

and shall also, when required so to do by the conductor or other servant of the Electricity and Tramways Committee, acting in the performance of his duty, either deliver up his ticket or pay the fare legally demandable for the distance travelled over by such passenger.

Tickets shall not be transferable, and shall only be available by the car on which they are issued.

Artisans.

13. A passenger, not being an artisan, mechanic, or daily labourer within the true intent and meaning of the Acts of Parliament relating to the Corporation, shall not use, or attempt to use, any ticket intended for such artisans, mechanics or daily labourers, or travel or attempt to travel on the tramways as an artisan, mechanic, or daily labourer.

Luggage.

14. No passenger shall bring on to any car any luggage other than his own personal luggage, and any such personal luggage shall be carried at the responsibility of the passenger, and shall be placed by the passenger in such position on the car as shall be directed by the conductor, and shall not exceed 28lbs. in weight.

In no case shall any luggage be put upon or occupy any part of a seat, or be of a form or description or character to annoy or inconvenience any other passenger.

Travelling on Steps, &c.

15. No passenger or other person, not being a servant of the Electricity and Tramways Committee acting in the performance of his duty, shall be permitted to travel or ride on the steps, platforms, outside rails, buffers or guards of any car, or sit on the outside rail on the outside of any car, or stand in any case on the outside, or, except by the express permission of the conductor first obtained, in the interior of any car.

No person, except a passenger or intending passenger, shall enter or board any car, and no person shall hold or hang on by or to any part of any car.

Full Number of Passengers.

16. When any car contains in the interior thereof the full number of passengers for which seating accommodation, according to the notice thereof attached to the car, is provided in such interior, no additional person shall enter, board, or remain therein, except by the express permission of the conductor first obtained.

When a car contains, on the outside thereof, the full number of passengers for which seating accommodation, according to the notice thereof attached to the car, is provided, on such outside, no person beyond such number shall enter, board, or remain thereon.

Entering or Leaving a Car When in Motion.

17. No person shall enter, board, or leave, or attempt to enter, board, or leave any car whilst in motion.

Dogs.

18. No dog or other animal shall be allowed in or on any car, except by permission of the conductor, nor in any case in which the conveyance of such dog or other animal might be offensive or an annoyance to passengers. No person shall take a dog or other animal into any car, after having been requested not to do so by the conductor. Any dog or other animal taken into or on any car in breach of this Bye-law, shall be removed by the person in charge of such dog or other animal from the car, immediately upon request by the conductor, and in default of compliance with such request, may be removed by, or under the direction of, the conductor.

Firearms, &c.

19. No person shall enter, board, or travel in or on any car with loaded firearms or any explosive substance, or with any article, instrument or implement, or any material or substance which may in the opinion of the conductor be dangerous or offensive to the passengers, provided that nothing in this Bye-law shall apply to persons in the Naval, Military, Reserve, or Auxiliary Forces carrying unloaded firearms.

Interference with the Conductor or Driver.

20. No person, other than the conductor, driver, or other servant of the Electricity and Tramways Committee acting in the performance of his duty, shall change or remove the route indicators or destination boards, or interfere with the controllers, brakes, lights, ventilators, or any part of a car, or its equipment.

Obstruction.

21. No person shall wilfully obstruct or impede any car, or obstruct or impede any conductor, driver, or other servant of the Electricity and Tramways Committee acting in the performance of his duty upon or in connection with any car or tramway.

Disabled Cars.

22. If at any time a car becomes disabled, or in any way injured, or from any cause unable to proceed, the passengers shall upon the request of the conductor, leave the same, and if such passengers have paid their fares, shall not be entitled to demand back the amount of their fares so paid, but on production of their tickets shall be allowed to travel by the next available car the remainder of the distance in respect of which they have paid their fares. No person shall, except with the leave of the conductor, enter a disabled or injured car.

Conductors and Drivers to Enforce Bye-laws.

23. Every conductor and driver shall, to the best of his ability, enforce these Bye-laws and Regulations and prevent the breach thereof; and if any such conductor or driver fails to enforce the same as aforesaid, he shall be deemed to have committed a breach thereof.

Removal of Persons Infringing Bye-laws.

24. Any person who shall whilst in or on any car, or tramway station, or premises, commit any legal offence or any breach of these Bye-laws shall, in addition to being liable to a penalty, be liable to be immediately removed from the car, or tramway station, or premises, and if such person shall have paid his fare shall not be entitled to demand back the amount of the fare so paid or any part thereof.

Penalty.

25. Any person offending against or committing a breach of any of these Bye-laws shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding forty shillings.

Repeal of Existing Bye-laws.

26. From and after the date of these Bye-laws coming into force, any Bye-laws and Regulations made in this behalf by the Lincoln Tramways Company Limited, at any time, shall be repealed.

Copy of Bye-laws to be kept in Cars.

27. There shall be placed and kept placed in a conspicuous position inside of each car in use a printed copy of these Bye-laws.

Operation.

28. These Bye-laws shall come into force on the 1st day of January, 1907.
