

And whereas the notices of the foregoing scheme, which are required by the hereinbefore mentioned Acts, have been given by the said Commissioners to the patrons of the said benefice of Clapham, and the said patrons have not made any objection to the said scheme.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council: now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Southwark.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 22nd day of October, 1906.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter eighty-four, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the twenty-sixth day of July, in the year one thousand nine hundred and six, in the words following, that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter eighty-four, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for apportioning the income of the benefice (being a rectory) of Croxby, in the county of Lincoln, and in the diocese of Lincoln, between that benefice and a certain other benefice, namely, the benefice (being a vicarage) of Market Rasen, which said last named benefice is situate in the said county of Lincoln, and in the said diocese of Lincoln.

“Whereas the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain for the time being, acting on behalf of Your Majesty, is Patron in right of the Crown of each of the said benefices of Croxby and Market Rasen.

“And whereas it has been made to appear to us that the said benefice of Market Rasen is at present insufficiently endowed, and that the said benefice of Croxby has endowments of such an amount that after the charge hereinafter recommended and proposed to be made shall have been placed upon the same endowments, the said benefice of Croxby will still be sufficiently endowed.

“And whereas it has been represented to us and we are of opinion that it is desirable that additional provision should be made for the cure of souls within the parish of Market Rasen by means of that apportionment of the income of the said benefice of Croxby which is hereinafter recommended and proposed.

“And whereas each of the said benefices of Croxby and Market Rasen is now full.

“Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend Edward, Bishop of Lincoln (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal), and with the consent of the Right Honourable Robert Threshie, Baron Loreburn, now Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that as from the day of the date of the next avoidance from whatever cause of the said benefice of Croxby and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same all the glebe lands and other endowments which belong or which may thereafter belong to the said benefice of Croxby shall be charged and be for ever thereafter chargeable in favour of the Incumbent for the time being of the said benefice of Market Rasen with the annual sum or yearly charge hereinafter mentioned, that is to say, a clear annual sum or yearly charge of one hundred and thirty pounds, the same annual sum or yearly charge of one hundred and thirty pounds to be as from the day aforesaid due and payable to the Incumbent of the same benefice of Market Rasen, and to be apportionable between any outgoing Incumbent of the said benefice of Croxby or his representatives on the one hand and his successors in the same Incumbency on the other hand, and to be receivable by the Incumbent in whose favour it is charged as aforesaid by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of May and the first day of November in every year.

“And we further recommend and propose that the Incumbent for the time being of the said benefice of Market Rasen shall have the following powers for recovering the said rent charge of one hundred and thirty pounds per annum hereby proposed to be created in favour of the benefice of which he is Incumbent as aforesaid (that is to say) power if and whenever any part of the said rent charge shall at any time be unpaid for twenty-one days after any of the times appointed for the payment thereof (although there shall not have been any legal demand made thereof) to enter into the receipt of the endowments charged therewith, or any part thereof, and to receive and take the same until he shall thereby or otherwise be paid and satisfied the same rent charge and the arrears thereof due at the time of such entry or afterwards become due during his being in possession of the same premises, together with all costs and expenses occasioned by the non-payment thereof, and for the purpose of collecting, receiving, and recovering such endowments, or any of them, to use, exercise and enjoy all such powers and remedies for collecting and recovering and enforcing payment thereof and of the annual sums payable for or towards the raising or making up the same as may be statutorily exercised or exercisable by him under the law then in force.

“Provided always that if at any time the Incumbent for the time being of the said benefice of Croxby shall by any deed duly executed by him under his hand and seal in accordance with the provisions of any statute in that behalf enabling him grant, convey, and annex to the said benefice of Market Rasen any part or parts of the Rectorial endowments belonging to the said benefice of Croxby which shall in the opinion of the Bishop of Lincoln for the time
