

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant and convey to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Lingen, in the county of Hereford, and in the diocese of Hereford, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, all that piece or parcel of land and hereditaments, together with the appurtenances thereto belonging, particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed, and now vested in us: To have and to hold the said piece or parcel of land and hereditaments with their appurtenances to the use of the said Incumbent and his successors for ever. Provided always, that the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage of Lingen, shall be entitled to receive from us, or on our account, the net amount of the rents, profits, and proceeds of the said piece or parcel of land and hereditaments hereby granted for and in respect of the period intervening between the third day of January, in the year one thousand nine hundred and six, and the date of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette.

(L. S.) In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-sixth day of July, in the year one thousand nine hundred and six.

Schedule.

All that piece or parcel of land comprising three acres one rood and eleven perches or thereabouts, situated in the parish of Lingen, in the county of Hereford, and numbered 257 on the tithe map of the same parish, which said piece or parcel of land is bounded on the north by an Occupation-road, leading to Lingen, on the east by a portion of the glebe land belonging to the benefice, and by land belonging to Mrs. Caroline Gisborne, on the south by land belonging to Miss M. A. Webb, and on the west partly by land belonging to Miss M. A. Webb and partly by another portion of the glebe land belonging to the benefice, all which firstly mentioned piece of land is delineated on the plan hereunto annexed and is thereon coloured red.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction consisting of a certain house and premises which have been permanently secured by deed, dated the eleventh day of July, in the year one thousand nine hundred and six, as a parsonage or house of residence for the consolidated chapelry and benefice (hereinafter called the benefice) of All Saints, Llanbradach, in the county of Glamorgan, and in the diocese of Llandaff, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant out of our common fund to the said benefice of All Saints, Llanbradach, to meet such benefaction, one capital sum of seven hundred pounds, in respect of which, so long as the same capital sum, or any part thereof, shall remain in our hands, there shall be paid by us to the Incumbent for the time being of the said benefice one yearly sum of twenty-one pounds or such part thereof as shall be proportionate to any balance of the same capital sum which shall so remain in our hands; the above-mentioned yearly payment to commence as from the eleventh day of July, in the year one thousand nine hundred and six, and to be receivable in equal quarterly portions on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and on the first day of November in each and every year.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-sixth day of July, in the year one thousand nine hundred and six.

(L. S.) WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction consisting of a piece or parcel of land comprising four thousand six hundred and twenty-two square yards or thereabouts, which has been permanently secured by deed, dated the twenty-first day of July, in the year one thousand nine hundred and six, as a site for a parsonage or house of residence for the vicarage of Llanfihangel-y-Pennant, in the county of Merioneth, and in the diocese of Bangor, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the said vicarage of Llanfihangel-y-Pennant, to meet such benefaction, one capital sum of five hundred pounds, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of providing a parsonage or house of residence for the said vicarage, according to plans and a specification approved or to be approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of two pounds and ten shillings per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage of Llanfihangel-y-Pennant.

(L. S.) In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-sixth day of July, in the year one thousand nine hundred and six.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction consisting of a piece or parcel of land comprising one thousand seven hundred and fifty square yards or thereabouts, which has been permanently secured by deed, dated the twenty-third day of July, in the year one thousand nine hundred and six, as a site for the parsonage or house of residence for the consolidated chapelry and benefice (hereinafter called the benefice) of Saint Philip, Nelson, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Manchester, and in consideration also of a further benefaction of three hundred pounds sterling, which has been paid to us in favour of the same benefice, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the said benefice of Saint Philip, Nelson, to meet the aforesaid benefactions, one capital sum of six hundred and ninety-three pounds to be applicable towards defraying the cost of providing a parsonage or house of residence for the said benefice according to plans and a specification approved or to be approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of two pounds and ten shillings per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said benefice of Saint Philip, Nelson.

(L. S.) In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-sixth day of July, in the year one thousand nine hundred and six.
