake all or any of the following business:—(g) To grant, make, effect or procure insurances and re-insurances, against or upon the contingency of death, injury, damage or loss by reason of accident or any other cause of Horses, Cattle and other animals and against or upon the contingency of injury or damage to human beings or injury, damage or loss of real or personal property of any kind by reason of accident or any other cause, and whether the person or object insured be stationary or in transit or on land or at sea, and against loss or damage by fire, against marine risks, against burglary and theft, against loss of health, against loss of goods, against calls, against diminution of dividends or income, against loss of profit, against loss or forfeiture of licenses, leases or other property or rights, and generally to carry on the business of an Accident, Guarantee, Fire, Marine, Transit and General Insurance Company, and insurance and re-insurance in all its branches (life insurance excepted). (h) To carry on and transact every kind of guarantee business, and indemnity business, every kind of counter-guarantee and counter-indemnity business. (i) To contract with any person or persons, and in particular with leaseholders, borrowers, lenders, annuitants and others, for the establishment, accumulation, provision and payment of sinking funds, redemption funds, depreciation funds, renewal funds, endowment funds, and any other special funds, and that in consideration either of a lump sum, or of an annual premium or otherwise, and generally on such terms and conditions as may be arranged. (j) To undertake the office of trustee, receiver and liquidator, whether official or otherwise, executor, administrator, committee manager, attorney, delegate, substitute, treasurer and any offices or situations of trust or confidence, and to perform and discharge the duties and functions incident thereto, and generally to transact all kinds of trust and agency business. (k) To carry on any of the businesses which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the above, or calculated directly or indirectly to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights. (l) To sell the undertaking of the Company, or any part thereof, for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, stock, debentures or securities of any other Company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company. (m) To raise or borrow money in such manner and on such terms as may seem expedient and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, whether perpetual or otherwise, and charged or not charged upon the whole or any part of the property of the Company, both present and future, including its uncalled capital. (n) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects." The said petition is directed to be heard before his Lordship, Mr. Justice Swinfen Eady on the 28th day of July, 1906. Any creditors of the Company desiring to object to the making of an order confirming the said Special Resolution, are, on or before the 21st day of July, 1906, to give notice, in writing, to the undersigned Solicitors of the Company, of their Christian and surnames, addresses and descriptions, and of their objections to the making of the said order.
